2 CENTS PAY NO MORE!

Chicago Daily Tribune

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

FINAL EDITION

VOLUME LXXXXI.—NO. 155 C (REG. U. S. PAT. OFFICE. COPYRIGHT 1932 BY THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.) WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1932.—30 PAGES THIS PAPER CONSISTS OF TWO SECTIONS—SECTION ONE * * PRICE TWO CENTS IN CHICAGO AND SUBURBS ELSEWHERE THREE CENTS

MAP ANTI-ROOSEVELT DRIVE

TELLS OF SEEING 2 KIDNAPERS OF LINDBERGH BABY

Says Curtis Pointed Them Out.

Norman T. Whitaker, ex-convict, arrested in New York and identified by Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean as the "Fox No. 19" involved in the swindle by which Gaston B. Means relieved her of $104,000 on a proposal to obtain the return of the Lindbergh baby. —Page 14.

BY TOM PETTEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Flemington, N. J., June 28.—[Special.]—Two sinister characters, named as the kidnapers of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's slain son, were described here today by a witness who said John Hughes Curtis had pointed them out to him. They were the mysterious kidnap gang leaders, "John" and "Dynamite" for whom Col. Lindbergh had searched from April 21 to May 12 along the Atlantic seaboard, but whom he had never so much as glimpsed.

The story of the trailing of the kidnapers was told by Edmond Bruce, an Almyria, N. Y., banker whose "hobby" is filming motion pictures. Mr. Bruce, an old time friend of Curtis, who is on trial here charged with hoaxing Col. Lindbergh when he knew the location and identity of the actual abductors, obviously, had come to the cross roads of his friendship with Curtis, and was reluctant to aid the defense on cross-examination.

Tells of Trip to Sea.

Bruce's dramatic statement followed close on the final testimony of Col. Lindbergh.

Most of Col. Lindbergh's three hours of testimony concerned his fifteen trips to sea on three boats—an unnamed yacht, the Marcon, and the deep sea boat Cachelot—and the unsuccessful efforts to make contact with a fishing boat on which Curtis had told him the kidnap gang was holding his baby.

High lights in the flyer's testimony included:

A statement that he did not believe Curtis knew anything about the actual kidnapers and was hoaxing him at all times.

The revelation that he had received "several" kidnap notes after the crime by mail and messenger and that they were each in the same German script handwriting and were signed by the same symbol appearing on the ransom note found in the nursery.

Col. Lindberg's own description of the symbol—two overlapping circles in blue, a smaller linking circle in red with three pin pricks in the center of the design.

Curtis' Account of Kidnaping.

The account of how the kidnaping was enacted, as told to him by Curtis.

Col. Lindbergh said Curtis advised him that "Hilda," the wife of the gang leader, gave the following account of the kidnaping:

"The job was done by John and a man named Eric. They went into the house through the nursery window, gave the baby chloroform and took the child through the pantry and out the front door, locking the pantry door behind them. The baby was carried to a green sedan several hundred feet to the right of the Hopewell home and placed in a crib or basket which was later shown to Curtis. The baby was taken directly to Cape May and put on the fishing boat. All of the letters were written by the German nurse."

Col. Lindbergh testified that Curtis had told him he was informed by "John" that one of the Lindbergh servants had helped in the kidnaping.

Betty Gow, the nurse, and Ollie Wheatley, the butler, were in the courtroom. They glared angrily at Curtis, who sat placidly mopping his brow and talking with his 11 year old daughter, Constance, who could not keep her eyes off Lindbergh's face.

Col. Lindbergh said he could not believe Curtis and told him so at the time. It was an hour later, however, before the defense lawyer, Lloyd Fisher, obtained from Lindbergh the statement that he considered the entire Curtis negotiations a hoax, done, according to Curtis, in order to sell the story to newspapers for thousands of dollars.

Hears Bruce's Story.

The colonel remained in the courtroom after he had completed his testimony and appeared intently interested in Bruce's story of seeing "John" and "Dynamite" in person.

"One night," testified Bruce in his low, haltingly ironic voice, "Curtis pointed out this man 'John' to me. He had a telephone message and we went over to 7th avenue in Manhat-

(Continued on page 14, column 1.)

NEWS SUMMARY

of The Tribune

[And Historical Scrap Book.]

Wednesday, June 29, 1932.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Roosevelt managers dicker for votes to put him over while Ritchie emerges as man on whom Roosevelt's opponents may unite for the presidential nomination. Page 1.

Democratic convention puts aside ballyhoo and bluster and settles down to work before eyes of 20,000 in Stadium. Page 1.

Battle impends on floor of convention today over prohibition issue as backers of wet plank prepare to press their demands. Page 1.

Senator Thomas J. Walsh, elected permanent chairman, makes no mention of prohibition in his address on "The State of the Nation." Page 2.

Convention applauds women's demands for fair play by votes against them. Page 3.

Rough draft of Democratic economy plank fails to meet the demands of National Organization to Reduce Public Expenditures. Page 4.

Gov. Ritchie of Maryland is hailed as outstanding Democratic candidate and the man who can beat Hoover next November. Page 4.

Senator Huey Long's delegates, backing Roosevelt, win seats at Democratic national convention. Page 5.

Huey Long meets rebuff in vote of Iowa delegates. Page 5.

Huey P. [Call Me Fish] Pegler dazzles convention with his long tail swing and logic of remarks. Page 6.

DOMESTIC.

Witness at hoax trial says John Hughes Curtis pointed out two men as members of Lindbergh kidnap gang. Page 1.

"Fox No. 19," aid of Gaston B. Means on McLean swindle, arrested in New York. Page 14.

LOCAL.

Three hour fight by firemen saves boy, 15, in quicksand at Montrose avenue beach. Page 1.

Former director testifies Bain officials made $20,000 profit on site bought for own bank. Page 11.

Opinion of security experts holds school board can reduce 1932 tax levy. Page 11.

Elevated lines placed in receivership; decline in traffic causes crisis. Page 11.

News of society. Page 15.

Death notices, obituaries. Page 22.

WASHINGTON.

Senate passes bill to save 165 millions; President to sign it. Page 7.

Senate lops 2 million off coast guard dry law fund. Page 7.

Chicago gains point in move for United States relief. Page 9.

FOREIGN.

Irish senate passes bill abolishing oath to king. Page 9.

Austria recalls shots at Sarajevo that began world war with pleas for monarchy. Page 10.

Franco-German discussions fail; may adjourn Lausanne parley. Page 10.

Bones of woman 1,000,000 years old, with "human" hands and "animal" feet, give clew to beginning of man. Page 13.

Chile may reject American offer of nitrate loan. Page 13.

SPORTS.

Late Date wins Arlington Bouquet purse by nose. Page 19.

Golden Gloves jobs open if champions slip. Page 19.

Vines last U. S. hope in singles at Wimbledon. Page 19.

Hungry cows, hungrier bass, add thrills to Scout cruise. Page 19.

Playfole, 12 to 1 shot, scores, in Aqueduct stake. Page 20.

Cubs return home for course in batting. Page 21.

Dash stars head Olympic semi-finals. Page 21.

Sox error show opens five day stand in St. Louis today. Page 21.

Notre Dame favors radio broadcasts football games. Page 21.

Braves close in on Cubs; beat Phillies, 5 to 2. Page 21.

EDITORIALS.

Is the Republic to Die of Seasickness?; Regulating the Regulators; Fur Sammons and the Law; Spending Our Money. Page 12.

FINANCE, COMMERCE.

Power company notes guaranteed by Saxony are not to be paid, but offer is made to refinance by exchanging them for new notes. Page 23.

First National Bank of Englewood puts interest rate at 2 per cent on saving into effect. Page 23.

American Can declares dividend, foresees better business; Santa Fe omits; Wall street stocks show more gains than losses. Page 23.

Farmers' National Grain corporation takes steps toward economy. Page 23.

Rails unsettle other issues in bond market trading. Page 24.

Want Ad index. Page 27.

Average net paid circulation of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE for May, 1932 DAILY in excess of 810,000

HE'S A FUNNY ANIMAL THAT WAY

ROOSEVELT
1. JUST WHEN YOU'VE GOT HIM ROPED —
ROOSEVELT GAINS
2. AND SADDLED AND PRACTICALLY CINCHED —
ANTI-ROOSEVELT REVOLT
3. THAT'S JUST THE BEGINNING FOR HIM.

Today's Tickets

Holders of tickets to the Democratic national convention will be admitted to the Chicago Stadium today on tickets marked "third session." Some doubt had arisen among the holders whether the third or the fourth session tickets were valid, as it had been indicated two sessions would be held yesterday. Only one was held and accordingly the session convening at noon today is regarded as the third.

CLOSE CONTEST FOR CONGRESS IN FLORIDA RUNOFF

Jacksonville, Fla., June 28.—(AP)—A duplication of the close race in the first primary three weeks ago developed tonight in the contest for congressman-at-large, as returns came in slowly from today's runoff Democratic primary.

With the ballots tabulated from 240 of the state's 1,273 precincts, former Representative T. J. Sears led Mayor John T. Alsop of Jacksonville by less than 1,000 votes. The count was Sears, 12,205; Alsop, 11,366. Both candidates advocated resubmission of the prohibition question.

Riding the crest of a campaign slogan, "take the government away from professional politicians," David Sholtz of Daytona Beach, former president of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce, maintained a better than 2 to 1 lead over former Gov. John W. Martin in the gubernatorial contest.

The vote from 487 precincts gave Sholtz, 54,883; Martin, 26,567. Shortly before midnight Martin conceded the nomination to Scholtz.

GRAF ZEPPELIN COMPLETES ITS 250TH SKY TRIP

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, June 28.—With a round trip flight today over Switzerland, circling Lake Geneva, the Graf Zeppelin completed its 250th flight.

It was using Maybach motors, with which it first took the air. They have driven it 261,000 miles in 4,200 flying hours. It has carried 16,000 persons, 13 tons of mail and more than 33 tons of freight.

Excepting Australia, the airship has flown over every continent, has crossed the North Atlantic six times and the South Atlantic 15 times. Yet it has never had to undergo any considerable repairs.

This Candidate Is Sure What He Wants Re Liquor

Houston, Tex., June 28.—[Special.]—Editor of THE TRIBUNE: The anti-saloon clause in the Democratic repeal plank is sheer damn bunk. What this country needs is a good 5 cent glass of beer. If the whole country could go on a roaring three day bender it would wake up out of this jack rabbit panic laughing and start business going again.

FRANK PUTNAM,
Repeal Candidate for Governor of Texas.

Fight 3 Hours to Rescue Boy in Quicksand

(Picture on page 10.)

For three hours last evening a 15 year old boy was imprisoned in quicksand at the Montrose avenue beach, his head barely above water, while firemen worked desperately to save him. Their efforts finally were successful and they dragged him to safety to the cheers of several hundred spectators.

The boy, Robert Bycroft, of 4824 Kenmore avenue, was given medical aid at the Lakeview hospital and then was taken home, apparently unharmed by his experience.

Police Close Beach.

Following the rescue, Lincoln Park police closed the beach to other bathers. The beach has been filled in and in spots is covered with pools of water a foot and more in depth. The foundation is insecure and it was while wading in one of these pools that Robert stepped into the quicksand.

His cries attracted other bathers and Sergt. George Johnstone of the park police, who notified the fire department. By the time Chief Frank Oswald and members of the 2nd battalion arrived, the boy was waist deep in the quick sand. Soon his head sank near the surface of the water in the pool.

Boy Urges Rescuers to Hurry.

Unable to get fire department apparatus nearer to the imprisoned boy than 500 feet, several firemen, led by Capt. Thomas Shay of a rescue squad, reached him on foot. Robert greeted them with smiles.

"You'd better hurry up," he urged them once, still smiling.

The firemen hurried; they carried with them a barrel, both heads of which had been removed. This they placed over Robert's head and shoved down into the sand around him as a cylindrical protector. They next extended a pipe line to him. The firemen thrust the nozzle of the line beneath the barrel and by hydraulic pressure washed out the sand from within the barrel. Without the barrel the sand would only have filled in again.

Saved After Three Hours.

The task was necessarily slow and it was almost three hours after the rescue work started that Robert was pulled from the sunken barrel.

Miss Martha Imbers, 16 years old, of 2340 West 23d place, a maid in the home of J. J. Oberman, 1055 Pratt boulevard, was drowned in the lake off the Pratt boulevard bathing beach last night after she was seized with cramps. James Leapwell, a life guard, saw her sink, and carried her to shore. Efforts to revive her failed, however.

Today's Program

The permanent chairman will call the convention to order at noon. The order of business follows:

PRAYER—The Rev. Duncan Hedge Brown, St. James' Episcopal cathedral, Chicago.

REPORT—Platform committee and adoption of platform.

NOMINATIONS — Candidates for President.

ADVANCES CAUSE DOWNFALL OF ADVANCE AGENT

R. R. Grady, 29 years old, arrived in the village of Brookfield, a southwestern suburb, last Friday and tactfully let it be known that he was the advance agent for the Kelly Brothers circus.

The first one he told it to was Nate Leebow, fruit merchant at 9501 Austin avenue. From Leebow he purchased $25 worth of fruits, to be delivered and paid for when the circus reached town. These, he explained, were for the monkeys and other animals.

"Now," he added, "before I close this contract you will have to reciprocate. We have a large Ferris wheel and you'll have to take an advertisement on it. The price is $7.50 and—ahem, it is customary to pay my commission of $3.75 in advance."

From Mrs. Alvina Werner's bakery he ordered 740 plain rolls, a barrel of doughnuts and a three foot stack of pies. From Charles Cisco, grocer at Ogden avenue and Raymond street, Congress Park, and from Joseph Novocek, also a grocer, 9515 Ogden avenue, he made contracts for eatables valued at $200. Each gave him his Ferris wheel commission.

The circus failed to arrive yesterday. In fact, there isn't any. So Chief of Police Edward O'Connor of Brookfield broadcast a message about Grady and Chief Walter Pflaume arrested him in an Elmhurst bakery.

"It is customary to pay my commission in advance," he was stating when seized.

He was taken to the Du Page county jail at Wheaton and charged with operating a confidence game.

Three of Family in New Home Killed in Explosion

Wheelock, Vt., June 28.—(AP)—Three children of Roy Cloukia, ranging in age from four to eight years, were killed, and another, aged three, was probably fatally injured today in a mysterious explosion in the Cloukia poultry house. Physicians said powder burns led to the belief that the explosion might have been caused by blasting powder. The family had occupied the premises only three weeks and the parents were unaware of any powder.

RITCHIE RISES AS CHIEF CONTENDER; N. Y. GOVERNOR DICKERS FOR VOTES

Convention Ditches Ballyhoo and Gets Down to Work.

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.

(Pictures on back page.)

Vigorous speeches and important decisions held twenty thousand people to close attention far into the afternoon of yesterday's session of the Democratic convention.

The significance of the interesting day in the Stadium was the proof that a national convention is not all ballyhoo, bluster and spectacle.

For now came forthright, earnest speaking which, if it changed no votes, was at least given patient, respectful hearing. Parliamentary decencies were observed. Ballyhoo was hushed into decorum.

Stern Walsh Is Chosen.

All culminated in the selection of stern and unbending Walsh of Montana, the avenger of Teapot Dome, as permanent chairman of the convention. That selection delighted the Roosevelteans.

Those who beheld the firmness, the dignity and the patience with which Walsh as permanent chairman of the Madison Square Garden convention of 1924 held that convention in leash, became, irrespective of party or of factions, loyal admirers of the man and the parliamentarian.

All afternoon the solid counselors of the party were on the Stadium scene and they were intent.

Hail to Reed of Missouri.

Reed of Missouri was among them.

To the thunder of Wagner's Pilgrims' chorus by band and organ he mounted to the seats of the mighty at 12:10 o'clock. Magnificent old man! At the age of 71, and after a grave operation a few months ago, he is a finer specimen of American manhood than most men half his age. He wears blue linen and a well fitting gray suit.

Distinction sits upon him. Those calm, searching eyes, those finely moulded features and that bearing of command make him a man whom among ten thousand you would know to be illustrious. He moves suavely among people who have heard his eloquence amid the routine drone of the United States senate and who are counting upon the hour when he shall emphasize to the delegates their responsibility to their country and lure them away from band music, flamboyant placards, and the antics of colleagues who blow tedious whistles and whirl rattles.

Thousands Cheer Ritchie.

At a quarter to one Ritchie joined the Maryland delegation. The organist welcomed him with "Maryland, My Maryland," and the cheers of thousands made him happy. He mounted a chair, responding to the tribute with smiles and with wavings of his hat.

He might not make a great President, although he has for more than a dozen years been a great governor of Maryland, but surely he would be a beloved President if one may judge by the spontaneous greetings which, in this time of turmoil and rancors, the multitude bestows upon him.

Two minutes to one o'clock and the gavel wielded by Temporary Chairman Barkley falls to the accompaniment of his pleading cries: "The convention will please come to order. Delegates will take their seats. The sergeant at arms will clear the aisles. The aisle in front of the chair will please be vacated."

Order Out of Confusion.

Two minutes of that. What an unwieldy system our American convention system is! One wonders that anything approaching coherence and sense ever comes out of it.

Idealists resent the secret conference of party grandees, bickering, blowing hot and cold, equivocating and evading in their resplendent suites in downtown hotels. But without the compromises there reached and without the trading of delegations there effected an American presidential convention would be the equivalent of chaos.

Making the opening prayer for this second session, the Right Rev. Msgr. F. G. Ostrowski, pastor of St. Josaphat's Roman Catholic church of Chicago, drew a grim picture.

"Almighty Father," he said, "in diffidence and fear do we stand before Thee in these times of stress and danger . . . Idols are falling all around us. Towering structures of finance and industry are collapsing. The sky is dark. The roll of distant thunder is presaging domestic commotion. Elements of disorder are rampant."

With all those conditions in mind, the plain speaking priest continued

(Continued on page 2, column 3.)

EXPECT BATTLE OVER WET PLANK ON FLOOR TODAY

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

(Pictures on back page.)

A battle over whether the Democratic liquor plank shall be wringing wet or merely wet, to be fought out on the floor of the convention today, was in prospect when the resolutions committee, which prepares the platform, adjourned at 11 o'clock last night.

Prohibition, the overshadowing question of the party conclave, was not taken up at the night session. It was deferred until the committee meets again at 10 o'clock this morning. The rough draft of the platform, 1,350 words, as prepared by the subcommittee of nine, was read by A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general in the Wilson cabinet, who was chief penman—all except the liquor—which was held back.

The Prohibition Issue.

The issue as it now stands in the resolutions committee is this:

Shall the plank declare for submission of repeal of the 18th amendment but not commit the party to favor prohibition repeal, or shall the plank go two steps further and put the party on record as advocating repeal of the 18th amendment and immediate modification of the Volstead act to legalize 2.75 beer?

The out and out repealists, who have lined up twenty members of the committee for a dripping wet plank espousing prohibition repeal and quick Volstead modification, as well as submission of repeal say they will press their plank as soon as the question is taken up this morning.

Wets Close to Control.

The twenty resolutions committee members who promulgated the dripping wet plank met at midnight and said they had twenty-four of the fifty-five members lined up. New adherents were Louisiana, Canal Zone, Porto Rico, Vermont, while Texas, Missouri, Indiana, and Montana may go along.

Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, who was not in the conference, said he was for the principles enunciated in the dripping wet plank.

"I wouldn't be surprised if I had a majority of the committee on my side," said Senator David I. Walsh of Mass., referring to his plank advocating prohibition repeal.

The sub-group of nine which drafted the platform was still polishing up its version of the prohibition plank last night. The Indiana plank was used somewhat as a model, and as it stands it calls for submission of repeal of the 18th amendment by congress to the states, but does make the party an advocate of repeal itself.

Platform Is Due at Noon.

Chairman Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Nebraska, a Roosevelt man, said the entire draft of the platform would be ready for submission to the convention by noon today. He declared the prohibition plank is the only controversial matter in sight, that two hours' work this morning would suffice to thresh it out and then the platform would be ready to shoot over to the Stadium. Others thought it might take longer, as often it has.

The draft of the platform submitted

(Continued on page 8, column 1.)

Steam Roller Victory Counterbalanced by 2-Thirds Rule.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

(Pictures on back page.)

With Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland looming large as the chief challenger of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York for the presidential nomination, the anti-Roosevelt forces were digging in last night for an endurance test in the balloting on the naming of the ticket.

Earlier in the day, at the second session of the Democratic national convention in the Stadium, Al Smith and the other anti-Roosevelt leaders were run over by the Roosevelt steam roller, but they came up smiling, saying, "It never touched me," and began laying plans for the ultimate undoing of the New York governor.

Keep Two-Thirds Rule.

The steam roller had given the Roosevelt forces control of the permanent organization of the convention, but the anti-Roosevelt forces had scored a bigger victory in compelling the retention of the 100 year old two-thirds nominating rule.

For three hours Al Smith sat in his headquarters last night receiving the leaders of anti-Roosevelt delegations to discuss the strategy of the battle for the nomination, which is scheduled to open in the convention session tomorrow. Each of these leaders Mr. Smith adjured to hold fast against Roosevelt, asserting that Roosevelt, notwithstanding his substantial lead over all his competitors combined, cannot last more than three ballots.

Reports States Are Restive.

More and more evidence piled up of the slipping of Roosevelt in delegations hitherto counted upon to support him and in delegations of which he was supposed to be the second choice.

Several members of the Mississippi delegation were closeted with Mr. Smith at one time. It was reported that Senator Pat Harrison, a Roosevelt leader, had lost control of the Mississippi group. As a result it is understood Mississippi will vote for Roosevelt on only one ballot, if at all.

North Carolina, which kicked over the traces on the two-thirds rule, is also threatening to bolt from the Roosevelt corral. There are indications of a shrinking of Rosevelt strength in Indiana, Illinois and other western delegations.

Ritchie May Get Votes.

Gov. Ritchie, it is understood, is to receive the votes of the Mississippians who quit Roosevelt. There is also reason to believe that Texas will go over to Ritchie when it becomes apparent that Speaker Jack Garner cannot win.

Jesse Jones of Texas and Jed C. Adams, Texas national committeeman, called on Mayor Cermak shortly before midnight in an effort to obtain Illinois support for Garner. They got little encouragement. Illinois is for Melvin Traylor, in the early balloting at least, and then will go over to Ritchie, if the Maryland governor shows promise of making the grade.

The Roosevelt leaders were also active. They sought to annex Ohio's 52 votes by offering the vice presidential nomination to Ohio's favorite son, Gov. George White, who turned the offer down. Then they renewed efforts to induce Speaker Garner to accept second place on the ticket and bring with him the 46 votes of Texas for Gov. Roosevelt. The speaker spurned the proposal.

Former Senator James A. Reed of Missouri took occasion to deny reports that he had withdrawn.

"I still think I have a chance," said Mr. Reed, "and I think I will be in the race after some other candidates—I will not mention any names—are out of it."

Steam Roller Rolls.

The steam roller, although slowed down by two more surrenders on the part of the Roosevelt forces, performed according to schedule. The Roosevelt controlled convention seated the Roosevelt delegation from Louisiana headed by Senator Huey (Call Me Kingfish) Long and the Roosevelt delegation from Minnesota, both of which had been contested, and then elected as permanent chairman the Roosevelt candidate, Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, over the anti-Roosevelt entry, Jouett Shouse of Kansas.

Although Al Smith and Mr. Shouse had positively asserted up to the time the convention met that they had the votes to defeat the Roosevelt faction decisively on the permanent chairmanship, Mr. Shouse was defeated by 93 votes. Sensing the impending defeat of his side, Mr. Smith, who had intended to take the floor for Mr. Shouse

THE WEATHER

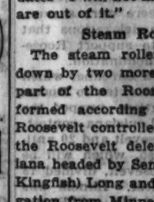
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1932.

Sunrise, 5:17; sunset, 8:29. Moon rises at 2:17 a. m. Thursday. Mars and Saturn are morning stars; Venus and Jupiter are evening stars.

Chicago and vicinity—Fair and warmer Wednesday followed by somewhat unsettled at night and on Thursday; moderate southwest winds Wednesday.

Illinois—Generally fair Wednesday, becoming somewhat unsettled at night and on Thursday; little change in temperature.

TRIBUNE BAROMETER.



TEMPERATURES IN CHICAGO

MAXIMUM, 11 P. M. 74
MINIMUM, 6 A. M. 62

3 a. m.	65	Noon	72	8 p. m.	72
4 a. m.	63	1 p. m.	72	9 p. m.	73
5 a. m.	62	2 p. m.	72	10 p. m.	73
6 a. m.	62	3 p. m.	72	Unofficial—
7 a. m.	63	4 p. m.	73	11 p. m.	74
8 a. m.	66	5 p. m.	73	Midnight	74
9 a. m.	68	6 p. m.	71	1 a. m.	74
10 a. m.	69	7 p. m.	72	2 a. m.	74
11 a. m.	70

For 24 hours ended 9 p. m. June 28: Mean temperature, 68; normal, 73. Excess since Jan. 1, 551 degrees; excess for June, 93 degrees.

Precipitation, none; deficiency since Jan. 1, 1.83 inches; excess for June, 1.19 inches.

Barometer—8 a. m., 29.94; 8 p. m., 29.80.

Highest wind velocity, 13 miles an hour from the northeast at 8:36 p. m.

[Official weather table on page 26.]

and charge Gov. Roosevelt with treachery, faded out of the picture and left this function to a woman to perform.

Three roll calls taken during the session of the convention furnished a test of the relative strength of the Roosevelt and anti-Roosevelt forces as they face each other in advance of the balloting on the nomination, scheduled to begin on Thursday. The three votes follow:

	Anti-Roosevelt.	Roosevelt.
Permanent chairman	626	628
Louisiana contest	638¾	514¼
Minnesota contest	658¼	492¾

With the Roosevelt project to abrogate the two-thirds rule completely abandoned 770 votes to nominate the ticket will be required. The highest number the Roosevelt forces scored yesterday, 658¼, was 121¾ short of the necessary two-thirds.

Roosevelt's manager, James A. Farley, continues to predict the nomination of Roosevelt on the first ballot, with 691 to begin with. He relies upon a sufficient number of bandwagon jumpers to put the governor across the line by switching their votes after the conclusion of the roll call but before the announcement of the result.

Ritchie Movement Grows.

No less confident is Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, Al Smith's floor manager, that Roosevelt will never get more than 632 on the nomination balloting, that the futility of further effort to name the New York governor will be demonstrated eventually and that the convention will turn to a compromise candidate.

The Ritchie movement developed proportions during the day that caused comment on all sides. The appearance of the Maryland governor in the convention touched off a protracted demonstration of enthusiasm for his candidacy. Although entitled to a seat on the platform, he spent the entire session seated with his delegation, or rather standing, for there was a continuous procession to his place of delegates wishing to make his acquaintance, a circumstance regarded as significant of the trend of thought in the convention.

A Double Retreat.

Before the session opened the Roosevelt forces were compelled to retreat from two positions they had assumed Monday night. Following the initial surrender Monday afternoon by the New York governor in the face of defeat in his move to abrogate the two-thirds nominating rule, the Roosevelt members of the rules committee slammed through a rule providing for optional abrogation of the two-thirds rules after the sixth ballot if no nomination were made by that time.

Revolt flamed in a number of Roosevelt delegations, spreading danger of defections from the strength of Roosevelt for the nomination.

Goes Back to Old Rule.

Roosevelt's manager, Farley, then repudiated the move for even a modification of the two-thirds rule, and the governor himself followed yesterday morning with orders to chuck it out of the window. Shortly thereafter, Mr. Farley told the reporters that the governor stood for the traditional procedure and the regular order of business without change.

"We are not afraid of the roll call under the two-thirds rule," he said, "and are confident of winning on the first ballot. We are absolutely in favor of the rules under which the party's conventions have been held for the last 100 years."

This second backdown by the governor constituted a repudiation of the interpretation the Roosevelt members of the rules committee had placed on his Monday message in which he called off the fight on the two-thirds rule, but at the same time indicated in one paragraph that he would favor abrogation after a certain number of ballots in order to prevent a prolonged deadlock.

Quick Revision Made.

With the Roosevelt members compelled to eat their words, Chairman Bruce Kremer called a meeting of the rules committee after the convention had assembled and a new report was voted from which the modified abrogation of the two-thirds rule was omitted. The revised report provided:

"That the rules of the last Democratic national convention, including the two-thirds rule for the nomination of candidates for the office of President and Vice President and including the rules of the house of representatives of the Seventy-second congress, so far as applicable, shall be the rules of this convention."

Then the report concluded with this:

"We recommend to the next national convention of the party that it shall consider the question of changing the two-thirds rule now required for the nominations of the President and Vice President of the United States so as to make the nomination by a majority vote of the delegates to the convention, with the further declaration that that convention is to be the sole judge of its own rules."

A Second Backdown.

The Roosevelt forces also backed down on their scheme to adopt the platform after the nomination of the ticket, the purpose of which was to allow the candidate to shape the platform and perhaps to hasten the nomination, every day's delay in which is regarded with misgivings by the Roosevelt managers because of the increasing solidarity of the anti-Roosevelt delegations.

The outcry, however, against this disregard of tradition was loud even among Roosevelt delegates, and the Roosevelt managers hastily abandoned the scheme. As the program was finally submitted by the rules committee and adopted by the convention, the platform is the next order of business, to be followed by the nomination of the ticket.

Big Test in Kingfish Vote.

The vote on the contest against the seating of Kingfish Huey Long's Louisiana delegation furnished the severest test of the Roosevelt strength during the day. There were a number of defections in delegations that are counted upon to support Roosevelt solidly for the nomination.

For example, North Carolina, which will give its entire 26 votes to Roosevelt for the nomination, jumped the reservation on the Louisiana contest, dividing 5½ pro-Roosevelt and 20 anti-Roosevelt. Iowa also, which will be a unit of 26 for Roosevelt, divided 13 and 13 on the contest. Illinois was 7¾ pro-Roosevelt and 50¼ anti-Roosevelt on this question.

On the other hand, the Roosevelt forces made some gains on this vote. Missouri broke away from former Senator Jim Reed's control as it threatens to do on the nomination, lining up 19½ pro-Roosevelt and 16½ anti-Roosevelt. Out of Smith's 16 in Connecticut, 6¼ lined up with the Roosevelt forces.

The minority report of the committee on permanent organizations, which voted 26 for Walsh and 12 for Shouse, was read before the convention by W. Emery Lancaster of Quincy, Ill.,

ROLL CALL SHOWS ROOSEVELT POWER IN VOTE ON WALSH

Senator Walsh was elected permanent chairman by a vote of 628 to 528 in the following roll call on the adoption of the minority report in which the "ayes" are in favor of electing Jouett Shouse, Walsh's opponent:

No. of votes. State—	Yea.	Nay.
24 Alabama	4½	19½
6 Arizona	..	6
18 Arkansas	..	18
44 California	44	..
13 Colorado	..	13
16 Connecticut	9¼	6¾
6 Delaware	1	5
14 Florida	..	14
28 Georgia	..	28
8 Idaho	..	8
58 Illinois	42	16
30 Indiana	30	..
26 Iowa	10	16
20 Kansas	6½	13½
26 Kentucky	..	26
20 Louisiana	..	20
12 Maine	7	5
16 Maryland	16	..
30 Massachusetts	30	..
38 Michigan	..	38
24 Minnesota	3	21
20 Mississippi	..	20
36 Missouri	16½	19½
8 Montana	..	8
16 Nebraska	1	15
6 Nevada	..	6
8 New Hampshire	..	8
32 New Jersey	32	..
6 New Mexico	3	3
94 New York	67	27
26 North Carolina	4	22
10 North Dakota	1	9
52 Ohio	49½	2½
22 Oklahoma	22	..
10 Oregon	1	9
76 Pennsylvania	27½	48½
10 Rhode Island	10	..
18 South Carolina	..	18
10 South Dakota	..	10
24 Tennessee	..	24
46 Texas	46	..
8 Utah	..	8
8 Vermont	..	8
24 Virginia	24	..
16 Washington	..	16
16 West Virginia	..	16
26 Wisconsin	2	24
6 Wyoming	..	6
6 Alaska	6	..
6 District of Columbia	..	6
6 Hawaii	..	6
6 Philippines	6	..
6 Porto Rico	..	6
6 Canal Zone	..	6
2 Virgin islands	..	2
Totals	628	626

and by agreement debate was limited to one-half hour for each side.

United States Senator Dill of Washington opened the argument for Walsh, eulogizing the Montana senator as "one of the great progressive statesmen of the nation and of the world."

Mrs. Bernice S. Pyke of Ohio, opening the fight for Shouse, reviewed the proceedings of the subcommittee on arrangements when it met in Chicago and agreed to recommend Senator Barkley for temporary chairman and Mr. Shouse for permanent chairman.

"That was an agreement not to inject any more controversy into this convention than is necessary for a Democratic convention," said Mrs. Pyke. She told of the dissension in the subcommittee and the caucus in the rooms of Farley, Roosevelt manager, which reported out the harmony resolution.

"That resolution was read over the telephone to Gov. Roosevelt and it met with his approval," declared Mrs. Pyke. "When the subcommittee reconvened Robert Jackson said he was happy to report progress toward smoothing out differences that threatened serious controversy. The resolution was offered by Mr. Jackson and seconded by Mr. Arthur F. Mullen and then unanimously carried.

"No one here is against Senator Walsh. This is an appeal to the delegates to start this convention in a spirit of keeping faith."

Kansan Praises Shouse.

Ralph E. O'Neill of Kansas said his state was proud of giving to the Democratic party Jouett Shouse.

"I can't speak for the Kansas delegation, but I sound the voice of the people of Kansas," he said. "We believe that Mr. Shouse should be elected, first, because he qualifies, and, second, because we don't believe in changing the rules in the middle of the game."

Senator James F. Byrnes of South Carolina opened his speech for Walsh with the declaration that no subcommittees has the right to name the permanent officers of a convention. That is the sole right of the delegates, he said.

"I have heard Mrs. Pyke's report of the proceedings of that subcommittee," continued the senator. "I have Mr. Jackson's statement as to what happened. After the conference in Mr. Farley's room Gov. Roosevelt was called on the telephone. He said the subcommittee had no power to name permanent officers.

"He agreed that the committee had the privilege of making a recommendation and declared that, although not approving the recommendation, he would not stand in its way.

"No good Democrat can charge bad faith to Mr. Shouse or to Mr. Raskob. And no good Democrat can charge bad faith to Franklin D. Roosevelt."

John W. Davis, the 1924 candidate, praised Shouse as an outstanding exponent of Democracy.

3 BALLOONS SENT 65,000 FEET IN AIR TO MAKE TESTS

STUTTGART, Germany, June 28.—(AP)—Three test balloons carrying measuring instruments were sent up to 65,000 feet today under the direction of Prof. Erich Regener of the Technical university. The altitude was greater than that attained last year by Prof. August Piccard in his ascension to the stratosphere. Each balloon was 6½ feet in diameter and the three were hitched together thirteen feet apart, with the instruments in a gondola between them. They were hauled down after three hours.

TWO CONFESS TO BURGLARY.

John Regan, 21 years old, 4648 West Monroe street, and James Duggan, 25 years old, 3540 Carroll avenue, were arrested on suspicion yesterday and confessed burglarizing the barber shop of Charles Torgeson at 723 South Crawford avenue.

Chicago Daily Tribune.
THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

Vol. LXXXXI. Wednesday, June 29. No. 155.

Published daily at Tribune Tower, 435 N. Michigan-av., Chicago, Illinois. The Tribune Company, publishers.

MAIL SUBSCRIPTION PRICES.

Mail subscription prices in Ill. (outside of Chicago), Ind., Iowa, Mich., and Wis.—Daily with Sunday, one year, $12.50.

Zones 3 and 4 in states other than Ill., Ind., Iowa, Mich., and Wis.—Daily, $7.50 per year.

Zones 5 to 8, inclusive Canada, Mexico, and foreign—Daily, $12.00 per year.

Entered as second class matter, Aug. 12, 1903, at the postoffice at Chicago under act of March 3, 1879.

Convention Puts Aside Ballyhoo and Settles to Its Tasks; 20,000 See Day's Proceedings

(Continued from first page.)

amid a silence as heavily fraught with partisan pessimism as it may have been with pious decorum. It was, in his opinion, time that we acknowledge our trespasses and beat our breasts in penitence.

He closed with this petition:

"Bless, therefore, O Heavenly

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. F. G. Ostrowski of St. Josaphat's Roman Catholic church, who prayed for convention.

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Father, this mighty assemblage that it may select a standard bearer who, like David of old, shall rescue the land from suffering."

The significance of the prelate's prayer was identical with the significance of most of the prayers made at the Republican convention and at this convention. That significance is that American clergymen of today seem to be in a mood to tell the erring more truth than the erring have heard about themselves from pulpiteers since the period of anti-slavery agitation.

Woman Delegate Sings.

After the drastic prayer Mrs Howard Austin obliged with a song of sentiment. Briefly it assuaged pessimism and engendered neighborliness, and the vocalist was cordially applauded.

Another note of neighborliness—always a valuable note in an assemblage representing so vast a realm as ours—in the resolution of regret and sympathy which the convention ordered sent to the family of the late Frank C. Niles, delegate from Kansas City, Mo.

One interesting feature of the day was Huey Long's defense of himself.

In the course of the lively debate on the minority report of the credentials committee the celebrated—I had almost written "the notorious"—Huey took the platform to speak against that report which would have cast him and his delegates out of the convention.

The intricacies of the contest are set forth elsewhere. My task is to tell you how this reputed bravo of politics behaved himself—kept himself in leash, for once.

Keeps Himself in Hand.

When he appeared, his hair tousled and his features working with excitement, the knowing ones said, "This is going to be worth the price of admission," meaning that Huey would probably make a spectacle of himself.

He did not.

He spoke vehemently, but he had himself in good control, laying down his points clearly, logically and swift-

Arthur F. Mullen of Nebraska, Roosevelt floor leader, who asked delegates to elect Thomas J. Walsh chairman.

ly. He was primed with documents which an aid sitting at his side passed to him whenever citations in support of his argument were needed. The gist of court decisions, committee reports and private letters were rapidly imparted by him to the convention.

"My friends," he cried, "please don't take up my time, for all your applause comes out of my time."

That won him strict attention to the end of his 15 minutes.

The man whose antics, whose vulgarities and whose bumptious acts both as governor of Louisiana and as United States senator have sometimes seemed in a fair way to destroy him as a reputable figure in American public life, did himself a measure of good by this appearance before the convention.

Anyhow, with the Roosevelt backing, Huey won, and clowns do not win against practical politicians. They are only used by practical politicians and then cast aside like the balloons and the rattles of convention demonstrations.

Iowa Goes Into Huddle.

During the debate on the credentials committee's report the Iowa delegates gathered close and bent low in excited conference.

The words "a fight! a fight" ran through the hall. 'Tis a prospect ever dear to a Democratic convention and its guests. Chairman Barkley wrecked the hope of ructions by remarking dryly to the multitude: "Ladies and gentlemen, the Iowa delegation is merely engaging in a friendly poll to find out which way it wants to vote."

Tired Chairman Barkley's temper began to take on edge as the afternoon wore on. "Milling" drove him wild, and milling in a national convention means the cluttering of the aisles by delegates and hangers-on who have nothing in their minds but talk and no purpose but to wander.

"The business of the convention," Barkley barks, "will be suspended until this useless milling around ceases!"

The millers look cheerfully up at him, applaud his remark, and for five minutes the sound of the grinding is low.

Dill Acclaims Senator Walsh.

During the hour of oratory that led up to the selection of Walsh as permanent chairman of the convention United States Senator C. C. Dill of Washington acclaimed the man from Montana as "that great progressive Mrs. Bernice S. Pyke of Cleveland, who made plea for election of Jouett Shouse as permanent chairman.

[Acme Photo.]

statesman who during forty years of political life has always been on the side of the people." Dill reviewed Walsh's battles from the time of his fight against the Anaconda Copper company two decades ago to the days of his exposure of corrupt men in the Harding administration. "A relentless prosecutor," says Dill, "but always fair," adding:

"The man Harry Sinclair who had $6,000,000 and went to the District of Columbia jail never said Senator Walsh was unfair. Albert B. Fall, cabinet member who went to prison, never said he was unfair."

Amid cheering Dill warms to his work.

"If Thomas J. Walsh," he cried, "had lived in a foreign land he would have been knighted for services to his country! And will you turn him down?"

Loud cries of "No."

Davis Speaks for Shouse.

John W. Davis, the party's presidential nominee at Madison Square Garden, spoke for the selection of Jouett Shouse, anti-Roosevelitan, as permanent chairman, but in the course of his remarks paid handsome tribute to Walsh.

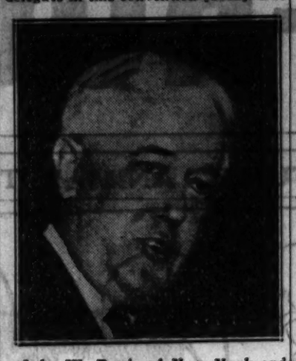
"No man in this convention," said Mr. Davis, "has greater admiration than I for the sterling Democracy of the senator from Montana. I was not a member of the organization committee in 1924, but [with a smile] I have some recollection of it [laughter], and I will say that Senator Walsh bore the burden and wielded the gavel in that convention longer than any man has ever done before—longer, we pray, than any man will do again."

Returning to the platform to speak again in behalf of Walsh, Senator Dill wore out his welcome, botched his effects and was booed for excess of zeal.

"The present contest," he said, "is more than a contest as to men. It is not a Roosevelt fight. It is a conflict between progressive forces on one side and on the other of reactionaries who want to rebuke a man because he dares to take the progressive position."

Boos and hisses for that.

They gave the senator pause and he said: "For fear that I may be misunderstood [more booing and hissing] let me say I do not attribute prejudice against Senator Walsh to any delegate in this convention [boos]. But



John W. Davis of New York and West Virginia, 1924 presidential nominee, who talked for Jouett Shouse.

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

I do say that agitation of this sort has gone on in this country.

"My friends, I will not detain you longer [yells of 'Well, sit down]. I say the eyes of the nation are on this convention. The Democracy is awaiting the verdict of this roll call. I leave the case with you."

Walsh Wins Amid Cheers.

"The case" was soon settled by a roll call which stood 626 votes for Walsh as against 528 for Shouse.

The organist strikes up "When It's Springtime in the Rockies" and amid an uproar of cheering and music Thomas J. Walsh, once the lamplighter of Two Rivers, Wis., is escorted to the platform, again, as at Madison Square, to have the eyes of the nation upon him. He is 73 years old now and his hands tremble a little.

But there is nothing tremulous in the keynoting speech which is his first utterance to the convention as its permanent chairman.

Here is a typical passage from it—his arraignment of the financial and governmental high jinks which, he believes, have brought the American people to their present plight:

The theory that national well being is to be looked for by giving free rein to the captains of industry and magnates in the field of finance, and accommodating government to their desires, has come through the logic of events to a tragic refutation. So complete has been its failure that even from within the favored circle has been advanced the proposal that government hereafter plan and limit industrial enterprise—in other words, that "rugged individualism" of which we have heard so much be scrapped.

Views Future with Hope.

But he was hopeful, and on this note of hope he bade his attentive hearers dwell:

"The onward march of the race cannot be stayed. This nation is so rich in the bounties of nature and in the virility of its population that it is certain in the providence of God to merge, chastened but triumphant, from the sea of troubles into which it now is plunged."

Senator Clarence Dill of Washington, who made one of the leading arguments for Senator Thomas J. Walsh.

And so, in the calm of the June evening and on a strong man's abiding faith in the happy destiny of his country, the second day of this momentous convention ended.

WALSH PICTURES STATE OF NATION, SHUNS DRY LAW

Permanent Chairman Recalls His 1924 Tenure.

Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, chosen permanent chairman of the Democratic convention, made no mention of the prohibition question in his address yesterday, but issued a call to Democracy to "proceed to the task to which we are called patriotically, in the accommodating spirit, so far as principle will permit, mindful always of the truth that he serves his party best who serves his country best."

After expressing the hope that the duties for which he was chosen would not be so protracted as they were when he last performed them during the 1924 convention, Senator Walsh gave a picture of the state of the nation at present, bearing on the fall in world trade from 1929 to 1932, the doubling of unemployment, the crash of private fortunes "which have dwindled like government revenue," and the destitution of the poor.

Extraordinary Legislation.

"Impelled by the prevalence of grim want among their constituents," he said, "legislation at which they would under other circumstances revolt commands the support of members of both houses of the national legislature, traditional policies and national considerations being overborne by local needs.

"However, none need be dismayed. The onward march of the race cannot be stayed. This nation is so rich in the bounties of nature and the virility of its population it is certain in the providence of God to emerge from the sea of troubles into which it plunged, chastened but triumphant."

"Much indiscriminate criticism has been directed," said the chairman, "at Democratic members of congress, who steadfastly resisted appeals from their constituents for tariff favors in connection with the general legislation of 1930, but who felt constrained to yield in 1932, hoping that some relief would thereby come to the destitute idle among those whose welfare is rightly their chief concern.

"The policy of the party to which they are attached is not to be determined by such instances of aberration or the fealty of the errant member adjudged upon any such basis."

Free Reign to Industry.

The senator thrust at "the theory that national well being is to be looked for by giving free reign to the captains of industry and the magnates in the field of finance and accommodating government to their desires."

"This," he said, "has come through the logic of events to a tragic refutation.

"For more than eleven years our government has been run on that theory and from every section of the country an aroused and wrathful people demand a new deal," he declared. "The most liberal international coöperation is called for." He pointed to the establishment abroad of 259 factories for the introduction of American made goods since 1930.

The "tragedy" of the last decade, said the chairman, "was the continued prostration of agriculture."

"With callow indifference every appeal for relief was ignored or rejected until, yielding to political necessity, a substitute for the measures originating with the representatives of the languishing industry was brought forward by the administration and passed, of the scandalous history of which, in its operation, the whole world knows."

Distribution of Wealth.

Another weakness in our economic system, the speaker said, was the unequal distribution of wealth. The remedy, he declared, lies in "intrusting government to those whose constant concern is for the multitude at the bottom rather than the few at the top, yet eager that justice be accorded to all."

DELEGATES MEET CHICAGO WEATHER AT ITS VERY BEST

Ideal June weather of the type that has made Chicago known as the finest big city summer resort in the country prevailed yesterday. The highest reading of the day was 73 degrees in spite of bright sunshine and gentle winds.

Today, the forecast indicated, will be fair and warmer.

Delegates to the Democratic national convention found the Chicago stadium entirely comfortable. On Monday they enjoyed a temperature that rose only to 74. The mean temperature was 73 that day. This is three degrees above the normal mean for the day in Chicago.

JULY 4th REDUCTIONS
200
SUMMER DRESSES
Reduced to
$10 and $15
Formerly up to $59
White and Pastel Crepes
Beautiful Silk Piques . . .
Prints and Canton Crepes
PEARLIE POWELL
320 MICHIGAN AVENUE · NORTH

Today!
12 to 1 p. m.
Frank Buck author of
"BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE"
and
"WILD CARGO"
will be in our Book Section to autograph his books. "Bring 'Em Back Alive", the basis of the picture now at the State-Lake Theatre, is now specially priced at $2
BOOK SECTION
THIRD FLOOR
MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY

COOL SUMMER SUITS
the finest, most complete stocks in all America on the sixth floor

TROPICAL WORSTED SUITS
the finest made, at $25

They're the height of summer suit excellence . . there's no mistaking it. Look at the fabrics . . luxurious feather-light worsteds. Look at the tailoring, the careful hand crafting . . a finished job in every detail. Look at the trim styling for men and young men . . the new colors . . the smart blues, tans, grays. The height of excellence—and at this price they're the height of value, too

Finely tailored tropical worsted suits—a special offer at $15

Suits of Rajah linen—the ultimate in linen suit luxury $22.50

Suits of genuine Lorraine seersucker—greatly underpriced at $8.75
They carry the Lorraine label

Genuine Palm Beach suits—a supreme value at $10.75
They carry the Palm Beach label

De luxe Kuppenheimer summer suits $18
Kuppenheimer makes, without question, the most superb summer suits . . and certainly these are without equal at this price. Tans and whites, single or double breasted models

Fine Gabardine sport suits $40
The soft, silky feel of the gabardine, their coolness . . their trim styling, their sporty half belts . . their smart shades of gray and tan. If you want real summer suit luxury, here it is

These summer suits come in sizes for all men and young men. Regulars, longs, shorts, stouts, short stouts, long stouts, extra sizes—all can be fitted instantly

MAURICE L ROTHSCHILD
MINNEAPOLIS · State at Jackson CHICAGO · ST. PAUL

LADY DELEGATES DISCOVER CHEERS ARE NOT VOTES

Men Applaud Feminine Speeches, That's All.

By GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.

Seven sentences of praise from a feminine colleague aren't worth nearly so much to the man politician as a one syllable grunt of approval from another man. Is that heresy to my sex?

MRS. STELLA HAMLIN. [Assoc. Press Photo.]

But one word of flaming damnation from a woman politician can cause a man more concern than a blast of denunciation from one of the boys. Is not that loyalty to my sex?

It's what I believe and I have an idea that yesterday's convention proceedings didn't disprove my point.

Woman Vote Doesn't Exist.

For several days women, prominent women, have been saying pleasant things about their candidates. And nobody paid overly much attention. Not even those candidates, for they seem to know that the woman vote, as such, simply doesn't exist.

But yesterday when a Louisiana woman who is against Huey P. Long, and an Ohio committeewoman who is for Jouett Shouse, shouted, the first privately, the second publicly, about fair play, the crowd gave eager ear. Challenges to honesty fall, with greater grace, from the lips of a woman. The crowd cheers them as gospel, even if that same crowd later votes them into the ashcan.

"Kingfish" Long, case hardened politician that he is, got mad clean through at Stella Hamlin, former committeewoman from his state, for her fiery attacks on his motives and methods in securing the seating of his delegation.

A Long "Tall Story."

"Huey always said if you're going to tell a story, tell a tall one," she explained after the Long victory. "He certainly told a tall story today, or shall we call it a Long story?"

She was angry because he had read to the crowd a personal letter of hers, a letter, by the way, which on the face of it gave him a basis for argument. And she fought him in the corridors, in the committee rooms, but was unable to get to the floor of the convention.

Another fighting lady, with the white hair and pink cheeks of gentleness and a voice of decision, did get to the floor and told the world that she, Ohio's committeewoman, Bernice S. Pyke, regarded as unmannerly and almost unethical the Roosevelt move to oust Jouett Shouse as permanent chairman.

A Determined Appeal.

Terse and determined, she appealed for the retention of Shouse, the rejection of Senator Thomas J. Walsh. Briskly, she read the minutes of the meeting at which Shouse was appointed. She held up a soft white hand in a stern, sharp gesture of command, and the applause was silenced as she continued.

"I appeal to the delegated Democrats, not in a spirit of opposition to Walsh but in the spirit of keeping faith and in the interest of fair play."

A woman demanding fair play. Instantly every politician became a knight on a white horse. At least he did long enough to clap and clap. But you don't vote with your hands.

Mrs. Pyke, one of the ablest of the committeewomen, a definite Democratic power in Ohio, a sensible business woman, too, was a lesson to the women of this convention.

She seemed to be saying, "Gals, if you yes 'em along they'll just remember you as one more woman in a pretty dress. If you fight 'em, you may get licked, but you'll get the applause and the publicity."

Stella Hamlin did actually that. Rather, she put it this way.

"After the terrible things Huey Long said about me today I've got so much publicity I believe I'll run for the senate."

Just a few more commentaries on women at this convention and then I'm through.

Why a Gesture?

First, if Isabella Greenway, Arizona's committeewoman who is going to be put in nomination for the vice presidency, "as a gesture, you know," is really as lovely to look upon as everybody says she is, why does the nomination have to be merely a gesture?

Second, the press box is filled with the loveliest ladies who learned their politics from "pa." Now they write pieces for the papers, with a feminine poise that would have caused "pa" considerable amazement in the old days. The daughters are Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms, Mark Hanna's girl; Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of "The Commoner," and Genevieve Clark Thompson, dark eyed daughter of Champ Clark.

Don't Fret, Men!"

And last, a word of comfort to any masculine reader who has lasted this far: Don't fret lest the woman influence is making politics a thing of silk and satin.

Mrs. J. Hamilton Lewis yesterday accosted a Washington political writer, a man, and asked him:

"Do you know why my husband withdrew his name from the list of presidential candidates?"

On which note of masculine sovereignty it is appropriate to close this essay on the "woman angle."

Berwyn Boy, 10, Riding Bicycle, Killed by Train

Bruce Peterson, 10 year old twin of 2841 South Cuyler avenue, Berwyn, was killed late yesterday when he rode his bicycle in front of a fast Burlington passenger train at the East avenue crossing in Berwyn. The crossing has no gates, but is protected by warning bells and lights. Bruce had been out of a hospital only two days, following a month's illness, and was riding his bicycle for health building exercise.

SOCIETY DRAWS NO PARTY LINES WHEN IT COMES TO CONVENTIONS

Mrs. William J. Chalmers, who also attended the Republican national convention, uses glasses to get a better view of the speakers. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Mrs. Howard Linn (left), who watched the proceedings of the Republican national convention with interest, attends the Democratic gathering with Mrs. W. W. Lanahan of Baltimore. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Miss Betty Offield (left) and Mildred Laurence, two of the Junior leaguers who sold convention programs. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, widow of the speaker of the house of representatives and daughter of the late President Theodore Roosevelt, at the convention. She is a cousin of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the leading candidate. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Misses Barbara and Dorothy Senn of the Junior league find ready customers for souvenirs at the convention. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

G. O. P. LAUNCHES A CAMPAIGN TO ELECT SENATORS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 28.—[Special.]—With many of their Democratic colleagues absent in Chicago members of the Republican senatorial campaign committee took the initiative today in getting started for the fall contests.

At a meeting called by Senator Henry D. Hatfield [Rep., W. Va.], comchairman, plans were made for an active senatorial campaign in the east, middle west, and far west. Senator Felix Hebert [Rep., R. I.] will be in charge of eastern headquarters at New York, Senator L. J. Dickinson [Rep., Ia.] will open midwestern headquarters at Chicago, and Senator Robert D. Carey [Rep., Wyo.], at Cheyenne, will have charge of the far western section.

In the middle west the senatorial committee will assist in the campaigns of Senator Otis F. Glenn in Illinois and Senator James E. Watson in Indiana. In Iowa it will have the candidacy of Henry Field, victor in the primaries over Senator Smith Wildman Brookhart, radical Republican, to support.

BROKERS' SUIT FOR STOCK LOSS ORDERED TRIED

Judge Michael L. McKinley yesterday overruled a demurrer filed by Rothschild & Co., brokers at 105 West Adams street, and ordered their $150,000 suit against Sears, Roebuck & Co. placed on his Superior court trial calendar.

The suit is to collect on a marginal account carried during the bull market by Carl Reiss, an employé of Sears, Roebuck & Co. The plaintiffs received a telegram during the market crash, they state, from John Higgins, vice president of the company, offering to guarantee the account of any employé and to post additional collateral. Reiss lost $61,761 and interest and carrying charges brought the damages asked to $150,000.

Frederick Burnham filed a plea on behalf of Sears, Roebuck & Co., declaring that Higgins acted without authority and that no official of the company had authority to make such an offer. The plaintiffs demurred to the plea, and it was this demurrer which Judge McKinley overruled yesterday.

Guardian for Two Children of Lya de Putti Is Named

New York, June 28.—(AP)—A guardian was appointed today for the two minor children of the late Lya De Putti, motion picture actress, so he might bring suit on their behalf against Walter Blumenthal. The proposed suit concerns a contract entered into last September. The details were not made known. Surrogate John P. O'Brien named Nicholas Phillips as guardian. The children are Ilona and Judith Szepessy, 17 and 16 years old respectively, who reside with their paternal grandmother in Encs, Hungary. Their father, now dead, was Zoltan Szepessy, chief county judge of Abauj-Torna, Hungary.

STREET WORKER COLLAPSES.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 28.—[Special.]—August Wojcieshowski, 50, collapsed in front of 2457 South Wentworth avenue today, while working on a street construction job. At the Johnson Emergency hospital it was said he would recover.

DEMOCRATIC VETS BANQUET HOSTS TO DELEGATES

More than 200 veterans, many of them delegates to the Democratic convention, attended a banquet last night by the United Democratic Service Men's organization in the Great Northern hotel. The chief speaker was Paul V. McNutt, former national commander of the American Legion and Democratic nominee for governor of Indiana.

The ex-service men were entertained by the Richmond Light Infantry band of Richmond, Va., and a number of vaudeville acts. The arrangements were in charge of Lawrence J. Fenlon, president of the Cook county chapter of the veterans' organization.

Turkey to Accept Invitation to Join League of Nations

[Copyright: 1932: By the New York Times.]

ISTANBUL, June 28.—The Popular party decided today that Turkey would accept an invitation to join the league of nations.

POLITICAL DINNER TONIGHT TO HAVE CAPACITY CROWD

Whether it's to be a hurried repast, bolted with one eye on the clock in the event of an evening session, or a leisurely function followed by a social hour, success was assured yesterday for the Chicago Woman's club dinner tonight for Democratic celebrities. All available reservations in the main dining room had been disposed of and plans were being made to accommodate an overflow of diners in other parts of the club.

Mrs. George Bass, who will preside, announced that the dinner had been set tentatively for 6 o'clock, but that a last minute change might be made necessary by the convention program. Among those at the speakers' table will be Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, former Gov. Nellie Taylor Ross, Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, chairman of the women's convention entertainment committee, and others.

This afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock there will be a tea at the Woman's University Club of Chicago, 185 North Michigan avenue, for delegates and distinguished woman guests, under the auspices of the League of Club Presidents.

Elmhurst Votes to Quit Salt Creek Sewer System

Citizens of Elmhurst voted 2,009 to 877 at a special election yesterday to withdraw from the Salt Creek sanitary district, which disposes of the sewage of Elmhurst, Villa Park, and territory surrounding the two towns. Elmhurst will main its own sewage disposal system.

AT LEAST 8 HOBOES DIE WHEN FREIGHT TRAIN IS WRECKED

Castle Rock, Colo., June 28.—(AP)—Collapse of a flood weakened Santa Fe railroad bridge today was believed to have brought death to eight itinerants aboard a freight train and injury to forty more.

Eighteen cars of the northbound train were ground into a jumble of twisted metal and splintered wood within a distance of four car lengths. The accident occurred south of Castle Rock.

Railroad men estimated it would take two days to definitely establish the number of the dead and their identity.

John Harvath, 22, of Oregon, Ill., taken to a Denver hospital, said he believed Benjamin Madoski, 22, of Hollidays, W. Va., his companion, had been killed.

GOLD ORE SO RICH IT'S CHIPPED OUT FOUND IN ALASKA

SEWARD, Alaska, June 28.—(AP)—A vein of gold ore six inches thick and so rich it was being "mollied" down on canvas was reported today after an inspection of the Babcock tunnel stope at Nuka Bay, scene of the new strike. "Molling" consists of chipping away the gold bearing rock.

Elwyn Swetman, Seward druggist who returned from the locality today, reported the discovery.

"It's richness is unbelievable," said Swetman who is financing prospectors in the search. The strike was made 200 feet from the portal tunnel at about the same depth vertically."

Swetman cautioned against a stampede except by those who have enough money to finance themselves for a year.

Nuka Bay is about 250 miles southeast of Cordova, the nearest city.

HENRICI'S RESTAURANT
During your Chicago visit you'll dine at HENRICI'S . . . a number of times. Then you will be able to tell your friends you have really seen the town . . . and dined enjoyably at an establishment famous thruout the world for fine food.
The Usual Moderate Prices Prevail.
Service from 7 A. M. to Midnight.
67 W. RANDOLPH STREET

Santa Fe
$65 From Chicago Round Trip Coach
June, July and August
California
Liberal stopovers—Free baggage allowance also $40 one way coach
On sale daily until Dec. 31, 1932
Proportionate fares in tourist and standard sleepers.
Fred Harvey lunch and dining rooms on the Santa Fe will save you money.
For Details——→
J. R. MORIARTY, Div. Pass. Agent
SANTA FE RY.
179 West Jackson St., CHICAGO, ILL.
Phone: HARrison 4900

3000
BRUCEWOOD DRESSES
Linens and cottons in a sensational event at $3.95
Worth twice $3.95 and more

Brucewood's up to something really exciting—the most deliciously cool mesh weaves, lace weaves, lattice weaves, pure Irish linens—styles that will take your breath away—Brucewood's inimitable needling . . and the grand finale—a sensational price that'll make you buy them in half-dozen lots. Sizes for women and misses

TODAY AT 8:30—SEVENTH FLOOR

MAURICE L. ROTHSCHILD
State at Jackson

COUPON FOR TRIBUNE ACCIDENT INSURANCE POLICY

For New Policy or Renewal. $1.25 a Year

To secure the Chicago Tribune-Federal $7,500.00 Travel Accident Insurance Policy, or to renew for another year one previously issued to you, cut out and fill in the application below and send it with registration fee of $1.25 to Tribune Insurance Dept., Federal Life Insurance Co., 168 N Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. Remit by money order or check payable to Federal Life Insurance Company. (During the first five years, as provided in the policy, the value of all specific indemnities increases 10% each year the policy is renewed.)

☐ NEW POLICY (Check here if you wish new policy) OR ☐ RENEWAL (Check here if you wish old policy renewed)

APPLICATION for $7,500.00 TRAVEL ACCIDENT INSURANCE POLICY
Issued to Readers of the Chicago Tribune

If Renewal, write Policy Number here. No.....

(If you wish a new policy ALL QUESTIONS BELOW MUST BE ANSWERED. If you wish to renew a Policy previously issued to you, indicate above and fill in name, address and policy number.)

Do you apply for a $7,500.00 Travel Accident Policy in the Federal Life Insurance Company, issued only to Readers of the Chicago Tribune?.....

What is your Full Name?.....

Address?..... Number Street

..... City State

What is your Age?.....Place of Birth?.....

Date of Birth? Month.....Day.....Year.....

Are you Totally Blind or Deaf?.....Are you Crippled to the Extent That You Cannot Travel Safely in Public Places?.....

What is the name and address of person to whom you want this insurance paid in case you are killed? (If not answered insurance will be payable to your Estate.)

Beneficiary's Name?.....

Relationship?.....

Address?.....

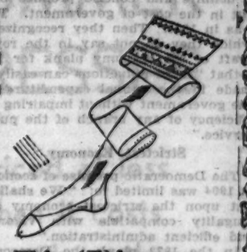
Do you certify that you are or will become a reader of the Chicago Tribune?.....

Sign your name here.....

NOTICE: Not more than one policy will be issued to any one person. Issued Only to Applicants Over 10 and Under 70 Years of Age.

CHAS. A. STEVENS & BROS

Convention News
Smart women seeking smart merchandise at smart prices hold a continual convention in Chicago, and we know how to please them. Here are five reasons why you always see smart shoppers buying smart accessories at Stevens'.



This (T)issue
Chiffon hose very special in sheer 48-gauge pure thread silk, with lace top, French heel, and cradle foot, very special summer shades . . . magique, sand-white, sunbeige, dawn and sandee, at the very special price of $.85.
HOSIERY—FIRST FLOOR

No "Boners"
in style can be made by wearing this real bone necklace. Made of colored bone rings, interspersed with metal ones, it is 30 inches long, in red, green, yellow, brown, or brown and white. This "exclusive with Stevens" sport necklace is remarkably priced at $2.50.
COSTUME JEWELRY—FIRST FLOOR

Unanimous
is the appeal to fastidious women of this imported "Rue de la Paix" vanity. Fine enamel on metal, it opens like an envelope, is very thin, contains a silk powder container and a real mirror. Red, green, blue, black, and multicolored. Never before at such an astounding price. $1.45.
GIFT GALLERIES—MEZZANINE

A Special Session
of the committee for reduction of prices met to offer you this ½-oz. bottle of Renaud's Orchid perfume (usually $7.50) in a velvet lined box. Special at $1.65. Also Renaud's Toilet Water in orchid, gardenia, or sweet pea. $1.65. Quantity very limited on these items. No mail or phone orders.
TOILETRIES—FIRST FLOOR

A Keynote
to any smart costume is a bag from this collection of new handbags, selected from our regular $2.95 stock. Only three of the many styles sketched. Patent, calf, silk, etc. Special for Wednesday, $1.95.
HANDBAGS—FIRST FLOOR

CHAS. A. STEVENS & BROS
19-25 NO. STATE ST.
STORE OPEN 9:30 TO 5

DEMOCRATS FAIL TO DRAFT STRONG ECONOMY PLANK

Only Once Has Party Stood Out Against Spending.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

What the Democrats will finally adopt as an economy pledge remains to be seen, but the rough planks suggested so far are not satisfactory to the National Organization to Reduce Public Expenditures. This organization, of which George W. Rossetter is head, desired a definite promise of a substantial tax reduction, and has urged it upon both the Republicans and the Democrats.

But only once probably in the last 36 years have the Democrats made a definite and concise promise of a cut in the cost of government. That was in 1904. Then they recognized—which they do not say in the rough draft of the economy plank for 1932—that "large reductions can easily be made in the annual expenditures of the government without impairing the efficiency of any branch of the public service."

Strictest Economy.

The Democratic promise of economy in 1904 was limited to: "We shall insist upon the strictest economy and frugality compatible with vigorous and efficient administration."

In the 1932 plank the Democrats say only that they "favor economy." They do not "insist," nor say it shall be the "strictest economy" as in 1904.

Nor does the 1932 rough plank use as strong language as the 1916 platform, which is probably the next best promise of economy by the Democrats in the last 36 years. They then proclaimed:

"We demand careful economy in all expenditures for the support of the government," but that was modified by another clause in the same sentence urging the return to the house of representatives of the privilege of initiating all appropriation legislation. So the "demand" did not mean so much. In the preliminary draft of the 1932 platform the Democrats are not even "demanding"—they only "favor" plain "economy," without it being "careful."

Apparently Unconcerned.

The writers of the Democratic platform in the last 36 years do not appear to have been much concerned with definite promises of economy. This subject was the last treated in the 1928 platform. It said:

"The Democratic party stands for efficiency and economy in the administration of public affairs" and pledged "elimination of duplication, waste and overlapping." When a Democrat really wants something he never "stands," he fights for it as he did yesterday.

In 1924 the Democratic platform said that the "dominant issues of the campaign were dishonesty, discrimination, extravagance and inefficiency." Then followed its second pledge as follows:

"We pledge the Democratic party to put none but the honest in office and to practice economy in the expenditures of public money."

Meaningless Platform.

The 1920 platform, when Franklin D. Roosevelt was a candidate for Vice President, was almost as meaningless with reference to economy. The league of nations was the first subject dealt with, the conduct of the war the second, and later the platform said: "We advocate tax reform and a searching revision of the war revenue acts." That platform also advocated an effective budget system "in the interest of economy and good administration."

In the 1912 convention at Baltimore, with its 46 ballots on presidential candidates, the platform committee was apparently too tired to write a plank on economy, so the 1896 plank was shoved into the platform with a few modifications. The 1912 plank reads:

"We denounce the profligate waste of money wrung from the people by oppressive taxation through the lavish appropriations of recent Republican congresses, which have kept taxes high. We demand a return to that simplicity and economy which befits a democratic government."

Change One Word.

That is a duplicate of the 1896 plank except for one word, which was probably an error by the copying stenographer. In 1912 the word "appropriations" was substituted for "expenditures" in the 1896 plank.

In 1900, following the Spanish-American war, the outstanding plank in the Democratic platform was not economy. The "paramount issue" to the Democrats was "imperialism." On economy the platform carpenters copied part of a sentence from the 1896 platform to say:

"We denounce the lavish appropriations of recent Republican congresses, which have kept taxes high and which threaten the perpetuation of oppressive war levies."

The 1904 economy plank was partly copied from the 1900 and partly from the 1904 planks. It said:

"We denounce the needless waste of the people's money, which has resulted in an appalling increase of taxes as a shameful violation of all precedent. We demand that a stop be put to this frightful extravagance and insist upon the strictest economy in every department compatible with frugal and efficient administration."

Promises Mean Little.

The economy promises of the Democrats appear to mean little after the party gets into power. Its record is for spending all of the income, just as the Republicans usually do. On spending there is little difference between the two parties in normal times. In Tuesday's TRIBUNE a comparison between four years of Wilson and McKinley was presented.

Some time back former Senator Culberson, a Democrat of Texas, compiled data to show the difference between Grover Cleveland and William McKinley in the period between 1894 and 1902. According to Culberson, Cleveland ended each year with a deficit while McKinley had two years of deficit and two years of surplus. Cleveland's deficits for the four years totaled $155,864,000, while McKinley got by with a net surplus of $30,036,000.

War Increases Costs.

McKinley's expenditures jumped 40 per cent because of the Spanish-American war. The comparison of receipts, expenditures, and deficits as given by Senator Culberson follows:

[Note—The last three figures are left off each of the following items, thus expressing millions.]

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Year.	Revenue.	Expenditures.	Deficit.
1894	$ 372,802	$ 442,665	$ 69,863
1895	390,373	443,178	42,805
1896	409,475	434,678	25,203
1897	430,387	448,439	18,052
Totals	$1,603,039	$1,758,863	$155,864

WILLIAM McKINLEY.

Year.	Revenue.	Expenditures.	Deficit.
1898	$ 494,333	$ 532,381	$38,047
1899	616,982	706,093	89,111
1900	669,595	596,068 *	79,527
1901	699,316	621,598 *	77,717
Totals	$2,474,227	$2,444,141	*$30,686

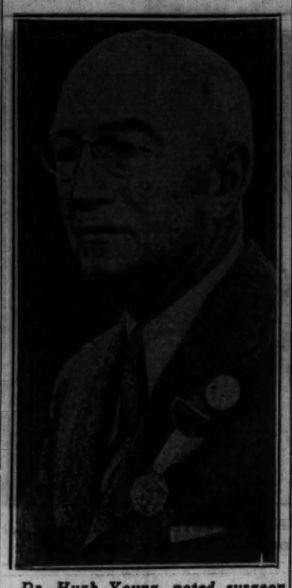
*Surplus, instead of deficit.

The federal appropriations are now in excess of four billion a year, yet the rought draft of the Democratic plank on economy are indefinite on what the taxpayers may expect.

South Carolina Labor Asks Repeal of Prohibition

Columbia, S. C., June 28.—(AP)—Without a dissenting vote, the South Carolina Federation of Labor today adopted a resolution calling for repeal of the 18th amendment.

NOTED DELEGATE



Dr. Hugh Young, noted surgeon who is among the enthusiastic supporters of Gov. Albert C. Ritchie.

RITCHIE HAILED AS THE MAN TO DEFEAT HOOVER

List His Accomplishments as Maryland Governor.

BY JOHN BOETTIGER.

Citizens of Maryland, here with their governor, Albert C. Ritchie, last night presented an array of facts which they feel lifts the governor high above the heads of all the field as Democracy's best candidate for the presidency of the United States.

These Maryland folk, a banker, a world renowned surgeon, a United States senator—these and others matched the public record of Albert Ritchie, item by item, alongside the public record of Herbert Hoover, and they deduced from their matching that Gov. Ritchie is the man to defeat President Hoover in November.

The Way Out of Despair.

They also asserted, emphatically, that Albert Ritchie has shown himself the caliber of man to lead the United States out of this economic despair.

A visit to the Ritchie headquarters in the Congress hotel leads one into the midst of substantial men who impress the listener with their absence of demagogic horn tooting. Instead of time honored, if hackneye, expressions of what their candidate will do for the "pee-pul," the Maryland citizens tell of what Gov. Ritchie has already done for his state, and they say that Maryland yields to no commonwealth in the orderliness, economy and efficiency of its government.

Senator Millard Tydings, who will present Gov. Ritchie's name to the convention, touched off the comparison between government by Hoover and government by Ritchie.

3 Billion Deficit.

"The federal government, under Hoover, has a three billion dollar deficit," he said. "The federal budget is not balanced. The administration has just passed a tax bill loading $1,200,000,000 of new and irritating taxes upon an already tax overladen people.

"In the face of this desperate situation, in the face of a nation-wide cry for reduction of the costs of government, there has been no move even toward a reorganization of the Hoover government.

"All the evils of bureaucracy which brought on the federal collapse are still in existence and President Hoover has failed to attempt their correction."

Having so pictured Hooverism, Senator Tydings fitted the Maryland governor into the situation this wise:

"Gov. Ritchie, at the beginning of his 13 years in the governorship, reorganized the state government. He found 92 separate departments eating up taxes and weeded them down to 17.

"He reduced the tax rate on farms and homes 30 per cent. He added no new taxes, with the exception of a gasoline tax, the proceeds of which go directly to highway improvements. Maryland has no sales tax. Maryland has no income tax. There are no nuisance taxes.

A Cash Surplus.

"Maryland has a 10 per cent cash surplus in the treasury to start the next fiscal year. The state pays as it goes, has never issued a tax anticipation warrant. Its bonds sell at 105 and 106, a better price than the bonds of the United States treasury, and this while the bonds of almost all of the other states are selling below par.

"Our state has ridden the economic storm better than any other, and who knows if the nation wouldn't have ridden it as well under as good a system.

"On top of all this, it shouldn't be taken that Gov. Ritchie has run a skimpy government. The story of his constructive accomplishments runs long, but to give an example or two, we can say that 96 per cent of the population of Maryland lives on or within two miles of an improved road, and that the state has more hospital beds for tubercular patients, per capita, than any city, state, or government in the world."

Maryland's Answer.

Does this record make Gov. Ritchie the man to lead the Democratic forces against Hoover? Maryland says it does.

These Ritchie people loyally refused to throw any brick bats at the governor of New York and they didn't mention at all, as they might have, that New York, under Gov. Roosevelt, labors under a 125 million dollar deficit, its income tax has been doubled in the last year, and it is torn by political and crime scandals.

Howard Bruce, known as the financial genius of Baltimore, the chairman of the Baltimore Trust company, who has adopted politics as a fine hobby and is the Democratic national committeeman for Maryland, took another tack and showed how. Gov. Ritchie's policy of giving the people the kind of government they want has made him such a popular figure—a vote getter, in political parlance.

Keeps His Promises.

"Mr. Ritchie makes promises, but he never once has failed to carry them out," Mr. Bruce said. "Before his régime no governor of Maryland had ever been reelected. He's on his fourth consecutive term.

"The first time he ran, in 1919, he won by a majority of 165 votes. The second time his majority was 40,000, the third, 60,000, and the last time, 67,000. And while he was being reelected by these increasing majorities, the same Maryland voters were giving strong majorities to Harding, Coolidge, and Hoover.

"During the coal strike in 1922, President Harding appealed to the governors of some 13 states to turn out their militia to protect the mines. Gov. Ritchie refused. He opposed the use of bayonets and bullets in a labor war. He invoked persuasion and there was no violence in Maryland. At the next election a county populated largely by miners, which had always been heavily Republican, went almost solidly for Ritchie.

Cleans Up Police Department.

"In 13 years there hasn't been a breath of scandal against the Baltimore police department, the heads of which are appointed by the governor, and which was reorganized by Ritchie when he took office. It was a mess and he plunged in boldly and cleaned it up."

Dr. Hugh Young, world renowned surgeon, who came to Chicago as a Maryland delegate-at-large, so that he might aid his "best friend," Gov. Ritchie, strolled into the headquarters and added his opinion of the governor. Dr. Young is senior urologist at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, and has attended many great American statesmen, including Woodrow Wilson.

"Bert Ritchie never runs away from a job," Dr. Young declared. "Government is his major interest, his life, and he works at it with a zest and an endurance that make us marvel.

"When he has a problem, it is a common thing for him to be at his desk 14, 15, 18, and 20 hours a day until he has it solved.

Improves School System.

"Our school system was in sorry straits when Ritchie became governor. He brought in the best man he could find to run it, and its standards have been raised so that instead of ranking 30th among the states in standards of education Maryland now is the equal of any state in the Union."

Dr. Dean Lewis, professor of surgery at Johns Hopkins and former president of the American Medical association, gave his assurance that Gov. Ritchie is the greatest presidential timber available.

"The governor has the faculty of working with people," said Dr. Lewis. "He knows how to deal with a legislature, and he will know how to deal with a congress. Gov. Ritchie has never been overridden by the Maryland assembly. He signed plenty of vetoes, but never was a bill passed over his veto."

On unemployment relief problems in Maryland, Dr. Lewis said, Gov. Ritchie has pursued a policy of keeping the contributions as close to the people as possible. He advocated first, donations by private individuals and corporations; then aid from the lowest governmental bodies, such as city and county governments. Only as a last resort should the federal government give aid, Dr. Lewis said.

Ritchie on Prohibition.

There has been some misunderstanding on Gov. Ritchie's prohibition views, Mr. Bruce put in.

"The governor from the beginning saw the evils which would arise from Volsteadism," he asserted. "While the other states were passing state enforcement acts, Maryland never did. But Maryland did adopt a local option measure, and, with Gov. Ritchie's support, 17 counties in the state went dry by action of the citizens themselves in those counties.

"They wanted prohibition in their communities, and they got it. Gov. Ritchie believes in the right of people to govern themselves, and he has always viewed the 18th amendment as an unwarranted invasion by the federal government of the police powers of the states, and an invasion also of the privilege of the citizens to establish their own legislative measures."

FOSTER, COMMUNIST CANDIDATE, SEIZED BY LOS ANGELES POLICE

Los Angeles, Cal., June 28.—[Special.]—William Z. Foster, presidential candidate on the communist ticket, was arrested here today and booked on a charge of suspicion of criminal syndicalism while followers of Foster clashed with Los Angeles police at a hall where he was to speak.

Foster had been prevented from filling scheduled engagements to conduct political meetings in various halls since his arrival in Los Angeles last Saturday, the police commission refusing to grant him a permit to conduct meetings.

One hundred and five policemen of the Los Angeles "Red" squad under Capt. William Hynes, broke up the Foster meeting today.

HOOVER CHIEF ISSUE IN G. O. P. CONTEST FOR SENATE IN N. DAKOTA

Fargo, N. D., June 28.—(AP)—The record of the national administration furnished a dominating issue in North Dakota's primary election campaign, which was brought to a close tonight by candidates seeking nominations for United States senator, two seats in the lower house.

In tomorrow's state-wide primary voters will choose two slates of 12 nominees from a field of 28 republican candidates and 16 Democratic candidates.

The contest for the Republican senatorial nomination between United States Senator Gerald P. Nye, an indorsee of the Nonpartisan league, and Gov. George F. Shafer, "real" or regular Republican, held the spotlight throughout the campaign as the governor led an attack on the incumbent senator for failure to support the Hoover administration.

Nye, admitting his insurgency, countered with an attack on party regularity, and contended his "irregularity" was in the best interests of the state and nation.

MICHIGAN GROUP TURNS GAZE TO STATE POLITICS

The Michigan delegation to the Democratic national convention, following faithfully all the orders issuing from Roosevelt headquarters, had so little to think about yesterday that it turned to a flurry of state politics.

About a hundred Michigan Democrats, in an informal caucus, authorized a movement to "draft" William A. Comstock as their candidate for governor of Michigan. Mr. Comstock has been leading a wet fight as a member of the subcommittee which is drawing up the Democratic platform.

Comstock was reported willing to make the race—it will be his fourth start for the governorship if he does—but he wanted assurances that an active campaign would be made, and that it would be properly financed.

The Costume Bootery of O'CONNOR & GOLDBERG
at 23 Madison, East

PRICED FOR IMMEDIATE DISPOSAL

Two Outstanding Groups of Fashionable Summer Shoes in the O-G Madison Street Shop

$7.85 and $9.85

Custom-made footwear formerly priced up to $14.50

WHITES
PATENT LEATHERS
BROWN, BLACK, BLUE GLACE KIDSKINS

Charge Purchases placed on July accounts, payable in August
Also at the O-G Sheridan Road Bootery at 4616 Sheridan Road

HELP BALANCE YOUR BUDGET AT RICKETTS
2727 N. Clark St. (near Diversey)

Rickett's food is always the best the market affords. Prepared and served to perfection in a most congenial environment and available to you at very reasonable prices.

LUNCHEON - - - 35c up
DINNERS - - - 50c up shayne pre-holiday sale

ANY DRESS unrestricted choice
$12.50 $19
$28
Values to $75

Laces, Chiffons, both plain and printed; Crepes, light and dark—everything included. Every dress is standard Shayne quality, from our regular stock.

ANY COAT nothing reserved
$19 $25
$35
Values to $95

Shayne plain and fur-trimmed coats included. All standard Shayne quality. The absolute climax in value-giving!

200 spring and summer
SHAYNE HATS
$1.95
Values to $10

P. S.—And be sure to get here early!

John T. Shayne
MICHIGAN at RANDOLPH

JULY SUIT SALE

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX
SUITS
$35 to $45 VALUES
$22.50

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX
SUITS
$50 to $65 VALUES
$32.50

This sale offers the best known 'quality' clothes made, at 'opportunity' prices—Hart Schaffner & Marx suits in worsteds, cheviots, flannels, tweeds, Oxford and Platinum grey, blues, browns and tans. Single and double breasteds, sizes and models for all figures, $22.50 and $32.50

BASKIN

State Street just North of Adams
Clark Street at Washington
336 North Michigan
63rd Street at Maryland
Open evenings
Cor of Lake and Marion
Oak Park

LONG DELEGATES SEATED; HUEY'S MARGIN 63 VOTES

Rebels Lose in Minnesota Battle.

The twenty delegates from Louisiana led by Senator Huey P. Long were awarded permanent seats at the Democratic convention yesterday afternoon after a bitter fight had been waged on the floor of the convention by a contesting delegation headed by former Gov. Jared Y. Sanders of Louisiana.

The convention also voted to seat the regular Minnesota delegation led by Einar Hoidale, Democratic candidate for United States senator, instead of giving the contesting delegation headed by John C. Gegan half the vote of the state, as suggested in a minority report. The vote was 658¼ to 492¾ against the minority report on the Minnesota contest.

The red headed, boisterous junior senator from the Pelican state had some anxious moments during a roll call of the states upon the minority report of the credentials committee, which favored seating of the Sanders delegation. The final vote was 638¾ votes against the minority report and 514 1-4 votes in favor of it.

A Margin of 63 Votes.

A change of 63 votes from one side to the other would have barred the Kingfish from the convention hall, it was pointed out. The deciding vote was cast by Pennsylvania, which, after a long poll and much squabbling among delegates, cast 55½ votes for Long and 20½ votes against him. The Pennsylvania vote was almost last, and Senator Long went over with the aid of a few straggling votes from Alaska, Hawaii, and the Canal Zone.

During the roll call the Kingfish heard the state of California cast all its 44 votes against him; Illinois voted 50 1-4 to 7¾ against him; Indiana's 30 votes were solidly in favor of ousting him. Maryland's 16 votes, Massachusetts' 36 votes, New Jersey's 32 votes, Rhode Island's 10 votes, Texas' 46 votes, Oklahoma's 22 votes, and Virginia's 24 votes were unanimously for the Sanders delegation.

New York Against Kingfish.

New York rebuked the Kingfish with a vote of 65 to 29 in favor of the minority report. North Carolina voted 20½ to 5½ to oust him. Other states with a majority of votes lined up against Senator Long and his hand picked delegation were Connecticut and Ohio. Maine and Iowa split their votes evenly.

The voting brought roars of applause from both sides as each state announced its tally. The Iowa delegates came close to fisticuffs when they found themselves divided 13½ to 13½ in favor of unseating the Kingfish. Under the unit rule, their vote was first recorded as 26 votes in favor of the minority report. This announcement caused so much excitement among the Iowans that they finally compromised and agreed upon 13 votes for each side.

It was the third victory won by Kingfish Long in his struggle for permanent seats for himself and his delegation. His espousal of the Roosevelt cause was said to have helped him in each battle. The national committee voted 55 to 32 to seat him; the credentials committee upheld the national committee's decision by a vote of 34 to 17.

Illinoisian Fights Seating.

Scott W. Lucas of Havana, Ill., presented the minority report suggesting the unseating of the Long delegation.

"The Sanders delegation should be seated," he declared. "It was selected by a convention upon a basis of population, while the Long delegation was picked by the state central committee controlled by Senator Long.

"At the 1928 convention in Houston the Long delegation, similarly selected by the state central committee, was seated only upon the solemn promise that such a procedure would not be repeated. Yet not only does the delegation again present itself to the convention with the self-made credentials, but the record shows that Gov. Long vetoed a bill which would have provided for election of a delegation by the convention method.

"I have never seen men of more stability and honor than those on the Gov. Sanders delegation. The folks in Louisiana have been holding conventions to elect delegates for fifty years until the precedent was broken by Huey Long in 1928.

"I charge that the selection of a set of delegates in the manner in which the Long delegation was selected is in direct conflict with the great American principles laid down by our forefathers amidst blood and tears. I plead with you to say to Louisiana by your vote that you still believe in Democratic principles."

Other members of the credentials committee repeated the same arguments. Then a great roar arose from the delegates as the Kingfish himself appeared on the platform, clad in a white linen suit, a royal purple tie affording a vivid contrast, with one reddish curl drooping upon his brow.

Huey Reads the Law.

In his speech Senator Long was subdued, flaring only once or twice into the rhetorical outbursts for which he is noted. He read from law books and pamphlets and the crowd was disappointed.

"This is not a contest between Louisianans," he began. "If you turn down the delegation selected by the state central committee there will be no Democratic electors upon the ballot in November. The law which applies to delegates applies also to electors. Do you want only Republican electors on the ballot this fall?

"Louisiana has done away with the convention system. The state central committee is elected by the people. The same system applies to Arkansas and if you throw us out you've got to throw Arkansas out also.

"I hear a gentleman from Illinois arguing against me. Why, Illinois elects its delegates at large through the state central committee.

"Why Not Court Fight?"

"Our delegation was selected last February. Why didn't our opponents go into the courts and get a ruling instead of waiting four months and then suddenly calling a convention? This convention in June was called by Frank W. Looney, who himself was a member of the state central committee and acceded in February to its action."

Arthur F. Mullen, national committeeman from Nebraska, also argued in behalf of the Long delegation, declaring that the matter had been settled in 1928. Then came the roll call of the states. Kingfish Long was the center of a hand shaking group when the result was announced.

Party Leaders' Families Watch Convention

Left to right: Mrs. Melvin A. Traylor, wife of Illinois presidential candidate; Mrs. John Hagey, Miss Nancy Traylor, candidate's daughter; Melvin Traylor Jr., his son, and Miss Betty Brawley in box at the Chicago Stadium. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

HOW HUEY LONG'S DELEGATION WAS GIVEN ITS SEATS

The Huey Long Louisiana delegation was seated by a vote of 638¾ to 514¼, giving evidence of Roosevelt strength. Following is the roll call by states on adoption of the minority report, the "yeas" being in favor of seating Huey Long's opponents:

No. of votes.	State—	Yea.	Nay.
24	Alabama	..	24
6	Arizona	..	6
18	Arkansas	..	18
44	California	44	..
13	Colorado	..	13
16	Connecticut	9½	6½
6	Delaware	1	5
14	Florida	3	11
28	Georgia	..	28
8	Idaho	..	8
58	Illinois	50¼	7¾
30	Indiana	30	..
26	Iowa	13	13
20	Kansas	..	20
26	Kentucky	..	26
20	Louisiana	..	20
12	Maine	6	6
16	Maryland	16	..
36	Massachusetts	36	..
38	Michigan	..	38
24	Minnesota	1	23
20	Mississippi	..	20
36	Missouri	16½	19½
8	Montana	..	8
16	Nebraska	..	16
6	Nevada	..	6
8	New Hampshire	..	8
32	New Jersey	32	..
6	New Mexico	..	6
94	New York	65	29
26	North Carolina	20½	5½
10	North Dakota	..	10
52	Ohio (one absent)	40	11
22	Oklahoma	22	..
10	Oregon	..	10
76	Pennsylvania	20½	55½
10	Rhode Island	10	..
18	South Carolina	..	18
10	South Dakota	..	10
24	Tennessee	..	24
46	Texas	46	..
8	Utah	..	8
8	Vermont	..	8
24	Virginia	24	..
16	Washington	..	16
16	West Virginia	..	16
26	Wisconsin	2	24
6	Wyoming	..	6
6	Alaska	..	6
6	District of Columbia	..	6
6	Hawaii	..	6
6	Philippines	6	..
6	Porto Rico	..	6
6	Canal Zone	..	6
2	Virgin Islands	..	2
	Totals	514¼	638¾

SUBMARINE AIDS IN RESCUE AFTER HITTING STEAMER

[Copyright: 1932: By the New York Times.]

WELMOUTH, England, June 28.—[Special.]—Officers on the bridge of the pleasure steamer Premier, carrying 150 persons on a cruise five miles off the Dorset coast this afternoon, suddenly saw the British submarine Rainbow break the surface immediately in their path.

A second later a number of passengers were flung to the decks as the two vessels crashed, the 1,475 tons of the submarine tearing a hole six feet long above the waterline of the pleasure steamer. The submarine was not damaged.

Seeing the Premier's condition, Lieutenant Commander T. Yeoman invited the passengers to jump aboard the submarine. Motor boats called by radio later took the passengers off and the Premier was towed to Weymouth.

There was neither panic nor casualties.

HUEY LONG GETS REBUFF IN IOWA DELEGATES' VOTE

Back Walsh for Permanent Chairman.

Iowa Democrats displayed a little internal dissension on the convention floor yesterday—the majority wishing to vote against the seating of Senator Huey Long of Louisiana and a minority, including T. E. Diamond of Sheldon, favoring the stormy southerner.

As the vote was announced the Hawkeyes were 13½ to 12½ against Long. However, a compromise was reached and it was agreed to let the vote on the matter stand at 13 to 13.

There was milling around and some shoving, but no fisticuffs. Shouts and storms of protest came from the delegation, making it just about the star floor spectacle of the afternoon, but it was bloodless.

That and the decision in a caucus to support Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, the Roosevelt choice for permanent chairman, were the major works of the day for the Iowans.

The vote on the chairmanship was 16 for Walsh and 10 for Jouett Shouse, the choice of anti-Roosevelt supporters, and under the unit rule the state's 26 votes will be cast for Walsh.

Prohibition also was discussed at the caucus. Mr. O'Connor believes that his delegation will favor outright repeal, whether in a majority or minority report, when the platform reaches the floor.

"We must stay in line with the plank adopted at our state convention," he said. "That body went liberal with a bang—for repeal and immediate modification. We still feel that way about it here, and I have no fears of different action."

Russia Gives Permit for Telephone Link with U. S.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, June 28.—The soviet council of people's commissars has decided to grant permission for a new telephone line linking Moscow and New York, according to a Moscow dispatch. The line would run by way of Berlin and London.

ASSAILS ROOSEVELT STEAM ROLLER FOR LOUISIANA DEFEAT

John D. Ewing, Democratic national committeeman from Louisiana and publisher of four newspapers in Louisiana, issued the following statement last night attacking the Roosevelt tactics:

"Despite its defeat by the steamroller tactics of the Roosevelt steering committee, our delegation has won a great moral victory over the undemocratic and blundering tactics of Messrs. Farley, Kremer, and Mullen.

"These three hand-picked leaders, by a series of blunders, have defeated their candidate for the nomination, whereas a week ago he was an easy winner under the old established and just two-thirds rule.

"Mr. Farley and his associates advocated the abolishment of this rule and made an undemocratic attempt to effect permanent organization before credentials of delegates had been accepted by the convention and gaining their defeat. These actions and their attacks on that great Democrat, Jouett Shouse, and their ward boss tactics against our legally elected delegation, have made many delegates wonder if Mr. Roosevelt, surrounded by such advisers, is the man to lead our party.

"I predict that when the delegates have expressed themselves by their votes Mr. Farley will go back to his managing and supervising of prize fights, and Messrs. Mullen and Kremer will return to Montana and Nebraska to punch cattle instead of riding roughshod with petty ward boss tactics over the most representative and largest delegation that Louisiana has ever sent to a national convention."

GREEN ASSURES U. S. TEACHERS OF LABOR'S AID

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, assured teachers of the nation of the unqualified support of the federation in their fight to escape salary cuts and to maintain standards of education last night in an address to delegates to the convention of the American Federation of Teachers in the Knickerbocker hotel. "The federation regards the maintenance of educational and teaching standards as equally important as the maintenance of wages and living standards," the teachers were told.

Mr. Green painted a dire picture of unemployment and unrest, which he said cannot be cured except by maintenance of high wages and the recreation of a large purchasing power.

SAKS-FIFTH AVENUE CHICAGO

Specials for the 4th

FRESH NEW SUMMER DRESSES

Priced at less than it costs to produce them TODAY!

Priced at 13.50
in the "Debutante Shop"

10.50
Sports dresses of cottons, cotton laces, new crepe silks. Suits of chalk crepes and summer prints. Sizes 12 to 20.

In the "Tally-ho" Shop

13.50
Dresses of hand-blocked batistes—tennis and golf dresses of cotton and crepe silk—spectator suits with knitted or silk jackets. Sizes 12 to 40.

Misses' and Women's Shop

18.00
Suits of sheer crepe—crepe silks in white and pastels. Hand-blocked silks and linens. Available in sizes 12 to 42.

BATHING SUITS

5.00 to 12.50
New "double white" suits, plain-knit or waffle weave, at 5.00. Others in all the smart colors in this price range.

SILK HOSIERY

regularly up to 1.95 a pair

3 Pairs for 2.50
French and American made . . . plain silk . . . silk with Paris clocks . . . and silk mesh. All perfect hose.

SUMMER HANDBAGS

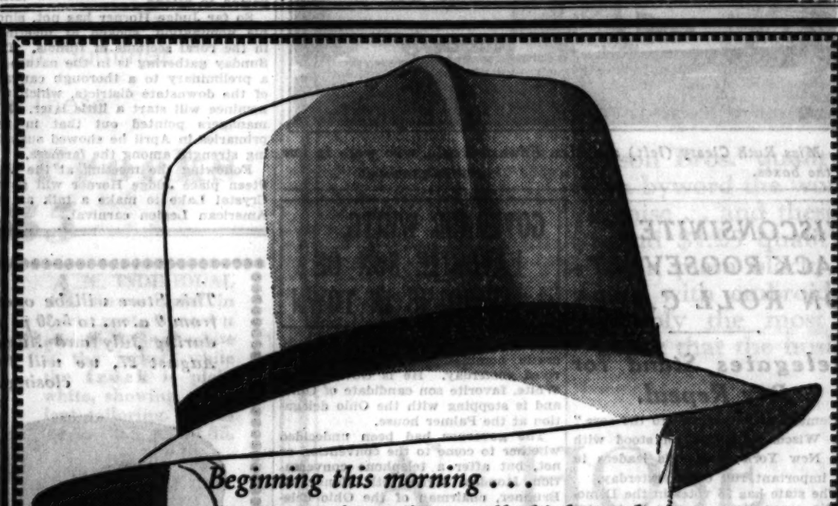
formerly up to 15.00

2.95
A wide assortment of leathers and fabrics—black, brown and navy as well as pastels.

NEW SUMMER HATS

1.95 and 5.00
Stunning stitched silk crepe in white and pastels and white straws at 5.00. The new "Tally-ho" pique and rib-cord hats at 1.95

North Michigan at Chestnut



Beginning this morning . . .
An Event that offers really high-grade

GENUINE ECUADORIAN PANAMAS

AT THE PRICE OF AN IMITATION!

If we mentioned the name of the maker we would have to call out the reserves

There are Panamas and Panamas. Whether you know it or not some are made of paper and NOT of straw. Rather poor Panama imitations usually sell around the price we're asking for the genuine article.

This is an unusual opportunity for the hundreds of men who have always wished they could enjoy the comfort and distinction that only a good Panama affords.

NOT a clearance, but complete size ranges. NOT left over manufacturers' stocks, but brand new hats, woven, blocked and made for this event by the finest maker in the United States—a name that would amaze you if we could use it.

Seven different proportions to choose from—and while we have hundreds we won't guarantee how long the selection will last at this price. $3.95

FIRST FLOOR—Also Evanston and Oak Park

THE STORE FOR MEN

MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY

Choice of the House SALE AT KERMANS

FORMER PRICES UP TO $150

Every coat, suit, frock and ensemble has been included in this closeout sale—even fine fashions formerly priced at $85, $95, $100—and $150! All garments have been placed in full view for easy selection—but the Sale has been going so briskly that we urge an immediate visit. All Sales Final and for Cash Only.

$10 $15 $25 $35

sports travel street formal coats suits frocks ensembles

HATS $2.50 $3.95 $5.00
Our entire stock on sale—including whites.

KERMANS

160 north michigan avenue 4720 sheridan road

HUEY (CALL ME FISH) PEGLER DAZZLES PARTY

That Long Tail Swing Sets 'Em Crazy.

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

United States Senator Huey P. [Bottlefish] Pegler took the Democratic national convention by storm in yesterday's session when he swung by his tail for two hours and thirty-five minutes without the use of a net, a new indoor record. The previous record of two hours flat, was established by Senator Smith W. Pegler during a debate on Wall Street Sinisterism two years ago.

In yesterday's remarkable performance, the noted southern statesman also sang a song, spelled words with blocks, did the split and swallowed a live mouse as the high-spots of the most learned and dignified discussion of national problems in his distinguished career.

They Can't Pin Him Down.

The subject of the Hon. Pegler's address was not revealed and this unique procedure served to heighten the interest in his remarks, an interest which at times evoked from the delegates cries of "What are you talking about?"

"You are not going to pin me down," yelled the Hon. Three-Star Fish in retort to this heckling. "I don't admit anything."

Senator Pegler rushed up to the platform, shoved the chairman away from the microphone and began scratching himself violently at half-past three. Consternation reigned on the speakers' rostrum and a sergeant-at-arms leaped in to remonstrate with him. Anticipating this attack, however, the Hon. Cat-Fish gulped a draught from a glass of water and squirted the official right in the eye, laughing with refined good humor. He then took off him coat and shirt, placed his shoes on the shelf before him and, with a gesture for silence, launched into his address.

He Brings His Library.

He had brought with him a large armful of reference volumes for guidance in his oration, including the 1909 Stud-book, several joke-books and The Handy Compendium of 1,000 Useful Facts, from which, at various times, he quoted with telling effect from Talleyrand, Aristotle, Shakespeare and Deuteronomy.

Hon. Pegler began with an offer to bet $5 that in a free style contest to a finish, he could outpray any chaplain who ever delivered an invocation at a national convention, speed and volume of sound each to count for five points in the scoring. By way of a demonstration, "Listen," he cried, "how is this?" and reeled off very rapidly and in a voice that seemed to shake the girders, "oh-thee-thou-hadst-wouldst-thine-wert-vouchsafest-giveth-hollereth-amen.

"Any good?" the Hon. Gefülteñah demanded, stepping back with a smile of triumph. "That is nothing. I can go on that way for hours.

Women' You're Terrible.

"Look here," he shouted and drew from his trousers pocket a live mouse which he plumped into his mouth as the feminine delegates screamed.

"Hey, wait, shut up," he ordered, poising the water pitcher to throw it. "That is what we get for letting women into politics. But I am not going to dwell on sex with all these lovely ladies present. Some of them are lovely. Some of them are pretty hard to look at.

"Hey, look at that fat one down there. Right there, in the, one, two, three, fourth row. Everybody look. She is fat as a pig. Hey, lady, if you were married to me you would have to do some road work and boil off about eighty pounds of that heft. Holy Moses, I would hate to be married to you."

The lady designated rose and attempted to make herself heard but the Hon. Dogfish out-yelled her. "Shut up, shut up, shut your fat face, you fat pig," he roared and, proceeding with his debate, waved aloft a volume of the Vassar college year book for 1921.

The Law, by Talleyrand.

"I hold here in my hand," he said, "a document bearing on this great problem and I read you the law as interpreted by Talleyrand. What did Talleyrand say? Talleyrand said, in section three, paragraph four of the revised rules, 'The referee shall have the power to disqualify a contestant for any of the following acts: Hitting below the belt, using the pivot blow or the kidney punch—' My friends, there is much more of it but let us change the subject.

"You thought that mouse was gone, didn't you? That shows how much you know. Now look."

Hon. Pegler took from his pocket a piece of cheese and held it to his right ear. The mouse hopped out and was restored to his pocket.

"Can Hoover do that?" he challenged. "I can do it with a hedgehog, even. Only with a hedgehog cheese is no good. You got to use parsley.

"If you happen to get any old string, tinfoil, or cellophane, will you save it for me, please? I am saving old string, tinfoil, and cellophane. When I get a certain amount I throw it away and start all over again.

Genesis Stands Behind Him.

"And we find that Genesis stands squarely behind us on this great issue which is besetting our beloved country today. I read from a letter written by Genesis in which he placed himself permanently on record as follows: 'The batting order of each team must be delivered to the umpire before the game and there shall be no exception to this rule except:

"It goes on and on but I think that gives you a general idea of the national scope of the great work that our earnest group is trying to accomplish. But, on that other thing, I quote you from the wisdom of the immortal Thomas Jefferson as set down in his beautiful Vision of Sir Launfall: 'Raspberry souffle: Take the whites of two eggs, three cups of cocoa, a firkin of cloves, a half fillip of Macedon and shake yo. feet, mah honey, shake yo' feet, on Aunt Jemima's wedding day.'"

The vast assemblage sat spellbound throughout the senator's address which was recognized as a historic incident in the career of the Democratic party and when he burst into song with an original paraphrase called "Good-by, Dolly Gann," whole groups of people rushed from the hall to regain control of their feelings.

"Good-by, Dolly, you must leave us," he screamed, waving his shirt like a banner. "Good-by, Dolly, you must leave. Good-by Dolly, you must leave us. Good-by, Dolly Gann. Bah-yah-yah. How do you like that, Princeton?"

Those who have followed the career of Senator Pegler up through the grades of politics, from poundmaster to deputy supervisor of ash-removal, to chief justice of the state Supreme court, to the governorship, and now to the U. S. senate, all agreed that in yesterday's speech he showed a grasp of affairs, a logic and a quality of dignity quite beyond his previous development.

It was as though the Hon. Skatefish by some miracle had suddenly reached the full blossom of his powers. He might have gone on for further hours to establish an all time record for swinging by the tail under official United States senate rules but for the fact that the convention adjourned from under him.

The New York delegation this evening sent an official note to the Hon. Rock-and-Rye Bassfish, challenging him to a debate on the major problems of civilization against James J. (Jimmy) Pegler, the mayor of New York City.

Younger Set Has Its Day at Democratic National Convention

Miss Loraine Keaton of Tennessee, who watched proceedings from one of the boxes.
[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Ellen McAdoo has a talk with her father, William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury and leader of the California delegation. She is a granddaughter of Woodrow Wilson, war time President.
[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Miss Ruth Cleary (left) and Mrs. Edward Boyle, who were in one of the boxes.
[TRIBUNE Photo.]

FORGED COUNTY TAX WARRANTS ARE DISCOVERED

Forgers have duplicated some of the county's tax anticipation warrants, it was discovered yesterday, after $3,000 worth of the warrants had been presented at the office of County Treasurer McDonough for redemption.

The forgeries were discovered when clerks compared the warrants with records in the office and found that one of those presented was for a different amount than that of the warrant issued under its serial number. Further investigation showed none of the forged warrants have been cashed by the county to date.

County officials, including Mr. McDonough, County Clerk Sweitzer and President Whealan of the county board, whose signatures appear on the warrants, held a conference yesterday with representatives of the state's attorney's office. Warnings were sent to banks and bond houses of the forgeries.

GERMANY SENDS OFFICIALS TO JAIL IN BIG GRAFT CASE

BERLIN, June 28.—(AP)—One of the longest corruption trials in German legal history ended today with the sentencing of Leo and Willy Sklarek, who formerly supplied city employés with uniforms, to four years' imprisonment on charges of bribery and roguery.

Sentences of three to eighteen months were imposed upon two aldermen, two district burgomasters, several bookkeepers, and several directors of the Berlin Municipal bank.

The scandal came to light in 1929, when Lord Mayor Gustav Boess was visiting the United States. The city council ordered him to return and he was compelled to resign shortly after he got back. In the course of 124 court sessions it was brought out that the city lost $2,500,000 to $5,000,000 through the operations of the Sklareks and the politicians who worked with them.

PREPARES PLEA FOR $80,000,000 FOREIGN LEGACY

Paul Schoene, manager of the Woodruff hotel in Joliet, was preparing yesterday to enter a claim for part of the $80,000,000 estate of John Gottlieb Schoene, Australian mine baron, who died in 1889 with no known heirs. The estate is controlled by the Australian government pending appearance of a claimant.

Schoene became interested in the matter when he noticed a newspaper story of the estate, which said that the mine owner went to Australia in 1850. He recalled the family story that two of his father's brothers, one of them named John, had gone to the Australia mine field from Germany in 1850.

Domino
Cane Sugars
Full Weight
"Sweeten it with Domino"

WISCONSINITES BACK ROOSEVELT ON ROLL CALLS

Delegates Stand for Dry Repeal.

Remaining "Roosevelt to the core," the Wisconsin delegation stood with the New York governor's leaders in all important roll calls yesterday.

The state has 26 votes in the Democratic convention. It cast 24 to seat Senator Huey Long of Louisiana and his group, Roosevelt backers, and the same vote stood for the Roosevelt delegation from Minnesota.

As the roll call neared on the question of the permanent chairmanship, F. Ryan Duffy, Wisconsin chairman and candidate for the United States senate, announced that his delegation would cast 24 votes for Senator Walsh of Montana and one for Jouett Shouse, choice of the anti-Roosevelt forces, leaving one vote undecided.

About the only point on which the delegation remains undecided is which candidate to back for Vice President.

"When it comes time to decide," said Mr. Duffy, "I shouldn't be surprised to see us splitting our votes among several candidates. Melvin A. Traylor, Chicago banker, has friends in the delegation and the same can be said for Speaker Garner and several others. It's an open question now."

This indecision does not hold as far as the prohibition plank is concerned, however. Wisconsin wants repeal and will so express itself in no uncertain language, the wet leaders predicted, Congressman Reilly of Fond du Lac among them.

The delegation kept to its section, not engaging in squabbles like its neighbor, Iowa, in the next section. Wisconsin is pledged to Roosevelt and to repeal. Beyond that, it has no plans.

Draws Savings from Bank; All He Has Is Headache

John Lasko, 40 years old, 1826 Ruble street, decided that a bank was not a safe place for his money and withdrew his savings of $1,000. Monday night he met a woman named Anna Walbeck, who suggested a round of drinks in her flat in South Bishop street. Yesterday morning Lasko reported at the Englewood police station with a headache but minus his money.

GOVERNOR WHITE, FAVORITE SON OF OHIO, IS IN TOWN

Still another bidder for the Democratic nomination for President arrived yesterday. He is Gov. George White, favorite son candidate of Ohio, and is stopping with the Ohio delegation at the Palmer house.

The governor had been undecided whether to come to the convention or not, but after a telephone conversation Monday night with Henry G. Brunner, chairman of the Ohio delegation, Gov. White elected to come.

"When an old war horse smells powder it is hard to restrain him," the governor explained. He has attended every national convention of the party for many years, and was unwilling to break his record.

Ohio's 52 votes will go for Gov. White as long as the delegates believe he has a chance for nomination. Then Ohio's support will go to former Gov. James Cox or Newton D. Baker, according to which has developed the greater strength.

FEDERAL AGENTS INVESTIGATE RED DRIVE ON BANKS

A secret investigation of communistic activity against the national currency through attacks on the banking system is being carried on by the United States government, it was learned yesterday. The radical activity for the last month has centered in the middle west with the greater part of the organization concentrated in Chicago, it is said.

The investigation, carried on under cover at the request of bankers whose names were not disclosed, is being made by secret service agents under Capt. Thomas J. Callaghan. One banker, it was reported, has received more than a hundred letters from depositors telling of attempts of communists to have them withdraw their bank accounts.

"I can say nothing at this time except that an investigation is under way," Capt. Callaghan said. "Names of individuals making complaints or of suspects being investigated cannot be given at this time. As soon as we can we will present evidence to the proper authorities."

In the campaign by the communists letters are not used because they can be traced. Telephone calls have been the favored method.

4th of JULY EXCURSION
NIAGARA FALLS
CANADA
ROUND TRIP
In Coaches as low as $12.00 In Pullmans as low as $17.00
SPECIAL TRAIN leaves Chicago (Dearborn Sta.) 7:30 pm Sat., July 2
Returning—ar. Chicago 6:30 am Tue., July 5, Daylight Saving Time.
Optional side trip to Toronto only $4.50; Famous Gorge Trip only $1.50
Two days at the Falls enables you to see everything of interest—including the Illumination at Night. No hotel expense. Your Pullman is your hotel. Make reservations now.
ALLEN TOURS.....333 N. Michigan Ave., CEN. 9741
POWERS TOURS.....111 W. Washington St., DEA. 7057
CONTINENTAL TOURS.....110 S. Dearborn St., AND. 5625 or GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY
4 South Michigan Avenue. RANdolph 8770

HORNER TO MEET M'HENRY COUNTY FARMERS SUNDAY

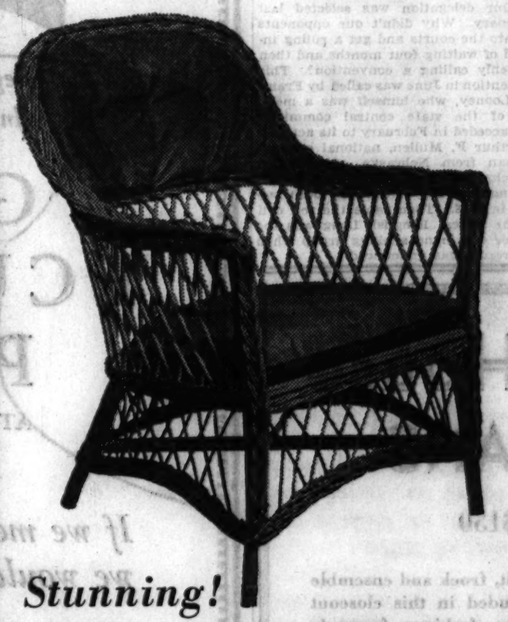
Judge Henry Horner, Democratic nominee for governor of Illinois, will address a meeting of McHenry county farmers to be held on J. Van Steen's peony farm a half mile north of Crystal Lake next Sunday at 1:30 p. m.

The meeting was called by a group of McHenry county farmers who have expressed themselves as anxious to become better acquainted with Judge Horner and exchange views with him on the farm problems of the state. Several thousand, according to an announcement from McHenry, are expected to attend.

So far Judge Horner has not, since his nomination, spoken at meetings in the rural sections of Illinois. The Sunday gathering is in the nature of a preliminary to a thorough canvass of the downstate districts, which the nominee will start a little later. His managers pointed out that in the primaries in April he showed surprising strength among the farmers.

Following the meeting at the Van Steen place Judge Horner will go to Crystal Lake to make a talk at the American Legion carnival.

This Store will be open all day Saturday, July 2, from 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. On subsequent Saturdays during July and August, with the exception of August 27, we will follow our usual custom of closing at 1 o'clock.

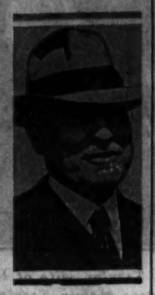


Stunning!
Enameled Bar Harbor Reed Chairs
Upholstered in Fabricoid
You'll have to do a lot of thinking to recall any chair as smart, as brilliant, as fashionable and as well made for such a modest price.
The reed is finished with three coats of enamel, in the manner of our finest Summer furniture, and the seat and back upholstery is of plain colored, washable fabricoid.
Colonial yellow with green upholstery
African brown with terra cotta upholstery
White with green upholstery
Tiger rose with buff upholstery
Cactus green with terra cotta upholstery
Special $5
Eighth Floor, South, State
Also in our Evanston Store
MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY

RELIEF FROM U. S. COMPETITION IS HELD TRADE NEED

Rep. Shannon Makes Plea at Hamilton Club.

Congressman Joseph B. Shannon of Kansas City, Mo., pleaded for elimination of government competition with private business yesterday before the Co-operative club at the Hamilton club. Mr. Shannon is a member of a house investigating committee which will open hearings in Kansas City on July 18.



REPRESENTATIVE SHANNON.

Active government competition in 80 lines of business was traced by Congressman Shannon to "federal bureaus which, once they are entrenched, reach out for more to feed upon." He predicted the investigation will result in stopping further competition and take the government and bureaus out of private business.

Army Launders for Neighborhood.

He told how federal army trucks from Fort Leavenworth, manned by soldiers, pick up laundry of officers, the fort staff, and their neighbors and friends in a radius of 27 miles for the government operated laundry at the fort, where work is done for 30 per cent less than at private laundries.

Mr. Shannon also told of restaurants and gymnasiums in postoffices and Federal Reserve banks throughout the country. He charged Federal Reserve banks with taking tenants from other buildings in various cities and pointed to the farm board and federal competition with engineers, chemists, architects, and other trades and businesses.

Mr. Shannon hit particularly at government stores in Washington, and at army posts and naval bases.

Sell Foreign Made Goods.

"In Washington we sent a boy to one of these stores," Mr. Shannon said. "The boy bought, among other things, a pair of shoes and they were stamped with the legend 'Made in England.' All this under the division of welfare work. The welfarers are not moved by any lines—it seems they work for the welfare of the world.

"I myself went into a store and was shown little bottles with labels—gin extract, rye extract, bourbon extract, and scotch extract—and with further information that each of the bottles was good for a gallon. Nothing more was needed. Our boy got a haircut, and shoe shine, and had his lunch in the store. All at the expense of national defense."

The competition is not direct government participation, he said, but competition by something the government finances—a bureau. He traced their growth to "a bureaucracy mad administration."

"This phase of bureaucracy is leading to national destruction," Mr. Shannon continued. "It reaches in so many places it means destruction to the individual, through his business. Throughout the country cotton men, cattle men, and merchants, and professional men are crying for relief. Relief from what? Federal competition."

Strike of City Workers Is Ended and Men Return

The strike of 2,300 city laborers, whose walkout a week ago forced the layoff of nearly 2,000 truck drivers and other city employés who worked with them, was settled yesterday and the men resumed their work. Commissioner of Public Works Sprague and Michael Carrozza, who controls the laborers' unions in Chicago, arranged a settlement of the strike. The strike was called by John W. Garvey, an international representative of the union, while Carrozza was absent from the city.

ORE CARRYING SHIPS ON GREAT LAKES WILL BE INCREASED BY NINE

Cleveland, O., June 28.—(AP)—The great lakes ore carrying vessels in service this season will be increased within the next several days by nine ships of the Pittsburgh Steamship company, now being put in shape in lower lakes ports.

Two of the vessels, the B. F. Affleck and the M. G. Taylor, are to clear from Toledo tomorrow to load ore cargoes at the head of the lakes.

The addition of the nine will bring the total of ore carriers in service to 67, out of 332 of United States registry, which are available.

"BUY" THIS RESTAURANT FOR 50c
If you want to surprise your friends bring them here! You actually help yourself to everything and all you want from 85 delicious varieties of tasty foods and refreshing drinks—just as if you owned the place. All day, every day, 50c, no tips, never more.
BOSSOW'S 19 East Van Buren

SUMMER HEAT
COMFORTABLE
Enjoy the Luxury of COOLED CARS on the
NEW YORK CENTRAL and PENNSYLVANIA Railroads
Every hot day this summer—a flood of fresh, pre-cooled air will be pumped into the cars of all principal Pennsylvania and New York Central trains before they leave on their journeys—affording full ventilation en route.
When you step into a New York Central or Pennsylvania train, you will step out of the heat into comfort. Clean, cool air will be forced through all the aisles, around the seats, below the berths, into compartments—penetrating to every nook and cranny of the car. A cool wave now hits Pennsylvania and New York Central trains before they start!
Air-conditioned dining cars on principal trains
Passengers who ride the principal trains of these railroads now will enjoy all the refreshing comforts of completely air-conditioned dining cars during the entire trip. Dust, smoke, cinders and noise are shut outside. Only cool, filtered air circulates inside. You have enjoyed fast time on the famous flyers of these railroads—now enjoy a cool time as well!
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
NEW YORK CENTRAL LINES

SENATE PASSES ECONOMY BILL BY VOTE OF 35 TO 11

Hoover to Sign Measure to Save 165 Million.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 28.—[Special.]—Out of a tangled legislative jam that spelled almost certain defeat, senate leaders late today plucked the federal economy bill, pushed and tugged it past all opposition, and passed it by a vote of 35 to 11.

Designed to save between 150 and 165 millions, the bill now is ready to go to the President, whose signature appears certain.

Chief feature of the measure is its provision for an enforced furlough for federal employés receiving more than $1,000 a year. Employés who cannot be spared are to be cut 8.3 per cent, and higher salaried employés are to be cut at higher rates; 10 per cent for those receiving $10,000, 12 per cent from $10,000 to $12,000, 15 per cent from $12,000 to $15,000, and from $15,000 to $20,000, 20 per cent.

Vice President Cut 15 Per Cent.

Members of congress are cut 10 per cent; the Vice President and speaker, 15 per cent.

The President and federal judges, who are constitutionally immune from salary changes during their terms, are invited by the bill to turn into the treasury an amount equivalent to a pay cut.

It is estimated that 100 million dollars will be saved under this combined furlough and pay cut program. Other revisions of the laws affecting federal employés, a series of limitations on expenditures and certain bureau reorganizations are expected to bring the saving to somewhere between 150 and 165 millions.

Estimated by Controller.

The larger figure was that estimated at the time the house had the bill under consideration ten days ago. The lesser figure has been estimated by the office of the controller general.

The senate's action was a sudden and unexpected solution of an impasse that threatened to kill the economy bill entirely. Previously, the senate had rejected the conference report on the bill and had been met by Speaker John N. Garner's refusal to appoint new house conferees. Two of the three former house conferees were absent in Chicago.

It appeared a deadlock and one that seriously involved the passage of the appropriation bills, which must be approved and signed by Thursday midnight.

Put Up Stubborn Fight.

It required persistent forcing by senate leaders headed by Senator Wesley L. Jones [Rep., Wash.], appropriations committee chairman, to drive through a reconsideration of the former rejection of the conference report and agreement upon it.

A stubborn opposition, led by Senator Robert M. La Follette [Rad. Rep., Wis.], fought every step of the way, using every parliamentary strategy short of an outright filibuster to postpone a final vote.

Quorum after quorum was called for by the opposition, in the hope that with a score of Democrats away a roll call might find no majority present. The strategy all but succeeded, the quorum call before the vote showing a tally of only 49 senators.

Debate by Foes Brief.

There was but brief debate. Two senators embodied the arguments of the two sides.

"It is the conference report or nothing," said Senator Henry F. Ashurst [Dem., Ariz.].

"It is a humiliating surrender," said Senator La Follette. "I should be glad to take the responsibility of defeating the bill, but I know that resistance is futile."

One of the principal objections was aimed at the bill's provision that married employés with a husband or wife also federally employed shall be the first to go if dismissals are necessary. Immediately on the bill's passage, Senator Hiram Bingham [Rep., Conn.], introduced a concurrent resolution to strike this provision from it.

Commission Orders Cut in Coal Freight Rates

The Illinois commerce commission yesterday ordered that the carload freight rates be cut from $1.73 to $1.25 a ton. The order is to become effective Sept. 1. The new rates particularly affect coal destined for reshipment after being brought to Chicago by boat from great lakes ports.

Discussing Prohibition Plank

Mrs. Charles Sabin (center), who made fight for minority wet plank in Republican national convention, and Mrs. Edward S. Moore talk about Democratic pronouncement with John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic national committee. Although Mrs. Sabin is a former Republican national committeewoman from New York, her husband is in the convention as a Democratic delegate. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Install C. Norman Dold as Lions Club President

C. Norman Dold, recently elected president of the Central Lions club, was installed in his office at a meeting held yesterday in the La Salle hotel. Other officers installed were E. S. McCready, Dalton Cole, and Maurice Blink, vice presidents; Robert Fulton, secretary; Louis Nutter, treasurer; William Conway, tail twister, and L. Oscar Challman, the retiring president, lion tamer.

DIES IN FALL FROM PORCH.

Thomas W. Bruce, 40 years old, a clerk for the Illinois Central railroad, was killed yesterday in a fall from a third floor porch at his home, 6354 Ellis avenue. He had been ill of heart disease for several months.

CUTS 2 MILLION OFF COAST GUARD DRY LAW FUND

Senate Prepares to Pass Treasury, Postal Bill.

Washington, D. C., June 28.—[Special.]—A two million dollar curtailment of the coast guard's prohibition activities was voted today, with the senate's passage of the treasury and postoffice appropriation bill.

The saving was more than counter balanced, however, by an increase of the appropriation for rural sanitation from $300,000 to $3,000,000 and the retention of customs surveyors and appraisers—patronage jobs which the house bill had thrown out.

As agreed to, the bill carried $1,056,498,333.

Senator Blaine also was chief critic of a $375,000 increase for night air mail service between Salt Lake City and San Diego. It was necessary to serve the construction camp at Boulder Dam, said Senator Oddie.

Boulder dam also is to benefit under the $22,838,769 second deficiency bill reported out today. A five million dollar house appropriation has been increased to seven millions by the senate appropriations committee.

Widow of Slain Dry Agent Is Voted $5,000 by House

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 28.—[Special.]—The house of representatives today voted $5,000 for the widow of Asa C. Hawkins, a special prohibition officer who was killed in a federal raid on a still in Jones county, North Carolina, in 1930. Hawkins had been a deputy sheriff of Lenoir county, North Carolina, for several years, but at the time of his death was acting as a special federal agent. He had entered into contract with the prohibition bureau to transport enforcement officers in his car and to coöperate with them.

A. E. F. VETERAN DIES.

Coldwater, Mich., June 28.—[Special.]—Maj. Wilbur A. Griffith, 62, physician and surgeon in the medical corps, A. E. F., died here today.

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT & CO

18 Smart Styles to Choose

White Shoes

Lead for Summer at This Very Special Price

$7.45

It has been many a summer since white shoes have h so important—and white is of first impor throughout the summer mode.

And we can't remember when white shoes have been so interesting and varied. Only two of many, many styles illustrated. Pumps, straps, ties and sandals—in this year's favorite materials—kid, mesh, buck, and duckalin.

Women's Shoe Section, Third Floor, Wabash

Tickets on Sale at the Third Floor Ticket Office for the George Washington Military Tournament Which Is at Soldier Field Through July 4th.

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT & CO

Learn All About Summer Chic from These

Tub Silk Frocks $8.85

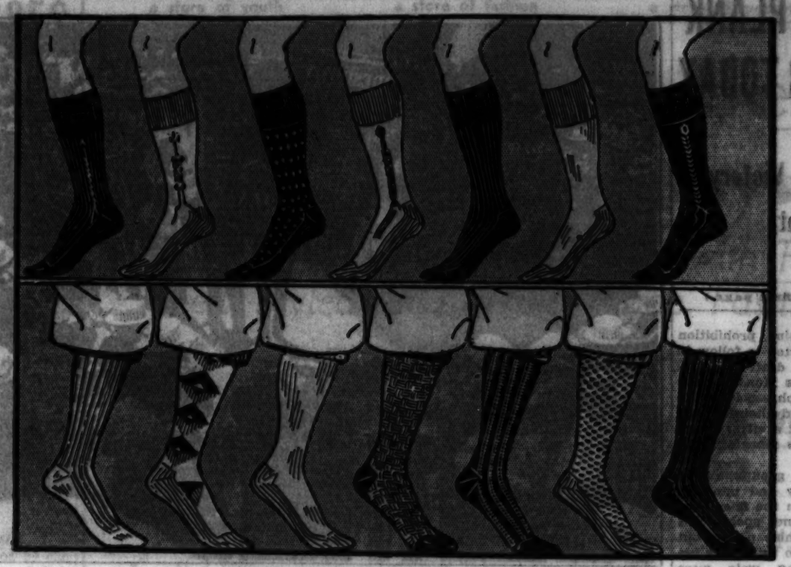
AN INDIVIDUAL flower print in beet root, brown and navy on white is the jacket, while the frock is plain white, showing excellent tailoring. Sizes 14 to 20. At $8.85.

THE smartness of tailoring is this frock's chief charm. Frock is double breasted and the collarless coat has huge patch pockets. White, flesh, blue, maize. In sizes from 38 to 44. At $8.85.

BOWS on its shoulders (tailored flat ones that cover the top of the arm a little). Flesh, white, pink, maize. 14 to 20. At $8.85.

Tub Frocks, Fourth Floor.

TODAY AT 8:30



100,000 Wilson Bros. hose

An amazing quality value event offered in the spirit of progress

75c $1 $1.25 HOSE at 47c

Wilson Bros.' quality is traditionally famous . . it's a byword the world over . . it knows no compromise . . and these hose are their regular 75c, $1 and $1.25 quality . . luxurious pure thread silks in plain black, plain colors and fancies . . many with embroidered clox and figures. It's probably the most outstanding quality value event that the hosiery industry has ever seen

A HOSE SENSATION at 17c

6 FOR $1

Imagine it . . Wilson Bros.' famous quality for 17c. It sounds almost impossible. It would be impossible . . except for this great event . . silk and rayons in plain blacks, plain colors, fancies and stripes as well as cool lisle meshes. You'll want to buy them by the dozen

GOLF HOSE 47c 79c

75c $1 $1.25 VALUES

Here's a unique chance to stock up for now and years to come. Cool lisles in plain or ribbed weaves . . in plain colors or fancies. For hiking, for touring, for camping . . Regular 75c, $1 and $1.25 Wilson Bros.' golf hose at 47c

Short wool golf hose for slacks included

$1.50 to $5 VALUES

Every pair's imported from the finest European makers . . every pair is of all wool . . there are plain colors and fancies . . in plain or ribbed wool . . none are worth less than $1.50 . . and most of them are actually sold for less than the cost of duty alone

MAURICE L. ROTHSCHILD

MINNEAPOLIS — State at Jackson CHICAGO — ST. PAUL

EXPECT BATTLE OVER WET PLANK ON FLOOR TODAY

Liberals Claim Victory Is in Sight.

(Continued from first page.)

by the sub-group of nine, prohibition being omitted, is reported to follow in substance the rough draft as published in THE TRIBUNE Monday, with numerous changes in phraseology and with some deletions and alterations in view. The question of a silver plank is to be discussed this morning, also flood relief.

Both wet and dry groups expect there will be majority and minority reports and a battle on the floor over the liquor issue. Some spoke last night with a compromise plank, but most of them seemed to think this impossible. The dripping wets were shouting that the delegate body is far wetter than the subcommittee of nine, on which the Washington atmosphere was predominant, and that the sopping wet plank may, on a roll call, become the policy of the party. It looks like a grand fight.

Revised Text of Wet Plank.

The proponents of the wet plank made some revisions in the wording of their plank last night. The form in which it is expected to be submitted to the committee this morning follows:

"We favor the repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

"To effect such repeal we demand that the congress immediately propose a constitutional amendment to truly representative conventions in the states called to act solely on that proposal.

"We urge the enactment of such measures by the several states as will actually promote temperance, effectively prevent the return of the saloon and bring the liquor traffic into the open under complete supervision and control by the states.

"We demand that the federal government effectively exercise its power to protect states against importation of intoxicating liquors in violation of their laws.

"Pending repeal, we favor immediate modification of the Volstead act to legalize the manufacture and sale of beer and other beverages of such alcoholic content as is permissible under the constitution and to provide therefrom a proper and needed revenue."

Twe 20 Original Wets.

The original signers of the wet plank were:

COLORADO—Philip Hornbein.
CONNECTICUT—William E. Thoms.
FLORIDA—Robert H. Anderson.
ILLINOIS—Michael L. Igoe.
IOWA—E. H. Pollard.
MARYLAND—E. Brooks Lee.
MASSACHUSETTS—Senator David I. Walsh.
MICHIGAN—William A. Comstock.
MINNESOTA—Robert Butler.
NEW HAMPSHIRE—Robert C. Murchie.
NEW JERSEY—William J. Egan.
NEW YORK—Mayor James J. Walker.
OHIO—Senator Robert J. Bulkley.
OREGON—Joseph K. Carson.
PENNSYLVANIA—Guy K. Bard.
RHODE ISLAND—Peter G. Gerry.
WISCONSIN—J. R. Pfiffner.
ALASKA—John W. Troy.
HAWAII—L. L. McCandless.
PHILIPPINES—Robert E. Manly.

The 20 original signers, plus the accretions last night and members who gave signs of friendliness to the dripping wet plank, represent states with 489 delegates in the convention. A majority is 578. Senator Walsh said these committeemen could not carry all their delegates with them, but that enough support would be derived from other states to produce a majority on the roll call and carry the plank through.

McAdoo Is Twitted.

In the subgroup of nine platform writers, William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury Wilson's son-in-law, and a supporter of "Cactus Jack" Garner, argued against including a declaration for revision of the Volstead act. Whereupon another member twitted him: "Aren't you going all the way with your new pals, Al Smith and Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City?"

Word was announced to Chairman Hitchcock before the night meeting of the full committee began that the dripping wet plank was approved by the united repeal council, representing more than 3,000,000 voters. The announcement was made by Pierre S. Du Pont of Delaware, chairman of the council, after a conference at the Blackstone hotel. Participating in the indorsement of the direct repeal and Volstead modification plank were:

Association Against Prohibition Amendment—William H. Stayton, Henry H. Curran, W. E. Norvell Jr.

Women's Organization for Prohibition Reform—Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, Mrs. Edward S. Moore.

The Crusaders—Fred G. Clark Jr., Russell Forgan, Seymour Wheeler, Enos Curtin, Thurston Williams.

Voluntary committee of lawyers—Henry Alan Johnston, W. W. Montgomery.

Huey Long Appears.

Senator Huey P. Long of Louisiana appeared before the resolutions committee to advocate two planks presented through Mayor Walmsley of New Orleans. One reads:

"The Democratic party pledges itself to have a leadership in congress in the hands of persons who are not privately or professionally obligated to interests inimical to the welfare of the general public."

"That's the first," Long declared, "and if the shoe fits any one let them wear it."

"The second," he added, "is that the Democratic party pledges itself to undertake to secure a fairer distribution of wealth into the hands of all the people."

He was asked by what method he advocated to achieve this end.

"By taxation or such other laws as may be necessary," he answered.

Veterans Seek Plank.

A plank for the payment of the bonus was placed before the committee. It came from a newly formed National Democratic Veterans organization. It was launched Monday night by representatives of 28 states, among them some members of congress.

A committee composed of Congressmen William P. Connery of Massachusetts, John E. Rankin of Mississippi, Wright Patman of Texas, and the Rev. Joseph Barnett of Wisconsin, was appointed to present the plank to the resolutions committee as follows:

"We favor generous appropriations, honest management, and sympathetic care and assistance in the hospitalization, rehabilitation and compensation of the veterans and their dependents.

"We favor allowance to widows and orphans of world war veterans and the immediate cash payment in full cash of the adjusted service certificates."

The platform, as drafted, however, includes no plank for the payment of the veterans' adjusted service certificates, but a minority bonus report was being drafted for presentation on the floor of the convention. Maury Hughes of Dallas, the Texas member of the platform committee, was the leader of the bonus seekers.

THE FARM ISSUES

A farm organization delegation composed of L. J. Taber of the National Grange, John Simpson of the Farmers union, E. A. Oneal of the American Farm Bureau federation, and Earl Smith of the Illinois Agricultural association appeared before the resolutions committee to support their agrarian plank. The plank was presented by W. H. Settle of Indianapolis, who led the farmers' demonstration at Houston, Tex., four years ago.

"We recognize that the restoration of American agriculture to a firm basis of prosperity is the first essential to the general welfare of the nation," was the plank theme Settle called upon the Democrats to adopt.

The draft of the subcommittee's agricultural plank was still incomplete last night. In its rough draft it denounces the operations of the federal farm board and dwells upon the need of getting the federal government out of speculation at the expense of the farmer and other taxpayers.

Call for Lower Interest.

Portions of the uncompleted draft call for the refinancing of farm loans at a lower rate of interest with amortization features, giving preference to credits for the redemption of farms and homes sold under foreclosure.

The platform framers favor abolition of "that function of the farm board which makes the government a speculator in farm products." The tentative plank calls for a new system which, without putting the government into the business of dealing in farm products, will "aim at the export of the surplus with a view to increasing the price of commodities."

TEXAS BAND PAYS VISIT TO TRIBUNE TOWER

The Old Gray Mare band of Houston, Tex., which came to Chicago to aid in creating enthusiasm for Speaker John N. Garner, the Lone Star state's presidential candidate, playing at the tower entrance. The musicians, 42 in number, were escorted by Garner boosters from their own state and from California. The latter carried the state's bear flag, shown in the picture. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

TEXAS TOOTERS

The 42 piece "old gray mare" band of Texas yesterday gathered in front of THE TRIBUNE Tower and played a serenade of several selections. The band was brought to Chicago on the Garner special by W. T. Waggoner, a cattleman of Fort Worth, Tex., and is made up of war veterans, most of whom were members of the 142d infantry, 38th division band. Miss Malvena Passmore, a former member of the Chicago Civic Opera, accompanied the band from Houston, where it was recruited.

JOLIET PRISONER FLEES WEARING WARDEN'S PANTS

Stanley Burzewski, a trusted prisoner, strolled out of the Stateville penitentiary Sunday night wearing the warden's pants. The escape was revealed yesterday after Warden Henry C. Hill had completed an invoice of the prisoner's final activities.

Burzewski, who was employed in the warden's quarters, was serving a sentence for the theft of an automobile and was to have been paroled in 45 days. Tiring of prison life Sunday while the warden was away, he financed the escape by taking $75 from the office safe and $25 in gold coins which had been given the warden's daughter, Joan Hill, as graduation presents. Then selecting the gold star which inmates had given the warden, he donned the best Hill trousers and departed through the front gate.

He sauntered past guards accompanied by two of Warden Hill's dogs with the explanation that he was going to exercise the animals. The dogs returned.

Russia Condemns 5 to Die for Fraud of $500,000

MOSCOW, June 28.—(AP)—Five employés of Moscow's state retail stores were sentenced to death today after a six day trial on charges of defrauding the state of $500,000 by theft, illegal raising of prices and by supplying speculators with goods. Seven others were sentenced to ten years in prison and eight were sent to jail for three to five years. Three others were acquitted.

NO MORE FOOT MISERY

Just a touch or two of Ice-Mint and your foot troubles are soon over. No matter what you have tried or how many times you have been disappointed here is real comfort for your feet.

You won't have to cut a corn again or bother with bunkling tape or plasters.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes shrivel up and lift off so easy. It's wonderful. No pain or soreness when applying Ice-Mint or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the skin.

Ice-Mint is certainly magical the way it draws out inflammation from swollen, burning, aching feet. Ice-Mint imparts such a delightful, soothing coolness to the feet, you sigh with relief. It is a real secret for fine, healthy feet. It is greatly appreciated by women who wear high heel shoes and by men who stand all day. It prevents foot odors and keeps feet sweet and comfortable.

Just ask in any drug store for Ice-Mint and give your poor, suffering, tired, swollen feet a real treat. There is nothing better.

Ice Mint Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

NEWFOUNDLAND SWEARS IN NEW PRIME MINISTER

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ST. JOHNS, N. F., June 28.—Prime Minister Sir Richard A. Squires' government, defeated in the elections on June 11, resigned today. Frederick C. Alderdice was sworn in as prime minister this afternoon.

The new cabinet consists of Alderdice as prime minister and minister of finance; L. E. Emerson, minister of justice; Capt. W. Winsor, postmaster general; J. C. Puddister, secretary of state; John Stone, marine and fisheries; W. J. Walsh, minister of agriculture; H. Quinton, public works; James Ayre, Frank McNamara, S. J. Foote, Harold Mitchell, H. A. Winter, and W. J. Browne, who are ministers without portfolios.

Alderice was born on Nov. 10, 1872, at Belfast, Ireland. He came to Newfoundland after leaving school and became identified with the Colonial Cordage company. He is now that company's managing director besides being a director in other large commercial concerns and insurance companies.

He became prime minister on Aug. 15, 1928, on the resignation of his cousin, W. S. Monroe, but was heavily defeated in 1928 in the ensuing general election.

ROTARY CHEERS PLAN TO MODIFY VOLSTEAD LAW

Members of the Chicago Rotary club applauded yesterday when John W. McCormack, Democratic congressman from Massachusetts, advocated modification of the Volstead act pending repeal of the 18th amendment. McCormack appeared on the program with Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of William Jennings Bryan, congresswoman from Florida, at the weekly noon luncheon of the club in the Hotel Sherman.

"No doubt the Democrats will come out for submission of repeal," McCormack declared. "But that will take several years. If I had my way we would give consideration to the modification of the Volstead act while awaiting the repeal."

Deposed Head of Salvador Denies He Plots Invasion

GUATEMALA CITY, June 28.—(AP)—Arturo Araujo, deposed president of Salvador, today denied an accusation attributed to the present head of the Salvadorean government that he was conspiring with the government of Guatemala to invade Salvador.

This American Girl knows...

This bewitching girl knows the secret of the world-famous English complexion. Pears' Soap, which has cared for England's exquisite complexions for 143 years, now guards hers! She learned that Pears' generous lather gently stimulates the skin and gives it new radiance. Get a cake of this long-lasting soap! Watch its effect on your skin. At all drug and department stores wherever toilet goods are sold. Unscented 15¢. Scented, a trifle more.

AIRPORT BURNED AT JANESVILLE; 7 PLANES RUINED

Janesville, Wis., June 28.—(AP)—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the hangar and seven airplanes at the city airport here tonight, causing damage estimated at $35,000.

Herman Krause, airport manager, discovered the fire when he returned to the field after a brief visit to a filling station and roadside produce stand nearby of which he is the proprietor.

The entire hangar, 80 feet square, was in flames when the fire department arrived in response to an alarm. Several of the gasoline tanks on the planes had exploded, showering the interior of the building. When the fire had subsided only the 12 concrete roof supports remained standing.

Fire department officials indicated they would make a thorough investigation to determine whether the fire was incendiary. It was learned, they said, that the airport manager was selling milk at his produce stand furnished by James Newman, a farmer whose barn was destroyed recently in what authorities described as an outbreak of a milk price cutting war.

SHARVER HELD TO GRAND JURY.

Rudolph Sharver, 39 years old, 1139 West Washington boulevard, was held to the grand jury yesterday on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. He shot and wounded his estranged wife, Emily, at Madison and Carpenter streets on June 11.

INDIANA SEEKS ROLE OF POWER IN NOMINATION

Delegates Are Advised to Play Waiting Game.

Planning a coup through holding the balance of power in the nomination of the Democratic candidate for President, Indiana leaders yesterday advised the Hoosier delegation frankly to keep clear of any alliances "until the time is ripe."

Chairman Frank McHale told the Indiana delegation in a caucus that there is a possibility that a close contest will place Indiana in the enviable position of choosing or rejecting a candidate.

May Pass on First Roll Call.

Six of the Indiana delegates are instructed for Roosevelt, but the remaining twenty-four are uninstructed, and if Chairman McHale and National Committeeman Tom Taggart can line them up behind one candidate the votes will have strong significance in the result of the balloting. It is possible that Indiana will pass temporarily when the roll is first called on nominations, studying the votes of the other states before announcing its vote.

The Hoosiers demonstrated their independence of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt at the convention yesterday when they ignored the steam roller tactics of the Roosevelt generals and refused to vote to seat Huey (Call Me Kingfish) Long of Louisiana. Indiana's thirty votes were cast against Long.

To Sign Minority Report.

Judge Clarence McNabb, Indiana's representative on the credentials committee, explained to his colleagues at the caucus that he proposed to sign a minority report holding against Long. He declared Long had been riding "roughshod" over his colleagues. Delegate Robert E. Proctor of Elkhart, who made a motion to authorize McNabb to vote against Long, said the Kingfish was a "bad Democrat."

"We could set a great example if we would reject him," Proctor said. "I make this remark despite the fact that Long is supporting the same presidential candidate (Roosevelt) that I have favored."

The Indiana delegation also went in contravention of the Roosevelt orders when it supported Juett Shouse in preference to Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana for permanent chairman.

INSTRUCTOR DROWNED.

Valparaiso, Ind., June 28.—[Special.]—Edwin B. Carlile, 45, manual training instructor at Froebel High school, Gary, was drowned in Lake Eliza, near here, Monday night when he lost his balance and fell from boat while fishing. A small boy with him swam ashore.

NOTES OF THE CONVENTION

Some one in his delegation hurt the feelings of W. L. Rea of Texas at Monday's session by "pushing" him around and demanding that he parade when he didn't want to. An old time ranger, Rea said little, but yesterday he took his seat in the hall, called the attention of his fellow Texans and while they watched, drew a thick .45 caliber pistol from a hip holster. Juggling it delicately in his hands, he delivered this ultimatum:

W. L. REA. [Assoc. Press Photo.]

"Because I'm an old man and can't take care of myself with my fists, some of you boys think you can do as you please," he drawled. "You can't, and that's my say. I've brought this along today [spinning the pistol by its trigger guard] and it'll make me boss of this delegation. Nobody's going to push me around and if I don't want to parade, I won't be paradin'."

A Chicago policeman was watching the little drama and when Rea finished his talk to a big-eyed audience, the policeman reached for the gun. "I think I'd better keep this until you leave the Stadium," he said pleasantly.

"All right," the old ranger agreed, "my boys here understand me now, anyway."

Joseph P. Tumulty, once secretary to President Woodrow Wilson, watched the credentials fight from a box seat near the speaker's platform. Mr. Tumulty's profile, with his dome-like forehead, is one of the handsome sights in the convention.

Chairman Barkley's shouted recognition of Kingfish Huey Long in the Louisiana seating fight emptied the corridors of all those with arena tickets. The Kingfish was all but disappointing, however, tallying only two screams and a half dozen expansive gestures during his appeal for a seat on the floor.

Gov. Ritchie's appearance on the floor yesterday morning caused a ten minute delay. The Maryland delegation and others of his supporters hoisted him on a chair where he waved to the cheering balconies.

Former Gov. W. W. Brandon of Alabama, crooner of "Twenty-four votes for Underwood," theme song of the 1924 New York convention, still has his brass lungs, but he hopes he won't use them so much this year. "I started out in New York with a $25 a day suite," he said, "and before that convention ended I was eating hot dogs. And boys," he told reporters, "I don't like hot dogs."

Swallowing cups of black coffee and smoking his nickel cigars, Gov. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray of Oklahoma exulted yesterday over the Roosevelt defeat in the two-thirds rule fight. "We had him licked by 75 votes on that proposition," he chuckled.

Jack Cramer, 519 West North avenue, was scalping tickets to the convention outside the Stadium yesterday. Not only that, but the tickets he was selling were for the Monday session. Policemen William Finn and Thomas Fallon chased him three blocks and arrested him.

Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, and Houston Thompson, former federal trade commissioner, will be among those who will attend a memorial breakfast in honor of the memory of William Jennings Bryan in the Celtic room of the Hotel Sherman at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

Congresswoman Ruth Bryan Owen, Mrs. Grace Hargreave, California delegate to the Democratic national political convention, and William Jennings Bryan Jr., children of the former political leader, will be present.

George Sutherland, secretary to Gov. George H. Dern of Utah, landed at the Chicago airport via United Air Lines last night carrying $1,000,000 in State of Utah bonds in a grip. He brought the bonds here for Gov. Dern to sign Today Sutherland will fly to New York with the papers.

One hundred and fifty men were put to work at the Stadium yesterday when the arrangements committee permitted hawkers with sandwiches and cold drinks to sell their wares on the convention floor. The concession account found his business better than at the Republican convention, where no hawkers were allowed even before the new rule was made. His soda fountain business Monday was $460, as compared with $177 on the opening day of the last convention.

SILVERNAIL CAFETERIA
5 South Wabash
Special Today
CHICKEN A LA KING 15c
On Toast
A Dish Fit for a King
PLATE LUNCH 15c
GRILLED PORK CHOP APPLE SAUCE
SPAGHETTI
HOT ROLL AND BUTTER
5c-10c-15c Nothing Higher
"Silvernail Showed the Way to Pre-War Prices"

Hair on a Woman's Face Destroys Romance
There's only one way to remove hair and destroy the Roots—"Electrolysis"—say the doctors, "but, beware of Novices."
Your face merits the most expert services. For twenty years we've been making women happy by marvelous Permanent Results. Come in for advice and estimate—No Charge. All work guaranteed permanent. Only expert operators.

ELLA LOUISE KELLER
Est. 20 years—CENtral 8469
Suite 2405, 55 E. Washington St.
Chicago, New York, Minneapolis

Call for Sight Test—There Is No Charge

$8.50 Complete with Finest Toric Lenses
Open Till 9 P. M.
A remarkably low price for these Modern White Gold Filled Octagon Glasses fitted for near or far vision. Examination included.
Schulte Sixty Other Beautiful Styles at $5 to $20
17 W. Madison 133 W. Madison 136 N. State 139 S. State 118 S. Dearborn

Bargain!.. AMERICA'S LUXURY NAPKIN for less than the regular price of any other leading brand!

A SALE THAT WILL ASTONISH YOU! Here is the reason for it:—to let you judge Modess for yourself!

For a few weeks only, you can get Modess at a new low price—less than any other well-known sanitary napkin. 46% less than Modess cost last year. According to location and service, prices may vary in different stores. But, during this short sale, the top price any store should charge you for Modess is twenty-five cents.

A NEW IDEA IN SANITARY PROTECTION

If you've never tried Modess, you can't imagine how utterly different it is. Modess is not "just another napkin." It's a brand-new type of sanitary protection.

Modess can never be detected—even under thinnest, closest-fitting frocks. Why? . . . look at the filler. It isn't stiff. It isn't made of cut-out papery layers. The Modess filler is soft and fluffy. So pliable that it shapes itself naturally to body lines. No compressed ends to cause bulges and tell-tale wrinkles!

Thanks to this downy filler, Modess brings you new softness! New comfort! Even the gauze is treated on a new principle to give extra ease and lasting softness.

Modess gives greater security. It's more absorbent. And its unique moisture-resisting back banishes all fear of embarrassment.

Modess is deodorized. Disposable. Surgically safe. It's made by Johnson & Johnson, specialists in surgical dressings.

Take advantage of this short sale! Buy Modess now—and save!

try-it-and-see!

PRICE MODESS . . . NOW!
Look for the SPECIAL "try-it-and-see" SALE at your druggist's or favorite department store. Price Modess! Compare! Then be wise! Put in a supply before this sale ends!

FEEL MODESS . . . NOW!
Notice how downy-soft and fluffy, how pliant the Modess filler is! That's why Modess is so comfortable! So completely inconspicuous—it follows body lines naturally!

MAKE THE ABSORBENCY TEST!
Every Modess pad has a special moisture-repellent backing. A bottle of ink poured on Modess won't strike through. Is Modess safe? Five times as safe as needed for adequate protection!

Johnson & Johnson
NEW BRUNSWICK NEW JERSEY

CHICAGO GAINS POINT IN MOVE FOR U. S. RELIEF

Conferees Agree to Let Hoover Allot Fund.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 28.—[Special.]—The prospects for Chicago's obtaining a sizable loan from the Reconstruction Finance corporation for the relief of distress in that city were improved today when the senate and house conferees on relief legislation reached agreement to permit the President to administer 100 million dollars of a 300 million dollar relief fund on a basis of need.

PETER NORBECK. [Assoc. Press Photo.]

Following the morning session of the senate and house, members charged with the task of ironing out the differences between the Wagner and Garner relief bills, Chairman Peter Norbeck [Rep., S. D.] said that a decision had been reached to permit President Hoover to administer 100 million dollars as he saw fit. The balance of the 300 million dollars set aside for direct relief purposes would be apportioned on a basis of population, Mr. Norbeck said.

Britten Appears Hopeful.

As the Wagner bill passed the senate Chicago could not have obtained more than $18,500,000 for relief purposes. If a bill is passed permitting the President to distribute the 100 millions as he sees fit, it would then be up to Chicago to persuade the chief executive that its situation was more compelling than that prevailing in other cities. Representative Fred A. Britten [Rep., Ill.] said today that on the basis of the new plan of distribution Chicago's allotment might be doubled.

Although the conferees spent most of the day discussing the relief problem, no agreements were reached on the controversial "pork barrel" sections attacked by President Hoover. In one senate quarter it was said that the possibility exists that the conferees will revise the bill to give the President authority to decide just how much of the building program should be prosecuted during the 1933 fiscal year. If this step were taken, its purpose would be to permit the President to so handle the construction fund that the public works operations would not unbalance the budget.

Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois today called at the White House and urged President Hoover to approve the relief bill congress eventually sends to him even if he does object to some of its sections. The Chicago senator said that he had advised the President that if the bill failed it would destroy Chicago's chances of obtaining large loans from the Reconstruction Finance corporation for the purpose of constructing self-liquidating projects which would furnish employment in that community.

Money for Sewage Plant.

Senator Lewis told the President that Chicago was anxious to obtain a 100 million dollar loan for use in constructing the sewage treatment plants ordered by the Supreme court when the lake levels controversy was settled. Mr. Lewis told the President that Chicago was not prepared to go ahead with the sewage program without a federal loan.

"I told the President," Mr. Lewis said, "that under the Wagner bill two methods were available for financing the construction of sewage treatment plants. I said that inasmuch as the federal government had ordered Chicago to build the works the federal government could legally go ahead and finance their construction off the funds carried in the bill for federal public works. When completed the bill finally would be paid by Chicago.

"I also told President Hoover that the sewage treatment plants represented a perfect example of the type of project on which money could be loaned under the provision setting aside one billion, five hundred million dollars for loans to states and semi-public bodies for construction work of a profit making nature. The government eventually would be repaid."

Increase Buying Power.

Both the Garner and Wagner bills provide for increasing the borrowing power of the Reconstruction Finance corporation so that body can make loans to states or semi-public bodies for use in constructing projects of a so-called liquidating nature. The theory is that these projects eventually will make enough money to repay the government.

Scores of applications from communities such as the Los Angeles metropolitan water district, which wants upwards of 220 million dollars for building an aqueduct to Boulder dam, are ready to be filed.

PAPAL DELEGATE AT EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

Cardinal Lauri on his throne a short time after his arrival at Dublin, Ireland, for ceremonies which took Catholics from all over the world to the island. Seated at the cardinal's right is President Eamon de Valera of the Irish Free State. [Associated Press Photo.]

SENATE VOTES MONEY TO LURE BONUS VETS HOME

Cash to Come Out of Bureau Fund.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 28.—[Special.]—The senate took definite action today in an effort to expedite the evacuation from the capital of the bonus expeditionary force.

ROBT. R. HOWELL. [Acme Photo.]

It passed a resolution by Senator Robert B. Howell [Rep., Neb.] authorizing the veterans' bureau to loan funds for transportation and 75 cents a day subsistence money to those members of the bonus army who are willing to return to their homes. The loans would be made upon the application of the individual veterans, and if not repaid would be deducted from the value of the veterans' adjusted service certificate. No interest would be charged.

The senate's action has not yet been approved by the house. The last dollar in the bonus army's food fund was expended yesterday, and today the veterans' leaders asked local bakeries to provide bread made from wheat furnished the Red Cross by the federal farm board.

Latest of Several Efforts.

The Howell resolution was the last of a series of efforts made in the senate today to cope with the situation. Previously Senator Elmer D. Thomas [Dem., Okla.] had offered a resolution providing for a committee of three senators and three representatives to meet with the veterans' leaders and with federal and local officials to devise some plan of action.

Senator Thomas described the condition of the bonus seekers as critical. Even when in funds, he said, they had been subsisting on three cents a day. The emergency clinic was caring for 75 cases a day and 25 veterans a day were being sent to hospitals, he explained.

"But is there any disposition on their part to go home?" inquired Senator William E. Borah. [radical Rep., Idaho]. "I understand that there is not."

"Many of them have no homes to go to," replied Senator Thomas.

Change Leaders Again.

Today the command of the force changed hands again for the third time in four days. It passed this time from Thomas Kelly of Camden, N. J., to George Kleinhois of Portland, Ore. Kelly, who assumed the post temporarily following the resignation of Walter W. Waters, original commander, stated that he was forced to return to his home, but would join the army again within a few days.

Flying Forecasts

Special flying route forecasts for the period from 9 p. m. June 28 to noon June 29, central standard time:

Chicago-Evansville and Cincinnati — Clear sky; moderate variable winds.

Chicago-Detroit-Cleveland—Mostly clear sky; moderate westerly winds.

Chicago-St. Louis — Clear sky; moderate variable winds.

Chicago-Twin Cities—Scattered to broken clouds; moderate to fresh westerly winds.

Chicago-Omaha and Kansas City—Scattered clouds; moderate southwest and west winds.

Route forecasts for 12 hours ending at noon:

Evansville-Atlanta — Partly overcast with local thundershowers near Atlanta; gentle to moderate southwest winds near Atlanta and gentle northeast and east near Evansville up to 1,000 feet, and fresh west near Atlanta and moderate northwest shifting to southwest near Evansville at 5,000 feet.

Cleveland-New York — Partly overcast; moderate north winds near New York and moderate northwest shifting to fresh west near Cleveland up to 1,000 feet and fresh west and northwest at 5,000 feet.

PAPAL LEGATE IS CLOSELY GUARDED ON IRISH VISIT

ARMAGH, Northern Ireland, June 28.—(AP)—Cardinal Lauri, papal legate at the Eucharistic congress which closed in Dublin Sunday, came to Armagh for a visit today under the protection of special precautions.

His route from the border of the Irish Free State not only was closely guarded, but it was diverted so that the prelate entered Ireland's ecclesiastical capital through a nationalist, instead of a unionist quarter.

The cardinal visited Cardinal MacRory, archbishop of Armagh. The approaches to the archbishop's palace were thronged, but there were no untoward incidents.

The precautions to protect Cardinal Lauri were taken after scores of Catholic pilgrims from northern Ireland were attacked, stoned, and beaten Sunday on their way to and from the Eucharistic congress in an outburst of the ancient feud between the Orangemen and Catholics.

IRISH FREE STATE SENATE PASSES KING'S OATH BILL

Amendments to Measure Take Sting Out of It.

DUBLIN, June 28.—(AP)—The Abolition bill, which would eliminate the oath of allegiance to the British crown for the Irish Free State, entered a new phase of its tempestuous career today when the senate passed the measure, but attached several strings to it.

A referendum, in which the people of the Free State would be asked whether they wished to form part of the British commonwealth of nations, was asked in a motion tabled in the dail eireann today by Frank MacDermot, Republican.

Debate Motion Friday.

The motion will be discussed by the dail on Friday. The bill to abolish the oath probably will reach it on Thursday for further debate. The motion offered in the dail today asked the executive council to take the necessary legislative and administrative steps for the referendum.

As a result of the senate action, the oath bill does not serve the purpose originally announced by President Eamon de Valera of giving the Free State "complete independence," but carries an amendment that would sterilize it.

This amendment provides that abolition of the oath could not occur until the British and Free State governments have reached an agreement on the point.

Minister Connolly of telegraphs, speaking for the government, said the measure would not be accepted in its present form, but would be permitted to go to the dail "with the results that might be expected."

The "results" referred to were not immediately apparent, but in the ordinary course the republican government could take one of two steps for abolition of the oath.

Could Ignore Senate.

One would be to permit the measure to go for eighteen months, with passage again by the dail during that period. In that event it would become law without the consent of the senate.

The second alternative would be to call new elections in an effort to get a senate friendly to this major point in President de Valera's program.

It was officially announced today that President de Valera would not attend the Ottawa imperial conference next month because of the pressure of business at home. Sean T. O'Kelly, vice president of the executive council, will head the Free State delegation.

An Outstanding Cash

SALE!

Reductions Up to 50% and More

To enable us to raise $50,000 within the next 10 days, to meet pressing obligations, we have made startling reductions on our smartest spring and summer Clothes; sale prices represent but a fraction of the original cost price. The startling reductions involved make it necessary that all sales be final, and that all sales be strictly for cash. No Charges or C. O. D. Sales will be allowed.

Dresses— $10, $25, $39
Women's and Misses' styles for daytime, sports, dinner and afternoon wear. Formerly up to $78.50

Tailored Suits— $25-$39
Two and Three piece tailored suits of Tweed and Covert. Misses' and Women's styles. Formerly up to $78.50

Plain Tailored Coats— $19-$39
Remainder of our Spring Coats. Misses' and Women's styles. Formerly up to $78.50

Fur Trimmed Coats— $59
Women's and Misses' sizes. Lavishly fur trimmed. Formerly up to $135

Fur Trimmed Suits— $39-$59
Lavishly fur trimmed. Misses' sizes only. Formerly up to $148

Hats— $1-$1.95
White, pastel and dark colors. Formerly up to $12.50

Blouses— $5
Buy a new blouse to freshen up your tailored suit. Formerly up to $20

The Tailored Woman INC.
650 NORTH MICHIGAN AVENUE, AT ERIE STREET

FLY UNITED AIR LINES

ONE-HALF BUSINESS DAY to CALIFORNIA

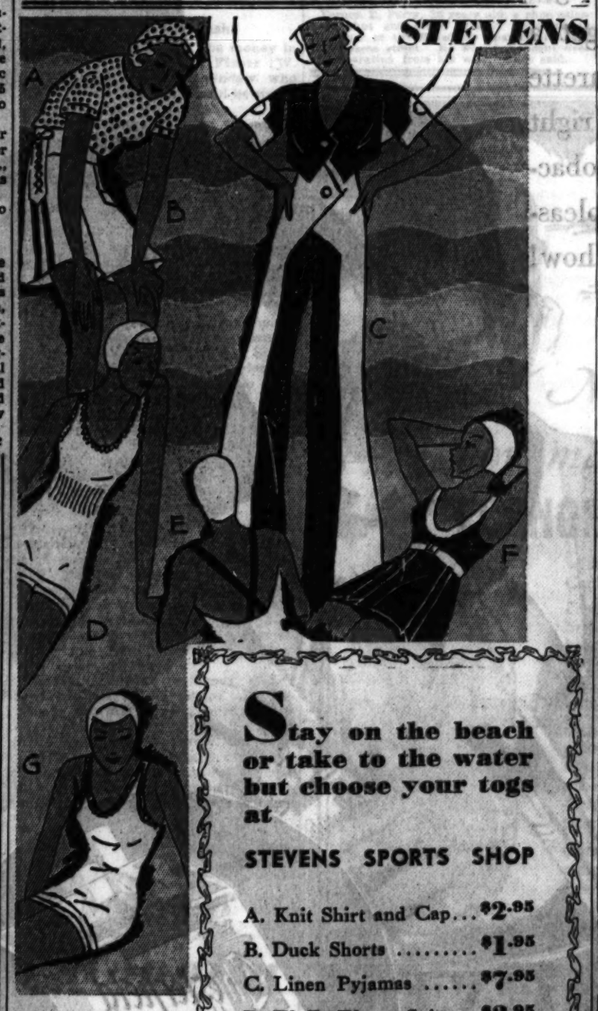
Leave this evening and have lunch in San Francisco, Los Angeles or Portland tomorrow. Or leave at midnight and arrive at Rocky Mountain cities for lunch or California in the evening.

Fastest to the Pacific Coast
Roomy 14-passenger tri-motored transports. 2 pilots. Stewardess.

4¼ Hrs. to Omaha	$25.95
11½ Hrs. to Denver	62.37
15¼ Hrs. to Salt Lake	80.28
22 Hrs. to Los Angeles 22¼ Hrs. to San Francisco 24½ Hrs. to Portland 26 Hrs. to Seattle	115.00

10% Off on Round Trips
Fares Include Lunches Aloft
400 S. MICH., WAB. 0230
Hotels: Western Union and Postal Offices
40,000,000 MILES FLYING EXPERIENCE

STEVENS



Stay on the beach or take to the water but choose your togs at

STEVENS SPORTS SHOP

A. Knit Shirt and Cap... $2.95
B. Duck Shorts $1.95
C. Linen Pyjamas $7.95
D. Waffle Weave Suit.... $3.95
E. B. V. D.'s Pearl Knit Suit $8.50
F. Backless Jersey $5.95
G. Rough Knit Suit..... $5.00

SPORTS SHOP—THIRD FLOOR

The new silk lined BATHING CAPS!

At last comfortable Bathing Caps! Smooth glove silk lining makes them a joy to wear! These SEIBERLING caps are the last word, and only $1

19-25 N. STATE ST. STORE OPEN 9:30-5

Chas. A. Stevens & Bros.

MANDEL BROTHERS

a store of youth a store of fashion a store of moderate price

Look Your Best Over the Holidays!

You Can Keep the Cost Down with These Well Styled and Well Made Fashions!

$2.95 for this Genuine Panama

Match this value if you can! Have your choice of hats with plain or creased crown, neckline or wide brim, black, brown, navy or white band.

Better Hat Shop—Fifth Floor—State.

Every Model a Big Success in This Sale!

SHEERS for the 4th

800 in all! Each one as undeniably smart as the three above . . . each one bought especially for this before-the-Fourth sale! Most of them are sheers, but washable crepes and prints here, too! Dark and pastel colors. Sizes for misses, women, little women! $8.85

Mandel's Pin Money Shops—Fourth Floor—Wabash.

1000 of Them! Cool as a Frosted Drink! You'll Adore These

Cotton Bouclette Dresses $3.95

Choose from 15 different of the coolest, sheerest, laciest little sport frocks anybody ever thought of! Only $3.95 . . . and they look very expensive. Pastels and white. Sizes 14-20.

Mandel's Sport Shop—Third Floor—Wabash.

FRANCO-GERMAN TALKS FAIL; MAY BREAK UP PARLEY

Berlin Stiffens; Demands Equality in Arms.

BY JAY ALLEN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, June 28.—The reparations conference tonight made a noise like a blowup. For three hot hours Premier Herriot of France and Prime Minister MacDonald of Great Britain strove manfully to budge Chancellor von Papen of Germany from the position to which he suddenly retreated and froze himself after his week end trip home—a clean reparations slate for Germany and no compensations for France. They failed in a big way.

Whether it is the final blowup remains for tomorrow to tell, for tomorrow morning Herriot and Von Papen will meet again, not however, for Herriot to give a definite French reply to the Germans, but for a talk on security.

French Hint at Concession.

From hints dropped by Herriot tonight, it appears that there will be some plain talking about what Germany could offer France in the way of new security agreements—an agreement not to touch Danzig, for instance—and if Von Papen is able, after his heart to heart talk with the home folks in Berlin, to offer something in this direction, the battle on reparations may be resumed.

If not, tonight's blowup will have to be accepted as a major affair and the pieces of the reparations conference will be buried in commissions, the appointments to which are to be settled at a meeting of the six inviting powers which MacDonald has called for tomorrow. Tonight the French are explaining why they are not to blame for the breakdown. The Germans are dour, but saying nothing. The British alone, in the rôle of arbiters, are professionally optimistic.

Germany "Raises Ante."

Herriot told MacDonald this morning that he thought Von Papen had come back from Berlin with an imperative mandate not to give an inch. It seems that MacDonald, listening to Von Papen this afternoon, got the same impression and more. Von Papen raised the ante on the French this afternoon.

He came out flatly and said Germany would only consider paying a fixed sum if France disarmed and allowed Germany to arm to a state of absolute equality and if France would agree to a vast plan for resuscitating ailing currencies with more plentiful gold reserves. The French say this is tantamount to a German offer to buy herself out of the Versailles treaty with French gold.

Germans Win Partial Victory.

All stops of French indignation were opened wide tonight. Von Papen, they point out, by his sympathy for a European reconstruction fund plan, to which Germany would contribute, and by his cool statement today that it would pay fixed sums under certain conditions, has admitted Germany's capacity to pay something. Now it is a question, they say, of bald unwillingness to pay. "Bad faith" were the words used in high French circles.

But the Germans, observers pointed out, have won a partial victory, no matter what happens, and without a single concession. A moratorium has been decreed for the duration of the conference, and it is clear that nobody is will to allow the conference to seem is willing to allow the conference to seem to have broken down. Committees will be appointed to carry it over into the pending world economic conference, the net into which the Lausanne trapeze artists knew they could always fall gracefully.

Herriot Faces Loss of Job.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, June 28.—Albert Dalimier, minister of labor; George Leygues, minister of marine, and Albert Sarraut, minister of colonies, took a train for Switzerland tonight. It is ostensibly an innocuous trip.

The real reason, it is strongly hinted here, is that they are to protest to Prime Herriot against his lukewarmness toward President Hoover's disarmament proposal. It is gossiped here that they will warn Herriot that he will be voted out of office within a few days unless he changes his attitude.

This development followed a split earlier today in Herriot's own radical Socialist party. The militant left wing members known as the "Young Turks," objected that Herriot is too nationalistic. They demanded unqualified acceptance of the Hoover proposal and abandonment of reparations in return for reasonable concessions from Germany.

SEEKS TO CLOSE BRANCH SCHOOLS TO SAVE $66,400

An annual saving of $66,400 would be effected by the closing of thirteen elementary school branches, according to a recommendation to be submitted at the meeting of the board of education this afternoon by William J. Bogan, superintendent of schools.

The superintendent also will ask for $6,995 with which to board up closed schools, raze others, and level and sod old sites for playground uses. Mr. Bogan will recommend the closing of the following branches: Armstrong, Barnard, Burnside, Fernwood, Key, Mayfair, McPherson, Onahan, Perry, Raster, Peterson branch No. 1, and Prussing branches Nos. 1 and 3.

An election of superintendent is scheduled for today, Mr. Bogan's four year term having expired on Monday. The trustees have indicated that they will reelect Mr. Bogan. The only other aspirant who has made a formal application to the board is Mrs. Jennie B. Wilson, an English teacher at the Lane Technical High school.

Avoid Embarrassment of FALSE TEETH
Dropping or Slipping
Don't be embarrassed again by having your false teeth slip or drop when you eat, talk, laugh or sneeze. Just sprinkle a little Fasteeth on your plates. This new, extremely fine powder gives a wonderful sense of comfort and security. No gummy, gooey taste or feeling. Get Fasteeth today at Walgreen's, or any other drug store.
FASTEETH CO., Binghamton, N. Y.

LAW SCHOOL GRADUATES

MARY O. NANCE. ISABEL RUBIN. HELENE C. LEACH.
[Bayhuff-Richter Photos.]

Prystalski to Talk

Three young women will be awarded bachelor of laws degrees tonight by Dr. Amabel A. Anderson, president of the Chicago Law school, in commencement exercises at the Civic Opera house. Judge John Prystalski, chief justice-elect of the Criminal court, will speak.

Mary O. Nance, Helene Cecile Leach, and Isabel Rubin, all of Chicago, will receive the degrees. Forty-five men will also be graduated from the institution, which is a night law school at 14 East Monroe street.

Helium Gas Is Discovered in Oil Wells of Trinidad

[Copyright: 1932: By the New York Times.]

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, June 28.—Helium gas has been discovered in swamp lands near here. The gas appeared during oil drilling operations on a cocoa plantation at a level between 90 and 100 feet. A sample of the gas, sent to the Kentucky Helium company three months ago, today was definitely identified as helium.

MILITARY SHOW DRAWS 20,000, ITS LARGEST CROWD

More than 500 men, women and children, in native dress, participated in Scandinavian night at the Military show in Soldiers' field tonight. Folk dances and choral singing were features of their program. Consuls from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, and Finland were the guests of Maj. Gen. Frank Parker, who is directing the show.

A crowd of 20,000, the largest so far, attended last night. They saw for the first time the nonrigid airship, the TC, carrying eleven passengers, fly over the field. The ship flew in from Belleville, near East St. Louis, and returned after the show. It will reappear tonight if the weather permits. In the horse jumping contest last night Silver Bell, Wings, Benny Grimes, and Craps finished in that order.

At 12:20 today 120 infantrymen of the 2d infantry will parade through the loop. Tonight will be Czechoslovakian night, in which 400 boy gymnasts will participate.

AUSTRIA RECALLS SHOTS THAT SENT A WORLD TO WAR

Sarajevo Assassination Occurred 18 Years Ago.

BY WILLIAM SHIRER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

VIENNA, June 28.—Today, the eighteenth anniversary of the shot at Sarajevo which inflamed the whole world into war, was used, in Austria at least, to rekindle dying hopes of the Hapsburgs that their whole fate was not sealed when Gabriel Princip stood in front of a barber shop in the Bosinan capital on June 28, 1914, and emptied his revolver into the heart of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne.

At Arstetten, a sleepy little village along the Danube where lie the remains of Ferdinand and his wife, Countess Sophie Chotek, who died at his side in Sarajevo, old imperial generals and a handful of penniless aristocrats gathered today. They paid respects to the memory of the fallen heir and appealed to their fellow countrymen to bring back the Hapsburgs to save the fatherland.

Ferdinand's Son at Grave.

Dr. Maxmilian Hohenberg, son of Ferdinand, who gave up his titles after the war, assumed his mother's name, and became a lawyer, was present at his father's grave today. Other branches of the Hapsburgs were also represented.

Gen. Von Lederer and Field Marshal Hussarek Heinlein represented the imperial army. Said the field marshal:

"The fatherland is calling for a savior. Only through the return of a crowned head can Austria be saved."

Maj. Fuehrer of the Austrian reichsbund congratulated the community of Artstetten for being the first village in lower Austria to elect Otto an honorary citizen.

Serbia did not forget Sarajevo today. It was a national holiday throughout Jugo-Slavia although officially because it commemorated the famous battlefield of blackbirds when the Turks crushed the Serbians, June 28, 1389.

For five centuries it was a day of mourning for all Serbs but curiously after the war it was changed into a great national holiday. Zealous Serb patriots celebrated Sarajevo, too.

Sarajevo seems pretty well to have forgotten the tragedy which plunged the world into war, according to dispatches from there tonight. There was no commemorative meeting although a few school children gathered in front of the plaque dedicated two years ago to Princip. The barber shop in front of which the shot was fired remained open for business as usual.

SAVED FROM SAND

[TRIBUNE Photo.]
Robert Bycroft, 15 year old boy, who was caught in quicksand at Montrose avenue beach, but rescued after three hours' ordeal.
(Story on page 1.)

MINERS ESCORT CHICAGO YOUTH OUT OF COUNTY

Aron Gilmartin, who led a dozen college students from Chicago to "investigate conditions" in the mine fields of Harlan county, Kentucky, was escorted to the borders of the county Monday night by armed men and warned not to return, it was learned yesterday from Sheriff Blair of Harlan.

Gilmartin, 32 years old, was a student at the Meadville Theological school, 57th street and Woodlawn avenue. His home is in Ashmont, Mass., a suburb of Boston. The group included students from the theological school, the University of Chicago, and the University of Pittsburgh. They left Chicago Saturday by automobile.

Gilmartin had dropped his investigations and was making a speech to a crowd of 200 people at Evarts, where miners and deputy sheriffs fought a fatal battle last year, Sheriff Blair said, when several men drove up and took Gilmartin to Cumberland Gap, Tenn., the point of departure of several other investigating parties.

Gilmartin was one of the students arrested on May 14 when they staged a demonstration outside the home of Samuel Insull at 1100 Lake Shore drive.

GRAIN MAN SUICIDE.

Paris, Ill., June 28.—[Special.]—G. A. Rahel, 49, committed suicide today in the office of the Rudy Huston Grain company, of which he was business manager.

BRITAIN DELAYS REPLY TO HOOVER PROPOSAL FOR WORLD TO DISARM

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 28.—Stanley Baldwin, acting prime minister, told the house of commons today that it was impossible to give a definite or authoritative reply to President Hoover's proposal for a one-third reduction in world armaments, until prime Minister MacDonald, who is at Lausanne, had knowledge of the cabinet's discussions of the last few days.

Baldwin stressed that Great Britain has a world responsibility that no other country has. Britain, he said, is responsible not only for her own safety and the safety of her food supplies in time of war, but also for the maintenance of law and order for hundreds of millions of people in the east, and for the maintenance of sea communications.

"Therefore, there are various aspects of disarmament which have to be guarded against by any government of this country because of the ultimate responsibility to its own people overseas," he said. "Whether President Hoover's proposals have come to us in the best form for this or other countries requires further consideration before we can proceed."

Film Actress Is Held for Driving While Intoxicated

Hollywood, Cal., June 28.—[Special.]—Barbara Pierce, Pasadena debutante who turned movie actress, today was bound over to Superior court on charges of driving while intoxicated and causing a wreck. Witnesses testified that Miss Pierce, who also was known as "Joyce Marvin," drove her car in a zig-zag manner and struck another car. Police surgeons testified Miss Pierce had been drinking, but was unable to undertake a sobriety test at the police hospital because of head injuries.

NEW SIAMESE CONSTITUTION IS SIGNED BY KING

BANGKOK, Siam, June 28.—(AP)—A constitution providing for a limited monarchy, with a temporary dictatorship by the People's party, was promulgated today after it had been signed by King Prajadhipok.

The document, outgrowth of a brief revolt last week that deprived the king of his absolute powers, provides that the dictatorship shall be replaced by suffrage when the people have been educated in the responsibilities of self-government.

A senate is to be formed soon, half the members to be appointed by the executive of the People's party and the other half to be elected.

It was reported that the constitution gave the voting privilege to women.

SCRATCHING ONLY MAKES IT WORSE

Instead of scratching and suffering, why not apply Poslam to that skin eruption and stop its spread? Isn't that common sense? You won't scratch if there is no itch. Poslam conquers the itch and starts the healing quickly. Get it at any drug store, 50c.

There's a lot to it!

THE ARTIST blends colors. The cigarette maker blends tobaccos. The artist must use just the right amount of each color to get a pleasing effect. And the cigarette blender must use just the right amount of the right kinds of tobacco to get a better and more pleasing taste. Both must know how!

Chesterfield Radio Program
MON. & THUR. BOSWELL SISTERS
TUES. & FRI. ALEX GRAY
WED. & SAT. RUTH ETTING
NAT SHILKRET and NORMAN BROKENSHIRE
NOW 10 p. m. Eastern Daylight COLUMBIA NETWORK

Chesterfield
CIGARETTES
LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.
Wherever you buy Chesterfields, you get them just as fresh as if you came by our factory door

The right BLEND . . the right BALANCE

A "balanced" blend . . . the right Domestic and Turkish tobaccos in the right amounts . . . blended in a different way . . . "welded" together.

That's the Chesterfield Cross-Blend . . . an important reason why Chesterfields are milder and taste better.

It isn't just taking the tobaccos and mixing them hit-or-miss.

The Chesterfield Cross-Blend makes one type or one variety of tobacco partake of the qualities of another. It "welds" together all that is best in each variety.

It's a balanced blend in the truest sense . . . giving you what really amounts to a new kind of tobacco . . . Chesterfield tobacco . . . milder, more fragrant, better-tasting.

that's why Chesterfields TASTE BETTER

© 1932, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

ELEVATED LINES ARE PLACED IN RECEIVERSHIP

Don't Earn Interest; Drop in Traffic Blamed.

The Chicago Rapid Transit company was placed in receivership yesterday. Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson named as receivers Britton I. Budd, president of the elevated lines, and Col. A. A. Sprague, city commissioner of public works.

BRITTON I. BUDD. [Wallinger Photo.]

Attorneys for the company assented to the petition for receivership filed by the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, which has a claim for $4,103. The petition cited that in 1931 the company failed by $1,298,022 to earn the interest on its funded debt.

Floating Debt $12,429,865.

It has not paid its taxes for 1930, which amount to $1,312,051. Unsecured notes totaling $2,000,000 are outstanding and overdue, and other notes to the amount of $1,900,000, secured by collateral, fall due before Sept. 1. The floating debt of the company on May 1 for electric power, rentals, wages, materials, and supplies totaled $12,429,865.

"The continued increase in unemployment has adversely affected the earnings of the company," Mr. Budd said in a statement issued after his appointment as receiver. "Passenger traffic of the Rapid Transit company is a barometer of employment conditions. When people are out of work they do not ride, and neither do their families."

Traffic Drops 17 Per Cent.

The number of passengers carried declined from 196,774,395 in 1929 to 162,414,243 in 1931. The decline has continued since the first of the year. The number of passengers carried during the first five months of 1932 fell 17.04 per cent below the traffic in the similar period in 1931, and the ...nth of June will show an equally unfavorable comparison, Mr. Budd stated.

"In spite of wide spread and rigid economies," he continued, "including a decrease of 10 to 15 per cent in the pay of officers, general office and supervisory pay roll last November, and which recently has been initiated as to trainmen and shopmen net revenue available for interest and dividends compare as follows: 1929, $3,687,162; 1930, $2,802,919; 1931, $1,082,150.

"For the twelve months to May 31, 1932, the amount earned available for interest was $518,276, although earnings of $2,639,885 are necessary to meet interest charges for a year."

Bond Interest Due Friday.

The petition for receivership contained a strong hint that the company may be forced to default on $665,030 in interest on bonds which falls due Friday as follows:

"There exists a serious general depression in business affecting earnings of the company and an unusual and extreme stringency in the money market, and as a result the company is now unable to borrow funds from customary or any other sources with which to conduct its business and meet its obligations."

The Chicago Rapid Transit company was one of the properties controlled by Samuel Insull, who resigned as chairman of its board of directors when he quit his other posts on June 8.

Unification to Go On.

Col. Sprague is not an officer or director of the Rapid Transit company, but is thoroughly familiar with its affairs through his work in connection with the traction unification ordinance. It was the opinion yesterday that the receivership will not hamper efforts to unify the local transportation lines of Chicago under the terms of the unification ordinance. The various street car companies have been in receivership in the federal court for several years.

ABANDON PLAN FOR ARRAIGNING BANKER IN HOME

The plan to arraign Edward D. McCabe, 73 years old, former president of the closed Lake View State bank, in his home at 456 Briar place on the charge of making false statements to bank examiners was abandoned yesterday. McCabe is ill with heart disease and Judge George Fred Rush was told that the excitement of the arraignment might prove fatal.

McCabe, who was indicted with William O. J. Hattstaedt, former chairman of the bank's board, and Daniel M. Rives, former cashier, will be granted a severance, it was said yesterday. Attorney Benedict Short announced that he would ask a severance for Rives today when the case is called in the court of Judge Rush.

IN ROYAL ROMANCE

Prince Gustav Adolf, eldest son of Swedish crown prince, with his fiancee, the Princess Sibylle, elder daughter of Duke Charles Edward of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, at Callenberg Castle, Coburg. [Associated Press Photo.]

SANDINO AGREES TO TALK PEACE FOR NICARAGUA

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, June 28.—(AP)—A peace conference between Gen. Augusto Sandino, Nicaraguan insurgent, and powerful political leaders of his country has been arranged for the near future, it was announced today.

This startling development came about through Gen. Manuel Baliadares, prominent Sandinista, who recently talked with American officials from Nicaragua after a conference with Gen. Sandino.

The conference will be held, it was privately announced, at San Lorenzo, a Honduran port. The participants probably will be the four liberal candidates for the presidency and Gen. Horacio Portocarrero, Sandino's candidate.

The private advices said an American observer might be asked to join the conferees.

The immediate object of the conference is the nomination of a single liberal candidate from among the contesting five. If a compromise is reached the next step would be a declaration of an armistice pending elections, and ultimately final peace.

COURT REFUSES TO HALT SALES FOR 1930 TAXES

Circuit Judge Michael Feinberg yesterday informed attorneys for the Association of Real Estate Taxpayers that he would refuse to issue an injunction restraining County Treasurer McDonough from advertising and selling property on which the 1930 taxes have not been paid. About half the 290 million dollar levy for that year is unpaid.

The request for the injunction was brought on behalf of 25,000 taxpayers. Judge Feinberg said the Illinois Supreme court in passing on the 1928 and 1929 tax levies ruled the failure of assessors to levy fully on personal property did not invalidate the assessment, and that his decision would follow the same lines.

"If I issue an injunction I will be placing a padlock on local government. With 14,000 school teachers unpaid and city and county employes months behind in their salaries, I hesitate to paralyze collections," he told the lawyers.

The complainants were given until July 6 to present further arguments.

BEG YOUR PARDON!

Announcement was made in last Sunday's paper of the marriage instead of the engagement of Miss Mary Aberwom of Winnipeg to Dr. Charles Berkowitz, resident physician at Mount Sinai hospital. The marriage is to take place next year.

MRS. SAMPSELL ENDS OWN LIFE IN NO. SHORE HOME

The body of Mrs. Marshall E. Sampsell was found yesterday in the basement of her home on Lake place, Highland Park. She had committed suicide some time Monday night by hanging herself with clothes lines.

She was the wife of Marshall E. Sampsell, who was president of the Central Illinois Public Service company until his retirement from active work some time ago. Attorney Marshall G. Sampsell, a son, said that his mother suffered a nervous breakdown 16 years ago and the trouble returned a month ago. She was taken to a Wisconsin sanitarium and returned home last Saturday, he said, apparently recovered.

Mrs. Sampsell was a member of the Chicago Woman's Athletic club, the Highland Park Music club, Highland Park Woman's club, and was active in church work. She was choir mother in the Trinity Episcopal church of Highland Park. Three other sons besides Marshall survive. They are David, 23 years old; Joseph, 16, and Bruce, 12. A private funeral will be held today and burial will be in Rosehill cemetery.

NORTH CHICAGO STORES ORDERED TO CLOSE WEEK

Mayor Walter L. Atkinson of North Chicago issued a proclamation yesterday calling for a week's business holiday in that suburb. All stores except those dealing in food and drugs were ordered closed. Transportation centers, public utility offices, and factories may remain open.

The move is expected to aid the Lake County State bank of North Chicago, which has been feeling the effects of its neighbors' alarm on the south and the north, but which has been able to keep open although harried by steady withdrawals. It will also have a good effect on other businesses, Mayor Atkinson predicted, pointing to similar experiments in Urbana and Aurora, which were deemed successful. A number of business leaders issued statements in support of the mayor's plan.

Little unemployment will result, proponents of the plan declared, as the town is mainly an industrial center.

2 Policemen and 2 Others to Trial July 11 for Holdup

Ottawa, Ill., June 28.—[Special.]—C. C. Gosh, Streator, assistant police chief; George Kmetz, Streator patrolman; Frank Cingrani, and Joe Casmano of Streator are to go on trial in the Circuit court here July 11 for the $52,000 holdup at the Streator Union National bank last week.

TESTIFIES BAIN SOLD OWN BANK LAND AT PROFIT

Former Director Confirms Charges at Trial.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Frank Bolen, assault, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell; Robert Siebel, larceny, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell; Carol Sims, larceny, sentenced to 1 year in Pontiac reformatory; Fate Gardenshire, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in Pontiac reformatory; Steve Tonshirk, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary by Judge Rudolph F. Desort.

Evidence was presented at the Bain trial yesterday to the effect that five bank officials made a profit of $20,000 on property they bought and resold to the Auburn Park bank; that a bank customer was induced to invest $40,000 of insurance money in "trash"; and that the Bain banks were insolvent long before they were closed.

W. MERLE FISHER.

On trial are South Park Commissioner John Bain, his two sons, John H. and Robert A., and W. Merle Fisher, who were indicted on 74 counts of conspiracy, embezzlement, etc., for which the maximum penalty is 1 to 5 years' imprisonment and a $2,000 fine. Judge John M. O'Connor is presiding without a jury.

Sell to Selves for Profit.

Dr. J. T. Meyers, 9942 Longwood drive, a former director of the Auburn Park bank, admitted that late in 1925, he, John Bain, John H. Bain and two other bank officials purchased a bank site for $60,000 which they turned over to the bank for $80,000.

"You knew you were selling the property to yourselves at a profit, didn't you?" Special Prosecutor Edwin J. Raber asked.

"Yes," replied Dr. Meyers.

George M. Bly, 6443 South Marshfield avenue, formerly a real estate solicitor for the West Englewood bank, testified that Robert Esplin, a friend, asked his advice on the investment of $40,000 left as life insurance by Esplin's brother and two sisters, a week before the twelve Bain banks were closed, June 9, 1931.

Fisher Invests Cash.

"I advised him to put the money in small mortgages, but Mr. Fisher [W. Merle Fisher, Bain's son-in-law who was cashier of the bank] said he would take care of it.

"Didn't Fisher tell you to get to hell out of there and not meddle in the affair?" Raber asked, and when there was an objection Raber stated:

"I'm trying to show that Fisher got angry at Bly's meddling and then put this insurance money into trash, most of it Crawford Highland bonds."

Bly said Fisher was angry and took over the matter of Esplin's investment. Bly admitted he owes the West Englewood bank $5,043 which he can not pay.

Others who testified to owing money to the Bain banks which they cannot pay are William J. Long, 7832 South Green street, former vice president of the Bryn Mawr State bank, who owes $8,800; Dr. E. V. Perkins, 1634 West Marquette road, who owes $1,400, and Dr. Thomas J. McCarthy, 5451 South Halsted street, who owes $5,900. All testified they gave Bain stocks as collateral and then purchased more of these stocks with the money obtained.

Face Double Liability.

Other borrowers called as witnesses, together with the amounts of their indebtedness, are Herman Daum, 7141 South Paulina street, $1,350; Dr. C. S. Salmon, 6254 South Ashland avenue, $17,300; Joseph Radnick, 6101 South Francisco avenue, $6,700; Josephine Casey, 8141 South Marshfield avenue, $8,200, and Emil Erickson, 627 East 78th street, $3,150.

Assistant State's Attorney Henry Seyfarth said these people are victims in that they signed notes to purchase stock in Bain banks, the John Bain, Inc., and the Lewa company, both Bain subsidiaries, and that even though they never received a cent of cash and the stocks are now worthless, they still are liable on their notes. Those who bought bank stocks in this way come under the double liability law, owing the par value of the stock in addition to their indebtedness on the notes. This sale of worthless stocks to the public is part of the alleged conspiracy, he said.

Explains Conspiracy Charge.

Assistant State's Attorney Harold M. Keele said the purpose of showing the inability of the borrowers to pay is to show that their loans should have been called long before the banks were closed. Through this the state expects to show that the Bains were in a conspiracy to keep insolvent banks open, he said.

A jury was obtained in Waukegan yesterday to try William H. Miller, former official of the closed Waukegan State bank, one of five indicted for conspiracy to defraud the public through the operations of that bank.

SHOE SALESMAN KILLS SELF.

Vernon E. Perry, 26 years old, a shoe salesman, shot and killed himself yesterday in his room at the Broadway apartment hotel, 626 Roscoe street. He was despondent over his separation from his wife, police said.

FORGETS DIVORCE

EDNA MURPHY. [Associated Press Photo.]

Hollywood, Cal., June 28.—[Special.]—Not only did Enda Murphy, blonde film actress, forget this was the day she was scheduled to obtain an uncontested divorce decree from Mervyn Leroy, her husband, but she forgot that she was to win legal claim to $12,000 a year at the same time. The stage was all set for the divorce hearing scheduled before Superior Judge Dudley Valentine when the actress' attorney arrived breathless and explained to Judge Dudley that he had phoned his client's apartment and been notified she had gone out of town. "Probably forgot the date," the attorney explained. The judge agreed to postpone the case. Besides her plea for divorce, Miss Murphy was seeking legalization of the $1,000 a month temporary alimony allowance Leroy settled on her last year.

OPINION HOLDS SCHOOL BOARD CAN REDUCE LEVY

Security Experts Approve Buehler Proposal.

The board of education can legally reduce its 1932 tax levy from $75,398,918 to $60,000,000, according to an opinion advanced yesterday by Chapman and Cutler, security experts. The reduction in taxes would necessitate a withdrawal of the tax levy ordinance now pending before the city council.

A resolution demanding the reduction was introduced by Trustee Ernst Buehler at the school board meeting two weeks ago. Lewis E. Myers, president of the board, questioned the validity of the proposal and it was sent to Chapman and Cutler.

The security experts suggested that the board of education determine the amount of reductions desired as to each of the purposes for which taxes are to be levied for the year 1932. These purposes are educational, building, playgrounds, free text books, pension and bond redemption.

Board's Support Unlikely.

The opinion further stated that should the board make the tax cut, it should correspondingly cut its expenditures which, in effect, would mean a revision downwards of the $90,180,263 budget for this year. It is doubtful whether Trustee Buehler could muster sufficient votes among board members for this action.

After deciding on the cuts for each school purpose, Chapman and Cutler declared, the next step for the board would be to repeal its action taken in connection with the demand upon the city council for its 1932 school taxes and adopt a new resolution as to the amount of taxes to be levied.

"In our opinion the board has authority to repeal this resolution inasmuch as the city council has not taken any action," the experts said, "and by proceeding in that way the record of the board of education will be free from doubt and the duty of the county clerk as to the extension of taxes will be clear."

Can't Cut Tax for Bonds.

The tax experts said they wished to emphatically impress upon the board that there should be no reduction whatsoever in the amount of taxes levied for bonds and interest, which is a mandatory duty of the board both by the constitution and the enabling statute under which the bonds were authorized.

Whether the path toward tax reduction outlined in the opinion will be followed will be threshed out in the school board meeting this afternoon.

Astronomer Retires

PROF. EDWIN B. FROST.

DR. E. B. FROST, ASTRONOMER, TO RETIRE JULY 1

Lake Geneva, Wis., June 28.—[Special.]—Dr. Edwin Brand Frost, world famous astronomer and director of the Yerkes observatory here since 1905 is preparing to retire July 1. He moved today into the new home he has had built on the observatory grounds. He will be 66 years old next month. He will be succeeded as director by Dr. Otto Struve who has been at the observatory about ten years. Dr. Struve is a Russian born scientist, but has acquired his American citizenship.

Dr. Frost was graduated from Dartmouth college in 1886 and at once began teaching astronomy there when he was 20 years old. He continued his studies in Princeton and abroad, acquiring a reputation for leadership in astrophysics, then a new science. In 1898, he went to the University of Chicago as professor of astrophysics. In 1905 he succeeded George E. Hale as director of Yerkes observatory.

Dr. Frost has been totally blind for several years. He was ill last winter and for a time it was feared he might not recover. He regained his strength and now is reported to be in fine physical condition.

He has been at work for some time on his autobiography which is to be published soon.

FISHERMAN DROWNED.

Plymouth, Ind., June 28.—[Special.]—Raymond Stump, 38, of Lakeville, Ind., drowned in 7 feet of water in a gravel pit a mile west of Lapas Monday evening when he walked into the water after a fish pole which had floated from shore while he and his son were fishing.

Mexico City Police Seize 19 More Communists

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MEXICO CITY, June 28.—Accused of spreading pernicious propaganda, 19 communists were arrested today. These were added to 15 united labor members who were taken two weeks ago for distributing subversive literature in military barracks and public offices. The prisoners have been sent to various military prisons. Three leaders, Jacob H. Sender, a Peruvian; S. Dubiner, and Dino Zavaroz, Poles, have been ordered deported.

BEAUTIFUL
GRAND PIANO
MADE by well-known manufacturer, fully guaranteed. Will be sold for small balance due on lease. Just continue weekly payments of $2.00. Following our usual custom, all returned Grands are sold in this manner. Offer, exceptional value for someone. Answer quick—want to move it this week. 306 S. Wabash, 4th Floor.
Telephone or write to Mr. Pierce
W. W. Kimball Co. Harrison 4010
CREDIT MANAGER

Fat Men!
Take This Doctor's Advice

"Gentlemen: I've repeatedly read your ads quoting testimonial letters. Now I'm in a position to offer which of them all can better. On August 23, 1931, my physical condition forced me to seek medical aid. After being alarmed by a local physician I sought and found a doctor who rates one of the leading reputations in Hudson County. On the above date I weighed 242 lbs. (only 5 ft. 4½ inches in height). Also an advanced cardiac (heart) condition (valvular), blood pressure 170. Only 38 years old.

"After a thorough examination he instructed me thusly. One teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in warm water every morning with a diet similar to yours.

"This morning, October 1, 1931, less than 2 months, I've lost 24 lbs. My present weight 168 lbs., blood pressure 138 (normal) I feel better than in years and am told I look years younger. Bernard Shapiro, Brooklyn, N. Y. October 21, 1931."

Millions of men the world over are taking the little daily dose of Kruschen because they know that it keeps them feeling fit and active—life really becomes a glorious adventure—well worth living.

Get on the scales today and see how much you weigh—then get a bottle of Kruschen Salts, which costs but a trifle and will last 4 weeks. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on fatty meats and starches—persist in this method every morning and when you have finished the contents of the first bottle weigh yourself again—and know that the six mineral salts of Kruschen have presented you with glorious health.

To take off fat harmlessly and SAFELY, take Kruschen every morning — don't worry—it's the SAFE way to reduce.

But be sure for your health's sake that you ask for and get Kruschen Salts. Get them at any drug store in the world and if the results one bottle brings do not delight you—do not joyfully satisfy you—why, money back.

E. Griffiths Hughes, Inc., Rochester, N.Y.

CLAUDIA DELL—popular young screen star

Save Happily

YOU couldn't serve a more convenient and economical treat than Kellogg's Corn Flakes and milk. No trouble or work. Many servings from a single package costing but a few cents. Delicious and healthful. Breakfast, lunch, bedtime snacks. Quality guaranteed.

Enjoy a bowl of Kellogg's

Movie taking now made EASY and ECONOMICAL for all with the Stewart-Warner Movie Camera.

Fascinating to use—you can take brilliant, theatre-like movies the very first time. Always ready—no complicated preliminaries. Just look through the view finder and press the button.

Has every essential of the high-priced, semi-professional models and a combination of features no other camera can ofter. Even has 4 speeds, including s-l-o-w motion and talking picture speed.

Complete with leather-bound, waterproof carrying case of sporty new design. Built to last a lifetime. Only . . . $50

STEWART-WARNER MOVIE CAMERA

See this sensational camera used personally by the movie stars at any dealer listed below

STEWART-WARNER SALES CO., Distributors
2436 South Michigan Avenue

Bass Camera Company, 179 W. Madison St.
Central Camera Company, 230 S. Wabash Ave.
The Fair, State and Adams Sts.
Lyon & Healy, Inc., Wabash Ave. and Jackson
Roberts & Goulding, Inc., 175 W. Jackson Blvd.
Tri-Far Radio Company, Inc., 110 N. Wells St.
Cappel Drug Company, Broadway and Lawrence Ave.
Meyer Drug & Truss Company, 2225 N. Ashland Ave.
Leonard Moburg, 1049 Lawrence Ave.
Newgold Pharmacy, 5458 Broadway
Park Dearborn Pharmacy, 1260 N. Dearborn St.
Stephan Drug Co., 2754 N. Clark St.
C. H. Dereby, 2019 Lawrence Ave.
General Radio & Electric Service, 6010 Sheridan Road
Elston-Kenneth Pharmacy, 4788 Elston Ave.
George Engblom, 6701 Edison Park Ave.
The Fair, Milwaukee Ave. and Wood
Carl Feiser, 6300 N. Western Ave.
Otto Shaiskis, 1958 Humboldt Blvd.

SUBURBAN

Evanston—Evanshire Drug Co., 500 Main St.
Glencoe—Hillman's Pharmacy
Harvey—J. W. Oliver Co., 154th and Center
Highland Park—Earl W. Grell & Co., 389 Central Ave.
Kenilworth—Blann Pharmacy
Lake Forest—Wenban & Giffe, 380 N. Western Ave.
Niles Center—Oakton Drug Co., 8000 Lincoln Ave.
Oak Park—The Fair, 1100 Lake St.
Wilmette—Lyman Pharmacy, 400 Linden Ave.
Winnetka—Adams Pharmacy, Elm and Center Sts.

OVER 30 MILLION SATISFIED OWNERS OF STEWART WARNER PRODUCTS

Stevens

You'll make no slip in buying all of these SLIPS at this breath-taking price!

$2.95

Quality That Looks Much More Than the Price!

Smooth French finish Crepe de Chine artfully cut on bias body-molding lines!

Alencon patterned lace or trimly tailored.

Tea rose and white

SECOND FLOOR.

Chas. A. Stevens & Bros.

TICKETS ON SALE HERE FOR MILITARY TOURNAMENT

fly TWA The Lindbergh Line

LOS ANGELES
$115.00 Round Trip $207.00
(Includes rail-Pullman to Kansas City)
NEW YORK
$47.95 Round Trip $86.31
PITTSBURGH
$23.95 Round Trip $43.11

Call Pullman, R. R., Postal Telegraph, Western Union, Greyhound Bus, Travel Bureaus, Hotel Porter, or

TRANSCONTINENTAL & WESTERN AIR, INC.
Travel Shop, 254 N. Michigan Blvd. Central 7200
Air Bureau, State 7111
Union Station, Franklin 8700

Chicago Daily Tribune

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

FOUNDED JUNE 10, 1847

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER JUNE 3, 1903, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT CHICAGO, ILL., UNDER ACT OF MARCH 3, 1879.

All unsolicited articles, manuscripts, letters and pictures sent to The Tribune are sent at the owner's risk, and The Tribune company expressly repudiates any liability or responsibility for their safe custody or return.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1932.

THE TRIBUNE OFFICES.
CHICAGO—TRIBUNE SQUARE.
MILWAUKEE—TRUST COMPANY BUILDING.
NEW YORK—220 EAST 42D STREET.
WASHINGTON—815 ALBEE BUILDING.
BOSTON—718 CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUILDING.
ATLANTA—1825 RHODES-HAVERTY BUILDING.
LONDON—135 FLEET STREET.
PARIS—1 RUE SCRIBE.
BERLIN—WILHELMSTRASSE 69 A.
MADRID—CALLE ESPALTER 5.
RIGA—ELIZABETES IELA 15/3.
ROME—GALLERIA COLONNA (SCALA A).
VIENNA—AM MODENAPARK 6.
WARSAW—PLAC KRASINSKA 6.
GIBRALTAR—HOTEL CECIL.
SHANGHAI—36 AVENUE EDWARD VII.
TOKIO—IMPERIAL HOTEL.
MEXICO CITY—HOTEL REGIS.
PANAMA CITY—HOTEL CENTRAL.
SPECIAL REPRESENTATION.
SAN FRANCISCO—820 KOHL BUILDING.

THE TRIBUNE PROGRAM

PLATFORM FOR AMERICA

1. Repeal the Eighteenth Amendment.
2. Repeal the Volstead Act.
3. Stop appropriations for Prohibition tyranny.
4. End tax confiscations.
5. Halve government expenses.
6. Free the Railroads.
7. Establish Twelve-Foot Navigation from New York to New Orleans.
8. Adopt an American Foreign Policy.

PLATFORM FOR MIDDLE WEST

1. Revive the coal industry.
2. Free the farmers' markets from the Farm Board.
3. Fit highways to traffic needs.
4. Create a Middle West Chamber of Commerce.

"The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, to inform and mold public opinion, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."

IS THE REPUBLIC TO DIE OF SEASICKNESS?

It is not out of all other American political experience to find a region infested by such a politician as Huey P. Long of Louisiana. Democratic society now and then and here and there will contract an ailment and like a sick whale will throw off a substance—which in the case of a sick political unit is not ambergris.

When these throwoffs are regional or marginal they do not attract much attention and they are not of much consequence. They are on the soap boxes or out with the medicine show, peddling swamp root bitters, cancer cure, and corn salve. They are known for the bellowing voice issuing from the empty head.

Occasionally they get followings of primitives whose appetites are strong and who like watermelons but won't raise them, who want pot likker and corn pone but are too feeble to hoe corn or slop the pigs. When such political phenomena are isolated they are regarded as aberrations which democracy must expect to find occurring with some degree of regularity as evidence that the public school system is not wholly adequate.

In times past Democratic conventions have had the Huey Long type in attendance. Generally the specimens were trying to get by the door tenders or were amusing the loafers at the alley entrances. Occasionally one has been able to raise a silk hat and frequent the hotel corridors or even get an alternate's badge and car fare from an easy going boss.

In this present Democratic convention Huey Long is discovered not as a curiosity from the bayous temporarily in control of a state to the embarrassment and peril of the respectable men of the party, but recognized by the faction of the leading candidate for President, deferred to and upheld and given the honors of a gathering which hopes to name the head of this nation in a time of extreme national uncertainty and distress.

Long is in the convention as a President maker, as a responsible authority on Democratic principles and behavior. Observers who saw him before the credentials committee of the convention and saw his opponents noted that the latter had the sober, stern, drawn faces which might have been the faces of Louisianians in reconstruction days when citizens wondered how they could escape from the ruin of the carpetbaggers and anarchistic government. The men who found themselves turned out in the cold by the managing authority of the convention had good cause to turn stern faces upon the spectacle. They are again on the brink of ruin and the cause of it is highly honored by the national party.

They had proceeded by the rules of the party to select their delegates. Their clown opponent had broken every rule. But he was successful before the committee and they were thrown out. The mountebank was given position and power. They were rejected. They were white faced because they were sick.

When this republic is overturned, if it must be, one hope might be, just for sentiment, that the destruction would be the work of lean conspirators who at least had intelligence mixed with their rancors. If we go down to drums beaten by clowns it will be a fate undeserved even by our follies.

If the United States is to take ill and die let it be hoped that it is not of seasickness.

FUR SAMMONS AND THE LAW.

James (Fur) Sammons spent 20 years in the penitentiary on conviction for murder. The jury fixed the death penalty for his offense. Richard Yates, then governor, commuted the sentence to life imprisonment. Len Small reduced the sentence to 50 years, permitting parole. The second commutation was held invalid by the Supreme court in 1930, and Sammons, then at large, was sent back to the penitentiary.

Last Saturday a writ of habeas corpus was applied for in the Circuit court at Woodstock before Judge Shurtleff, upon whose order Sammons was again removed from Joliet and put in the jail of McHenry county pending a hearing on the habeas corpus writ. What the legality of Sammons' present incarceration is Judge Shurtleff will decide shortly. Meanwhile a law abiding citizenry will review the experience of Sammons with the law with some concern. They will wonder what are the mysterious powers that have intervened so often in his behalf, saving him first from the gallows to which a jury of his peers consigned him, then turned him loose upon the community upon which he preyed, and now seek for him another enlargement. Col. Chamberlin of the crime commission says Sammons is a most dangerous menace to the community. This is not the issue which Judge Shurtleff must pass upon, but it is a fact which the pubic is concerned with in considering the quality of its defense from crime and in inquiring what are the influences which in the past have operated upon two governors to defeat justice and endanger the peace and security of the community in this notorious case. We have referred often to the alliance between crime and corrupt politics. If this is not a sinister example of its workings, the record must be very deceiving.

REGULATING THE REGULATORS.

The attempt to cut 2 million dollars from the appropriation for the interstate commerce commission was defeated by the senate though the proposal had committee indorsement. More will be heard about that matter by the senators who participated in defeating the saving. They haven't begun to hear from their constituents.

Meanwhile, it is well to consider what the interstate commerce commission is and what it ought to be in a rational system of government. The interstate commerce commission as it is constituted at present is the executive board of all American railroads. It decides, among other things, what the rates shall be, which lines shall be retained in service and which shall be abandoned, and what securities shall be issued. The powers of the owners of the railroads and their chosen representatives in the management are limited to matters of detail. At every turn the government agency can step in with a veto and frequently the commission initiates policies. Under the circumstances it is clear why, as Scrutator pointed out the other day, the railroads by and large have failed, even in good years, to earn the 5¾ per cent on their investment which the transportation act was supposed to guarantee them.

It is arguable, of course, that, even unhampered, the railroads would have done no better. It is arguable, but unlikely. And it can be said with a good deal of assurance that, under present conditions of regulation, the outlook for the majority of the railroads is pretty nearly hopeless. Without earnings to justify advances of capital the railroads cannot keep abreast of their competition, to say nothing of defeating it. They can live on their capital, gradually exhausting it, for a number of years, but they are heading for the junk heap.

The present policy of regulation is intolerable. It can be ended in one of two ways. The government can take the lines over and assume the responsibility for management, as well as the management, but that method is certain to add enormously to the tax burden. Or the regulative functions of the commission can be greatly modified to permit the initiative of railroad executives to assert itself and enable the railroads to solve their own problems as best they can.

That is not to say that the interstate commerce commission should be abolished, but rather that its powers should be curtailed. The commission should be reconstituted, not as the managerial and executive agency which it now is, but as a federal court, specializing in the trial of specific complaints of shippers against alleged injustices. The railroad executives should be free to determine their own policies with respect to rates and service. That much freedom may have seemed dangerous in the '80s, when there was no competition from trucks and buses to prevent the gouging of the public, but it is safe today. The rôle of the commission should be one of adjusting any inequities which may arise through favoritism or oversight as between those who are served by the railroads.

SPENDING OUR MONEY.

We are in receipt of two communications from the George Washington bicentennial commission, Washington, D. C. Garden series No. 7 informs us that "there has always been a style in gardens, just as there has in architecture, interior decorating, and clothes." Following we have two large pages describing the flora of Washington's period, the Nellie Custis rose, the hydrangea, the Calycanthus floridus, horse chestnuts, oaks, ashes, poplars, etc., etc., ending with an invitation to send for a free list of colonial flowers and color combinations to be addressed to the garden editor, George Washington bicentennial commission, Washington building, Washington, D. C.

Garden series No. 8 is two pages of paper and print to the same effect, with special reference to Mount Vernon.

A small matter perhaps in these days of four billion dollar congresses, but eloquent of what has been happening to the taxpayers of the United States, and that means to every individual in the United States, whether he knows he is a taxpayer or not. Appropriations for this commission in 1931 were $439,075; in 1932, $338,195; estimated expenditures for 1933 are $452,000.

WHEAT DURING CONVENTION WEEK.

[St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

Mrs. Hattie W. Caraway, Arkansas' woman member of the senate, made her first speech the other day and also one of the shortest speeches ever made by any member of that body. "I'd like to say also," she added, after reading a memorial from her state protesting against any further legislation for the farm board, "that when my husband was in office he voted against having the farm board in the first place."

A plain, unassuming speech and still one of easily understood implication and of some effect. Something that may be remembered longer than the import of the plank adopted at Chicago on the seriousness of the agricultural problem is the fact that, on the day of its adoption, the July option on wheat in the Chicago market fell to 48¾ cents a bushel. For this particular option on wheat transported from the farm as far as Chicago this is said to be the lowest price of record in 90 years. The 30 cent price for July corn is described as the equivalent of a minimum of 15 cents and a maximum of 25 cents for corn on the farm, depending on distance.

Circumstances supplementing Mrs. Caraway's brief remarks are that Kansas raised last year 80,000,000 more bushels of wheat than the five states of Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas and Colorado will harvest this year. The total production of the five last year was 444,000,000 bushels. Their estimated total production this year is only 159,000,000 bushels. With the addition of the many million bushels of holdover wheat which the farm board has accumulated, the total available 1932 supply of the country will still fall far short of last year's harvested supply.

In fact, many hold that, but for the uncertainty as to when and how and at what price this holdover wheat will be placed on the market, wheat would sell at least at 75 cents a bushel now, possibly higher. If wheat makes a start up it will be the signal for a gratifying upward movement in many things.

Not the least happy feature of the season outlook is the favorable opportunity that may be presented for liquidating and winding up the affairs of the farm board.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

WE MOTORISTS are a kind hearted lot and for that very reason we wish the convention was over. We have to drive so slow this week to avoid hitting a delegate who may be pledged to vote for our favorite candidate for the presidential nomination. Oh, wouldn't it be simply terrible!

ORATORY must have changed a good deal since the days of Demosthenes, Cicero, and Catalline. Even since the days of William Jennings Bryan. Out at the convention the first speech didn't stir us at all. Maybe because as we got it through the funny tin horns hung up in the center of the building it sounded like this: "A woog woog woog, blub, blub, blub, ger woog woog woog, ger blub blub blub." A speech we heard soon after that, however, almost got a cheer out of us: "Glub glub glub, mush, mush, mush. Ooowah, oohwah, ooh wah, mush mush mush." It was getting towards dinner time and the orator's happy reference to mush set us all aglow. If he had gone more into particulars and said fried mush we would have given three rousing cheers.

WE DON'T KNOW much about political ethics, but if we were Gov. Roosevelt we would send a trusted Boy Scout down to the New York delegation chairs and pour about a quart of glue on the seat of the one into which Al Smith is going to roost. If Al is glued to his chair when the fireworks begin then Franklin is going to have a lot better chance for the nomination.

THIS AND THAT.

Better than this,
And worse than that,
Is a pale face
With a red hat.
With a red hat,
On jet-black hair,
Starting to town,
To go nowhere.
To go nowhere,
When winds are shrill,
When streets are dark,
And homes are still;
Sporting with pride,
Red lips that trace
A thin bright line
Across a face.
Across a face
Ghost-white with tears,
Caught in the web
Of spider-years.

But worse than this,
And no better than that,
Is a gray veil
On a red hat.
For a gray veil
Might enter in
A closed white door
Barred against sin.

ROSA ZAGNONI MARINONI.

CONGRESS, which has to remain in session during the great Democratic powwow here in Chicago, has installed a radio in its committee room with special wires to the Stadium hall, and the senators and representatives are said to crowd around and listen breathlessly to every word spoken at the convention. That's the way with us mortals, we never know when we're well off.

"THERE IS NOTHING," says one of the Hints for Beauty writers, "that helps one so much to have a lovely face as to keep smiling." Which means that we've got to be contented with a very plain countenance. We simply can't smile when we pay those new federal taxes. We're doing our best, but about all we can do now is to start a pale, sickly grin that dies away into a look of human anguish and horrible suffering as soon as it's born.

IT MUST KEEP Hooey P. Long worrying all the time to decide what he's going to be mad about next. He's used up about everything that could possibly be thought of, but leave it to Hooey. He can find more things to get mad about than we ever supposed lived in the heavens above or the seas below. Wonder what it will be today?

WE UNDERSTAND that Washington residents are very indignant at the Reds discovered in the bonus army at Washington. The veterans promptly marched the Stalin missionaries to the boundaries of Washington and ejected them. Nevertheless it was the remark that one of the soviets made as he was fired across the border that has touched the pride of Washington to the quick. "All right," said the Red, "I've been trun outten better places than this!" Oh, horrors!

Rose Petal Rhymes for Robin Lee.

I.

If I choose a few pretty words
That fit together
As softly as a flower
Picked from the garden
Of childhood,
And if over them is misted
A fine fragrant dew
Of enchantment,
Then they are just
Rose petal rhymes
That have drifted, dear,
Down to you . . .

PIERROT.

THE READING of Thomas Jefferson's first inaugural address to the convention has already begun to bear fruit. Four Oklahoma delegates, three from Tennessee, seven from Illinois, and two from Texas have already declared they will vote for Mr. Jefferson for the presidential nomination. It is understood that Al Smith and Johnnie Raskob at a late hour last night started a vigorous "Stop Jefferson" campaign.

AND GOV. RITCHIE is doing a lot for his state. About all the delegates knew about it before was that fried chicken came from there. R. H. L.

How to Keep Well By Dr. W. A. Evans

To the limit of space questions pertaining to hygiene and prevention of disease will be answered in this column. Personal replies will be made to inquiries, under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual disease.

[Copyright: 1932: By The Chicago Tribune.]

ELEVEN AGES OF MAN.

"HOW TO LIVE" quotes the Emmetsburg [Ia.] Index as dividing the age of man into eleven periods, in accordance with the dietary habits of each. I do not know that either William Shakespeare or the editor of the Emmetsburg paper ever shot craps, but the use of the numbers seven and eleven places one or the other under the need of explaining.

The eleven ages, as designated by the principal foods of each, are:

1. Milk.
2. Milk and bread.
3. Milk, eggs, bread, and spinach.
4. Oatmeal, bread, and butter, green apples, and all day suckers.
5. Ice cream soda and hot dogs.
6. Minute steak, fried potatoes, coffee, and apple pie.
7. Bouillon, roast duck, scalloped potatoes, creamed broccoli, fruit salad, divinity fudge, and demi-tasse.
8. Paté de foie gras, wiener schnitzel, potatoes Parisienne, eggplant a l'opera, demi-tasse, Roquefort cheese.
9. Two soft boiled eggs, toast, and milk.
10. Crackers and milk.
11. Milk.

The eleven can be arranged in three groups. The first five, which he terms ascent, are the periods of immaturity. The next three, or plateau periods, include the years of hard, driving work, on the one hand; the results of idleness and artificiality on the other. The last three comprise senescence and senility.

The Emmetsburg editor, in spite of his joking, meant us to infer that children in the first three groups had to eat what they were told to. The foods culminated in spinach, which all children are supposed to eat under compulsion, and to shut their eyes and switch off their taste organs as they comply.

The intent was to portray revolt in ages 4 and 5, by the inclusion of green apples, all day suckers, ice cream sodas, and hot dogs.

In the next group the years of hard work are included in the sixth period. The diet connotes hurried eating, preoccupation, and no social interchange, conversation, or music during eating. It meant a few minutes snatched from work, rapid eating, insufficient chewing—no relaxation, no ruminating or lazing.

If the wise humorist barbs a shaft at lack of leisure in the diet of six he aims at the opposite urge in seven and eight. The menus for these periods indicate revolt against six. But they also indicate too much leisure and artificiality. That of six would not be bad if the technique of eating were changed somewhat, if more time and more talk were sandwiched in, and if there could be a postprandial cud chewing. Those of seven and eight are bound to be bad from almost every standpoint. For one thing, they lay the foundations that make necessary the limitations of nine, ten, and eleven.

TAPEWORMS FROM FISH.

J. E. E., M. D.: Last year I operated on two patients for appendicitis. Section of the appendix showed that both patients [girls in their 'teens] had their voluminous appendixes filled with tapeworm. Part of the supply of fish they ate came from a lake infested with fish tapeworm. This infestation was supposed to have been brought to this area by Chippewa Indians returning from the iron mining regions in the northeastern part of Minnesota, where so many of the small lakes are infested.

CHOCOLATE AND COCOA.

Mrs. L. W. B. asks about chocolate as a beverage and as a food for children. She wants to know if it is easily digested, wholesome, and nutritious. Also, cocoa as a beverage. She would like to follow an intelligent policy in giving her children candy and beverages.

REPLY.

Chocolate candy is composed principally of a base of a mixture of milk, butter, and sugar, which is covered or impregnated with chocolate. Each of these ingredients is high in calories. The beverage chocolate, as served, is composed of sugar, milk, water, and chocolate and, again, each except water has high food values.

Cocoa, as served, is a mixture of milk, water, sugar, and cocoa. Each except water has high food values. If a child must take a flavored beverage or a candy food, these are as good as any and, in most particulars, they are the best.

Cocoa does not differ materially from chocolate except that it contains less fats. We are told sometimes that cocoa is superior to chocolate because it contains less fat and is, therefore, more easily digested. However, I know of no convincing proof on that point. We let young babies suck sugar teats made of butter and sugar, and older children suck and eat fat meats and drink cream, and I know of no proof that they are harmed thereby, though there are some exceptions.

The objections to chocolate and cocoa for children are two. They contain theobromine, a substance that is chemically about the same as the caffein of coffee and the theine of tea. Physiologically, however, theobromine is less harmful than the other two.

The second objection is that both are too highly flavored, too sweet, and with too much other flavor. The best foods and drinks for children are those with no more flavor than the foods they must depend on, principally milk, butter, bread, meat, eggs, soups, vegetables, fruits, and simple desserts.

REVERSE PERISTALSIS.

J. S. writes: What is reversed colon? What causes it? Can it be cured by diet or is an operation necessary? Is this kind of an operation usually successful?

REPLY.

You have in mind reversed peristalsis. Every once in a while the digestive tube reverses its usual method and moves the food up rather than down. This is called reverse peristalsis. It is a temporary procedure, but sometimes it is rather readily started up.

Some belching is caused by reverse peristalsis. Vomiting is due to that cause. So is definite nausea. The brown coat on the tongue in the morning is often a result of this disorder, and it contributes to halitosis. These are what are known as minor effects of this perversion.

At the other end of the list are such major troubles as strangulated hernia, obstruction of the bowels, appendicitis, infection of the gall bladder, gall stones, and adhesions.

As you can see, the cause varies. Anything that obstructs the free movement of the food in the right direction may cause reverse peristalsis. Immediate operation is required in some cases, as, for instance, in strangulated hernia. Those cases due to constipation, infected gall bladder, and so-called indigestion with water brash are benefited by dieting.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

16 YEARS AGO TODAY

JUNE 29, 1916.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—The First Infantry, I. N. G., is on its way to San Antonio, Tex., and the Mexican border. The regiment entrained bag and baggage tonight. The first section under Maj. Abel Davis left Camp Dunne at 9:55 p. m. The second section, commanded by Maj. John V. Clinnin, and the third, commanded by Maj. Bittel, followed shortly afterward. Report from along the railroad route is that every hamlet and farmhouse turned out to cheer the troops as they passed. The Second and Seventh regiments will go today.

EL PASO, Tex.—President Wilson's peremptory demand on Gen. Carranza for the release of American prisoners held in Chihuahua penitentiary met with compliance. It was announced from the commandancia in Juarez that a message had been received stating that the twenty-three Negroes of the Tenth cavalry captured at Carrizal with Lem H. Spillsbury, Mormon scout, had been removed from prison and placed on a train bound for Juarez.

WASHINGTON.—Virtually all danger of immediate war with Mexico has been averted by the decision of Gen. Carranza to surrender the American prisoners at Chihuahua in compliance with President Wilson's demand. War may come yet, but if it does it will be the result of further clashes between American and Mexican troops, or of continued defiance by Carranza of the pacification of northern Mexico by the United States army.

MEXICO CITY.—Notwithstanding Carranza has given up the American prisoners, it is believed he will remain inflexible on the demand for the withdrawal of American troops from Mexican soil.

BERLIN.—Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the Socialist leader, was sentenced to thirty months' penal servitude and dismissed from the army for attempted high treason, gross insubordination and resistance to the authorities.

LONDON.—The British artillery continues to pound the German lines on the western front with a bombardment of unprecedented violence, according to reports received here. The action is along the whole seventy mile front.

PARIS.—The official war communication says that in Champagne, after intense artillery preparation, the Germans succeeded in penetrating some of the French posts in the direction of the Tahure salient, but were driven out by counter attacks. On the left bank of the Meuse the bombardment continued with big shells in the sectors of Avocourt and Chattancourt.

ROME.—The Italians have flung the Austrians back further on the Trentino front. The war office announced the capture of Monte Giamondo, north of Fusine, and Monte Caviojo. These positions lie between Posina and Astico. The Italians also advanced on the Asiago plateau, occupying the southern side of the Assa valley, and reached the slopes of Monte Rasta, Monte Interotto, and Monte Mosclagh.

Every Man's University

Questions and answers prepared by members of the faculty of the University of Chicago outline what they consider a well educated person ought to know. Today's instructor is Harvey B. Lemon, professor of physics.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

If a person riding in any public conveyance such as a street car, bus or electric suburban train walks toward the rear door as the conveyance is coming to a stop, why is the sensation that of walking uphill?

[This question will be repeated and answered in this space tomorrow.]

YESTERDAY'S QUESTION.

How is an airplane, itself heavier than air, supported in the air?

ANSWER.

An airplane is supported in the air solely by its forward motion. Its wings, driven through the air by the propeller or airscrew, encounter a rush of air past them. By virtue of the curved surface of the wing some of this air is driven downward and a corresponding upward push developed on the wing.

Still more important is the fact that the eddies of air rushing past the curved wing create a partial vacuum on its top surface, so that indeed about 80 per cent of the lifting force is due to this suction on the top surface of the wing that pulls it up.

FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE

Letters to this department must be signed with names and addresses of writers.

MORTGAGE RENEWAL.

Chicago, June 19.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—I have a first mortgage which I bought from a bank [which has since closed], and this mortgage now runs out next month. 1. Can I renew this mortgage myself, make out the papers myself, thereby saving the man who has the mortgage the price of renewing, or does a real estate agent or broker have to do this job in order to make it legal? 2. Are all mortgages recorded every time they are renewed or are they just recorded once? H. S.

1. Yes. You can secure a printed form of extension agreement and coupons from a stationer.

2. It is not necessary to re-record a five year mortgage at the first renewal.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

DEPENDS ON TRUST INDENTURE.

Chicago, June 23.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—A building on Roosevelt road, and on which I hold first mortgage gold bonds, must be remodeled and reduced in size as soon the work of widening the street is begun. The remodeled building will have much less rentable space and consequently produce less income. Have the first mortgage bondholders a claim to a share of the compensation which the owner of the building receives by reason of the street widening? F. K.

It seems probable that they should either receive a share or that the money should be invested for their protection. In general their rights depend upon the wording of the trust indenture.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

AFTERTHOUGHT

[II 420, Florence.]

Uncle Sam: "I introduced prohibition of alcohol, but it would have been better to have introduced prohibition of crime."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Writers should confine themselves to 200 or 300 words. Give full names and addresses. No manuscripts can be returned. Address Voice of the People, The Tribune.

THE OLD TIME SALOON.

Chicago, June 23.—I read with amusement the remarks of different senators who are trying to repeal the 18th amendment. They all want positive protection against the return of the old time saloon. What could they possibly mean, and what prompts them to make such ridiculous statements?

Is it ignorance, blindness, stupidity, or have they been living in some foreign country for the last twelve years? I ask these senators, when did our saloons leave, when were our barrooms closed? Maybe they have discovered some milder word for the numerous smoke shops and liquor dispensaries that can be located in any block in most any city in our United States.

The old time saloon was head and shoulders over our present day gin mills, which have been permitted to operate openly for the last twelve years during this so-called prohibition period. The old time barrooms had class, plenty of light, ventilation and cleanliness. Their beer and liquor were wholesome and pure, their prices one-fifth of what they are today. There was food for the hungry and, most important of all, they furnished plenty of revenue in taxes for both your local and national government.

The senators suggest that the state or government control the beer and liquor. I don't like that suggestion. Could it be that they have in mind the creation of new jobs, bureaus, or departments for their henchmen?

When the 18th amendment is repealed, if the state and government are given complete charge of the distribution of beer and liquor, by the time your politicians finish creating their inspectors, field managers, investigators, district superintendents, stool-pigeons, tax collectors, official testers and tracers, you will be greatly surprised to find that the amount of revenue derived in taxes from the sale of beer and liquor will not be large enough to maintain the thousands of government employes and hundreds of departments that will be made overnight. The result will be, instead of decreasing, to increase your taxes. JOHN J. MANGAN.

BUT WE HAVE PROHIBITION IN ILLINOIS, TOO.

Mount Morris, Ill., June 25.—At various times THE TRIBUNE has made Kansas the butt of ridicule because of its dryness. What Kansas has reaped as a result of its aridity is no joke. In that state there are 54 counties without any insane, 54 counties without any feebleminded, 96 counties without any inebriates, 23 counties without any poorhouses, 53 counties without any persons in jail, 56 counties without any representatives in the state penitentiary.

Until THE TRIBUNE'S own state can show as good a record it would seem to be good manners and the part of consistency to call off further jokes on Kansas on the prohibition question, although that state is bearing up admirably under such ridicule! JAMES REICH.

SHIRT, BOOTS, AND BREECHES.

Davenport, Ia., June 21.—In the last two years I have mailed you four or five articles calling attention to the unjust practice of allowing half a dozen of the major oil companies to import, duty free, unlimited quantities of oil, the sole and only purpose of which was to bankrupt and drive out of the oil game all independents representing millions of American investors and thus bring within the grasp of the majors complete control of the oil game. It is interesting to note, that not one of those articles was ever permitted to go into print. But, on the other hand, many representing the other side found place in your columns. That is conclusive evidence to me that you have sold out—shirt, boots, and breeches—to the major oil companies. Some years ago it would have been difficult for me to believe that even you were muzzled by the majors of the oil industry to the extent that the other fellow would be denied a hearing in your columns. But some there are who can see through the game, and can call the baby by its right name. E. L. BURKE.

LEADERSHIP.

Kansas City, Mo., June 26.—For want of better criticism of President Hoover, many thoughtless persons have been crying for leadership, for some one with the qualities necessary to leadership.

Now these same persons proclaim that President Hoover, as a steering committee of one, directed and dictated that entire program of the Republican national convention. What better or greater evidence could he display to prove his possession of all the attributes of leadership?

Keep President Hoover in Washington and give him a favorable congress and he will perform his job, as he has every job he has undertaken to do, better than any other living man could do it. C. S. L.

IN THE HANDS OF THE ENEMY.

Bonne Terre, Mo., June 24.—It has been charged that the infamous straddle prohibition plank was inserted in the Republican platform with delegate strength procured in normally Democratic states like Alabama, Louisiana, and Texas.

In the year 1928 Democratic delegates imported from usually Republican states like Iowa, Illinois, Michigan, and Maine nominated Al Smith.

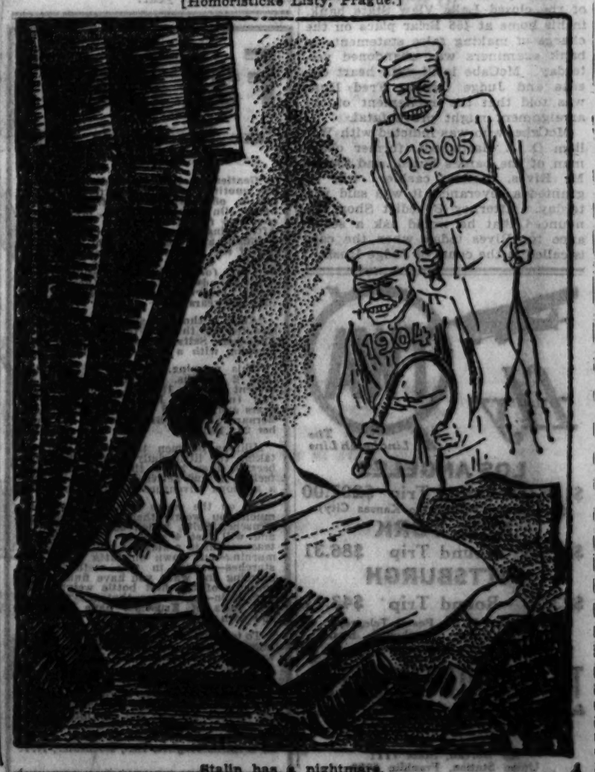
What with writing each other's platforms and nominating each other's candidates, the two contemporary parties may as well consolidate. VERNUS PYLE.

OBJECTIONABLE ADVERTISING.

Chicago, June 20.—If you were as fair to the wet side now as you were to the dry side before the war you would refuse the ads of the so-called Business Men's Prohibition Foundation in the same manner you refused the advertising matter of the liquor interests before the war. F. E. KNIGHT.

REMINISCENCES

[Homoristicke Listy, Prague.]



Stalin has a nightmare.

BONES OF ANCIENT WOMAN CLEW TO "START" OF MAN

She Had 'Human' Hands, but 'Animal' Feet.

PEIPING, June 28.—(AP)—A creature with man's hands, but seemingly some other kind of feet, lived in China 1,000,000 years ago.

A wrist bone and a toe bone to prove this were described today by Dr. Davidson Black, world famous Canadian anatomist, attached to the Rockefeller hospital here.

Both bones apparently belonged to the "Peking woman," or her tribe. The wrist bone goes far toward establishing her as "truly human," one of the mothers of the human race, living a life certainly far higher than that of any species of animal known hitherto.

Skull Found in Cave.

The top of the "Peking woman's" skull was found in Chouhoutien caves in geological formations which scientists identified as 1,000,000 years old. The situation showed good reason to believe that this skull was laid down in the cave before the rocks formed, and in the 1,000,000 years since turned to mineral along with them.

More recently other bones—all fragments—have been found in the same caves, all similarly fossilized in the same ancient rock strata. These include besides the wrist and toe fragments a collar bone.

Has "Human" Hands.

Next to the superior type of ancient brain indicated by the woman's skull, the wrist bone is the big find. For it points to the kind of hand no animal—not even the great anthropoid apes—was ever known to possess. This is a hand capable of doing "work" with tools in the human sense. In the theories of evolution this development by man's early ancestors of a hand that could fashion tools has been rated as one of the supreme achievements.

It has been urged even that the superior human brain developed as a result of the hand, rather than vice versa. Ability to do skillful things with the hand built up new brain twists, with growth in brain capacity and size.

Find Hand Made Tools.

Previously these caves have yielded evidences of crude flint "tools" like those now found in many other parts of the world, and all are credited to authorship of human hands.

Dr. Black, summarizing his studies today, said: "There can be no doubt that sinanthropus [the Peking woman] was of truly human status."

In a report to the Chinese Geological society he said: "This maker of stone artifacts, crude though they must have been, had hands differing in no essential from our own."

Study of what appears to be the terminal toe bone, however, suggests, according to Dr. Black, that the feet of sinanthropus differed widely from the modern type. He says that further research will be required before this point can be cleared.

JOHN D. AND PASTOR

John D. Rockefeller with the Rev. J. H. H. Darling as they left the First Presbyterian church in Lakewood, N. J., last Sunday.
[Associated Press Photo.]

AUSTRALIA ENDS YEAR 'IN THE RED' BY 48 MILLIONS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1932: By The Chicago Tribune.]

CANBERRA, Australia, June 28.—The first important conference of premiers since the recent state elections in Victoria, New South Wales, and Queensland opened here today. Premiers and treasurers of all states attended.

Federal Prime Minister Joseph A. Lyons in his opening speech disclosed deficits of $48,000,000 for all Australian state governments this year, ending June 30. He estimated a deficit of $60,000,000 for next year unless the state governments make more drastic reductions.

The federal government finished the year with a surplus of $3,600,000. The heaviest deficit was that of the late Lang government of New South Wales. Today's session ended with all state premiers unanimously affirming adherence to the premier's plan to meet interest obligations and reduce budget deficits. The commonwealth loan council agreed to find $6,000,000 to meet obligations of New South Wales due in London on July 1.

REPUTED BOOZE LEADER IS SLAIN IN CALUMET CITY

George Brooks, 39 years old, one of the alleged booze leaders in the southern part of the county, was shot and killed early this morning in the rear of his home at Kenilworth avenue and 162d street, Calumet City.

The gunmen had fired eight shots through the first floor window of the home a moment before. This attack proved strategic for it drove Brooks out of the back door for safety. Waiting for him was another killer, who shot him four times in the body.

Police arrested Brooks' wife, Dolly; Harry Hanley, of 366 East 63d street, Chicago; Eddie Hursick, of 303 Spring street, Aurora, and Mrs. Isabelle Steinko, the latter three guests in the Brooks home. They told police that they were sitting in the living room when a burst of gunfire smashed the front window. They stretched themselves on the floor for safety, but Brooks rose and fled out the back door only to meet the fate he sought to escape.

THREE SUSPECTS IDENTIFIED BY RAPE VICTIM

Three youths were identified as alleged rapists at a detective bureau showup last night. They were pointed out by Mrs. Theresa Carrillo of 1439 Spruce street, as three of the nine men who attacked her last Sunday.

The prisoners are Alfred Balinger of 1448 West Harrison street, Rocco Callassi of 1432 Flournoy street, and Louis Laino of 4649 Lexington street.

Mrs. Carrillo was attacked in her home. At the time she was entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Garcia, tenants in the same building. The nine men forced their way into her apartment she said, and all raped her. The Garcias were forced to stand aside.

ILL, KILLS HIMSELF.

Wilmington, Ill., June 28.—(AP)—Pete Matsen, 30, shot and killed himself last night while visiting friends at the Wilmington Gun club. Matsen had suffered poor health.

WARDEN OF NEW YORK PRISON IS REBUKED AS FRIEND OF HOODLUM

Albany, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—With Gov. Roosevelt's tacit approval, Dr. Walter N. Thayer today reprimanded Warden Joseph P. Wilson of Great Meadow prison for his association with Charles [Vannie] Higgins, slain Brooklyn beer baron and police styled gangster.

The state commissioner of correction leveled his criticism at Wilson, director of the budget in the administration of former Gov. Alfred E. Smith, following a conference with Gov. Roosevelt.

Dr. Thayer's reprimand followed his investigation of a visit Higgins made to Warden Wilson a few nights before he was killed on June 13 by rival gangsters.

"In your position as warden of one of the great prisons of this state, the fact that you had known Higgins many years ago, does not warrant the continuance of anything which could be construed as friendly associations with a man of his reputation," Dr. Thayer wrote Wilson.

A mutual interest in fast motor boats and Wilson's proposal to buy an airplane, together with the fact that the warden had known Higgins "a good many years," accounted for the gangster's visit to the prison on June 17, Wilson explained to Dr. Thayer. Higgins arrived by airplane, landing on prison property.

This accounted in part for the reprimant, Dr. Thayer asserting the warden "erred seriously" in permitting "an airplane to land upon the grounds of a correctional institution" and also in receiving "within the institutional boundaries an individual of the character of Charles Higgins."

CHINESE REDS CAPTURE 10 U. S. MISSIONARIES

Washington, D. C., June 28.—Ten Americans comprising missionaries and their families have been captured by communists at Kikungshan, China, Consul General Walter A. Adams reported to the state department today through the American legation at Peiping.

The consul general reported that a missionary who escaped from Kikungshan on June 27 said these ten Americans had been abducted by communists before daylight on June 26:

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Vickner and three children of Mead, Neb.; Mrs. Erik Sovially and son of Northfield, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Nyhus and infant child of Fink, Ia.

The consul general reported that he was making urgent telegraphic representations to the chairman of the Honan provincial government and requested that the legation make representations to the national government.

$300,000 Fire in Toledo Follows Blast; Injures Five

Toledo, O., June 28.—(AP)—With damage of $300,000, fire destroyed a three story building in the downtown section here early today and injured five persons, none seriously. An explosion preceded the blaze. The structure was occupied by the Western Auto Supply company and the Weed-Coburn company, manufacturers of caps and gloves. The stocks of merchandise were lost in the blaze.

STEEL MAKERS READY TO OPEN CANADIAN PARLEY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MONTREAL, Que., June 28.—Representatives of the British steel industry are due in Quebec tomorrow for a series of conferences and discussions with individuals and firms engaged in the production of steel in this country, preparatory to the big Imperial conference, which starts in Ottawa next month.

This will be the second major preliminary conference, the first being of cotton interests. If the second is no more fruitful than the first, very little will be accomplished. The British and Canadian cotton magnates were unable to come to any definite agreement, and the British representatives left for home last week, prepared to leave it to the big conference itself to work out some plan whereby more mutual trade might be developed.

Already there are leading Canadians who are saying that Premier Bennett may have to use the big stick and enforce manufacturers to make concessions, as it is now realized that mutual trade benefits within the empire can only be accomplished by corresponding concessions all around.

Claim Clews to Slayers of Pair at Davenport

Davenport, Ia., June 28.—[Special.]—With the arrest of Pat "Bud" Welsh, 24, Columbus Junction, Ia., and Louis Spridgeon, 35, Muscatine, Ia., for questioning, Sheriff Frank Martin and state agents today intimated that they were in possession of clews clearing up the murder of Nic Coin, Davenport bootlegger, several weeks ago, and also of the slaying of his professed henchman, Angelo Kaloudis, one year ago. A third arrest was expected in Muscatine.

New York Continues to Swelter; See Relief Today

New York, June 28.—[Special.]—The heat increased steadily today and the chances of obtaining relief from thundershowers diminished as the afternoon wore on. After remaining in the upper seventies during the forenoon the temperature jumped from 79 degrees at 1 p. m. to 82 at 2. The cooling effects of last night's cloudburst had worn off and the United States weather bureau predicted no relief until tomorrow.

3 Pound Twin Girl Gaining in Incubator

The tiniest patient at the county hospital, a 3 pound daughter born last Thursday to Mrs. Gertrude Mason of 1254 West 14th street, was reported yesterday to be gaining slightly. She will be kept in an incubator until she reaches 5 pounds. A twin sister of the infant, weighing only 2 pounds 9 ounces at birth, died Saturday.

Chinese Flying Student Nosedives in Solo Flight

Valley Stream, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—Lee Kar, 32, Chinese flying student of New York, was critically injured today when a plane in which he was making an instruction solo flight nose dived into the back yard of a home. He suffered fractures of the skull and both legs.

GERMANS MARK 13TH YEAR UNDER VERSAILLES PACT

Pledge Fight to Liberate Their Nation.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, June 28.—The 13th anniversary of the day on which Germany was forced to sign the treaty of Versailles was observed today by huge protest meetings throughout the country. In Berlin's Lustgarten students in their full regalia, Hitlerites and Steel Helmet men all in uniforms swore "to struggle for liberation of the country." Bands of them marched down Berlin's "Unter den Linden" yelling anti-Jewish and anti-communist slogans until police drew their batons and dispersed the would-be rioters.

Chief of the Steel Helmets, Franz Seldte, in a speech said: "We do not want to attack. We want only to protect what belongs to us and we insist that what was unjustly taken from us be returned."

Demonstration in Reichstag.

The most impressive anti-Versailles demonstration was held in Berlin in the reichstag which was thronged with statesmen and delegations from all parts of the country listening to Dr. Hans Draeger of the "German National associations," an expert on the "war guilt."

Of special interest to America, Dr. Draeger said, "Nothing will ever induce Germany to join any European combiantion directed against America," which is the reply of Germany's strongest associations to the efforts of the Lausanne politicians to align Germany in the ranks of Europeans opposed to America.

Dr. Draeger outlined German judicial, economic, and historical claims for the revision of treaties and was ably seconded by Clara Mende, a member of the reichstag, speaking in the name of German women and children.

Four Killed in Battles.

Clashes between the National Socialists and the communists continued. Four were killed and several score more or less seriously injured today. In Berlin seven communists were wounded and nineteen arrests made.

Three were killed at Strassfurt and seven so seriously wounded they may die in a battle between Reds and police. The communists were attending the funeral of a comrade killed by Hitlerites when they clashed with police and shots were exchanged.

At Leipzig one man was killed when the police interfered in a Nazi-Red battle. Barricades were erected and street lights smashed to darken the streets. Twenty-five were arrested. Twenty more were injured in fighting at Chemnitz.

Check Ban on Uniforms.

President Paul von Hindenburg today signed an emergency decree curtailing the powers of separate states over uniforms of militant political parties and demonstrations.

The edict rules federal law supersedes state law, so Reich Home Minister Baron Wilhelm von Gayl is empowered to cancel all the general prohibitions of uniforms and demonstrations which are still enforced against the Hitlerites by Bavaria and other states.

Local powers over political demonstrations are curtailed, but police are still held responsible for maintaining order and may forbid individual demonstrations or parades.

"Germany has less for all her own expenditures than America, France and England each spend on armed forces," it was asserted in an official report on the reich budget for 1932 which was debated and approved today by the federal council.

Excluding reparations the budget expenditures of one billion 946 million dollars are one-fifth less than in 1930. War liquidation absorbs 445 millions; debt services and financial administration, 320 millions. Only 475 millions are available for Germany's material expenditures.

Reported Engaged

Mrs. Katherine Cramer Woodman, Ardmore, Pa., mother of six children, who is said to be the fiancee of Dr. James Rowland Angell, president of Yale university.
[Associated Press Photo.]

CHICAGO WOMAN KILLED, 5 HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Mrs. Eva Bernard, 28 years old, 1324 North Lincoln street, was killed yesterday and five others were slightly injured near Shererville, Ind. Mrs. Bernard was riding with her husband, Lawrence, and two small children, when the automobile collided with a car driven by Gilbert Cox, 35 years old, of Huntington, Ind.

Friends learned yesterday that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Kirkham, both 67 years old, 206 Whitley avenue, Joliet, were killed late Monday in a crash 12 miles east of Red Oak, Ia.

Kirkham had worked for 52 years as a foreman for the Illinois Steel company in Joliet and retired a month ago on a pension and decided on the trip to Omaha to celebrate his retirement.

John Kerr, 33 years old, 6321 North Richmond street, died yesterday in the Mercy hospital, Gary, Ind., of burns suffered a week ago when the automobile in which he was riding crashed into a parked car.

One automobile fatality in Cook county yesterday increased the toll since Jan. 1 to 540. The victim:

Robert McCartney, 2 years old, 1653 Hollywood avenue. Killed in front of his home by the automobile of Edward Vanderkool, 1641 Hollywood avenue. Vanderkool was not held.

COMMONS GETS SHOCK AS TORY DONS STRAW HAT

LONDON, June 28.—(AP)—Maj. De Spencer Robertson, who up to this time has been a pretty regular member of the Conservative party, gave his associates a shock today when he walked to his seat in the house of commons wearing a straw hat.

People don't wear straw hats in England, and so far as anybody could remember this was the first time one had appeared in the commons, that deliberative body whose members may wear their hats while the session is in progress.

The prince of Wales wore a straw hat of the type described as a "boater" not long ago and the straw hat industry up in Bedfordshire was exultant at the prospect that the country might adopt the fad.

Fear Mexican Eruption; Order People to Flee

TOLUCA, Mexico, June 28.—(AP)—Gov. Filiberto Gomez today ordered all persons living on the upper slopes of the volcano Xinantecatl to evacuate as the result of volcanic activity in the long dormant crater. A scientific expedition which started for the crater yesterday was ordered to turn back because of increasing signs of eruption.

CHILE MAY SPURN AMERICAN OFFER OF NITRATE LOAN

Government Says Terms Are Unsatisfactory.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SANTIAGO, Chile, June 28.—Finance Minister Enrique Zanartu today said:

"As was expected, American capitalists, without our government hinting, has informed Cosach [$375,000,000 Chilean nitrate combine in which vast sums of American capital are invested] that they are ready to continue financing work for the new nitrate year.

"Nevertheless, the conditions of the proposed loan are such that the government will not accept unless arrangements are made in such a way as fundamentally to reorganize the management of Cosach, which has been excessively costly and has been the cause of Cosach's position today. If American bankers accept propositions from the Chilean government this week, the problem would only be solved for a time, not over a period of a few weeks."

Junta Charges New Plot.

Following the resignation yesterday of Nolasco Cardenas and Armando Cabero from the Socialistic junta headed by Carlos Davila, because of disagreement with his policies, the junta today issued the following manifesto:

"The junta is perfectly informed with reference to activities of certain politicians directed to create difficulties in the present government. Guided by passions and discontent and thinking of again taking control to suffocate the socialist revolution, they are occupied in sowing anarchy to obtain personal advantages.

"Some have already been notified by the authorities and asked to refrain from such activities, which are criminal. The government is battling to detain the anarchical wave which was on the point of smothering the country. From today, they will receive heavy punishment as they deserve."

Estimate 300 Slain in Revolt.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUENOS AIRES, June 28.—Travelers arriving from Chile today said the situation there is much quieter as a result of stern measures taken by the Socialist junta.

Casualties incurred in the quieting process were not divulged, but a tour of the morgues and hospitals indicated, at a conservative estimate, 300 killed and 1,000 wounded. These resulted chiefly from a veritable massacre when communists made an organized attack on the arsenal.

Many Reds were subsequently taken to Playa Ancha, a point near Valparaiso, where they were court martialed. No bulletins were issued, but shots at dawn seemed to reveal the sequel.

Working Classes Dissatisfied.

Discontent among the working classes has been appeased but little, the travelers report. Davila is not popular with the workers, many of whom think he is in league with American capitalists and declare he betrayed his colleague, Col. Marmaduke Grove, whom he ousted from power and whose whereabouts since is a mystery.

The navy department recently inadvertently reported that the destroyer Lynch arrived at Port Ancud, thereby giving color to the belief that Col. Grove's real destination is the small island of Navarin, just north of Cape Horn.

COWLES IS CONFIRMED AS MEMBER OF FINANCE BOARD BY THE SENATE

Washington, D. C., June 28.—[Special.]—The senate today confirmed the appointment of Gardner Cowles, Iowa publisher, as a member of the Reconstruction Finance corporation. Mr. Cowles was appointed to fill the vacancy left on the board when Charles G. Dawes resigned. Whether Mr. Cowles eventually will assume the presidency has not been divulged. At the time of his appointment, it was said at the White House that Mr. Cowles had simply been named a member of the board. It was said also that the board would select its president either from its own ranks or on the outside.

MICHIGAN SHORE TO HAVE TRIPLE HOLIDAY FETE

Summer resort centers on the Michigan shore will sponsor a continuous holiday celebration beginning Saturday and continuing to Tuesday morning.

St. Joseph and Benton Harbor will hold a swimming meet on the afternoon of July 4 and a fireworks exhibition the same evening. The House of David baseball team will play a Chicago nine on Sunday and Monday at Benton Harbor.

South Haven has arranged a program, including baseball, fireworks, a swimming contest and balloon ascensions for the 4th, all free to visitors. The annual Elks' picnic will be held at Muskegon. Other cities to have fetes are Pentwater, Hart, Holland, Grand Haven and White Lake. Boats will leave the Navy pier for the Michigan resorts.

FOR A GRAND AND GLORIOUS

4th

Golf or Tennis in the morning in

LINEN SLACKS

These are beautifully tailored of fine, preshrunk, imported linen. Generously cut in full slack model and very specially priced in this "before-the-4th" selling, at $3.95

For Your Golf— Conway Clubs

Irons —$3.75 each
Woods—$4.95 each

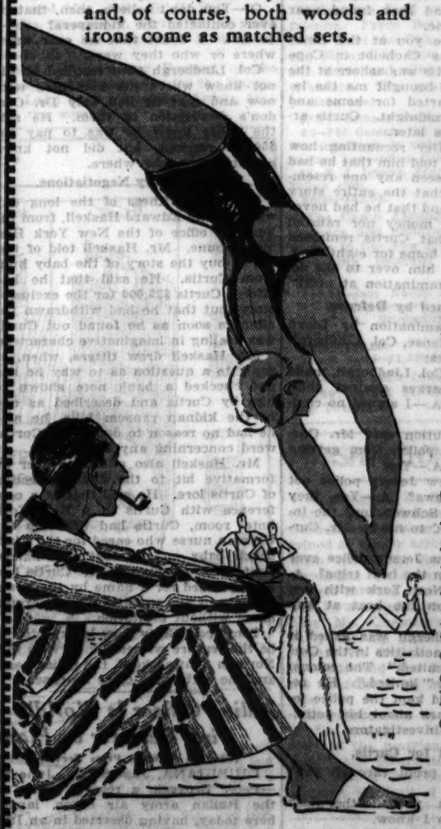
The Irons have shock-absorbing hosels and steel shafts. They're chrome-plated and fine values.

The Woods have inlaid faces and backs, are perfectly balanced . . . and, of course, both woods and irons come as matched sets.

or For Your Tennis— RACQUETS

Excellent Values

They're all regulation size with silk stringing and have re-inforced shoulder and three-piece laminated frame. Standard in every respect except the price. $4.95



In the afternoon swim in this

SWIMMING SUIT—$2.95

—the best value we know of

Specially purchased, specially priced and exclusive in Chicago at The Store for Men. Well under current 1932 prices for suits of a similar quality, available in black, blue, maroon. An unusual value!

after the swim slip into this

FLANNEL BEACH ROBE

Beautifully tailored of smart solid colored or striped flannel. Specially priced for over the Fourth. Exceptional quality at an exceptional price . . . $6.95

Sportsman's Floor—The Fifth

THE STORE FOR MEN

MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY

BARGAIN WEEK-END EXCURSIONS

45% Reduction in Round Trip RAIL FARES

To many destinations in Canada, Illinois, Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia and to all destinations in Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware and to Washington, D.C.

EVERY FRIDAY and SATURDAY throughout the summer season. Tickets are good in Coaches or Pullmans.

Tickets good going on all trains after 4 a. m. Friday and all trains Saturday. Returning to leave destination until midnight of the following Monday.

SPECIAL COACH FARES OVER 4th OF JULY

3/4 OF ONE WAY FARE for ROUND TRIP TO DESTINATIONS IN ILLINOIS, OHIO, MICHIGAN, INDIANA

St. Louis, Mo.; Louisville, Ky.; Pittsburgh, Pa.; Wheeling, W. Va.; Parkersburg, W. Va.; Buffalo, N. Y.; and intermediate points.

Round Trip Tickets good going after 3:00 a. m. Friday, July 1st, all trains of Saturday, July 2nd, and Sunday, July 3rd, and until 1:00 p. m. Monday, July 4th. Return Limit Tuesday, July 5th.

Travel by Rail—Comfort, Convenience and Safety

Consult Ticket Agents of the Following Railroads

BALTIMORE & OHIO WABash 2211
BIG FOUR ROUTE WABash 4900
C & E I WEBster 4343—HARrison 9830
ERIE R. R. HARrison 4160—9830
GRAND TRUNK RANdolph 6770—HARrison 9830 / 5465
MICHIGAN CENTRAL WABash 4900
NEW YORK CENTRAL WABash 4900
NICKEL PLATE ROAD WABash 2780
PENNSYLVANIA R. R. CENtral 7200
WABASH RY. HARrison 4500—HARrison 9830

JULY 4TH SPECIALS!

The latest machineless permanent wave, the most sensational discovery by Mme. Love in over 20 years of experience in permanent waving and hair dressing! Leaves perfect wave with ringlet ends. No combs or finger waving necessary. Given in less than 2 hours. Living models may be seen at any time!

$5.00

PERMANENTS
Frederic's Vita Tonic GABRIELEEN or Genuine Eugene $3

Realistic Hair Dyeing SHAMPOO before and after $3

No Discoloring to white hair. No injury to bleached or dyed hair. No appointment necessary

Madame Love inc.
French Beauty Shop
31 E. Madison St.
Ground Floor, Dearborn 0304-6603
934 Wilson Ave. Phone Ardmore 0770

NOTHING OVER 50c

Finger Wave | Face Massage
Marcel | Shampoo
Bright Rinse | Bleach
Eyebrow or Lash Dye
White Henna or Egyptian Henna, 35c
Eyebrow Arch or Manicure, 35c
Haircutting by Men Experts, 50c

TELLS OF SEEING 2 KIDNAPERS OF LINDBERGH BABY

Testifies Curtis Pointed Them Out.

(Continued from first page.)

tan. There, at the Manhattan cafeteria, between 42d and 43d streets, Curtis went in. I waited outside. Curtis came out in ten minutes and said he had been talking to 'John' and if I waited I could see him. He said 'John' would look neither to the right nor to the left as he walked out. In a little while a man came out and turned down 7th avenue and went into the Hermitage hotel. Curtis said it was "John."

Later, under cross-examination, Mr. Bruce was asked to describe "John."

"He wore a soft hat pulled well down over his face," testified the witness. "I saw him at a distance. I did not want to let him see me. That is the best description I can give you."

Tells of Second Meeting.

While still under direct-examination Mr. Bruce described the meeting with "Dynamite," the second gangster.

"I can't fix the date," said Bruce, "but it was at night and Curtis said he had just talked by telephone with Dynamite and was going to meet him. I wanted to see him, so I went along. We got in my car and went to Newark and then we parked and went to the Manhattan terminal station. Curtis went into the waiting room and returned presently and said if I would go in I would see a man wearing a light cap and brown tie who had just bought or was buying a tabloid newspaper.

"I went in, could not find him and came out. Curtis then went in, but we could not find him and Curtis said 'Dynamite' had probably caught a train for New York. Then we went out on the platform and in a coach we saw a man in a light cap reading a tabloid. Curtis whispered, 'That's him.' Then I went in and looked him over casually. The man appeared to be a Scandinavian, just as Curtis had said he was."

Later Bruce testified that Curtis had told him the man sitting beside "Dynamite" was "John," but that he did not recognize him.

Col. Lindbergh resumed his testimony at 10:15 a. m. The courtroom was even more crowded than on the first day and all of the space inside the rail was filled with friends of the lawyers, politicians and state police officials.

Col. Lindbergh, wearing a dark gray suit and blue tie began where he had left off yesterday in his narrative of his dealings with Curtis, the Norfolk shipbuilder. The high spots of his question and answer testimony at the morning session follow:

Questioned by Prosecutor Anthony Hauck.

Q.—Did Mr. Curtis describe the boat on which the kidnapers were hiding? A.—Yes, he described it in detail. He said it was painted dark green, almost black, could make a speed of about 14 knots.

Marked Position on Chart.

Q.—When did Mr. Curtis arrive in New York? A.—On the afternoon of April 20 and we went to 2 East 72d street in Manhattan. Mr. Curtis got a chart and marked the position of the fishing boat he said the kidnapers were occupying. We then planned to meet them at the point he had marked on the chart. The following morning was the time set. At the same time Curtis arranged for a hurried trip to Norfolk if we missed the first contact.

Q.—Where did you go next?

"To the north shore on Long Island sound," the Colonel replied. "I had begun to feel better about everything and I thought Mr. Curtis really had made a contact with them. We arrived at Stonington, Conn., and arranged for a fishing boat. Curtis was there, his friend Edmund Bruce and myself. We went to the location off Block island marked on the chart. Lieut. William Richards of the navy flew to a Block island location in a navy plane. None of us saw any signs of the Gloucester fishing boat. We were out there two or three hours and passed several small boats. We questioned them but made no progress.

Told Baby Was in Danger.

"We got back to New York on the evening of April 21 and went to the Prince George hotel where Curtis said he phoned Hilda, the wife of Din, the man supposed to be in charge of the fishing boat. Curtis said Hilda told him they had waited to deliver the baby but that there had been a great deal of coast guard activity in the vicinity and they had been frightened. A German nurse had the baby. The baby was well and they would await renewed contact at east quarter light off Block island.

Col. Lindbergh then told of going from New York to Norfolk and boarding the yacht Marcon with Curtis. Curtis, he said, told him the location had been changed and that the baby was in increasing danger because "John," the kidnap leader, was threatening to sell him to the highest underworld bidder. They put out to sea in the Marcon and cruised all night but made no contact. There was general talk on the yacht about poor visibility, so they put into Yorktown.

Q.—What happened next? A.—Mr. Curtis went ashore, and, returning, said he had contacted Hilda by telephone, and that "Din" had told her he had been on location, but had not seen the Marcon boat. We went back to sea the next day, but that night heavy weather forced us to return. Curtis was with me at all times on the boat. On April 25 we moved our base to Yorktown, and that evening we again sailed on location. We saw no signs of the boat, but got word from a navy plane that it had sighted a boat answering the description fifty-one miles from Cape Charles light. Planes at that time were covering 700,000 square miles looking for the boat. We kept trying but could not locate the boat. Curtis reported the kidnapers had no objection to our using one plane, but that they were afraid of more, and that they did not want the coast guard used in any way. The fishing boat was carrying towels drying on its deck so it could be identified from the air, Curtis told me he had been informed.

Q.—What did you do next? A.—We returned to Norfolk on April 26, and Curtis reported he had again contacted Hilda. She was quoted as saying the kidnapers were extremely anxious to return the baby and wanted to make a contact in New York City. I stayed in Norfolk and Curtis went to New York. Returning, he said he had contacted a very nervous man, who reported he was being trailed by a rival group not made up of the authorities. He said that the baby was well and in care of the German nurse.

Q.—When did you next go to sea? A.—On April 30 the location was changed to 10 or 15 miles off east quarter light and we went there, but found no fishing boat. On May 1, 2 and 3 we continued searching for the fishing boat and planes were searching too, but none made any contact. We continued to search on May 4 and on May 5 rough weather forced us to put in. On May 6 we searched for the ship in Chesapeake bay, but could not locate it.

Q.—How did Curtis explain his inability to make contact? A.—He said Hilda had told him her husband was in a difficult position and afraid to come out in the open. Curtis at that time told me he had seen the ransom money and checked the numbers. He said he pleaded with Hilda to tell him if she was "gin fiddling" them and that she said for them to have patience and they would get the baby back. Curtis said the kidnap boat was supposed to be in constant radio communication with a station at Cape May and that it had reported bad weather at sea. They were in need of repairs. We offered to fly the material to them, but the offer was not accepted. Curtis said Hilda said "John" had gone to Norfolk and was there at the time. Curtis showed me a telegram signed "J. R. G.," and explained that was the signature he had agreed upon. He afterwards said the last name was Gregory Learns of Son's Death.

The colonel was carried through a long account of his activities with Curtis on a boat they had obtained at Atlantic City—a boat that could go to sea in rough weather—the Cachelot. Col. Lindbergh recounted several unsuccessful trips from Cape May and said that on May 9 Curtis went to New York to make a contact with Hilda. Returning, Curtis told him he had met Hilda in a railroad station and gone with her to Freeport, L. I., where they got her automobile and drove to Norfolk. Curtis, the colonel said, remarked, "I now have too much information for my own good."

The flyer was questioned regarding receiving information on May 12 that his son's body had been found near the Hopewell home.

Q.—Where were you at the time? A.—I was on the Cachelot in Cape May harbor. Curtis was ashore at the time. Mr. Bruce brought me the information. I started for home and got there about midnight. Curtis arrived a few hours later.

The colonel, after recounting how Curtis had finally told him that he had never known or seen any one resembling Hilda and that the entire story was imaginative and that he had never seen the ransom money nor ransom notes, testified that Curtis remained voluntarily in his home for eight days. The state turned him over to the defense for cross-examination at noon.

Cross-examined by Defense.

Under cross-examination by Lloyd Fisher for the defense, Col. Lindbergh testified as follows:

Q.—Have you, Col. Lindbergh, made any criminal charges against John Hughes Curtis? A.—I signed no complaint.

Q.—The prosecution said Mr. Curtis had kept the police from getting the kidnapers? A.—Yes.

Q.—Did the New Jersey police act on the Curtis views? A.—Yes, they did. I gave Col. Schworzkopf the information reported to me by Mr. Curtis.

Q.—Did the New Jersey police ever accompany you on the boat trips? A.—Two went to New York with me, but none went on the boat at any time.

Here Col. Lindbergh was asked if the Jersey police activities in the Curtis hunt were "limited." The colonel refused to define "limited." He revealed that he had kept the police informed at all times about his activities with private investigators.

No Profit for Curtis.

Q.—Did Curtis profit through you? A.—No.

Q.—Did Curtis profit otherwise? A.—Not so far as I know.

He was then asked about other details of the search.

Col. Lindbergh was asked if he got a letter from Gaston Means, who later was convicted in a fraud in the Lindbergh case. He said he had not, but that he had received 100,000 letters.

Q.—Where is the ransom note? A.—In the custody of the state police or the federal authorities.

Q.—How many ransom notes were there? A.—Several.

Q.—Received after the kidnaping? A.—Yes, some by mail and some by messenger.

Q.—All in the same writing? A.—Yes, they were written by some one of German descent. They were all signed with the same symbol.

Q.—You got a number of letters with these signatures? A.—I did.

Curtis at Home 8 Days.

Col. Lindbergh then testified that Mr. Curtis was in his home for 8 days after the baby's body was found. The colonel said Curtis never signified that he was an unwilling guest. The defense attempted to prove Curtis was a prisoner.

Q.—Have you any knowledge that Curtis falsified concerning the whereabouts of the kidnapers? A.—I don't feel I could judge that question.

Q.—What clews did Curtis keep the authorities from running down, as charged by prosecution? A.—Well, I had been working with Dr. John F. Condon and I felt it the most important until Curtis got my attention.

Q.—Were these negotiations broken by Curtis? A.—Well, some of the work was stopped.

Q.—Do you believe Curtis dealt with the actual kidnapers? A.—I do not at this time. I did at one time. His statement that the whole account was untrue after the baby's body was found was a determining factor.

Q.—You don't believe, then, that he ever contacted the kidnapers? A.—I do not. I doubt that he ever knew where or who they were.

Col. Lindbergh then testified he did not know where the kidnapers were now and that he had only Dr. Condon's description of them. He said the police knew he was to pay the $50,000 ransom, but did not know exactly when nor where.

Tells of Story Negotiations.

The final witness of the long day was William Edward Haskell, from the business office of the New York Herald Tribune. Mr. Haskell told of trying to buy the story of the baby hunt from Curtis. He said that he had offered Curtis $25,000 for the exclusive story, but that he had withdrawn the offer as soon as he found out Curtis was dealing in imaginative characters.

Mr. Haskell drew titters, when, in reply to a question as to why he had not checked a bank note shown to him by Curtis and described as one of the kidnap ransom bills, he said he had no reason to doubt Mr. Curtis' word concerning anything.

Mr. Haskell also added another informative bit to the day's collection of Curtis lore. He said that at a conference with Curtis in a New York hotel room, Curtis had told him the German nurse who cared for the Lindbergh baby on the boat was named Gretchen. Apparently Mr. Curtis had been pressed for a name by the newspaper man and supplied a real German name without hesitation.

Tomorrow Betty Gow is expected to be the feature witness along with Col. Norman Schwarzkopf, the police head, and the state may close its case.

Scene in Court During Kidnaping Hoax Trial

(1) Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, (2) Betty Gow, Lindbergh nurse, (3) Col. Norman Schwarzkopf of the New Jersey state police, in courthouse at Flemington, N. J., on the first day of the trial of John Hughes Curtis for pretending to negotiate with the kidnapers of the Lindbergh baby. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

MAN IN EUROPE SAYS HE WAS A KIDNAPER OF LINDBERGH BABY

WAAG-NEUSTADEL, Czechoslovakia, June 28.—(AP)—An unidentified man, claiming to be an American citizen, but refusing to reveal his name, surrendered to police here today, saying he was one of seven persons who kidnaped and murdered the Lindbergh baby.

The seven, he said, went to London after the murder. There they received money from America, he added, and went to Paris, buying an automobile and trying to reach soviet Russia. On the way he mysteriously lost his companions, the man said.

He was elegantly dressed, but was penniless, lacked identification papers, and was exhausted to the point of collapse. He was arrested by the police, who were skeptical, however, believing his story only an attempt to get free passage to the United States.

TESTIFY FAMILY LIFE OF NAPIERS WAS STRAINED

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 28.—Testimony as to strained relations between the late Montague Stanley Napier, millionaire automobile manufacturer, and his wife was offered in Probate court today when the $6,250,000 will suit was resumed. Mrs. Napier, who was not mentioned in the will, is contesting the instrument.

The feature of today's hearing was a long cross-examination by Turner Samuels, attorney for Mrs. Napier, of Henry Cooke, solicitor and executor of Napier's will.

Cooke admitted that when he was called to Napier's house he noticed the relations were very strained between Napier and his wife. Mrs. Napier seemed to find fault with whatever her husband did and Napier gave sarcastic answers, he said.

Cooke declared that Napier was too courteous to show his wife how he loathed her but that he frequently went abroad alone and stayed at hotels to get away from his home.

The counsel then asked questions concerning Napier's father, trying to show that he turned against his wife and children for no reason whatever.

BANDITS ROB THEATER.

Two armed bandits yesterday took $600 from the Halsted theater, 320 South Halsted street, after forcing a woman cashier and three men employes into a vault.

Italian Officer Is World's First Deserter by Plane

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LJUBLJANA, Jugo-Slavia, June 28.—Peter Brovsek, a reserve officer in the Italian army air corps, landed here today, having deserted in an Italian military plane. Brovsek said he is probably the first soldier in history to desert by air. He took off alone and headed for Trieste to escape suspicion, then dashed toward the Jugo-Slav frontier. Unable to find a landing ground on the mountainous border, he flew to Ljubljana. Italy has asked the government to return the plane.

TAKES HER LIFE BY POISON.

Miss Evelyn Bernstein, 30 years old, 5010 South Carpenter street, committed suicide yesterday by drinking poison in her home. She was despondent over ill health, police said.

SEIZE EX-CONVICT AID OF MEANS IN McLEAN SWINDLE

"Fox No. 19" Arrested in New York.

New York, June 28.—[Special.]—An ex-convict known as "Fox No. 19" and charged with acting in concert with Gaston B. Means to swindle Mrs. Edward B. McLean, wife of the Washington publisher, of $104,000 on the pretense of recovering the kidnaped Lindbergh baby, was arraigned in federal court today. He will be turned over to the police at Washington, D. C., as soon as removal proceedings can be put through.

"Fox No. 19" is the title Means is said to have given Norman Whitaker, 42, of Brooklyn when he introduced him to Mrs. McLean. Whitaker was supposed to be the leader of the gang of kidnapers and the man who actually stole the baby.

Whitaker also went under the name of Neil Williams in his dealings with Mrs. McLean, the police said, and it was through that name that the department of justice agents ran him down.

Identified by Mrs. McLean.

Mrs. McLean and her maid went to police headquarters last night after Whitaker was arrested in Brooklyn on a complaint made by the Washington police. Unhesitatingly both of them picked him out of a lineup.

"This is Fox No. 19!" Mrs. McLean exclaimed as she walked up to the line of prisoners and laid her hand on Whitaker's shoulder.

The police said that late in March Means introduced Whitaker to Mrs. McLean as "Fox No. 19," and the two men, Mrs. McLean, and her maid drove down to the McLean home at Aiken, S. C., to negotiate for the return of the baby.

When they entered the house, the police say, Whitaker told Mrs. McLean that four automobiles, each one containing a machine gun, had followed them all the way down. Before they began talking he searched every room in the house to make sure they were alone.

Then, the police said, Whitaker told Mrs. McLean that he had held the baby in his arms only a few days before; that it was in good health and would be returned as soon as the ransome was paid.

Claim Baby Was Ill.

The second meeting, according to Mrs. McLean, took place in El Paso, Tex., where Whitaker promised to turn over the baby the following day. When the time arrived Whitaker declared "something terrible has happened. The baby is ill."

Then, she asserted, Means and Whitaker instructed her to allow her servant to remain and that the baby would be returned to her. Mrs. Mc-

After Mrs. McLean had completed her identification Whitaker was asked: "Did you get any of the $104,000?"

"I got none of it, but I wish I did," said Whitaker.

RESORTS AND TRAVEL RESORTS AND TRAVEL RESORTS AND TRAVEL
TOURS. TOURS. TOURS.

Big Celebration—July 2nd, 3rd & 4th
At House of David
Benton Harbor, Michigan
Michigan's Popular Summer Resort
Now Open for 24th Consecutive Season
Music Festival—Open Air Dancing—Miniature Trains—Baseball
—Hotel—Cabins—Restaurant—Aviary & Zoo—Bowling—
Two Bands—Two Daily Vaudeville Acts—Free Parking
The House of David Baseball Club, Now Touring Canada —vs.—
Joe Green's Chicago Giants at House of David Park
Both Sunday & Monday at 2:30 P. M.
Take a Goodrich Boat—Chicago to Benton Harbor
SPECIAL EXCURSION RATES
Round Trip { 1.25 Week Days (except Sat.) / 1.50 Saturdays / 1.75 Sundays and Holidays
Boats Leave Chicago Daily 10:00 A. M. Leave Benton Harbor Daily 4:30 P. M.
Other service Saturdays 2 P. M. and 11:59 P. M. Daily 7:30 P. M. Ex. Sun. 7:00 P. M.

CANADA OVER THE FOURTH
3 Carefree Days! 4 Restful Nights
Only $32.50 Includes Meals and Berth
Leave Chicago Friday, July 1st, 8:30 P. M. Return Tuesday, July 5th, 8 A. M. 1100-mile cruise over Lakes Michigan and Huron to far-away Parry Sound, Ontario.
6 hours ashore in Canada. 3 hours at cool Mackinac. Sunset cruise through Georgian Bay, Jewel of the Lakes (Thirty Thousand Islands) Sunday morning church services.
Rollicking Revels—Corking good food, music, dancing a-plenty
S. S. SOUTH AMERICAN
Phone, call or write for reservations—now!
Chicago, Duluth and Georgian Bay Transit Co.
110 West Adams Street • Randolph 2960

WISCONSIN. WISCONSIN.

THE DELLS
of the Wisconsin River
NATIONALLY FAMOUS for Their Striking and Unique Scenic Beauty
For full information as to scenic trips, motor routes, write for descriptive folder to
THE DELLS
Associated Boat Lines
Wisconsin Dells, Wisconsin
Formerly Kilbourn
Excursion via Milwaukee Road every week end
Friday, Saturday and Sunday
Season May 1—November 1

RESORTS AND TRAVEL RESORTS AND TRAVEL
Ocean Travel. Ocean Travel.

GERMANY $5.95 A DAY for Independent tours, including all traveling expenses. Offered by all leading travel bureaus. Write for Booklets "Combination 1932"
GERMAN TOURIST INFORMATION OFFICE 665 FIFTH AVENUE NEW YORK, N. Y.

Jan. 7, 1933
The "Queen of Cruising Steamships" leaves New York for that greatest of de luxe travel adventures—38,000 miles, 4½ months.
RESOLUTE
WORLD CRUISE
All thirty countries are visited in ideal weather. A wealth of Shore excursions are included in low rates, $2,000 up. Your Travel Agent can advise you.
HAMBURG-AMERICAN LINE 177 No. Michigan Ave. Chicago

GO BY SEA
At lowest rates ever
California
new, fast, luxurious turbo-electric liners
S. S. CALIFORNIA....July 9
S. S. VIRGINIA.....July 23
S. S. PENNSYLVANIA Aug. 6
via Havana and Panama Canal to San Diego (Agua Caliente, Tiajuana, Coronado Beach), en route to Los Angeles and San Francisco.
NEW LOW FARES
First Class $225 (up)
Tourist $120 (up)
Further reduction of 25% on round trip by sea.
HAVANA TOURS All expense-inclusive, 9-days, $135. Booklet on request.
PANAMA PACIFIC LINE
International Mercantile Marine Company
Company's Passenger Office, 180 No. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Randolph 6840 or any authorized S. S. or R. R. Agent

The Shortest Bridge to Europe
CUNARD & ANCHOR LINES
348 No. Michigan Ave., Chicago

BERMUDA LOW ALL-EXPENSE TOURS 4 days, $60 up; 6 days, $72 up; 9 days, $90 up; 13 days, $114 up. Regular sailings via Monarch of Bermuda. Tourist Agents or Furness Bermuda Line, 307 N. Michigan Ave.

West Indian and Caribbean Cruises From New York, 11 to 18 days, $125 up. From New Orleans, 9 to 16 days, $95 up. UNITED FRUIT CO., 111 W. Washington St.

The Southern Route to Italy—the Riviera and the Continent
ITALIAN LINE
Italia Amerios Shipg. Corp., 333 N. Michigan Ave.

JAPAN and CHINA by N. Y. K.
by large and fast motor liners to Orient from San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle, Vancouver.

SUMMER MEDITERRANEAN CRUISES—Specially chartered S. S. President Johnson sails from New York July 2d, returns Sept. 3d, all inclusive rates, $356 including shore trips. James Boring Company, Inc., 542 Fifth Avenue, New York.

AUSTRALIA
NEW ZEALAND, SOUTH SEAS
via Tahiti and Raratonga
Mail and passenger service from San Francisco every 28 days.
For Fares, etc., apply Union S. S. Co., 230 California St., San Francisco, or James F. Robertson, Inc., 333 N. Michigan Ave. Phone State 2254-3285, or any tourist railroad or steamship agent.

"BEST IN TRAVEL"
RAYMOND & WHITCOMB CO.
176 North Michigan Ave., Chicago
Telephone State 8615

BERMUDA CRUISES, 6 Days, All Expenses, $50 up, sailing from Baltimore Saturdays commencing June 25th. Apply Tourist Agents or CLYDE-MALLORY LINES, 323 Marquette Bldg., Chicago.

Fortnightly De Luxe Service to SOUTHERN FRANCE, ITALY, EGYPT PALESTINE AND SYRIA
AMERICAN EXPORT LINES
327 S. La Salle St., Chicago

GRACE LINE
NEW YORK CALIFORNIA
South and Central America

A delightful, economical vacation . . .
7 day cruise
CHICAGO BUFFALO and Return $67.50
INCLUDING MEALS AND BERTH
Steamship Tionesta leaves Chicago every Friday at 11 p. m. Central Standard Time. This summer take a Great Lakes Cruise. Long days of sailing thru regions rich in beauty. Zestful meals. Restful deck loungings. Sports and dancing galore. You meet new friends, see new lands, sail home satisfied that you've had the best vacation in years.
GREAT LAKES TRANSIT CORPORATION
Frequent Sailings To and From Buffalo (Niagara Falls), Cleveland, Detroit, Mackinac Island, Sault Ste. Marie, Houghton, Duluth, Chicago, Milwaukee
For full information apply any Tourist or Railroad Agent or B. E. KENNEDY, GEN. AGENT 203 So. Dearborn St. Wabash 6474 Chicago, Ill.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST
ALL-EXPENSE PLAN TOURS
2 weeks $199 and up from Chicago
Many tours to choose from—8 days to 3 weeks—covering all the West. Economical—Delightful—Carefree. Tours as low as $141, all expenses. Ask for details.
THE TRAVEL GUILD, Inc. TG-92
Hotel Pfister 185 N. Wabash
Phone Daly 0565 Milwaukee Phone Franklin 3880 Chicago

Exploration Tours One week by private auto around Lake Michigan—all-expense trips, $40. Cars owned and driven by Northwestern U. graduates. Also 2 weeks thru wild woods of No. Ontario around Georgian Bay. $160. Exploration Tours, 161 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago. Franklin 3896.

BELLE VISTA IN THE OZARKS
Fascinating, romantic vacation land. Explore Wonderland Caverns. Swim, dance, golf! Seven glorious days, all expenses paid, $50.35. Hoyle-Spears Tours, 164 N. State. Web. 7700

PROTECT YOUR FUNDS WITH THE NEW DOLLAR SIZE AMERICAN EXPRESS TRAVELERS CHEQUES

MICHIGAN.

NOW OPEN! Come for July 4th
THE MOST UNUSUAL RESORT IN THE MIDDLE WEST
Rates (including meals) from $5 A DAY
HORSE-BACK RIDING · GOLF · TENNIS · SWIMMING · DANCING · 10 PIECE BROADCASTING ORCHESTRA
HOTEL Golfmore GRAND BEACH, MICHIGAN

ROCHDALE INN MONTAGUE MICH.
Fixed Cost Outings
Leaving Chicago on S. S. Alabama any Saturday at 10 A. M. Returning following Saturday night 8 P. M. $31.50
Leaving Chicago any Monday morning at 8:30 A. M., and returning following Saturday 8 P. M..... $24.50
INCLUDES ALL EXPENSES
Dancing every night; 8 piece orchestra. For booklet and reservation call or write Chicago Office, 100 N. La Salle St., Room 808. Phone Dearborn 5613.

SAUBLE INN AND COTTAGES on Hamlin Lake, LUDINGTON, MICH.
FAMOUS FOR ITS WONDERFUL MEALS.
Write for Special All Expense Paid Plan. Unsurpassed Fishing. 18-Hole Golf Course. Private Baths. Excellent Bathing Beach. Free Boats, Tennis, Horseshoe Courts. 12-Piece Orchestra for meals and dancing. Saddle Horses. New Beds with Innerspring Mattresses. Rates, $18 per week up, including meals. Largest, most modern resort in County. Gentiles. Illustrated booklet. Chicago Office, Merrimac 2319. IF YOU DON'T ENJOY YOUR STAY AT SAUBLE INN YOU DON'T OWE US A PENNY

GORDON BEACH HOTEL
Union Pier On Lake Michigan
Rates Reduced to $20 and up, weekly; Amer. plan. Clean, sandy beach, all sports. Hot water, good beds in every room. Under 2 hrs. from loop. Dinners, $1.00. Ph. STA. 3689, or Lakeside 7173. Finest Meals in Resort Land

NEVER MIND ON EAST SHORE INDIAN LAKE
A cool, delightful mountain-like lodge. Running water in rooms. Superior meals. Private bathing beach. Splendid golf, dancing, riding, boating, 'n' everything. 105 miles from Chicago. Gentiles. MR. & MRS. O. M. COTTEN, DOWAGIAC, MICH.

Cozy Resort Pleasure, Comfort. Outside rms.; elect. light, Mod. plbg.; home cooking. Plenty fried chicken. Bathing. Dancing pavilion. Saddle horses. $10.00 wk. Gentiles. P. L. BARRINGTON, South Haven, Mich.

The Saltzman Mineral Springs and HOTEL
Treated Rheumatism Nervous Diseases 35 yrs. Health & recreation. Low rates. Booklet free. DR. W. E. SALTZMAN, Benton Harbor, Mich.

BELVEDERE BEACH St. Haven, Michigan
Beautifully situated on the lake. Wide, sandy beach. Same management for 34 yrs. Send for booklet. MRS. E. T. HISTED, Prop.

Alpine Resort
EGG HARBOR
Door County, Wisconsin
A scenic concrete lake shore drive direct to Door County. De luxe cottages with inside baths and lavatories. Chain five lakes. Golf, water tobogan, perfect beach, fishing. Dancing in recreation bldg. Rustic dining hall. Reas. rates. Write for illustrated folder and marked road map. MR. and MRS. FRED A. RISBERG. RHINELANDER, WIS.

MOEN'S PARK RESORT
LODGE. Hot and cold water in all rooms. De luxe cottages with inside baths and lavatories. Chain five lakes. Golf, water tobogan, perfect beach, fishing. Dancing in recreation bldg. Rustic dining hall. Reas. rates. Write for illustrated folder and marked road map. MR. and MRS. FRED A. RISBERG. RHINELANDER, WIS.

Golfin' and Fishin' are realities up here in the North Woods! 10 lakes and the Flambeau River within easy walking distance. Our own AIR PORT and snappy 9 hole course. Special rates for 1932 for hotel rooms and cabins. Write: MASON LAKE RESORT Fifield, Wis. for Illustrated Booklet.

CASTLE GARDEN RESORT, Inc.
LAKE NAMEKAGON
Best of foods, beds. Fishing of all kinds. Modern, homelike accommodations. Write for illustrated booklet and reservations. CABLE, WIS.

KOERNER'S SPIDER LAKE RESORT
Golf. Fish. Horseback. Swim. Row. Dance. 9HO CUP IN RATES—Not in Quality. Write BOX 302, MANITOWISH, WISCONSIN

LAKESIDE
ON PEWAUKEE LAKE, WIS.
A real vacation retreat only 2½ hours from Chicago by motor. New low rates. Write for folder "T."

EAGLE INN EPHRAIM, WIS.
One of the better resorts in Door County, Wisconsin's Wonderland. Write for folder.

CABOT LODGE
AND 40 COTTAGES AT CABOT POINT
Wisconsin's Beauty Spot. Fishing, Boating, Tennis, Swimming, Dancing, etc. We guarantee better meals, with better service, than that given by any Summer Resort in Door County. Write for Folder and Rates. H. A. CABOT, STURGEON BAY, WISCONSIN.

THE PINES HOTEL AND COTTAGES
Modern equip. Dancing, Tennis and Golf. Saddle Horses. Closest to fine bass fishing grounds. R. MAINES, STURGEON BAY, WIS.

THE MAPLEWOOD
The hotel that is different. Modern comforts, old-time hospitality. Enjoy excellent meals, comfortable beds. All summer sports. Sporty golf. Two 18-hole courses. Costs less than staying at home. Booklet. VICTOR KUTCHIN, Prop., Green Lake, Wis.

LAWSONIA COUNTRY CLUB HOTEL
GREEN LAKE, WISCONSIN
Finest in Mid-West. Booklets from Chicago offices. Phone Andover 1331.

SHORE PLACE ON BEAUTIFUL LAKE RIPLEY
No other resort like it. Beautiful, furnished cottages. Also single and double rooms. Bath. Finest meals. 18 holes of golf. Tennis. Boating. Bathing. Fishing. Only 110 miles from Chicago. Booklet FREE. Write G. Wahl, Cambridge, Wis.

Housekeeping Cottages
Fully equipped on Long Lake of Eagle Chain, Wis. Tennis. Waterfront lot bargains. Mrs. H. S. O'Neil, Three Lakes, Wis.

UP AMONG THE PINES
H. K. Cottages, Real sleep. Golf nearby, boating, fishing. Elec. Lights. Delicious meals. Reduced rates. Illus. Folder
NICKEL'S RESORT, Tomahawk, Wis.

HOTEL GENEVA Lake Geneva, Wis.
Modern, with or without bath. 18 hole golf course, all outdoor sports.
PHONE FOR RESERVATIONS

COME TO EAGLE RIVER
For complete resort guide write Municipal Information Bureau, Eagle River, Wis.

EVERETT'S RESORT
Largest and Most Popular in the North Woods. Thomas Marriott, Mgr., Eagle River, Wis.

Hollister Woods Eagle River, Wisconsin
On famous Eagle Chain of Lakes. Modern Hskpg. Cottages; fireplaces; screened porches. Special rates. Address: HOLLISTER WOODS, Eagle River, Wis.

MICHIGAN.

BAY VIEW HOTEL
PAW PAW LAKE
All Summer Sports—Write for Booklet
O. A. DODD—Watervliet, Mich.

SYRINGA BLUFF SOUTH HAVEN, MICH.
700 ft. private sandy beach; modern conveniences; all sports and recreations; cottages or rooms. Write Ermina Moore or phone 133, Gentiles.

ILLINOIS.

STARVED ROCK HOTEL
All sports. Fine golf courses. Best cuisine. Delicious meals. Write NICHOLAS SPIROS, Mgr., The Starved Rock Hotel, Utica, Ill.

CANADA.

Royal Muskoka
Canada's finest summer hotel in the heart of the Muskoka Lakes. All outside rooms with fascinating vistas of forest lake and island. Golf, fishing, etc. Malaria and hay fever unknown. Overnight from leading U.S. points. Rates, motor guide, Royal Muskoka Hotel, Box 9, Gravenhurst, Ont.

MASSACHUSETTS.

NEW★OCEAN★HOUSE
12 miles from Boston; thoroughly modern; private bathing beach; rates considerate. Booklet. Clement Kennedy President
ON THE OCEAN★SWAMPSCOTT, MASS.

COLORADO.

"COLORFUL COLORADO"
44-page richly illustrated book sent free on request to Dept. AA, The Colorado Ass'n, 514 16th St., Denver, Colo.

Daily Beauty Hints by Antoinette Donnelly

Chicago Daily Tribune

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

Keep Up with Changing Styles by Reading Rhea Seeger Daily

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1932.  15

Quick Reviews Mysteries for Vacation Time

You Can Select Any Type of Crime.

BY MORTIMER QUICK.

YOU will be going off for your holidays pretty soon and may need a mean mystery story or two to take along, or if, as the saying goes, you are staying at home third class you will need them severely. There are a number that deal with perfectly disgusting people that I think will please you, or if you prefer really nice people that get involved in perfectly disgusting situations there are a number of those, too.

In "The 37th Ride," by Arthur D. Welton [Sears], a new Chicago writer (who is a banker by day) presents himself and very creditably. It is a story of our more distinguished racketeers and scarcely less distinguished bankers and how they go about making themselves rich and famous. It has an authentic ring, sounds the way you wish newspaper accounts of bumpings off, rides and kidnapings would sound and ends very nicely with just the right people lying dead in a row and the rest preparing to live happily ever after. I recommend it especially for the not too tired business man.

In "Case for Mr. Fortune" H. C. Bailey [Crime club] recounts a number of the lackadaisical Mr. Fortune's less involved cases. Mr. Fortune is one of our more mannered detectives and we might like him better if he said something occasionally instead of always moaning, groaning, murmuring or sighing it. But the stories are entertaining and credible and move through pleasantly exalted circles.

Two other books that are not exactly mystery stories, because you surmise from the beginning just how they are going to come out, are "The Disturbing Affair of Noel Blake," by Neil Bell [Putnam], and "The Listening Woman," by Massicks Sparroy [Little Brown]. The first is a strange tale of a strange and disagreeable group of people; the second a dour story of a warped family circle and their servant, to whom life has been so cruel you can scarcely bear it. Each has a quality of its own that batters its way to inevitable conclusions. Both are written with distinction and originality.

And now we come to the ladies who at the moment are singularly active. Dorothy L. Sayers has a new book in "Have-His-Carcase" [Brewer, Warren & Putnam] which concerns itself, in the author's usual ingenious way, with supposedly shock proof allbis. Incidental is rather a nice love story between Lord Peter Whimsey and the young lady who was tried for murder in "Strong Poison." They are quite nice people and you get interested in them. In fact, Lord Peter is for the moment my favorite detective, though he does bother a little too much about time tables.

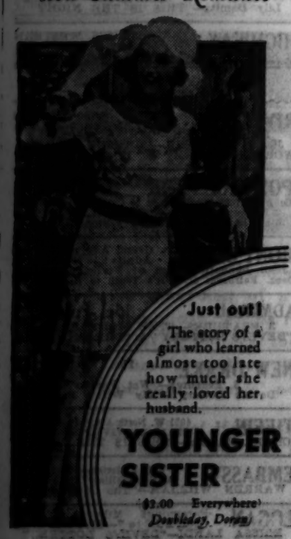
Next comes "Six Dead Men" [Farrar & Rinehart, translated from the French of André Steeman by Rosemary Benét. It won the Prix de Roman d'Adventure in 1931, but to the American mind has the thin, brittle quality that seems so often to exist in translations. Its mystery is good and baffling to the end, but its protagonists are on the whole pretty dumb.

"Murder at the Hunting Club," by Mary Plum [Harper's], is about Chicago people of the sort who are rarely murdered, has an unusual setting and a good stiff mystery that will fool you to the end. "The Watchman's Clock," by Leslie Ford [Farrar & Rinehart], is the story of a small and ancient southern university and is really charmingly told and most pleasantly mysterious. You like almost every one in it including the murderer. "Death Lights a Candle," by Phoebe Atwood Taylor [Bobbs Merrill], takes place in darkest Cape Cod and presents a nice new way of getting your man and a new type of detective to track him down besides being entertaining and smoothly written. "Murder by Jury," by Ruth Burr Sanborn [Little Brown] is unusual and very well done. Its group of people and locale are hit off deftly. I recommend it highly.

But most amusing of all is "October House," by Kay Cleaver Strahan [Crime club]. The story is told by a lady fortune teller of vast bulk and engaging honesty. The scene is set in the back reaches of Oregon. You are plunged into the queerest and most agitated group of people imaginable and various crimes ensue which are unraveled by Linn MacDonald, the lady detective whom you may have encountered in Mrs. Strahan's earlier stories. If the naïve and shrewd recital of this horrid tale does not amuse you, you take your mysteries altogether too seriously. It's a good book as well as a good detective story and not to be missed.

If this varied assortment, which ranges north, south, east and west doesn't satisfy your craving for crime and travel, Carolyn Wells presents "The Fleming Stone Omnibus" [Lippincott], which includes in one fat volume four books of this tried and true detective story writer. The volume is heavy, but the touch is light and, my, what a lot you get for your money of good, old-fashioned detecting with no modern nonsense about it.

KATHLEEN NORRIS' new Summer Romance



Just out! The story of a girl who learned almost too late how much she really loved her husband.

YOUNGER SISTER

$2.00 Everywhere! Doubleday, Doran

Brown and White Outfit

The tightly buttoned jacket with full cape, short sleeves, is worn over a white frock. Accessories in brown and white add to the smartness of the costume. [Fryer-Warner Bros. Photo.]

Let Scissors Clip the Years Away Before Next Permanent

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

The "Wild" looking head that sometimes confronts an individual after a permanent is not the fault of the permanent waving operation. It is because the hair is too thick. Thick hair and blunt ends make permanent waving a difficult job for the operator.

In the preparation of hair for the permanent, tapering and thinning must be done if the waves are to lie flat and close to the head, the aim and object of all good hairdressing these days.

It's startling in some cases how effectively the thinning out and tapering of hair takes years from the appearance. Time and again I've seen the years clipped off with one good shearing. There is something definitely rejuvenating about hair that lies in flat, close waves to the head, showing a clear outline of skull.

More youth is added when waves across the top of the head are few and far between, or when the top of the head is allowed to go completely waveless. The hair may be fluffy over the ears and be no less detrimental than just a bit frowsy. But that wild thick mop, especially if it has been recently permanently waved, does something just too bad to an otherwise good looking girl or woman.

If you fall into the hands of a good permanent operator, he or she will advise the thinning. It's just as well to have your own mind made up about it so that the important detail will not be left undone.

The more experience in cutting, shaping, and tapering hair your operator has the smarter you'll come out from under his hands. One skilled in this sort of work can alter the shape of the head should it seem to be able to stand a better outline. I've seen women with square heads done over into nicely proportioned head lines under artistic direction. And women with long, narrow heads practically rounded out with smart scissor shaping and tapering.

The size of the wave is regulated better where the hair is tapered and thinned out. The ends that often come out of a good permanent wave job frizzy are handled more skillfully with the ends tapered to a fine point. The hair at the ends need only be stretched lightly around the rod. When finished, the ringlets will be firm but not too tight.

Film Time Table

Feature pictures are scheduled as follows at the first run houses today:

CASTLE—A. M.: 10:16, 11:23. P. M.: 12:28, 2:04, 3:29, 4:36, 5:53, 7:08, 8:24, 9:40, 10:45.

CHICAGO—A. M.: 11. P. M.: 1:30, 4, 5:30, 8, 10:30.

ORIENTAL—A. M.: 11. P. M.: 1:35, 3:50, 5:25, 8:16, 10:55.

PALACE—A. M.: 11:53. P. M.: 2:36, 5:38, 8:30, 10:55.

STATE-LAKE—A. M.: 9:01, 10:31. P. M.: 12:01, 1:37, 3:07, 4:37, 6:15, 7:45, 9:19, 10:55.

WOODS—P. M.: 2:40, 8:40.

It's Out AMELIA EARHART'S

$2.50

own story of her career—of women in aviation—and her solo flight now ready in book form.

FREE with copies of First Edition—phonograph record of excerpt from London broadcast, recorded in New York 72 hours after "hop off."

Brewer, Warren & Putnam

THE FUN OF IT

Bathing Suits Get Praise of Wets and Drys

Smart Models Arrive Every Day.

BY RHEA SEEGER.

IF your hearing isn't just what it should be we'll be glad to inform you that some of this shouting about being wet is feminine in gender and really has nothing to do with the great American argument, but is the result of all the new swim suits that are hanging around the shops.

Since the best known methods for cooling the brain as well as the anatomy are frequent and long soaks in plenty of water the best designers have seemingly spent all of their time planning these knockout new affairs to swim in.

Another reason the gals are shouting is that one doesn't have to have the income of a nabob to buy these water togs . . . you can buy nice, tight, eye filling suits for positively piffling sums that your clothes allowance will never miss.

White swim suits of jersey that are going to fit and stick closer than your skin are among the newest arrivals . . . they are tucked, have a deep U back for the sun worshipers and then, as a careful bow to critics, they boast of a lining also of jersey.

Some candy stripe suits that will make you look divinely slim are made of very narrow black and white striped knit fabric. Two styles are available in this model, one will be worn as is, the other is adjustable as you swim off a couple of extra pounds you can pull in the belt line to show the doubters just what swimming can do for a plump person, if you know your strokes.

With these rather calm and flat tones the wise mermaid goes heavily in for riotously colored accessories . . . an orange and bright blue and white rubber cap, or rakish red shoes and belt and cap, or wraparound terry cloth beach robe in any wild color that you can buy. The same tricks are used for contrast with the popular white suits.

One designer must work overtime on nothing except new ideas for cut-out backs. . . for startling new brain children arrive with splendid regularity. The latest quirk is called the halter neck, it slips close around the neck and is fastened to the back with a T strap. This T strap can be loosed from its mooring and thus the exposed back can be tanned all over without interference.

Bright, vivid blue shorts are worn with this white knitted halter-T-strap concoction and a dashing wide belt makes it trim and sea-shape.

Sizzling Hot-cha fashions for the very young and very thin are plentiful. The most daring and youthful ideas are the white duck shorts, with a rippling Hawaiian name that means flying fish.

These shorts should be adroitly avoided by all but the slender as they have a high rib hugging waistline that accents every bulge in the human figure.

The side seams are gayly outlined with scarlet and the belt is laced together with matching red cord. A thin wool striped shirt is the thing to wear with these shorts, a shirt with a deep U neckline in back and short sleeves leaving a large territory exposed for sun tanning.

Hats, the straw variety, are spreading all over the beaches, the biggest, floppiest things that have ever been seen on sea or land, but you don't know your beach fashions if you don't wear them.

Germany Extends Law Regulating Film Imports

BERLIN, June 28.—(AP)—The reichsrat today extended the law regulating foreign films in Germany until June 30, 1933, adding that such films may be forbidden if they are considered derogatory to German dignity or are produced where German films are not given free facility.

Scientist Declares Modern Fashions Are Centuries Old

Women dressed in the newest fashions often are wearing clothing designed 2,000 years ago, according to Dr. Berthold Laufer, curator of anthropology at the Field museum of natural history. Writing in the current issue of the Field Museum News, Dr. Laufer says that many modern styles were anticipated by people of the far east many centuries ago, as demonstrated by ancient clay figures on exhibition in the museum.

"The former kaiser is not the inventor of the mustache with turned up tips; the Medicis did not invent the collar named for them; the Paris fashion dictators did not originate the décolleté and high waisted gown," Dr. Laufer said. "There is little if any originality in modern fashions."

The upright mustache was worn in central Asia in ancient times by equestrian tribes of Iranian and Turkish extraction, according to Dr. Laufer. As to fashions he points to three clay statuettes of a princess of the T'ang dynasty (A. D. 618-900) and her two ladies in waiting.

"These may be regarded as actual portraits. The princess wears a décolleté gown with short sleeves cut off above the elbows. A high waistline effect is achieved by a skirt which fits over a jacket. The ladies in waiting wear high shoulder capes or what we call Medici collars."

Austin Garden Circle.

The Austin Woman's club garden circle will meet on Friday at the residence of Mrs. Norman Lind at 535 North Laramie avenue.

Taking Pictures at the Garden Show

Miss Libby Chase carries her camera with her almost everywhere she goes and here she is taking a picture of her friends, Mrs. Harry B. Clow Jr. (Josephine Dunham), and Mrs. Robert S. Pirie (Betty Borden), at a recent garden show. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Gallic Ingenuity Combines Point Lace and Handkerchief Linen for Evening

BY BETTINA BEDWELL.

PARIS.—[Special.]—The great "back to cotton" movement that has swamped Paris since the beginning of summer is getting more overwhelming every day. Not only are the greatest French dressmakers proudly making frocks of cotton and linen, but they are telling the world that these dresses will pass through the wash tub and wringer, and emerge from under the flatiron absolutely unscathed.

The laundry wagons now include the Rue de la Paix in their morning route, for the couturiers send their models out to be laundered regularly just to prove their washability.

The dress shown in our sketch today, from Augustabernard, belongs to the can wash clan of Paris evening dresses. It is just different enough from the usual type to give it prestige among the smartest women, for the body of this dress, from the bosom to the knees, is made of point lace laid over handkerchief linen and sewed flat to it, making a sort of applique effect that is just ravishing. The lower skirt is of handkerchief linen, knife plaited [Let the froners have work!] all around and trails slightly in back.

The yoke at the top of the point lace middle of this model is of handkerchief linen, and the shoulder straps that give the dress a square neckline are of the same. Over these straps Augustabernard festoons plaited jabot-like pieces to suggest sleeves and there is a plaited band across the back of the shoulders to cover up the décolleté.

Garfield Park Announces Conservatory Schedule

The Garfield park conservatory will be open daily from 8 o'clock in the morning to 10 o'clock at night, starting Friday, it was announced yesterday by W. R. James, president of the west park board. An exhibition of tropical plants has been set up for the summer season.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, June 28.—[Special.]—Mrs. Winfield Scott Hoyt gave a luncheon at the roof garden of the Hotel Pierre and had among her guests Mrs. Calvert B. Gill, Miss Maud Rutty and Redfern Hollins.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Claiborne Pell gave a luncheon at the Pierre for Mr. and Mrs. John H. G. Pell.

Mrs. Thomas F. Victor had a small party for her daughter, Miss Mary Anne Victor.

Mrs. William Orr Barclay of the Plaza started yesterday for the Rangeley Lake house, Rangeley Lakes, Me., for the summer.

Free Ice Fund Faces Crisis as Season Opens

Only $34 Received; Need Is Grave.

Less than $34 has been received by the TRIBUNE free ice fund to finance the distribution of ice to distressed families in urgent need of keeping food from spoiling and babies' milk from souring.

The wagons have this week begun their rounds. Tickets have been apportioned to a number of day nurseries, welfare centers, and district stations of charitable agencies by the United Charities, which administers the ice fund. Families of all races and creeds and the neediest served by these agencies will receive the tickets. So far not enough money had arrived in the fund to send even a day's allotment of ice.

Yesterday's mail brought a huge stack of letters from needy families requesting ice. As worthy as the requests may be, lack of funds prohibits the enrollment of these names on the waiting list. The quota of those to receive ice during the summer is filled. Last year $7,000 was spent on ice, more than twice the amount of a normal year. Yet the fund opens with less than $34 received this season.

The discouraging stacks of appeals are pretty much the same—father out of work, a baby whose milk has been souring, children ill, what food there is spoiling because there is no way to keep it fresh. The fund cannot begin to take care of these requests. The majority of the tickets have already been promised.

Despite the somber outlook, letters from the few contributors bring encouragement and an indication that the free ice fund will not be without friends. From Bethany Circle came $5.94; from the Oak Park Charity Circle, $5; and $5 from the Temple Sholom sisterhood, always among the contributors. The grand total of gifts to date are:

$5.94—Bethany circle.
$5—Phi Gamma Psi sorority, Temple Sholom sisterhood. In memory of F. I. M., Mrs. Richard Loewenthal, Oak Park Charity circle.
$1—F. J. Jerome, Anonymous, Junior Good Fellow club.
Total—$32.94.

The Camp Algonquin fund to send mothers and children from the tenements to the Fox river camp for free vacations, received $17.50 yesterday from:

$10.50—Jane Naomi Johnson.
$5—Mayble Bennett.
$1—C. A. Brinkerhoff, 818 Hyde Park boulevard.
Total—$17.50.
Grand total—$1,439.80.

Gifts to both funds should be sent to the cashier of THE TRIBUNE, Tribune Tower.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., June 28.—[Special.]—Mrs. Gardener, widow of Col. Cornelius Gardener, U. S. A., entertained at dinner tonight in her Georgetown home for her daughter, Miss Berendina Gardener, and her fiance, Robert Edward Stuart Chambers, who will be married tomorrow. Last evening Mr. Chambers gave a supper party for his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Chambers, the former the novelist, and the bride's mother, in his apartment on Massachusetts avenue.

Announcement has been made here by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Orr of Chicago of the marriage of their daughter, Viola Henriette, to Harold W. Stull, son of Representative and Mrs. Howard W. Stull of Johnstown, Pa.

Thirty New Hymns Are Accepted by Methodist Board

Chautauqua, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—A hymn by John Masefield, poet laureate of England, was one of the 30 new hymns adopted today by the commission of revision of the hymnal and psalter of the Methodist Episcopal church in the first day of its sessions here.

City's Guests Enjoy Many Dinner Parties

Convention Adjourns in Time for Affairs.

BY JUDITH CASS.

ZEST was added to the social tone of the convention last night with innumerable smart dinners and parties in homes, clubs, and hotels for distinguished visitors. For a while, Chicago's hostesses were worried lest a night session of the convention interfere with their elaborate plans for entertaining. With that fear dispelled the two large dinners and the other entertainments as well, went off as planned.

Further social arrangements will continue tonight with other hopefully planned dinners and parties scheduled.

Mrs. Waller Borden's dinner for Mrs. John Nicholas Brown of New York was one of the gayest and most delightful of the convention parties thus far, either for the Republicans or Democrats. The forty guests who were seated at 2 flower decked tables in the dining room and the French room of Mrs. Borden's residence at Lake Shore drive and Bellevue place, included Senator and Mrs. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Simms, Richard T. Crane III., of Virginia, John S. Bryan, Fred Scott, Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, Mrs. John Greenway of Arizona, Richard Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Tiffany Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Silas H. Strawn, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Welling, Mrs. Francis J. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Frank, Col. and Mrs. George T. Langhorne, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Nitze, the Charles Barney Goodspeeds, the Kellogg Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Morse, the hostess' son-in-law, Adlai E. Stevenson, and four of society's most popular older unattached men, Russell Tyson, Robert F. Carr, Frank McNair, and Harold Swift.

Howard Linns Are Hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Linn had better luck with the party they gave for some of the distinguished Democrats than they had with the one they had planned for some of the leading Republicans, for that one, as you will remember, had to be called off almost at the last minute on account of a night session, but the one last night, at which Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Lanahan of Baltimore were the especial guests, took place as per schedule and was a great success. There were about 100 in the party, which was given at the Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. Eames MacVeagh entertained at dinner last night at the Tavern for their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Farrar-Smith of Washington, and tonight they have planned another party to take at the Saddle and Cycle club, but of course invitations to it have been issued with a cancellation clause, just as all invitations to visiting Democrats have to be given this week. Mrs. Farrar-Smith is the former Margaretta MacVeagh, a cousin of Eames MacVeagh's Society at Convention.

Society was well represented at the convention yesterday. Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, widow of the war President, occupied the box held two weeks ago by Mrs. Dolly Gann. She met several old friends. Mrs. William G. McAdoo and Mrs. Alfred E. Smith were busy greeting old friends, also. Among those seen in the Wilson box were Mrs. Cary T. Grayson, John Bolling, Bernard Baruch, and Mrs. Conde Nast. The Melvin Traylors occupied the box they engaged for the Republican convention. Mrs. John F. Hagey Jr. was a guest of the Traylors. Jean Schweppe and Mary Reed, subdebs, were in evidence, as was Florence Carr who came out last year.

Among the affairs listed for tonight are two dinners at the Tavern club. Mrs. Julian A. Soames and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Houghteling are giving a dinner for Mrs. Houghteling's cousins, those of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt's family who are in the city. The hour, of course, is uncertain, being dependent upon the convention.

Host also at the Tavern tonight will be Preston Boyden. The hour will be determined in this dinner by the exigencies of the Stadium affairs.

Busy indeed, are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chatfield-Taylor of Lake Forest, who are at the Drake this week because of Mrs. Chatfield-Taylor's duties on the women's committee for entertainment during the convention.

Benefit for Camp Algonquin.

Camp Algonquin, the summer camp where 2,000 mothers and children have vacations all during the summer, is to benefit by a bridge party a group of Barrington young women are planning for Friday, July 8, at the residence of Mrs. Robert W. Buckley, at Brookmoor, in Barrington, which is only seven miles from the camp.

Mrs. Russell Pettengill and Mrs. Potter Lewis Smith are co-chairmen and among those assisting them are Mrs. Buckley, Mrs. John Vincent, Mrs. Harlan Canby, Mrs. John Roberts, Mrs. Warren McCracken, Mrs. Sumner Mead, Mrs. Robert Hilton, Mrs. Sanford White, and Miss Elizabeth Van Hagen.

This is the first affair for the benefit of this particular charity that has been arranged in Barrington, and Mrs. Pettengill and Mrs. Smith, both of whom are very much interested in Algonquin, hope to arouse enough interest to make it possible to have an annual party for Algonquin in their community.

The camp, which has been in existence 22 years and is supported in part by TRIBUNE readers and also by the United Charities, keeps 100 undernourished children all during the summer in addition to the mothers and children who are sent out for fortnightly vacations by the United Charities.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gould Ralston of Dixon announce the marriage of Mrs. Ralston's sister, Pauline Reynolds Harvey, to Emerson Whithorne of New York, the wedding having taken place yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Fourth Presbyterian

[Continued on page 17, column 5.]

WOTTA LIFE! WOTTA LIFE!

THERE'S NO MORE PARKIN' ON TH' CURB. YOU GOTTA PUT YER CAR ON A VACANT LOT OR SOMEWHERE.
CARR WILLIAMS
Reg U. S. Pat. Off. Copyright, 1932, by The Chicago Tribune.

I Like You So Much

BY MAY EDGINTON

SYNOPSIS.

Gold Franklyn calls Dr. Elverton, who has a surgery in a poor district of London, to attend her indolent young half-brother. The doctor offers to give Barney Pierce, a well to do accident victim, a lift to his destination, and Pierce waits while the doctor makes his call. He catches a glimpse of the pretty young creature who summoned the doctor. Both men are impressed by the pluckiness of the orphan girl and take her troubles seriously to mind. The doctor is to sail the next week to New York and Havana on a leave, taking the ship doctor's place.

INSTALLMENT III.

SPRING AND ADVENTURE.

As Pierce hesitated they turned into the comparatively peaceful stretch of the park, and the doctor drew in a deep breath. "Even this," he said, "is beautiful; even the trees in the dark. They tell me Havana is gorgeous. Now, that's the sort of thing that girl ought to be able to do—loaf about on a ship, eat four meals a day, fill herself with fresh air. Pity she can't take the trip."

"Look here—I think she can, partly."

"But you only saw her in the dark!" said the doctor, chaffingly.

Pierce laughed a little. "O, never mind all that kind of thing! I shan't be in the Mercuria, anyway. But Mrs. Hathaway was desperate today because her sort of—sort of maid companion had left her, and she relied on having some one she liked with her for the Atlantic crossing."

"Atlantic crossing only? What then?"

"I'd cable my New York office——"

"Gosh! My dear fellow, you haven't the least idea what she can do! Besides, in these times, has an alien a chance of finding work there?"

"My manager would see her through—pay her passage back, or something could be arranged. After all, sometimes one does a silly thing like that."

Elverton said, half enviously: "Money means nothing to you?"

"Money means everything to me! I've lived for it! But still——"

"There's no doubt that she'd be better off without that half-brother. And he without her—young swine! What's Mrs. Hathaway's address?"

"She's at Claridge's."

"Righto. Thank you. As long as the girl can be sure of a helping hand on the other side, I'll talk to her about it. It's what I'd advise her to do. To get right out for a while. Where shall I drop you?"

"Park Lane will do."

When the doctor had driven away to his Soho dinner Barney Pierce walked to the Berkeley to change. He throttled down the adventurousness in himself that the evening had raised. It was the spring in the air; the afternoon's driving out into the country with Doria Hathaway at her most alluring—and alluring she was; the half told philosophies of that quiet doctor; the unexpected romance of a girl's golden head in a drab street; the leisure that he had allowed himself lately—and leisure was mischievous. It was the flash of the eternal masculine interest to something new in women that he seemed to have missed before—all these things together had taken him briefly in an emotional grip such as had not shaken his resolutions for a long while. But by the time he reached the Berkeley and his suite he had laughed himself grimly again out of all this.

"You'd never accuse me of being a philanthropist, would you, Martin?"

It was easy to see what that doctor thought of his philanthropy. "Philanthropy!" And turning to his valet, he said abruptly: "You'd never accuse me of being a philanthropist, would you, Martin?"

"Never, sir."

"Nobody would?"

"No, sir.

"Ring up Claridge's and say I'll come round to inquire for Mrs. Hathaway at the time she mentioned."

He took a scathing look at himself in the mirror and turned away. No, he was no philanthropist. His reputation was of the hardest, and well deserved. His looks lived up to it—that square, rather ugly face, sunburned; and set as if hammered out of bronze; those wise light gray eyes; that hair that also seemed to confer wisdom because it was graying at the temples; his broad, lean, athlete's body, always now clothed by the best tailors, hosiers, hatters, bootmakers in the world, though even these agreeable servants could not make that body forget hard days; splendid hard days; years of fighting and winning till a man emerged at the top, still young, still fighting fit, but with all the kind credulities gone, all the easy loving and easy playing tired of; with a conqueror's capacities, and yet still a hidden urge, a want, a belief, that made—he assured himself—the last vulnerable spot about him. And that vulnerable spot he covered, because he hated all weakness. Thus he was impatient of this sudden flare in his veins because he had seen, against the murky canvas of that city street, "a pretty creature."

"I'll dine up here, Martin."

He dined alone. He was used to being alone a good deal. There were worse conditions than this one of solitude. Loneliness, he knew, was one of the punishments of life; aloneness one of its luxuries. Sometimes he was hardly sure—a man so sure of himself!—which it was that he had apportioned to himself. Tonight the enjoyable gravity, comfort, and fell of well-being with which he often savored such a meal were incomplete. The night was empty of prospect; and this although he was shortly going to see one of the prettiest creatures at the moment in London. It was his duty to see her after the accident earlier in the day. But, all the same, it was not of Doria that he thought.

A golden head hovered in the softly shadowed dining room beyond the circle of light cast by the table lamp, and he reaffirmed that he should help this girl; but reminded himself at the same time how, often to his rueful cost, he had helped many an insinuating young woman in his susceptible young man years, before he had hardened himself until people said of him, with a shrug: "The man's made of steel—except that you can't even bend him."

He knew what they said.

It was the thing of things that, as a very young man, he had secretly longed to hear of himself.

Now he was impervious to comment or flattery. His own judgments only backed his overwhelming will.

At nine-thirty he was in Doria Hathaway's suite. She said that she, too, had dined upstairs alone. "How perfectly silly of you, Barney, not to come along!"

She was in pajamas of the lightest and suppliest black velvet, with a very short white velvet coat. She had a strong, restless body full of vitality. Her eyes shone. Her mouth was tempestuous. Her auburn hair was parted and brushed sleekly to a tight knot on her neck. Her voice was changeable and turbulent. The thing he had liked about her when he first met in Paris four months ago, he remembered, was her capacity for laughter. Extravagant, conscienceless, even graceless, she yet had this gift of almost infallible gayety.

"I had to get my hand dressed at that surgery."

"O, your hand?" She made a grave face. "My poor sweet! All bandaged! How is my boy?"

Without any particular significance of look or gesture he put her aside very quietly; and she laughed as she always could and lighted a cigaret.

"Be human, Barney. Be yourself."

"Unsatisfactory as it seems, this is myself."

"I don't believe it. I never believed it, you know. Sit down. No, not there! And not there!"

"Where, then?"

"At the writing table, please."

He went and sat down there, with a cynical uplift of an eyebrow. And sideways on the chair he looked at her, flung among the cushions on a couch.

"I wasn't insured, Barney."

"Why not?"

"O, because I always neglect to do the proper things. I ought to insure—I'm a hell of a driver, aren't I?"

"You certainly are."

"And now the car's smashed about a lot, and I hadn't paid for it, and I can't sell it, well as I meant to do, when I sail. And there's the other party. Snakes! How those lads swore! In fact, Barney, Doria'll have to have a check."

"You look upon me as a fellow culprit, eh?"

"Well, you're the only one of us with money at the bank."

"Look here——"

"Yes, I'm broke again. Dear little women like me need stacks of money; lashings, oceans of money. It's all wrong when they haven't got it. You know women must have money."

"I've learned all about that as thoroughly as any man."

"You're the only really rich friend I have at the moment."

"I'm not a friend."

"No! I like that! London's been awful to me; Paris was awful to me! And now Barney says he's not my friend no more, no more!"

"I was an admirer, my dear girl. But never a friend. I have very few friends and seldom or never add to them."

"You've been very sweet to me."

[Copyright: 1932: By May Edginton.]

[Continued tomorrow.]

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Not Real Love.

"Dear Miss Blake: Could a girl of 15 be in love? "MADGE."

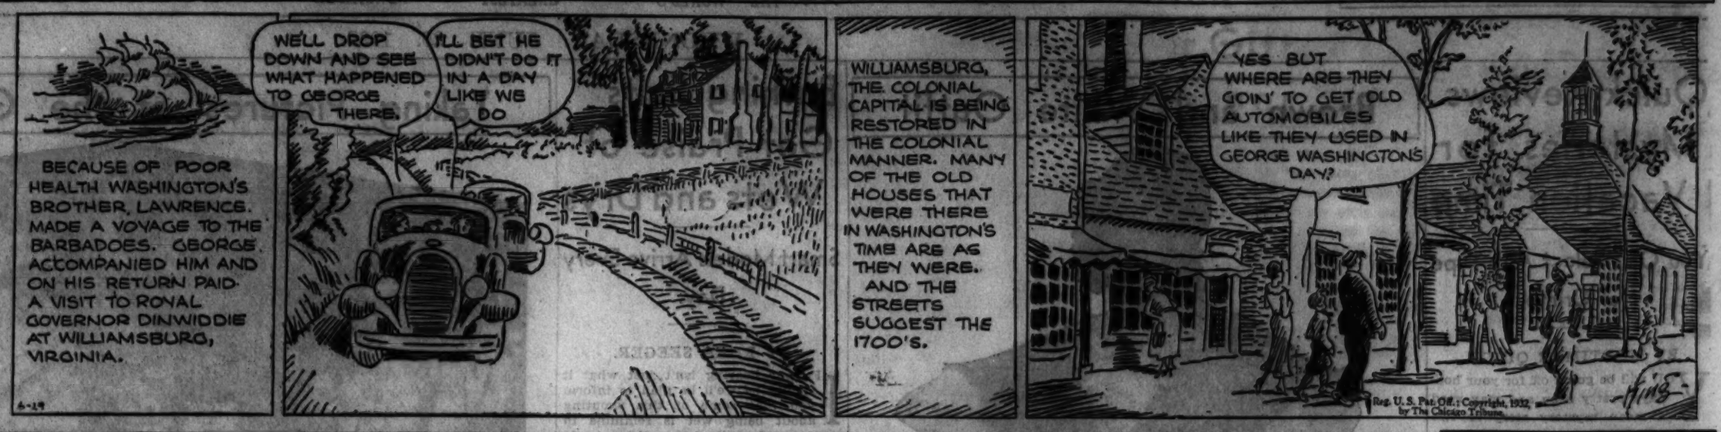
She could have an awful crush, but not be in love.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

B. N.: IF YOU THINK YOUR nose is too large, try to tone it down by using powder a shade darker here than on the rest of the face.

GASOLINE ALLEY—BACKWARD, TURN BACKWARD



BECAUSE OF POOR HEALTH WASHINGTON'S BROTHER, LAWRENCE, MADE A VOYAGE TO THE BARBADOES. GEORGE ACCOMPANIED HIM AND ON HIS RETURN PAID A VISIT TO ROYAL GOVERNOR DINWIDDIE AT WILLIAMSBURG, VIRGINIA.
WE'LL DROP DOWN AND SEE WHAT HAPPENED TO GEORGE THERE.
I'LL BET HE DIDN'T DO IT IN A DAY LIKE WE DO
WILLIAMSBURG, THE COLONIAL CAPITAL IS BEING RESTORED IN THE COLONIAL MANNER. MANY OF THE OLD HOUSES THAT WERE THERE IN WASHINGTON'S TIME ARE AS THEY WERE. AND THE STREETS SUGGEST THE 1700'S.
YES, BUT WHERE ARE THEY GOIN' TO GET OLD AUTOMOBILES LIKE THEY USED IN GEORGE WASHINGTON'S DAY?
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.; Copyright, 1932, by The Chicago Tribune.
King

Quiz Reveals Man's Favorite Pickle Orders

BY MARY MEADE.

Most husbands have sweet tooths [or should we say teeth?], and we satisfy them every day with sweet desserts, sauces, drinks, and well planned confections.

But if you've been bringing up a husband for very many seasons you've discovered that sweet teeth aren't their only selective dentals. Husbands are also well supplied with "sour teeth" that simply demand—pickles.

If you don't believe it take a good look at the pickle jar and then go out for the evening, leaving your husband at home.

Perhaps the smartest way of handling a pickle rummaging husband is to put a jar of this season's favorite pickles out in plain view on the top shelf of the refrigerator. Then it's ten to one the rest of the refrigerator will be unmolested.

But about selecting those favorite pickles. Men have them—just as they have especial yens for this kind of striped socks and that variety of fishing tackle. A quiz of chefs in a half dozen famous eating houses and men's clubs was taken to discover just which were the especial pickle amnities and with what particular foods they were eaten. This is the way they stacked up:

1. Dill pickles with full flavored meats, such as tongues, corned beef, etc.
2. Mustard pickles with tongue and ham.
3. Sweet pickles with hot meats or casserole dishes.
4. Sweet sliced dill pickles with chicken, turkey, duck.
5. Homemade style pickles with ham, hash, or baked beans.
6. Sweet gherkins with Welsh rarebit and cheese dishes.
7. Dill pickles with all sandwiches.

Doubtless you've noticed also that pickles are to be eaten with the fingers. This, however, does not spoil their appetities for dishes graced with the crisp slices of those pickles too composite to be eaten selectively pickle by pickle.

For instance—spaghetti creations glorified with sizzling hamburger steak, tomatoes, and chopped sweet pickle relish. Or tomato au gratin dishes with grated cheese and chopped sweet gherkins doing the honors.

But that's all a bit indefinite, so here are a few recipes plucked straight from the versatile recipe books of the above mentioned chefs, with grateful acknowledgements to Phillippe, Theador, Pierre, and Jean, respectively, and apologies for a few editorial variations:

SPAGHETTI PICKLE SUPREME.

1 pound spaghetti.
1 pound hamburger steak.
2 tablespoons minced onion.
1½ No. 3 cans tomatoes [about 1 quart].
1 cup sweet pickle relish.
2 cups grated American cheese.

Cook the spaghetti in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and keep hot. Brown the meat and onion in a small amount of fat in a large frying pan. Add the tomato and sweet pickle relish and simmer one-half hour. Add the cheese and simmer ten minutes longer. Pile spaghetti on serving plates and cover with meat and pickle sauce. This serves eight generously.

BAKED TOMATOES EN CASSEROLE.

6 large ripe tomatoes.
½ cup sweet gherkins, finely chopped.
Seasoning of salt, pepper, sugar.
2 cups bread crumbs.
1 cup grated American cheese.

Peel the tomatoes and cut in one-fourth inch slices. Arrange half the slices in a buttered casserole, sprinkle with half the chopped gherkins and season to taste with salt, pepper, and sugar. Blend the crumbs and cheese and spread half the mixture over the tomatoes. Repeat with a second layer of tomatoes, chopped sweet gherkins, seasoning, and top off with remaining crumbs. Bake in a moderately hot oven [375 degrees F.] for about twenty minutes. Serves six.

POTATO AND SWEET PICKLE SALAD.

1 quart diced cooked potatoes.
2 tablespoons parsley.
2 tablespoons minced onions.
1 cup sweet pickles, chopped fine.
2/3 cup French dressing [made with vinegar from the pickles].
Salt, paprika to taste.

Toss together ingredients and blend with French dressing. Chill and serve in crisp lettuce cups. This serves four.

PICKLE BEEFSTEAK SANDWICH.

Put one cup of cooked beefsteak, a hard cooked egg, and four medium sized sweet gherkins through a food chopper and blend. Moisten with catsup to make the mixture spreadable. Spread between buttered slices of the family's favorite bread, add a crisp thin slice of lettuce, cut, and serve.

[Copyright: 1932: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Tomorrow's Menu.

MORNING.
Iced Grapefruit Juice
Buckwheat Cakes
Shaved Maple Sugar
Frankfurters
Milk Coffee

NOON.
Potato and Sweet Pickle Salad
Baked Eggs in Bacon Rings
Date Sandwiches
Lemon Gelatin
Milk Tea

NIGHT.
Fish Flakes in Ramekins
Tomato Sauce
Parsley Potatoes
Fresh Green Peas in Cream
Pecan Rolls
Prune Betty
Coffee

June Festival of Diana Court Pleases Again

BY EDWARD MOORE.

The June music festival of Diana court had one of its most pleasant events last night. It was an operatic program drawn jointly from the works of Charles Wakefield Cadman and Mrs. Eleanor Everest Freer. The participants were the Indian mezzo-soprano, Tsianina; John Carver, tenor, and Lionel Sinclair, pianist. Duet excerpts from Cadman's "Shanewis" were sung; Mr. Sinclair played a suite of dances from Mrs. Freer's "The Chilkoot Maiden" and the singers returned for a duet from the same work.

Applause, which had been running high, and deservedly so, was especially fervent for the second duet, a happening which apparently caught the artists unable to continue. However, Tsianina returned for other solos drawn from other sources. She is an ingratiating artist both in voice and delivery and well worth hearing. At the end the Chicago Philharmonic singers appeared under the direction of Rudolf Haas, and while their program was considerably removed from the Indian music that had preceded them, their fine tone and light-hearted manner of singing gave them a featured position of their own.

The Chicago Musical college started its summer series of recitals by faculty members yesterday morning with a piano program by Glenn Dillard Gunn. Limiting himself to only a few composers, Mr. Gunn nevertheless managed to present a considerable variety of contrasting styles in the art of the piano.

Beginning with two of the Bach-Busoni Choral Preludes, he continued with Beethoven's Thirty-two Variations, the Chopin Sonata in B flat minor, which is the one of the Funeral march, adding here two Chopin Etudes as extra numbers, and concluded with a group by Szymanowski, Liszt, Debussy, and Ravel.

Mr. Gunn is a resourceful artist, well equipped technically and thoroughly conversant through thought and study with the manner of composers.

SMASHING, CRASHING SUCCESS!
UNITED STATES ARMY
Military Tournament
Now and Every Night 8 P. M.
UNTIL JULY 4
SOLDIER FIELD
Thrilled the spectators with dashing drills, brilliant fireworks—presented on a massive scale. —Chicago Daily Tribune
Go to Soldier Field and see this great show. —Evening American
A thrilling opportunity for Chicagoans to reaffirm their loyalty to the fundamentals of George Washington. —Chicago Daily News
Residents of Chicago cannot afford to miss a spectacle that will bring others hundreds of miles. —Herald-Examiner
20,000 SEATS AT 50c
CHILDREN, 25c
THRILLS—CHILLS FIREWORKS
AMERICA'S GREATEST
WASHINGTON CELEBRATION
ADMISSION 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50
Advertise in The Tribune

MOTION PICTURES DOWNTOWN

RKO Cool Theaters
PALACE VAUDEVILLE
(35c, 10:45 to 2)
PHIL BAKER
Si—WILLS & DAVIS—Joan
Songs—ADA BROWN—"Blues"
Whiteside, Anita & Brower & Co. | The Six Avalons
SCREEN—KAY FRANCIS in "Street of Women"

STATE-LAKE
25c to 1 / 35c to 6 | Opens 8:45 Thrills and More Thrills! | Nite Plus, Tax 60c B.AL. 40c
"BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE"
RKO-Radio Picture
EXTRA
FRANK BUCK IN PERSON
at 1, 5:30 8:40 and 10:15

OFFICIAL World Heavyweight Championship
SCHMELING SHARKEY
FIGHT PICTURES
Complete 15 Rounds Taken at the Ringside
Come and See If Schmeling Was Robbed of His Title CASTLE
STATE AT MADISON

Publix Balaban & Katz
ROOSEVELT 25c 2 to 6:30 p. m. | 40c after 6:30 p. m.
State St. near Randolph
RUTH CHATTERTON
"The Rich Are Always With Us"
Always COOL and REFRESHING
Smoking on Mezzanine

SUMMER PRICE 40c Continuous 1:30 to 11:30
—Last Times Today—
Hollywood's Classic of All Time
"VIENNESE NIGHTS"
Tomorrow—GEO. ARLISS. "OLD ENGLISH"
CINEMA Chicago at Michigan REFRESHINGLY COOL

ORPHEUM State Street at Monroe
Always Cool and Inviting!
2 SMASH HITS—ADULTS ONLY
JOHN BARRYMORE "STATE'S ATTORNEY" and LEW AYRES—"Night World"

FOREST PARK.
FOREST MADISON ST. AT DES PLAINES AVE.
Cool and Comfortable
WARREN WILLIAM—"MOUTHPIECE" "EXPLORERS OF THE WORLD"

MAYWOOD
LIDO 5th Ave. at Washington Blvd. LILY DAMITA
CHAS. RUGGLES—"THIS IS THE NIGHT"
Doug. Fairbanks Jr.—"It's Tough to Be Famous"

WEST
BYRD Madison at Cicero—15c, 1:30 to 7
Warren William—"The Mouthpiece"
ELISSA LANDI—"DEVIL'S LOTTERY"
COOLED BY REFRIGERATION
BROADWAY STRAND 1641 Roosevelt 15c, 1:30 to 7
Doug. Fairbanks Jr.—"It's Tough to Be Famous"
Lily Damita—"This Is the Night"
CRAWFORD 19 S. Crawford. 15c, 1:30 to 7
"YOUNG BRIDE"
Warren William—"THE MOUTHPIECE"

AUSTIN.
SYMPHONY 4937 Chicago Ave.—15c to 7
Claudette Colbert, "Misleading Lady" and "Devil's Lottery"
IRIS 143-47 Chicago Ave.—Adults 15c, 6 to 7
Barbara Stanwyck, "So Big"
"Scandal for Sale" and "Office Girl"

MOTION PICTURES MISCELLANEOUS

Publix - Balaban & Katz WONDER THEATERS
CHICAGO RANDOLPH STATE LAKE
35c—10:45 A. M. to 1 P. M.
ALL IN PERSON
MARY BRIAN—ARMIDA
KEN MURRAY
MILTON CHARLESTON
NATACHA NATTOVA
SCREEN
"MAN FROM YESTERDAY"
Claudette Colbert, Clive Brook
ORIENTAL RANDOLPH at STATE
35c—10:45 A. M. to 1 P. M.
Chicago's Own Swimming Champion
JOHNNY "TARZAN" WEISSMULLER In Person
Glamorous Stage Show with JACK PEPPER
Screen—JAMES CAGNEY "Winner Take All"
UPTOWN BROADWAY at LAWRENCE
35c—1:30 to 6:30 P. M.
GENE DENNIS In Person
Added Stage Show, Tue
Sylvia Sidney Fredric March
"MERRILY WE GO TO HELL"
SOUTHTOWN 63rd at 1st EAST of HALSTED
30c, 1-6:30—Adults Only
Free Parking on Premises
JOAN CRAWFORD in "LETTY LYNTON"
—and—
WARNER BAXTER in "MAN About TOWN"
TIVOLI COTTAGE GROVE at 63rd
35c—1:15 to 6:30 P. M.
ART KAHN and His Orchestra
MILLS BROTHERS IN PERSON
Sylvia Sidney, Fredric March
"Merrily We Go to Hell"
RIVIERA BROADWAY at LAWRENCE
15c, 1:30 to 6:30—Adults Only
"TWO SECONDS" Edw. G. Robinson, Vivienne Osborne
"RESERVED FOR LADIES" Leslie Howard
HARDING MILWAUKEE at SAWYER
25c, 1:30 to 6:30—Two Hits
"SOCIETY GIRL" James Dunn, Peggy Shannon
"DOOMED BATTALION" Tullio Carminati
NORSHORE HOWARD at CLARK
25c, 1:30 to 6:30, Free Parking
"Sinners in the Sun," Carole Lombard, Kay Francis, "Man Wanted"
TOWER 63RD at BLACKSTONE
25c, 1:30-6:30—Jackie COOPER
"When Feller Needs Friend" & Joan BLONDELL, "Famous Ferguson Case"

EVERY DAY THIS WEEK extra entertainment
IN ALL THE FOLLOWING THEATERS
MARBRO GRANADA
30c, 1:30 to 6:30 P. M.
Warner BAXTER "Man About Town"
Year's Supreme Screen Hit! "DOOMED BATTALION"
—At Both Theaters—
JACKIE COOPER CHIC SALE "WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND"
Extra Surprises Daily at Both Theaters!
Following Theaters 25c 1:30 to 6:30
MANOR 5600 W. North Av.
CRYSTAL North Av. nr. Cal.
ALAMO 3641 W. Chicago Av.
Central Pk. 3335 W. Roosevelt
"THIS IS THE NIGHT" Chas. Ruggles, Lily Damita, Roland Young, Thelma Todd
—also—
"Law and Order" Walter Huston, Lois Wilson
NORTOWN Western-Devon
GATEWAY Lawr.-Milwaukee
CENTURY Clark-Diversey
"WOMAN IN ROOM 13" Elissa Landi, Nell Hamilton
—also—
"Strange Case of Clara Deane" Wynne Gibson, Pat O'Brien
CONGRESS Milw.-Rockwell
"SINNERS IN THE SUN" Carole Lombard, Chest. Morris also other screen novelties
"White Paris Sleeps," Vic McLaglen also Jean Bissell
"Famous Ferguson Case" 3 Acts Vaudeville and Art Frasik & Orch. 6:30
MARYLAND 63d-Maryland Adults Only
"Nite Court," Walter Huston & Wynne Gibson, Pat O'Brien
"Strange Case of Clara Deane"
STATE 5814 W. Madison
Ramon Novarro, Madge Evans in "Huddle" also Joan Bennett in "Trial of Vivienne Ware"
Triple Program!
BELPARK 2231 N. Cicero
"Symphony of Six Million" Ricardo Cortez, Fairbanks Jr. "It's Tough to Be Famous" BERWYN 6404 W. 22d St.
"Symphony of Six Million" Ricardo Cortez also Ramon Novarro in "HUDDLE"
SENATE Madison-Kedzie 25c Balcony
"Sinners in the Sun," Carole Lombard also Vic McLaglen in "White Paris Sleeps"
PANTHEON Sheridan nr. Wilson 25c Balcony
Adults Only "Night Court," Walter Huston, Anita Page also Buck Jones in thriller, "High Speed"
SELMONT Lincoln-Ashland 25c Balcony
"WOMAN IN ROOM 13" Elissa Landi, Nell Hamilton Screen Souvenirs-Comedies
Gala STAGE WEDDING Tonight
LA GRANGE 54 S. 5th. La Gr. 25c, 6 to 6:30 Triple Program
"Symphony of Six Million" Ricardo Cortez & Fairbanks, Jr., "It's Tough to Be Famous" Laurel & Hardy, "The Chimp"
BILTMORE Div. nr. Damen 20c, 1:30-6:30
"This Is Nite," Chas. Ruggles Lily Damita also Walter Huston in "Law and Order"

WILMETTE
WILMETTE "Misleading Lady"
CLAUDETTE COLBERT & EDMUND LOWE

HIGHLAND PARK.
ALCYON "THIS IS THE NIGHT" Lily Damita, Chas. Ruggles
NEW COOLING SYSTEM

OAK PARK.
LAMAR Marion at Lake. 25c to 7 P. M.
"THE SHOP ANGEL" and Laurel & Hardy

MOTION PICTURES MISCELLANEOUS

NORTH.
SHERIDAN Broadway at Sheridan Rd.
Adults Only
Joan Crawford—Robt. Montgomery "Letty Lynton"
Victor McLaglen—"While Paris Sleeps"
"Old Bull"—Pitts-Todd
25c—Balcony All Day—25c
TERMINAL 25c 67 P.M.
Pat O'Brien—Wynne Gibson "STRANGE CASE OF CLARA DEANE"
Victor McLaglen—"While Paris Sleeps"
VOGUE 3210 Broadway. 25c, 1:30 to 6:30
Balcony 25c—Every Night
Buck Jones—"High Speed"
Walter Huston, "Night Court"—Adults Only
NORTH CENTER Lincoln-Irving Opens 1:30
Cooled by Refrigeration
BIG 3½ HOUR PROGRAM
Walter Huston—"Night Court"
Phillips Holmes, Lewis Stone, Anita Page "Lena Rivers"—Adults Only
BALCONY 25c—EVERY NIGHT
ADELPHI 7074 NO. CLARK Cont. from 2 P. M.
Claudette Colbert—Ed Lowe—Stuart Erwin "MISLEADING LADY"
Chas. Bickford—Rose Hobart—Pat O'Brien "SCANDAL FOR SALE"
Zasu Pitts-Thelma Todd—"Strictly Unreliable" Cartoon—News and Screen Snapshots
Adults all day, 15c; Child. always 10c
HOWARD HOWARD ST. AT "L" Free Parking 25c Mat. & Eve.
WYNNE GIBSON—PAT O'BRIEN "THE STRANGE CASE OF CLARA DEANE"
Reel Thrilling! "EXPLORERS OF THE WORLD"
NEW BRYN MAWR NOW 25c
3 Unit Program—"THE MIRACLE MAN"
Zasu Pitts Comic—News, Cartoon and Act
LINCOLN 15c, 1:30 to 7 Eve. 25c
Chimacare Free to Every Lady Tonight
ELISSA LANDI—"DEVIL'S LOTTERY"
WINDSOR 1236 N. Clark—25c, 1:30 to 6:30
WYNNE GIBSON "STRANGE CASE OF CLARA DEANE"
Elissa Landi—"WOMAN IN ROOM 13"
BIOGRAPH 3435 Lincoln—15c, 1:30 to 7
Law & Order"—Walter Huston
Joan Bennett—"Trial of Vivienne Ware"
DEVON 6231 Broadway—15c, 1:30 to 7
Ramon Novarro—"HUDDLE"
Joan Bennett—"TRIAL OF VIVIENNE WARE"
DAVIS Lincoln-Western—15c, 1:30 to 7
Walter Huston—"Law & Order"
Lily Damita—"THIS IS THE NIGHT" "Greeks Had a Word for Them"
Laurel & Hardy—"THE CHIMP"
400 6740 SHERIDAN—15c, 1:30 to 7
Dorothy Mackaill, Regis Toomey, "Midnight Patrol" "Love Affair"—Adults Only
BUCKINGHAM 3219 N Clark. Adm. 25c
Ruth Etting Comic
"Strange Case of Clara Deane" & "Lena Rivers"
LAKE SHORE Broadway-Belmont
"Beauty and the Boss"
"EXPLORERS OF THE WORLD"
DE LUXE 1141 Wilson—Adults 25c
Ramon Novarro—"Huddle"
MARION SHILLING—"SHOP ANGEL"

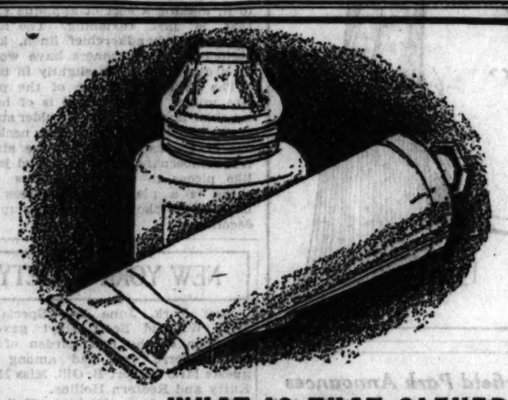
EVANSTON
VARSITY "NIGHT COURT"
Walter Huston, Anita Page
"STRANGE CASE OF CLARA DEANE"
WYNNE GIBSON
After 6:30—35c Plus 5c Government Tax

NO MAN'S LAND
Teatro del Lago Sheridan Road Between Wilson and Lawrence
RICARDO CORTEZ—IRENE DUNNE
"SYMPHONY OF SIX MILLION"

MOTION PICTURES SOUTH

WARNER COOL THEATRES—FREE PARKING
AVALON 79th & Stony Island
Adults only 10c-30c till 6:30
JOAN CRAWFORD
Robert Montgomery
"LETTY LYNTON"
—AND—
WARNER BAXTER
"Man About Town"
CAPITOL 79th & Halsted
10c and 30c till 6:30
JOAN BLONDELL
"Famous Ferguson Case"
—AND—
JACKIE COOPER
CHAS. "CHIC" SALE
"When a Feller Needs a Friend"
STRATFORD 63rd & Halsted
Adults only 25c till 6:30 p.m.
EDW. ROBINSON
"Two Seconds"
—AND—
"SOCIETY GIRL"
James Dunn, Peggy Shannon
HIGHLAND Adults Only 79th-Ashland
JEFFERY 71st-Jeffery
WALTER HUSTON—LEWIS STONE
"NIGHT COURT"
Added! Jeffery: Thriller, "High Speed"
GROVE 70th-Cottage
W. ENGLEW'D 63rd-Ashland
RUTH CHATTERTON
"The Rich Are Always With Us"
Adults Only—Walter Huston, "Night Court"
SHORE 75th-Kingston
70° Cool Ramon Novarro "HUDDLE"
Zasu Pitts—"Trial of Vivienne Ware"
PICCADILLY
30c, 1:30 to 6:30. Box Office Closes 10:30
JOHN BARRYMORE "STATE'S ATTORNEY"
Also Ruth Etting & Burton Holmes
JACKSON PARK Mat. 15c, Eve. 25c
Ricardo Cortez—"Symphony of Six Million"
Laurel & Hardy—"The Chimp"
COLONY 50TH & KEDZIE
Always Cool
WALTER HUSTON—"WET PARADE"
ELISSA LANDI—"DEVIL'S LOTTERY"
METROPOLITAN 4644 S. Park Ave.
Robt. Armstrong—"RADIO PATROL"
Tom Mix—"Rider of the Death Valley"
RAMOVA 35th & Halsted—Dbl. Feature
Walter Huston, "Night Court"
Elissa Landi—"WOMAN IN ROOM 13"

NORTHWEST
RIVOLI 4380 ELSTON
15c Until 7—25c After
ERIC LINDEN—"YOUNG BRIDE"
JOAN BLONDELL—"GREEKS HAD A WORD FOR THEM" & "DOOR KNOCKER"
PORTAGE PARK 4050 Milwaukee
25c After 7:30—Children 5c to 7:30—10c After 7:30
Warren William—"The Mouthpiece"
Joan Bennett—"Trial of Vivienne Ware"
MONT CLARE Grand Ave. at Harlem
Adults 25c Mat. & Eve.
Joan Bennett—"Trial of Vivienne Ware"
Doug. Fairbanks Jr.—"It's Tough to Be Famous"
ADMIRAL 15c, 1:30 to 7
2 FEATURES—"THE MOUTHPIECE"
"DEVIL'S LOTTERY" & "DREAM HOUSE"
NEW DRAKE 15c, 1:30 to 7 P. M.
Eve. 25c
2 Features—"Wet Parade"
"Devil's Lottery"—"My Wife's Family"
TIFFIN 4061 W. North Ave.—Joan Bennett
"TRIAL OF VIVIENNE WARE"
Charles Ruggles—"THIS IS THE NIGHT"
EMBASSY 3548 Fullerton—15c, 1:30 to 7
Marion Shilling, "Guilty Agent"
WARREN WILLIAM—"The Mouthpiece"
LOGAN Paramount Milwaukee-Sawyer
25c, 1:30 to 7—Adolphe Menjou
ELISSA LANDI—"DEVIL'S LOTTERY"



WHAT IS THAT CLEVER
ELIZABETH ARDEN PREPARATION
that acts as an invisible mask between you and sunburn?
...that enables you to play in the sun without fear of marring your loveliness?
...that smart women always apply before going out in the sun?...that prevents blistering, freckling, peeling?...that serves as a perfect foundation for daytime and evening make-up?
..that is not greasy and is absolutely undetectable?...that gives your legs a smooth finish under mesh stockings, or when they're bare?
IT'S Protecta Cream
ARDENA PROTECTA CREAM...White, Naturelle, Bronze, Rachel. Tube, $2.50; jar, $3.
These Elizabeth Arden basic preparations used in conjunction with Protecta Cream constitute the perfect Summer Treatment.
VENETIAN CLEANSING CREAM...Cleanses thoroughly and gently. $1, $2, $3, $6.
VENETIAN ARDENA SKIN TONIC...Tones, firms, refreshes the skin. 85c, $2, $3.75, $9.
VENETIAN ORANGE SKIN FOOD...A rich cream that banishes wrinkles. $1, $1.75, $2.75, $4.25, $8.
VENETIAN VELVA CREAM...Smooths and refines without fattening. $1, $2, $3, $6.
Elizabeth Arden's Venetian Toilet Preparations are on sale At the Leading Stores
ELIZABETH ARDEN
70 EAST WALTON PLACE • CHICAGO
NEW YORK • LONDON • PARIS • BERLIN • ROME • MADRID

Recipe, Secret of Generations, to Aid Children

Tea Cakes to Build Home for Handicapped.

BY RUTH DE YOUNG.

KEEPING a secret may be foreign to feminine makeup, but every rule has its exception. And this time Mrs. Melanie Boushelle McCarthy of Evanston is the exception.

For seventeen years Mrs. McCarthy has guarded one little secret so carefully that hostesses all along the north shore have clamored for the key and at least two "restauranteurs" have offered her dollars by the thousands if she will "only tell."

But there are several reasons why Mrs. McCarthy will not divulge the number of teaspoons of this and the cupfuls of that that go into the baking of a certain little Russian tea cake. First the list of ingredients is the nucleus of a collection of "distinguished" recipes she treasures as much as statesmen prize the documents of immemorial archives.

Second, the secret is something of a heritage as it has been kept in two families since before the French revolution. And third, Mrs. McCarthy has an idea that some day she may with a few of her Evanston friends provide enough of these little cakes for luncheons, teas, and dinners to create a sizable sum for the care of handicapped children. Having experienced infantile paralysis in her own family, she is very much interested in the care given handicapped boys and girls.

"In fact there are a few dollars already laid away as the beginning of such a fund," Mrs. McCarthy explained the other day. "Two years ago I decided to try my hand at baking the cakes with this philanthropy in view. But my efforts were so spasmodic and most of the cakes I made went either for my own parties or some charity bazaar here on the north shore. This is the way, however, my friends and their friends in turn learned about the recipe.

"This summer I am going to Axtell, Neb., where there is a model home for subnormal children," she continued. "I want to study this institution and hope to return so inspired that I will want to bake cakes and more cakes for the sake of handicapped boys and girls."

It was Mlle. Charlotte Charles who concocted the cake recipe and made it famous. She was employed in the family of the French general, Count Antoine Drouot, who accompanied Napoleon to Elba as governor of the island and subsequently fought at Waterloo. At dinners given by the Drouots, in Paris, royal visitors with jaded appetities first hailed these rich, tasty bits as fruited ambrosia.

One day in the early years of the nineteenth century, the story continues, a box of the cakes was sent by the Drouot family to a friend, a royal princess in Russia. They were served at a formal tea. The guests were charmed; the box was quickly emptied. More cakes were desired but none were to be had.

Immediately the princess wrote to Charlotte Charles asking for the recipe. Politely but firmly she refused. Still the princess persisted until at last she persuaded Charlotte to come to Russia and bake the cakes for some especial functions. Charlotte went and never returned. Months stretched into years. At last she died. Then war and revolution. A grandniece of Charlotte Charles managed to escape to France, and with her she carried the little handwritten book of seven recipes handed down to her by her great aunt.

Reaching Paris half starved and ill, she sought shelter from descendants of the Drouot family of whom she had often heard. For months they helped her and then in gratitude she turned over to them the precious book of recipes.

One of these descendants happened to be the sister of Mrs. McCarthy, Mme. Gustave Drouot. But having few culinary interests, as Mrs. McCarthy explains, she in turn allowed them to come to this country. Four of the recipes Mrs. McCarthy has translated and tried. Supreme, however, she explains, is the Russian tea cake already hailed for a century and a half.

"Ambrosia is the only word to express it," Mrs. McCarthy says.

But the recipe, she does not choose to tell!

* *

Scholarship Dance.

The A. B. A. Juniors' Scholarship club will hold a benefit dinner dance this evening at the Hotel Sherman.

* *

OCEAN STEAMSHIP MOVEMENTS.

Arrived.	At.	From.
Augustus	New York	Naples
Newport News	Havre	Baltimore
Excalibur	Marseilles	New York
Sinaia	Piraeus	New York
Drottningholm	Gothenburg	New York
Pulaski	Copenhagen	New York
United States	Christiansand	New York
Ile de France	Havre	New York
Baltic	Liverpool	New York
Bremen	Southampton	New York
Pennland	Antwerp	New York
Pres. Jefferson	Shanghai	Seattle
Roma	Genoa	New York
Sailed.	From.	For.
Carinthia	New York	Copenhagen
Kungsholm	New York	Copenhagen
Dresden	Dublin	New York
Monterey	Sydney	San Francisco
Pres. Taft	Shanghai	New York
Conte Grande	New York	Naples
Leviathan	New York	Bremen

Smart Evening Dress of Gingham

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Miss Suzanne Morris proved how smart and lovely a gingham evening dress may be in this one of red and white which she wore in the fashion show given in Mrs. Henry Faurot's garden in Riverside for the benefit of the Anti-Cruelty Society of Chicago.

Film Designed to Rebuke Reds Is a Poor One

"FORGOTTEN COMMANDMENTS."

Produced by Paramount.
Directed by Louis Gasnier and William Schorr.
Presented by the Castle theater.

THE CAST.

Anya	Sari Maritza
Paul Ossip	Gene Raymond
Marya Ossip	Marguerite Churchill
Prof. Marinoff	Irving Pichel
Priest	Harry Beresford
Doctor	Edward Van Sloan
Gregor	Kent Taylor
Registrar	Frankie Adams
First Orator	John Peter Richmond
Second Orator	William Shawhan
Ivan Ivanovitch	Joseph Sauers

By Mae Tinée.

Good Morning!

"It is," thought Hollywood, "about time to get out an anti-soviet picture. . . ." And so, as answer of a sort, to the Russian propaganda films that have been flooding the country, "Forgotten Commandments" was made.

If you've witnessed Cecil De Mille's "Ten Commandments" you've seen a large part of "Forgotten Commandments," for episodes from the former made a generous sandwich filling for the latter's thin and hectic prologue and epilogue which shows dire happenings that befall a soviet leader and his followers who dare to substitute new commandments for old and to believe that there is no God. [Not an expensive picture to make, I would say, considering the utilization of ancient material.]

The De Mille interpolations are introduced to illustrate the fervent narration of an old and despised priest to a group of children who have come to jeer him in his dismantled temple.

The principal characters are a Russian bacteriologist (Irving Pichel), his helpmeet an dmistress (Sari Maritza), and a young husband and wife, impersonated by Marguerite Churchill and Gene Raymond, who come to Moscow to help with the soviet movement. The professor's lady friend seduces the simple Paul with most disastrous consequences.

Acting and direction are quite as good as the story demands—which isn't according them any fulsome praise. I can't quite see just why all the excitement over Sari Maritza, foreign newcomer, but you may find her more exciting than I did. The jeering youngsters in the church are tame and "Hollywood" after the real Russian "wild boys" one saw in the Muscovite epic "Road to Life."

The Russians are not celebrated for their sense of humor, but I suspect plenty of them, including Stalin, will grin in their whiskers over Hollywood's conception of their activities, as revealed in "Forgotten Commandments."

See you soon.

Pattern Gives Chic Slimness to Mature Figure

WOMAN'S DRESS.

There is chic about this smart dress with its light top bodice with raglan shoulders. The collar, bodice, and hip lines all conspire to give an effect of slimness.

The pattern, 2,614, comes in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, and 44 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 2⅞ yards of 39 inch material with 1⅝ yards of 39 inch contrasting.

How to Order Clotilde Patterns.

Write your name and address plainly on dotted lines, giving number and size of such patterns as you want. Inclose 10 cents in stamps or coin [coin preferred; wrap it carefully] for each number, and address your order to Clotilde Patterns, CHICAGO TRIBUNE, P. O. Box 537, Grand Central station, New York City.

Order Blank for Clotilde Patterns

CLOTILDE PATTERNS.
CHICAGO TRIBUNE, P. O. BOX 537.
Grand Central Station, New York City.

Inclosed find $..... Please send me the Clotilde patterns listed below:

Pattern No..... Size..... Price.....

2614.....

Name .....

Number and Street .....

City .....

State .....

Thrills Galore Await Sally's Movie Guests

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

For real excitement—and what red blooded boy or girl doesn't crave it?—there's nothing which quite equals an authentic animal picture, one which has actually been filmed in the heart of the jungle. Frank Buck's thrilling movie, "Bring 'Em Back Alive," now being shown at R-K-O State-Lake theater and to which I am planning to invite one hundred boys and girls for the Thursday, July 7, showing, is just that kind of a film. It's full of excitement, adventure and the sort of humor which only its unique cast might provide.

There are a honey bear and an amusing gibbon called "Percy" you will simply adore. These animals captured by Frank Buck's exploring party soon became the pets of the camp, and some of their antics after they've become thoroughly domesticated are high lights of the picture. It's full of so many interesting scenes I can't tell you about even a small portion of them, but I can assure you it's a movie well worth seeing, and I wish I could invite all of you instead of limiting the number of my guests to a hundred.

However, that hundred will consist of the boys and girls who prove by their letters that they would enjoy this marvelous picture most. That means you'll have to write a very convincing letter. You have another day in which to compose and mail it to me, for I must have it no later than tomorrow morning. Please remember to write your name and address clearly and do not omit your age. Address the letter to Sally Joy Brown, CHICAGO TRIBUNE, Chicago.

City's Guests Enjoy Many Dinner Parties

Convention Adjourns in Time for Affairs.

[Continued from page 15, column 8.]

church in Chicago, the Rev. H. R. Anderson officiating.

Only the bride's children, Polly, Jane, and Douglas Harvey, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralston were present. The former Mrs. Harvey is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Horace Gilford Reynolds of Dixon and the widow of Douglas Harvey of Dixon, who died in June two years ago while attending a class reunion at Yale.

The bride is well known in Chicago society and she and Mrs. Ralston are among society's best known amateur singers. Mr. Whithorne is a composer, his works having been played by the leading orchestras of this country and of Europe. He and his bride left immediately after the ceremony for the north woods, and after a sojourn there they will go to California, taking Polly and Jane Harvey with them, while Douglas remains in Dixon with the Ralstons. Mr. and Mrs. Whithorne will be at home in New York in the autumn.

Vegetables for Arden Shore.

Mrs. Robert Hixon of Lake Forest has volunteered to look after the collection and delivery of vegetables for the Lake Forest Arden Shore committee during the month of July. Any one who has vegetables to donate to the camp may leave them at the Hixon house at 755 North Washington road on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Mrs. Dexter Cummings will succeed Mrs. Hixon in the job during the month of August.

Miss Virginia Winston, the eldest daughter of the James H. Winstons of Evanston, who was graduated this month from Pine Manor "with honor," being one of the three girls to achieve that distinction, sailed last week with a group of girls, chaperoned by a teacher from Pine Manor, for three or four months abroad before returning to Chicago to make her debut next fall.

Robert, the Winstons' oldest son, finished this month at Princeton, and Albert, the younger son, has just been graduated from Deerfield academy, where he won the Deerfield cup, an award given annually to the senior who best exemplifies the school ideal by his classroom attitude, sportsmanship and conduct among his fellows.

The Winstons' other daughter, Laura, who spent the winter in Tucson with her mother, will sail with her brother, Albert, in about 10 days to spend the summer in Switzerland.

Mrs. E. Vance Clark of Brockton, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence De Golyer, at their Winnetka residence. The De Golyers will give a tea for their daughter and for Mrs. Keasley Hardy next Wednesday afternoon.

The Graham Aldises' four children, Mary Cornelia, Owen, and the twins, Peggy and Ruth, are to leave the Aldis compound in Lake Forest soon for a visit with their grandaunt, Mrs. Bryan Lathrop, at her summer estate at York Harbor, Me.

Thomas Tyler With Mother.

Mrs. Ralph M. Shaw's son, Thomas S. Tyler, a member of this year's graduating class at Yale, has returned to be with Mr. and Mrs. Shaw at their State street residence.

Mrs. Charles H. Ackert has taken a suite at the Deerpath inn in Lake Forest for the summer.

Mrs. Kimball Salisbury of 1415 Astor street left yesterday for the east with her children to spend the summer with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Warren Salisbury at Pittsfield, Mass.

Mrs. George R. Nichols Sr. has closed her apartment at the Webster hotel and is motoring east to spend July and August at the Wianno club at Wianno, Mass.

The concluding "open garden" day at Mrs. Lansing B. Warner's residence in Hubbard Woods was held last Saturday for the benefit of the Chicago Junior school. The benefits are not to continue through July, as this department had been erroneously informed.

News From Lake Geneva.

From Lake Geneva comes news that all the attics of the lake summer places are being rummaged for articles to be put on sale at the annual rummage sale for the benefit of Holiday home, which will be held on Thursday, July 7, at Horticultural hall. Holiday home opened for its forty-fifth season on June 15, and 31 adults from Chicago settlements are now being entertained at the home. Mrs. William F. Petersen of 1323 Astor street is president, Mrs. E. P. Ellwood is vice president, Mrs. Addin P. Kaye financial secretary, Mrs. Daniel Peterkin recording secretary, and Mrs. Albert F. Madlener treasurer.

At the Chicago club on Lake Geneva for the summer in their cottages are the following Chicagoans: Mr. and Mrs. George Hough, Harold Hough and Mrs. Hattie Hough, who again have the Fred Wacker house; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cutter and Mr. and Mrs. Worthington Walters, who are in the Cutter house; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carton and Lawrence A. Carton, who will spend only week-ends at their cottage; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Troxell and their son, Benjamin; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fowler and Mr. and Mrs. John Jennings. Mr. and Mrs. Addin P. Kaye, who spent the winter at Sarasota, Fla., are at the lake now for the summer.

* *

Riverside Art Show.

Almost one hundred entries have been received for Riverside's first art exhibit to be held on Saturday, Sunday and Monday in the town's new library building under the auspices of the Friends of the Library.

WEDDING

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Frances G. Becker, daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. George J. Becker of Bayonne, N. J., to Roy Arthur Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Price of Chicago, on June 18 in the First Reformed church of Bayonne. The bride completed her junior year at Wellesley college this month. Mr. Price is a graduate of the University of Chicago and of the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

Men Who Ask for Gifts Back Rather Small

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Might it be the depression that is responsible for these many recent inquiries about how to get gifts back? Are the boys so pressed that the ex-girl's tokens of affection must be reclaimed to keep the present girl in good humor?

I can't otherwise figure out all of these recent demands from boys for the return of photographs, pins, rings, and other gifts. Or, are men massing themselves in a drive against female gift hoarders just on general principles?

"A diamond ring of a carat and a half," argues Alex, "is a good sized diamond. It takes a fellow a long time to get that paid for on the installment plan. If the girl calls quits, surely the fellow has a right to the ring, hasn't he?"

I should say the young man has a moral right to the ring if the girl is the one to withdraw from the marriage plan. But it's been tried in court to persuade an unwilling giver that the girl's claim to the diamond ended on the broken marriage plan note. In every case I recall the girl managed to convince the jury that the ring was small recompense for the time wasted and the money spent in the necessary personal upkeep of an engaged young lady. Regardless of court decisions, a girl with any sense of fairness would willingly send back the ring immediately the bargain on which it was earned was dissolved.

About other gifts, the popular conception is that there are no strings to them at all. That once they're given and accepted, there they belong. The engagement ring has an entirely different status. It stands for something definite. It means something definite. It is the symbol of a promise. Photographs, pins, books, vanities, wrist watches, and such gifts are given at the donor's own risk and the return of these should not be invited. If they're returned voluntarily, they may be accepted gratefully.

Chicago's Coolest Spot is It's Greatest Entertainment Center
..... TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE NEW PRICE SCALE
Seats on Sale Thursday, A. M. for the Next Two Weeks
TO METRO-GOLDWYN MAYER'S
GRAND HOTEL
WITH A BRILLIANT CAST OF STARS
GRETA GARBO
JOHN BARRYMORE
JOAN CRAWFORD
WALLACE BEERY
LIONEL BARRYMORE
LEWIS STONE JEAN HERSHOLT and a host of others
AS A REMINDER - POSITIVELY WILL NOT BE SHOWN IN ANY OTHER THEATRE IN CHICAGO UNTIL NEXT SEASON...
ORDER SEATS NOW FOR MONDAY (Hol.) JULY 4TH
ALL SEATS RESERVED
TWICE DAILY: 2:40 AND 8:40
SUNDAY AT 3:00 - 6:00 - 8:40
EVENINGS - 50¢, $1 AND $1.50
MATINEES 50c, 75c, $1.00 Plus Tax
WOODS THEATRE RANDOLPH & DEARBORN

THE BLUE FOUNTAIN ROOM
Hotel La Salle
La Salle & Madison Sts.
Coolest and Most Delightful Place in Town to Dine and Dance
Dancing 6:30 to 9:30 to the music of
VERNE BUCK & HIS ORCHESTRA
No Cover Charge
An Excellent Dinner is Served at
ONE DOLLAR PER PERSON

LincolnTavern
DEMPSTER ROAD MORTON GROVE, ILL.
RETURN ENGAGEMENT OPENING
TOMORROW NIGHT
DukeEllington
and His Internationally Famous Orchestra
ENTIRE NEW SHOW
LOUISE COOK HARLEM DANCE QUEEN
KID CHARLESTON ECCENTRIC DANCER
IVY ANDERSON "MINNIE THE MOOCHER"
FREDI and MOIRET SENSATIONAL DANCE TEAM
FOR RESERVATIONS PHONE: MORTON GROVE 1919-1920
JACK HUFF, MGR.
NO COVER CHARGE AT ANY TIME!

HENRICI'S RESTAURANT
If you have been delegated to act as Chairman of a social steering committee, let us remind you that HENRICI'S wins the feminine vote. There's nothing like HENRICI'S in your friends' own home town.
The Usual Moderate Prices Prevail. Service from 7 A. M. to Midnight.
67 W. RANDOLPH STREET

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS.
APOLLO MAT. TODAY, 50c to $2 Plus Tax
ALL TICKETS SOLD AT THE BOX OFFICE
ANOTHER SMASHING LEW LESLIE HIT!
A MUSICAL REVUE of YOUTH, MELODY and FUN!!!
LEW LESLIE'S CLOWNS in CLOVER with WALTER WOOLF
AND 100 OTHER SINGERS, DANCERS, COMEDIANS AND SPECIALTY STARS
Book by NAT N. DORFMAN and LEW LESLIE
Music and lyrics by DOROTHY FIELDS and JIMMY McHUGH
"A MAGNETIC ARRAY OF GIRLS . . . DANCED ALL OVER THE PLACE AND STRAIGHT INTO THE HEARTS OF THE FIRST-NIGHTERS." —Ashton Stevens, Herald-Examiner.
"A HAPPY SHOW FOR SUMMER" —CHARLES COLLINS, TRIBUNE.

PLAYHOUSE EVES. 8:30 MATINEE TODAY
"LOVE ON APPROVAL" with CECIL SPOONER
Advertise in The Tribune

"No matter what kind of stockings I buy they're always springing runs"
"If you'd only try my way of washing—
It saves the ELASTICITY that makes stockings wear"
DO YOU KNOW you can prevent many runs by washing your stockings with Lux? It's because Lux protects stocking elasticity. When you pull or stretch the silk threads, they give but do not break.
Rubbing with cake soap destroys elasticity. Make it a rule to wash your stockings the 2-minute Lux way that lengthens their life.
The LUX Way to make stockings last twice as long . . .
Wash this 2-minute way:
1. One teaspoon of Lux for each pair of stockings.
2. Add lukewarm water to Lux, squeeze the suds gently through the stockings, rinse well.
Don't rub with cake soap. It destroys the elasticity of the silk. With Lux there's no rubbing.
Avoid ordinary soaps—cakes, powders, chips. These often contain harmful alkali which robs silk of its life, weakens threads, fades color. Lux has no harmful alkali. Anything safe in water alone is safe in Lux.
LUX
For lovely hands—use LUX in the dishpan.
LUX saves stocking E-L-A-S-T-I-C-I-T-Y

5 REASONS why you should buy KELLY-SPRINGFIELD TIRES

YOU'LL want rugged, new tires for the Fourth and for summer driving. They're essential to safety and ease of mind. And here are the reasons why you should see and know Kelly-Springfield tires before you buy:

1 QUALITY. We have concentrated on quality tires for more than 38 years—demanding always higher standards for design, materials and workmanship. During the boom times, people paid less attention to quality, but they want it now. That's why a larger percentage of car owners are turning to Kelly-Springfield tires now than at any time in recent years.

2 SAFETY. How frequently you read of injuries or fatal accidents from a skid or a blown-out tire. To meet modern car speeds and performance, we have developed the toughest tire carcass ever known. We have perfected our system of road trials—heavily loaded trucks and cars, running 24 hours a day through thousands of miles of mountain roads. We must know that Kelly-Springfields are the safest tires made.

3 MILEAGE. Isn't it significant that the toughest tire jobs in the country are choosing Kelly-Springfield tires? We are not satisfied to excel merely in mileage. Kelly-Springfields furnish the greatest non-skid mileage of any tires.

4 PRICE. By concentrating all our departments and our entire resources on quality we are able to give you the greatest tire value offered by any manufacturer. Line for line, Kelly-Springfields are the safest, longest wearing tires you can buy. Yet they sell at the same price you pay for ordinary tires.

Drive to the Kelly-Springfield dealer's and examine these superior tires. Learn their records. Know the standards to which they are built. See Kelly-Springfields before you buy any tires. Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, 1775 Broadway, New York.

5 And here's another reason. All Kelly-Springfield dealers are pledged to deliver real tire service to their customers—expert mounting service—checking inflation and wheel alignment—proper rotation of tires. Such service, in addition to the proved quality in Kelly-Springfield tires, assures you supreme tire satisfaction. No dealers—no tires—can give you more than Kelly-Springfield's.*

LOOP

The Boston Store, State, Madison and Dearborn Sts. State 3000.
North Loop Motoramp Garage, 70 W. Lake St. State 2980.
South Loop Motoramp Garage, 318 S. Federal St. Wabash 3488.

NORTH SIDE

Arnold Auto Supply, 2023 Lincoln Ave. Lincoln 0470.
Bergs Tire Stores, Inc., 5500 Broadway. Phone Longbeach 2800.
Dearborn Illinois Tire Co., 31 W. Illinois St. Superior 9773.
Dorris & Hawk Serv. Station, 3657 Addison St. Juniper 1433.
Frank Tire & Supply Co., Inc., 3900 Sheridan Rd. Lake View 8731.
Gay's Auto Supply, 2200 Milwaukee Ave. Armitage 3769.
Irving Park Tire & Battery Service, 5346 Irving Park Blvd. Palisade 4160.
Logan Garage Service, 2717 N. California Ave. Armitage 3286.
Fred Meyer, 2021 N. Kedzie Ave. Spaulding 5200.
Morgan Tire & Battery Service, 4552 Lincoln Ave. Longbeach 0563.
Olson Brothers, 1455 Irving Park Blvd. Lake View 4644.
L. F. Polachek, Inc., 4428 Milwaukee Ave. Palisade 0331.
Topp's Tire & Vulcanizing Shop, 6557 N. La Salle St. Delaware 6962.
Fred Ex, Inc., 301 E. Ohio St. Delaware 3210.
Becker Tire Co., 2905 Elston Ave. Keystone 8112.
Hendrickson Motor Truck Sales & Service, 2955 N. Ashland Ave. L. V. 2257.

SOUTH SIDE

Morand Cushion Wheel Co., 813 S. May St. Haymarket 6800.
Bryson Garage, 5018 Harper Ave. Kenwood 3088.
Fox Tire & Rubber Co., 1423 W. 59th St. Prospect 0112.
Harry W. Cooper, Inc., 2135 Indiana Ave. Victory 3130.
Maremont Mfg. Co., 1625 So. Ashland Ave. Phone Roosevelt 4300.
Motorists Supply Co., 11224 S. Michigan Ave. Pullman 6881.
Hendrickson Motor Truck Co., 3538 S. Wabash Ave. Victory 2780.
Hyman Auto Supply, 8614 Commercial Ave. Saginaw 4545.
American Auto Tire & Supply, 124 E. 33rd Blvd. Douglas 0612.
Castle Garage & Service Station, 4401 Cottage Grove Ave. Drexel 4401.
Stanley Kanapacklis, 8158 S. Western Ave. Prospect 8157.
Super Tire Supply Co., Inc., 2000 S. Wabash Ave. Calumet 6600.
Castle Tire Co., 6142 S. Western Ave. Republic 8310.
Lawder Bros., Inc., 6000 La Fayette Ave. Triangle 2500.
Orms Chevrolet Co., 8200 Lake Park Ave. Fairfax 0825.
Park Manor Tire & Vulcanizing Co., 372 E. 71st St. Stewart 8283.
American Giants Garage, 5900 S. Wabash Ave. Normal 3553.
3342 Indiana Ave.
320 E. Garfield Blvd.
Vista Garage, Inc., 825 E. 47th St. Kenwood 3831.
Larsen's Battery & Tire Service, 2017 E. 75th St. Midway 6658.

WEST SIDE

Washington Tire & Vulc. Co., Inc., 807 Washington Blvd. Haymarket 1426.
Acorn Battery Co., Inc., 711 W. Jackson Blvd. Haymarket 6500.
Adel Electric & Auto Supply Co., Inc., 5527 W. North Ave. Merrimac 8383.
Austin Tire Co., 535 N. Cicero Ave., Austin 4953
Atlas Tire & Supply, 3719 W. Roosevelt Road. Crawford 1100.

SUBURBAN

AURORA
Johnson Auto Supply, 152 S. Lake St. Phone No. 2-1044.

CICERO
Slager Auto Serv. & Supply, 4646 W. 22nd St. Phone Lawndale 4728.

DES PLAINES
Hees Tire & Battery Serv., 639 Pearson St. Phone Des Plaines 888.

DOWNERS GROVE
Downers Grove Garage, Inc. Phone Downers Grove 23.

ELMHURST
E. A. Lanzkafel, Phone Elmhurst 665.

FOREST PARK
Roosevelt Service Sta., 7310 W. Roosevelt Rd. Phone Forest 2782.

EVANSTON
K. & S. Motor Service, Inc., 1618 Oak Ave. Phone Greenleaf 0780.
Killen Tire & Batt. Serv., 2000 Maple Av. Phone University 0552.

ELGIN
Francis J. Adams, 130 Grove Ave. Phone Elgin 1640.

GLEN ELLYN
Main Garage, Phone Glen Ellyn 1265, Patch Bros., Inc. Phone Glen Ellyn 48.

HIGHLAND PARK
Central Tire Co. Phone Highland Park 1200.

HINSDALE
Hinsdale Auto Repair Shop, Phone Hinsdale 120.

LA GRANGE
Loomis Bros., 15 N. Brainard Ave. Phone La Grange 1086.

LIBERTYVILLE
Ree Motor Sales.

NAPERVILLE
Emmet A. Riedy.

OAK PARK
North End Tire Shop, 1115 Chicago Ave. Phone Euclid 234d.

PARK RIDGE
Angebauer Garage Co., 200 N. Park Ave. Phone Park Ridge 1078.

ST CHARLES
Hahn's Garage.

WAUKEGAN
Sullivan's Super Serv. Sta., Belvidere & Jackson Sts. Phone Ontario 6057.

WESTMONT
Quincy Service Station. Phone Downers Grove 2198.

WINNETKA
Wersted Motor Co., 562 Lincoln Ave. Phone Winnetka 185.

TERRITORY

ILLINOIS

ALEDO
Aledo Vulcanizing Co.

BLOOMINGTON
Bloomington Battery Service, Inc., 302 E. Grove St.

CHAMPAIGN
Daley's Super Service.

CHENOA
Wahls Brothers.

DANVILLE
Klein Tire Shop.

DE KALB
Klemm & Ramer, 1136 E. Lincolnway.

DWIGHT
Dwight Motor Car Service.

DIXON
Kline's Auto Supply, 114 E. First St.

WEST McHENRY
Walter J. Freund.

EAST MOLINE
East Moline Auto Supply Co., 1102 15th Ave.

GALESBURG
Harold Wasson Tire Co., 152 W. Main St.

GENESEO
Maple City Tire Store.

HOOPESTON
Hoopeston Tire & Radio Co. 307 E. Main St.

KANKAKEE
Ersinger Oil Co., S. E. Corner Court St. at Chicago Ave.

MOLINE
Hill Top Tire Service, 1724 15th St. Place

MORRISON
Firman Service Station.

OTTAWA
Ottawa Tire Shop, 500 Court St.

PEORIA
Red Star Gasoline & Oil Co., Inc., 720 Franklin St.

PONTIAC
Barrow-Johnson, Inc.

PRINCETON
Princeton Tire Shop.

ROCK FALLS
Brant's Super Service.

SYCAMORE
Butzow Bros. Garage, 330 Elm St.

STREATOR
Virl Z. Hill Motor Co., Inc., 216 N. Bloomington St.

INDIANA

CROWN POINT, IND.
Crown Point Motor Sales, 201 S. Court St.

GARY, IND.
Indiana Auto Supply Co.
Phone Gary 2-3707.

HAMMOND, IND.
Snodgrass Auto Tire Sales, 5854 Calumet Ave. Phone Hammond 4900.
Van Sens Bros., 5410 Calumet Ave. Phone Hammond 1029-2.

INDIANA HARBOR
Lee Motor Co., Inc., Broadway and Fir St.

LA PORTE
Triangle Oil Co., Indiana and Jefferson Sts.

SOUTH BEND
Thomas Rubber Co.

WHITING, IND.
Hoosier Auto Service, 1703 119th St.

WINAMAC
Blinn & Borders.

IOWA

CEDAR RAPIDS
Howe-Bailey Super Service Company, Inc., 228 First Ave., West.

CLINTON
Western Fuel & Tire Co., 11th Avenue and 4th St., South.

DAVENPORT
Frank Bruckner, 410 Harrison St.

DE WITT
Dobler Battery & Elec. Service.

DUBUQUE
Kassler Motor Co., 501 White St.

FORT MADISON
Iowa Auto Wrecking & Salv. Co.

WISCONSIN

APPLETON
West Side Tire Shop, 607 W. College Ave.

BEAVER DAM
Carl Rhodes 201 N Center St.

BELOIT
Victor Hansen, 1022 Liberty St.

BERLIN
Broadway Service Station

CHILTON
Hingias & Bessler Co.

DEPERE
Broadway Garage, Inc.

GREEN BAY
Van Driese Motors, 118 S. Adams St.

JEFFERSON
Jefferson Tire Shop.

KENOSHA
Gordon, Inc., 2801 Roosevelt Rd.

MADISON
Capital City Tire Co., 202 E. Washington Ave.

MANITOWOC
Martin L. Cuker, R. F. D. No. 1, Silver Lake.

MARSHFIELD
Reif's Auto Service.

MILWAUKEE
Fleissner Bros., Inc., 1414 N. 20th St.

MILWAUKEE
The Boston Store, 319 Wisconsin Ave.

PORTAGE
Marschowsky's Store.

RACINE
Gordon, Inc., 1314-28 Albert St.

RICHLAND CENTER
R. Forman.

SHEBOYGAN
Sheboygan Tire Service, 1212-4 N. 8th St.

SOUTH MILWAUKEE
South Milwaukee Tire Shop.

VALDERS
T. G. Larson & Sons.

WAUKESHA
Grand Ave. Service Station, 217 N. Grand Ave.

WAUSAU
A. Kickbusch Grocery Co.
Badger Garage.

WEST ALLIS
Lee C. Sagemuller, 6701 National Ave.

WEST BEND
Klinka's Garage & Service Station, 4th Ave., South.

KELLY-SPRINGFIELD

SECTION TWO SPORTS MARKETS
WANT ADS

Chicago Daily Tribune

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1932.  19

"I could have sold the canoe advertised to any of 22 different Tribune readers!" — S. C. Hilburger, 3357 W. 63rd Pl.

If you have something to sell to vacation-goers, now is the time to use a Tribune Want Ad. Call Superior 0100—Adv.

LATE DATE NOSES OUT SUNTICA AT ARLINGTON

GOLDEN GLOVES JOBS OPEN IF CHAMPIONS SLIP

Tony Sutton Anxious to Fight German.

Where to Buy

TICKETS for the bouts between Germany and the United States are on sale at the following places:

The Tribune Public Service Office, 1 S. Dearborn street.

Germania club, 108 Germania place.

German club, 175 West Jackson street.

Bismarck hotel.

Klein's restaurant, 304 West Jackson street.

Chicago's Golden Gloves team may not whip Germany's amateur champions in the international bouts at Soldiers' field, July 26. Those who profess knowledge say victory will be difficult to achieve, if not impossible.

TONY SUTTON.

Judged by the score of the intercity series last March with New York's Golden Gloves team, Chicago hasn't as good material as when the French were beaten a year ago. But officials of the Chicago team are inclined to believe that New York was vastly improved in 1932 rather than to place all the burden for a poor showing on Chicago's boys. Even so, there's no denying that Chicago's team can be improved.

If better training facilities are needed, then they must be obtained. Lake Wawasee, Indiana, offers the best of outdoor sites. It is an improvement over a Chicago camp. And if competition in training is necessary, that, too, must be provided. To that end two amateurs, perhaps three in some weight divisions, will go to camp July 10.

Its Up to Champions.

The Chicago team may be shifted in training. It may be that champions will be replaced. This, however, rests entirely with the champions. They must demonstrate their class over the other candidates chosen on the squad.

There has been some conjecture over the middleweight division. The champion, Charley Neigo, is an earnest young man, possessed of ability, but without the flashiness which attracts a judge's eye. Neigo battled through the Tournament of Champions and the finals to win the 160 pound title. He'll meet Hans Bernloehr of Stuttgart, the German champion, unless another arises to dispute his place. Bernloehr, 25 years of age, is a hard hitting amateur. It behooves Chicago to have a rough and ready opponent for him.

Kept Out by Illness.

So it is that Tony Sutton, veteran of the 1931 Golden Gloves campaign, who was prevented from competing this year because of illness, although he had filed an entry blank, will join the Chicago squad at Lake Wawasee. Tony has that competitive spirit so sorely needed against an aggressive team such as Germany will send to Chicago.

Tony's 26 years of age. He's been boxing for three years and while he drops a decision now and then, he's dangerous. Sutton made his debut in Golden Gloves in 1931, fighting his way to a place as runnerup on the intercity card after he had been chosen as 175 pound alternate. To do that he beat out Dick Monte. When he fought Sam Portny of New York, Tony gave him a 13 pound weight advantage but Tony chased him all over the ring to earn the decision.

Hails from Iowa.

Tony hails from Nichols, Ia. He was born there, worked on a nearby farm, attended school, married a home town girl when 19 years of age, and now is ready to tackle any German

[Continued on next page, column 8.]

Buy in the Loop!

Tickets for the Golden Gloves Bouts Between the United States and Germany

at SOLDIERS' FIELD JULY 26

Are on Sale at Tribune Public Service Office, 1 South Dearborn

They're priced at

55c, $1.10, $2.20, $3.30

(INCLUDES TAX)

You May Also Mail Orders to

GOLDEN GLOVES TICKET MANAGER, TRIBUNE TOWER.

Make checks payable to the Chicago Tribune.

THE GUMPS—TO ANDY FROM HIS DARLING WIFE

MY BIRTHDAY - A PRESENT FROM MIN - A BRUSH AND COMB -
TO MY DARLING HUSBAND - MANY HAPPY RETURNS OF THE DAY -
HAPPY BIRTH DAY TO YOU - SURPRISE
OH MIN - WHAT DID YOU DO THAT FOR?
A BRUSH AND COMB - SOMETHING I'VE WANTED FOR MONTHS - THE VERY THING I NEED - A BRUSH AND COMB - GIVING HIM A BRUSH AND COMB IS LIKE GIVING A COMPASS TO A CONVICT WHO IS SERVING A LIFE SENTENCE IN SOLITARY CONFINEMENT -
SIDNEY SMITH
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. Copyright, 1932, by The Chicago Tribune.

TWO REASONS FOR FEARING GERMAN TEAM

These boys know how to swing boxing gloves, and if there are any skeptics let them drop in at Soldiers' field the night of July 26, when the champions of Germany fight Chicago's Golden Gloves team. Left to right are: Franz Kartz, German lightweight champion, and Heinrich Kohlhas, heavyweight champion.

Marriner Fails to Last Round with Retzlaff

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Les Marriner's title balloon came down last night at White City, punctured completely by right hand blows delivered by Charley Retzlaff, the North Dakota slugger. Marriner, who had fought only once in three years, lasted two minutes and 21 seconds. After two knockdowns, each for nine seconds, Referee Joe McNamara stopped the bout with Marriner on the floor, where he had been thrown from a clinch by the rugged Retzlaff.

Approximately 3,000 saw the bout. The receipts were estimated at $4,500.

Two Nine Counts.

Marriner struck ineffectually with his left hand several times before Retzlaff closed in for the finish. Marriner caught the full force of Charley's right hand before two minutes had elapsed. He went down in Retzlaff's corner, but he came up at the count of nine, badly dazed.

Seconds later Retzlaff again shot his right to the jaw and Marriner nearly fell through the ropes. Again at nine Les struggled to his feet, but he had had enough. In a clinch Retzlaff turned suddenly and Marriner slumped to the floor without being hit.

Marriner received $500 for his defeat while the two minutes' labor netted Retzlaff nearly $1,000.

Young's Victory Unpopular.

Charlie Young of Chicago won an unpopular five round decision over Harvey Mortensen, another Chicago heavyweight, in the semi-windup Neither was in trouble at any time.

Jack King, welterweight, outpointed Solly Dukelsky in five rounds. He punched harder and more frequently.

Two other heavyweight fights ended almost as suddenly as the final bout. Larry Udell dropped Pat McLaughlin twice in the first round, the last time for the limit.

Jack Robinson stopped Marion Matusak in two rounds. Virgil Bemi won a four round decision from Johnny Lullo in the opening bout. Both are Chicago lightweights.

Major Leagues

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

	W	L	Pct.		W	L	Pct.
Pittsburgh	33	27	.550	St. Louis	32	32	.500
CHICAGO	35	30	.538	Brooklyn	34	35	.493
Boston	36	31	.537	New York	29	33	.468
Philadel.	36	35	.507	Cincinnati	31	43	.419

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

New York	7-3;	Brooklyn	3-5
St. Louis	6;	Cincinnati	2
Boston	5;	Philadelphia	2

Only games scheduled.

GAMES TODAY.

Brooklyn at Philadel. St. Louis at Cincinnati.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

	W	L	Pct.		W	L	Pct.
New York	46	19	.708	Cleveland	36	31	.537
Detroit	37	27	.578	St. Louis	33	32	.508
Philad'phia	40	30	.571	CHICAGO	23	41	.359
Washington	37	36	.552	Boston	12	54	.182

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

New York	5;	Washington	2
Philadelphia	5;	Boston	4

Only games scheduled.

TODAY'S GAMES.

Chicago at St. Louis. Wash'ton at N. York.
Detroit at Cleveland.

Home Run Leaders

Foxx, Athletics	29	Simmons, Athletics	16
Ruth, Yankees	22	Wilson, Dodgers	14
Klein, Phillies	22	Ott, Giants	14
Gehrig, Yankees	19	Terry, Giants	14

Vines Is Last Hope of U. S. at Wimbledon

BY EUGENE SPECK.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WIMBLEDON, June 28.—Ellsworth Vines, United States champion, was the only American left tonight to contest for the Wimbledon and, incidentally, the world's singles tennis championship. Among the Americans who fell in the quarter-finals today was Sidney B. Wood Jr., defending champion.

Vines smothered the Spaniard, Enrique Maier, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2, but Wood was beaten by Jiro Satoh, Japanese star, 7-5, 7-5, 2-6, 6-4.

Francis X. Shields lost to England's No. 1 man, Bunny Austin, who carried the only British hopes of placing a player in the finals. Austin beat the tall New Yorker, 6-1, 9-7, 5-7, 6-1, after Fred Perry, English challenger, had fallen before the careless Australian, Jack Crawford, in a heartbreaking match before a packed gallery, 7-5, 8-6, 2-6, 8-6.

Vines to Battle Crawford.

The semi-finals now pit Vines against Crawford and Satoh against Austin.

Altogether it was a bad day for the Americans, for besides the defeats of Woods and Shields the doubles players did not fare well. Only Vines and Mrs. Helen Wills Moody were able to take a mixed doubles match in which Americans played. The losers included Wilmer Allison and Helen Jacobs, Gregory Mangin and Sarah Palfrey, and the Anglo-American combination made up of Ian G. Collins and

[Continued on page 21, column 4.]

FLYING BASS ADD ZEST TO CRUISE OF BOY SCOUTS

Hungry Cows Make Meal of Mosquito Net.

BY BOB BECKER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Plano, Ill., June 28.—The Chicagoland Boy Scouts who are paddling down the Fox river on the fifth annual TRIBUNE cruise continue to find plenty of thrills as they move down stream in their fleet of eleven canoes. Tonight the boys encamped in a beautiful grove on Col. R. R. McCormick's farm about a half mile above the Plano bridge and across the river from the site of an ancient Indian village. As they made camp not far from a clear, cold spring near the river, the boys expressed the hope that any cows on the place would stick to a grass diet and let the tents and mosquito nets alone.

Last night's camp above Yorkville gave the scouts a chance to show how versatile they are in using all their campcraft tricks. When it came time to prepare for the night each boy was allowed to fix up his sleeping accommodations as he pleased.

Different Boys, Different Ideas.

Some of the boys dispensed with tents and simply set up mosquito nets in order to sleep out under the stars. Others draped their nets over canoes and rolled up in their blankets to stretch out partly under the canoes and partly in the open, while some of the boys erected pup tents and enjoyed a fine night's rest.

The scouts jumped out of their blankets about 6 o'clock this morning when a herd of cows and one tame goat were turned loose in the grove where tents were pitched. The arrival of the stock started the day with plenty of excitement, as during the prebreakfast romp with the pet goat, two of the cows started to work on the mosquito netting belonging to Dick Roderwald and Virgil Bader, with the result that these boys are shy that piece of camp equipment today.

A short paddle downstream this morning brought the canoe cruisers to the dam at Yorkville, where canoes were lifted over and launched in the swift water below. Then a few paddle strokes brought the scouts to the Yorkville bridge, where Lloyd Johnson, manager of the state game farm, was waiting with a truck to take the party to the farm for an inspection tour of pheasant breeding pens. After seeing nearly 8,000 little pheasant chicks and hundreds of adult birds, the boys stripped down to their paddling togs, consisting mostly of sunburn or coats of tan, and started for the Plano bridge.

Black Bass Beg to Be Caught.

Winding around small grassy islands, shooting down little riffles with fast water and then paddling through long deep pools fringed by high timbered hills which contribute so much to the beauty of the Fox river in this section, the Scouts were kept in a fever of excitement during this stretch by the way the black bass jumped close to the canoes.

Herbert Krauss and William Larson had two small mouth bass jump in their canoe as they were paddling along, and before the Plano bridge was reached Fred Geyler and Bryan Moats equaled that record. Another good sized fish, surprised in fairly shallow water, was so excited by the sight of the orange painted canoes that it leaped into the air and struck Harper Boyd on the side of the face.

Demand Screens for Canoes.

This evening the boys were calling for screens around the canoes, as the Fox river bass seem to be stampeding for the Boy Scout ticket as represented by this group of Chicago lads.

Col. McCormick drove down to the camp tonight after dinner and spent an hour inspecting it and talking things over with the boys. The Scouts had prepared for his visit by building a huge campfire on the river bank and pitching their tents in military formation.

Col. McCormick told them stories of the war, touching especially upon the value of knowledge of the compass, illustrating his remarks with stories of how he used a compass on the western front and traveled by the stars at night when placing an artillery battery in position. The boys found especial interest in his remarks about learning how to "live off the land" by acquiring a knowledge of what plants may be eaten, for earlier in the evening they had gathered a large mess of water cress from a spring on his farm and had used it for a salad which was a big part of their dinner.

Col. McCormick witnessed a short tilting contest and inspected the camp's prize winning tent before leaving.

Tomorrow morning the boys will turn back the pages of Fox river history to the early 18th century, when they hike a quarter of a mile from the Plano bridge to Meramech hill, the site of an ancient Indian village and battleground, where a bitter fight between the Fox Indians and the French and their allies was fought in 1730.

BEST PART OF DAY'S WORK

There's nothing like paddling a canoe to work up a good appetite. Boy Scouts on the Tribune's fifth annual cruise prove it whenever the mess call sounds. Here they are showing what they can do to a good lunch at their camp on the Fox river near Plano, Ill.

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

In the Wake of the News

NEW TENNIS STAR.

SEVERAL years ago The Wake gave up hope of recapturing the Davis international tennis trophy from the French through the waning physical powers—note we did not say waning skill—of Big Bill Tilden and Little Bill Johnston, who bore the brunt of contention for a decade. This opinion evidently was shared by Johnston, who retired from tournament play, while Tilden ended his long quarrel with the U. S. L. T. A. over his amateur status by turning pro.

At that time we predicted eventual lifting of the bowl by a new crop of young American players who then were not particularly promising, with the exception of George Lott. Then along came Doeg, Shields, Allison, Wood, Van Ryn, and last year Vines. Now we have Frankie Parker, the 16 year old Milwaukee schoolboy who last week won the western title at River Forest after having downed Lott in a five set match on his way to the finals. That Parker's victory was not entirely an "upset" was shown in a five set match which he lost to Lott for Tri-state honors.

Parker thus becomes one of our most promising youngsters in a sport which requires almost constant practice and play if one is to become and remain an internationalist. If he continues to improve, and there is no reason to think he will not, despite his height, he no doubt will be found among the youngsters who eventually will win back and defend that cup. Height was not a serious handicap to Little Bill Johnston.

Looking back over Davis cup history we find tenure usually hinged upon at least two outstanding stars who gave their nation world supremacy for a few years and finally succumbed to oncoming stars. Here is a brief summary:

1900-1902—United States, Malcolm Whitman and Dwight F. Davis, former secretary of war.

1903-1906—Great Britain, the great Doherty brothers.

1907-1911 — Australia, Anthony Wilding, who later lost his life in the great war, and Norman E. Brookes.

1912 — Great Britain, with Parke and Dixon, beat Australia. Wilding did not play.

1913—United States, Maurice McLoughlin, E. Norris Williams, and H. H. Hackett.

1914—Australia, Wilding and Brookes.

1915 — Australia, Patterson and Anderson against Great Britain.

1916-1919—World war.

1920-1926—Tilden and Johnston, with R. Norris Williams usually in doubles, Vincent Richards singles in 1924, and doubles 1925 and 1926.

1927-1931—France, reign of Rene Lacoste, Henri Cochet, Jean Borotra, and Jacques Brugnon, a quartet now beginning to wane.

* *

Presidential Odds.

We doubt whether the gentlemen of Wall street know any more about it than any one else — evidently they knew little more about the market—but even in advance of the Democratic nomination there is advance betting on the presidential result. For those who care for that sort of thing, our commissioner informs us President Hoover has been made advance favorite at odds of 4 to 5.

* *

Dumbbell Pomes.

I ask if Jack's mother of beanstalk lore,
No matter how angry, no matter how sore,
Would have flung the hat of beans away
If depression was then as it is today?

Rosalie G. Mendel.

* *

This Wake Is Conducted By Harvey T. Woodruff. Help! Help!

* *

Thought of the Day.

In trying to balance its budget the government automatically has unbalanced ours. F. P.

* *

Holes in One.

Gretchen Sibley, Sandwich, Ill., third hole, 133 yards.

Jock Anderson, Techny Fields, fourteenth hole, 235 yards.

Miss Billie Riese, Woodruff G. C., Joliet, fourteenth hole, 175 yards.

Hamilton Klorfine, Garfield park, fourth hole, 157 yards.

* *

Wise Cracking.

Women who think they are so important should remember that Eve was only a side issue.

Sherman Stetson.

* *

Do You Remember Way Back When:

Shoes were made in straight lasts only — no rights or lefts — and half soles were put on with square wooden pegs [1866]?—W. M. W.

WINS BOUQUET PURSE AT MILE; CANRON IS THIRD

Liqueur Gold Coast Stake Victor.

BY FRENCH LANE.

The old feud between Audley farm's Late Date and Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Suntica, which developed in the Illinois Oaks four weeks ago, flared up again at Arlington Park yesterday and at the end of the Bouquet purse they were noses apart once more, fighting with all the heart and speed they possessed.

But this time Late Date's nose was in front. In the Illinois Oaks Suntica's muzzle bobbed under the wire the winner. So close together were they in yesterday's struggle down the stretch that at the windup the judges could have called it a dead heat and not have been far wrong.

The race was the final tune up for seven candidates in the Arlington Oaks, scheduled for Saturday. Late Date ran the Hertz mile in 1:36 3-5, which was just a second slower than the Arlington track record. Canron, a flyer from the east with Jockey Sonny Workman in the saddle, also was moving fast toward the finish, but she was four lengths back of the two leaders in third place.

Beat Off Kakapo.

Suntica, Late Date, and Canron absorbed most of the betting support, but from the way the field fought it out going down the long back stretch, it was any horse's race. Suntica, Kakapo, and Boiling Water fought for the lead for the first half mile, then Suntica's new burst of speed carried her to the front. As she moved out, Schutte shot Late Date up from the rear into third place.

They rounded the last turn and straightened out down the stretch with Suntica leading Kakapo by a head and Late Date only a head back in third place.

It was evident now that one of the great battles of the year was to take place at Arlington and the 8,500 spectators came to their feet screaming.

Kakapo didn't last long after Suntica and Late Date had started their battle. Suntica was game and so was Late Date. Their strides were in perfect step. They were as nearly on even terms as it is possible for two flying horses to be.

Late Date Pays $6.06.

One had to weaken, but it didn't happen until the very last strides. Late Date had one last burst of speed left. She shot forward just in the nick of time. Schutte on Late Date and Maiben on Suntica had ridden desperately on these fast, courageous fillies. If the eastern stars, Top Flight and Evening, think they have the Arlington Oaks between them they had better study yesterday's chart.

When the betting ended Late Date and Canron were equal first choices, with Suntica next in line. Late Date paid $6.06 to win, $3.34 to place, and $2.30 to show. Suntica was at $3.50 to place and $2.40 to show. Canron's show price was $2.42.

The battle between the leading Oaks candidates attracted even more attention than the Gold Coast stakes, which had a gross value of $4,140 and was contested by some of the top-notch 2 year olds.

Liqueur Nears Record.

Liqueur, a son of Supremus, carried the blue and white of Hal Price Headley of Kentucky to victory. After making all the pace and leading by a couple of lengths most of the way, Liqueur weakened in the final strides, but was able to beat Old Hillside by half a length. Finishing with a rush, but able to land only third money, was Llandaff, an eastern colt from W. R. Coe's stable.

Liqueur neared the track record when he finished out the 5½ furlongs in 1:05 3-5. He didn't have so many backers and paid $15.38.

That old Phar Lap combination of Trainer Tommy Woodcock and Jockey Bill Elliott had its first taste of victory in Chicago in the Glen Gowrie purse at six furlongs, which engaged 10 three year olds. It won with Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Sunmelus and did it fairly easily by a couple of lengths from Mrs. John Hertz's Watch Him and Big Brand.

The Australians came in for a big hand when Sunmelus was led into the winner's circle by Woodcock. The Kilmer colt was heavily backed and paid $5.06.

PARKER ADVANCES TO THIRD ROUND OF OHIO TOURNEY

Cleveland, O., June 28.—(AP)—Frank Parker of Milwaukee, favorite to win the Ohio state tennis championship, got away to a flying start today with two victories in which he lost only two games.

The 16 year old Wisconsin youth easily outplayed Al More of Youngstown, 6-0, 6-0, in the first round and then conquered John Virden of Cleveland, 6-0, 6-2.

Frankie Petrolle Wins Easily from Battalino

New York, June 28.—(AP)—Frankie Petrolle, Schenectady, N. Y., welterweight, easily outpointed Christopher [Bat] Battalino of Hartford, Conn., former world's featherweight champion, in a ten round bout at the Queensboro stadium tonight. Petrolle weighed 142 pounds; Battalino 141½.

PLAYFOLE, 12 TO 1 SHOT, SCORES IN AQUEDUCT STAKE

Argosie Places, Parry 3d in Four Horse Field.

TODAY'S SELECTIONS

ARLINGTON PARK.

1—Go Easy, Fair Crest, Rex Regent.
2—Red Whisk, Audley farm entry, Bronze Saint.
3—Sundot, Finite, Magnifico.
4—Bright Bird, Blackstrap, Easy.
5—Stepenfechit, Marmion, Our Fancy.
6—UPRIGHT, Bub McGarland, Come On.
7—Culloden, Dodgson, Gabbo.

LATONIA.

1—Tweezer, Clasby's Choice, Bob's Luck.
2—Hernando, Arouse, Chuck B.
3—1 Pass, Surely, Winding On.
4—Billie's Orphan, Baggage Miss, Glamorous.
5—PLAYTIME, Hoops, Manta.
6—Brookside, Bill Looney, Town Limit.
7—Bros Blair, Step Gap, Bunch of Lillies.
8—Rusty, Angry, Birthday Gift.

AQUEDUCT.

1—March King, Royal Express, Sun Alley.
2—Dark Charmer, Marvella, Just Imagine.
3—Our Johnny, All Stakes, Air Minded.
4—Indian Town, Okapi, Hidora.
5—SEMAPHORE, War Plane, Magyar.
6—Make Haste, Croyden, Prince Bonnie.

New York, June 28.—[Special.]—Although only four horses faced the barrier in the mile and a sixteenth of the Gazelle stakes, feature event of the Aqueduct program today, S. L. Burch's much improved Playfole, Argosie, and Parry finished in that order, heads apart, in a nip and tuck finish. The winner earned $2,500. An outsider in the small field, she returned 12 to 1. The time was 1:45 2-5.

The field was dispatched in good order, but Parry, the favorite, was slow to get in stride. Unique went to the front and Jockey Mills opened up a three length lead rounding the far turn. Argosie and Playfole moved up entering the stretch, with Parry saving ground on the rail. In the middle of the stretch there was a general closing up and Argosie took command when Unique tired.

Playfole Taken Outside.

Parry entered contention on the inside, while Jockey Hanford elected to go to the outside with Playfole in the firmer footing. This move proved beneficial, as the filly responded gamely and in a long drive just got up to gain the decision. Argosie, however, was extended to the limit to withstand the challenge of Parry, but held on well to save the place.

Dynastic, 1 to 3 favorite, after getting away slowly, closed courageously to gain a head verdict over White Thorn and four other juveniles in the six furlongs of the fifth number. Big Leaguer was third. The time was 1:13 4-5.

Jamison by Half Length.

Jamison, favorite over his four rivals in the seven furlongs of the Francesco handicap, secondary feature, closed gamely through the stretch to score a half length decision over Delicacy, with Portden third. Spinach showed plenty of early speed and gained a three length advantage rounding the turn out of the backstretch. On the lower turn Jamison and Portden charged on the leader and the latter quit. In the run to the wire Jamison disposed of Portden, but had to be ridden out to hold the fast closing Delicacy safe in the final drive.

The winner returned 8 to 5 and was timed in 1:25 2-5.

SIX BOATS RACE TODAY FOR MODEL YACHT CROWN

The Bostonia V, owned by John Black of Boston, Mass., is favored to win the national championship of the Model Yacht Racing association of America this morning in the finals of the annual meet. The race will start at 8:30 o'clock at the Lief Erickson pond, opposite the Chicago Beach hotel.

Five other yachts will compete. Bostonia V, winner of the eastern championship, arrived in Chicago with the second and third place winners, Trial, owned by Roy Manning of New York, and Yankee Doodle, property of S. H. Cox of Cleveland, O.

The western division champions are the Mizpah, owned by E. L. Cheney of Sagatuck, Mich., and a model of the large yacht owned by Commander Eugene F. McDonald; Aurora, owned by G. Baron of the Ogden Park Model Yacht club of Chicago, and the Bostonia II., owned by Gordon Cawthara of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The winner of the national title will be sent to Europe to compete in international races. The annual banquet of the association will be held tonight at the Chicago Beach hotel.

Berg and Chocolate Will Meet in 15 Rounds July 11

New York, June 28.—(AP)—Jackie Kid Berg, British lightweight, and Kid Chocolate, Cuban Negro, agreed today to box 15 rounds July 11 in Madison Square Garden's new bowl on Long Island. The weight was set at 137 pounds. Berg won their first contest, a 10 round decision bout, in August of 1930.

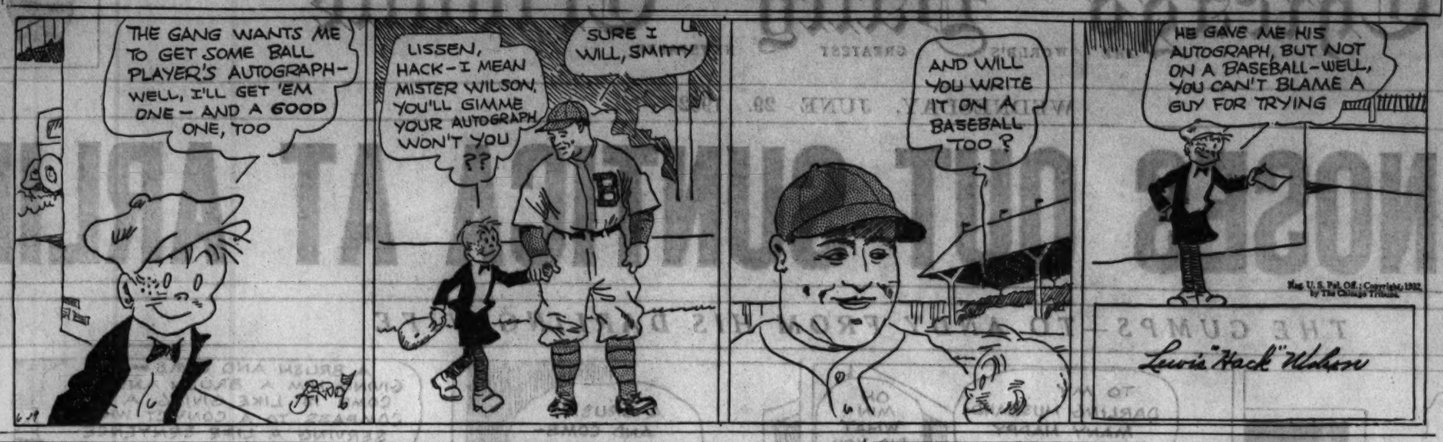
Early Arrivals Try Out Western Open Course; Par Is 72

Cleveland, O., June 28.—[Special.]—Entrants in the western open golf championship which will begin here Thursday over the Canterbury course began arriving today, although Gene Sarazen, winner of the national open, was not among them and no word had been received from him.

The course, which is spread across a rolling hilltop, 1,100 feet above sea level was in excellent shape for low scoring. The rough is thick, but is not high. The course carries a par of 72 with a premium placed on long, accurate tee shots. Approaches to practically all of the greens are narrow and sloping.

Ed Dudley of Concordville, Pa., the defending champion, was one over perfect figures today along with Denny Shute of Hudson, O., while Tommy Armour of Detroit went two over.

SMITTY—WRITE YOU ARE



NEWS FROM THE RACE TRACKS

ARLINGTON PARK CHART.

FIRST RACE—Weather clear. Track fast. Six furlongs. Three year olds and up. Claiming. Purse $1,200. Net value to winner, $850; second, $200; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Horse and Jockey—	Wt	PP	St	¼	½	Str	Fin	Eq odds
*FIDDLER [D. Meade]	120	9	8	6½	5½	4½	1h	2.45-1
FLAG TIME [G. Wood]	120	7	1	3h	1h	1½	2nk	6.00-1
GRAND PRINCE [R. Jones]	120	4	4	4½	3h	2½	3nk	3.20-1
*DON ROMERO [T. P. Martin]	106	3	6	2h	2½	3h	4½	9.40-1
*HOT SHOT [E. Arcaro]	115	1	3	1½	2½	2½	5½	17.00-1
TORCHEAU [F. Chiavetta]	120	8	7	7½	7½	6h	6h	5.60-1
*SUTTOR [W. Wright]	115	5	5	5½	6½	7½	7h	38.00-1
*NIGHT VINTAGE [V. Glorioso]	109	6	9	7½	7h	5h	8h	†79.10-1
*SEMESTER [J. Neel]	109	10	2	9h	9h	9h	9h	†79.20-1
FLYING CHEROKEE [W. Frook]	120	4	11	10½	10h	10h	10h	26.50-1
LOYAL COMPANION [C. Critchfield]	109	11	10	11	11	11	11	†70.10-1

*Apprentice allowance claimed. †Field. Time, :23, :46, 1:11 3-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Fiddler, $6.90 straight, $5.44 place. $2.62 show; Flag Time, $6.82 place $3.68 show; Grand Prince, $2.72 show. Winner trained by A. Pelletert. Went to post at 2:33¾. At post 4¼ minutes. Start good from gate. Won driving; place same.

SECOND RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Two year olds. Claiming. Purse $1,200. Net value to winner, $850; second, $200; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Horse and Jockey—	Wt	PP	St	¼	½	Str	Fin	Eq odds
MR. JOE [R. Jones]	113	13	1	2h	1h	1½	1½	1.75-1
*POLYPHOTE [E. Arcaro]	105	6	4	5½	5½½	5h	2nk	2.80-1
LILLIAN Z. [J. Leyland]	109	14	5	6h	4h	3h	3½	6.00-1
HOUR ZEV [A. Anderson]	115	10	3	2h	3h	4h	4½	†11.90-1
*SALINAS [W. Chidzey]	104	12	2	1h	2h	2h	5h	17.50-1
*FATELY LADY [M. Lewis]	106	7	11	10h	10h	9h	6h	20.40-1
MR. SWIFT [D. McAuliffe]	115	6	8	9½	8½	7h	7h	27.70-1
TOM JACK JR. [C. Landolt]	112	4	10	11½	11½	10½	8½	†11.90-1
PRINCE MACKW [C. Critchfield]	109	1	9	8h	6h	8h	9h	†11.90-1
*PRINCE DUNROYAL [A. Richard]	106	3	7	4h	7h	6h	10h	†11.90-1
JIMANEE [G. Wood]	117	3	12	12h	12h	12h	11h	13.77-1
*FREE ADVICE [V. Glorioso]	108	2	13	14	13h	13h	12½	†11.90-1
CONCISION [W. Frook]	109	9	6	3h	5h	5h	13h	20.50-1
DOUBLE DECK [J. Renick]	100	11	14	13h	14	14	14	†11.90-1

*Apprentice allowance claimed. †Field. Time, :23, :46 3-5, :59 3-5, 1:06 1-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Mr. Joe, $5.40 straight, $2.68 place, $2.38 show; Polyphote, $3.58 place, $2.90 show; Lillian Z., $3.26 show. Winner trained by C. C. Van Meter. Went to post at 3:07. At post 3 minutes. Start good from gate. Won easily; place driving.

THIRD RACE—Three-fourths mile. Three year olds. Allowances. Purse $1,200. Net value to winner, $850; second, $200; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Horse and Jockey	Wt	PP	St	¼	½	Str	Fin	Eq odds
SUNMELUS [W. Elliott]	112	3	2	2h	1h	1½	1½	1.55-1
WATCH HIM [E. Steffen]	110	4	3	3h	3h	4h	2½	2.47-1
BIG BRAND [C. E. Allen]	112	10	7	6½	5½½	3h	3h	3.35-1
JOCKEY [R. Schutte]	107	1	1	1h	2h	2h	4h	21.00-1
CHESNEY [J. Renick]	110	1	4	4h	4h	5h	5h	83.74-1
SIR SATIN [R. Jones]	112	6	5	5h	7h	7h	6h	31.28-1
DOORNOCH [J. Workman]	113	7	8	7h	6h	6h	7h	14.90-1
DATTNER [W. Lowe]	110	3	10	10	10	10	8h	†11.90-1
SOUTHTOUR [L. Fator]	108	5	1	1h	3h	8h	9h	318.03-1
LADY TEDDY [E. Ambrose]	108	2	6	5½	6h	9h	10	112.78-1

Time, :23, :46 3-5, 1:11 2-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Sunmelus, $5.06 straight, $2.66 place, $2.24 show; Watch Him, $3.66 place, Big Brand, $2.60 show. Winner trained by T. Woodcock. Went to post at 3:37. At post 1¼ minutes. Start good from gate. Won easily; place driving.

FOURTH RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Two year olds. Claiming. Purse. $2,500 added. Net value to winner, $3,290; second, $500; third, $250; fourth, $100.

Horse and Jockey	Wt	PP	St	¼	½	Str	Fin	Eq odds
*LIQUEUR [T. P. Martin]	103	1	3	1½	1½	1½	1½	6.60-1
OLD HILLSIDE [D. Meade]	108	3	2	2h	2h	2h	2h	9.35-1
LLANDAFF [R. Jones]	108	8	5	5h	4½	3h	3½	3.95-1
LERACK [C. E. Allen]	109	6	4	3½	3h	4½	4h	55.94-1
LE BRUYERE [J. Pollard]	118	9	1	4h	5h	5h	5½	14.90-1
STRIDEAWAY [E. Ambrose]	108	4	6	8h	8½½	8½½	6½	20.07-1
METAURUS [H. Schutte]	108	7	9	6h	6h	7h	7h	4.45-1
OPINION [W. Frook]	114	5	8	9	9	9	8h	6.35-1
MORNING [L. Fator]	114	2	7	7½½	7½½	8h	9	4.85-1

*Apprentice allowance claimed. Time, :22 4-5, :46, :59, 1:05 3-5. Two dollar mutuels paid; Liqueur, $15.38 straight, $7.74 place, $5.44 show; Old Hillside, $7.00 place, $5.32 show; Llandaff, $3.64 show. Winner trained by D. A. Headley. Went to post at 4:07½. At post 1 minute. Start good from gate. Won driving; place same.

FIFTH RACE—One mile. Hertz course. Three year olds. Allowances. Purse $1,500. Net value to winner, $1,100; second, $225; third, $125; fourth, $50.

Horse and Jockey	Wt	PP	St	¼	½	Str	Fin	Eq odds
LATE DATE [H. Schutte]	108	2	5	5h	4h	3½	1h	2.05-1
SUNTICA [J. Maiben]	117	4	2	2h	1h	1½	2½	3.65-1
CANRON [R. Workman]	113	7	6	7	5½	4h	3nk	2.05-1
GALA FLIGHT [E. Leischman]	113	6	7	6h	7	5½	4h	18.60-1
KAKAPO [E. Steffen]	117	5	1	2h	2½	2h	5h	10.35-1
BOILING WATER [L. Fator]	108	1	3	1h	3h	6½	6½	23.55-1
POLONAISE [L. Knapp]	113	8	7	4½	6½	7	7	64.26-1

Time, :23 2-5, :46 2-5, 1:11 2-5, 1:36 3-5. Two dollar mutuels paid; Late Date, $6.06 straight, $3.34 place, $2.30 show; Suntica, $3.50 place, $2.40 show; Canron, $2.42 show. Winner trained by K. Spence. Went to post at 4:37. At post 1 minute. Start good from gate. Won driving; place same.

SIXTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles. Three year olds and up. Claiming. Purse $1,200. Net value to winner, $850; second, $200; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Horse and Jockey—	Wt	PP	St	¼	½	Str	Fin	Eq odds
INHERITOR [W. Saunders]	108	8	3	3h	1½	1½	1½	2.05-1
*SANTON [W. Wright]	108	7	4	2h	2½	2½	2½	2.65-1
*WHO WIN [J. Neel]	108	4	1	1h	3½½	3h	3h	17.20-1
BLUE LAW [C. Critchfield]	113	1	10	10	10	6h	4h	3.27-1
RED DARK [R. Schutte]	113	2	9	8h	8h	7½	5h	12.55-1
SEARINGTON [J. Leyland]	113	5	7	7h	7½	8h	6h	50.61-1
CATALAN'S IDOL [D. Meade]	101	9	8	6h	5h	4½	7½	104.23-1
DIXIE LAD [C. E. Allen]	113	10	6	9½	9h	9h	8½	12.18-1
*WAR TIME [T. P. Martin]	108	10	6	3h	6h	10	9½	24.20-1
BIRD OF PREY [E. Leischman]	113	2	2	4h	2h	5h	10	70.31-1

*Apprentice allowance claimed. Time, :24 3-5, :48, 1:13, 1:38 4-5, 1:51 3-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Inheritor, $8.04 straight, $4.56 place, $3.30 show; Santon, $3.70 place, $2.28 show. Who Win, $4.30 show. Winner trained by Whitehill. Went to post at 5:06. At post 4¼ minutes. Start good from gate. Won easily; place driving.

SEVENTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles. Three year olds and up. Claiming. Purse $1,200. Net value to winner, $850; second, $200; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Horse and Jockey—	Wt	PP	St	¼	½	Str	Fin	Eq odds
PREFER [T. P. Martin]	98	3	4	2½	2h	1½	1h	1.07-1
*CALOME [W. Wright]	108	11	9	6h	5h	3h	2h	12.25-1
TYPHOON [J. Pollard]	110	7	8	8h	8½½	5h	3h	40.80-1
LUCKY CARTER [G. Wood]	113	4	1	1h	1½	2½½	4h	12.10-1
*CRYOUT [T. Salazar]	108	1	2	3h	4½	4½	5h	43.63-1
*LADRONE [R. Arcaro]	108	10	12	13	12	9½	6½	9.27-1
*PUNISHMENT [W. Saunders]	108	8	6	9½	7½	6½	7½	6.85-1
HARUM SCARUM [H. Schutte]	108	2	3	12½	11h	11½	8h	10.90-1
PRINCESS A. A. [R. Laurin]	102	13	10	10½	10½	10h	9h	†21.16-1
PLUTARCH [J. Harrison]	113	2	2	4h	3h	7½	10½	†21.16-1
JUST ORMONT [D. Meade]	100	1	13	11½	13½½	12½	11½	†21.16-1
TAIL WIND [M. Lewis]	103	5	11	7h	9h	13½	12½	†21.16-1
PENRO [R. Workman]	113	12	5	3½	4½	12½	13	7.15-1

*Apprentice allowance claimed. †Field. Time, :24, :47 3-5, 1:12 1-5, 1:38 1-5, 1:51 4-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Prefer, $5.04 straight, $4.68 place, $3.40 show; Calome, $13.42 place, $11.70 show; Typhoon, $23.78 show. Winner trained by D. A. Headley. Went to post at 5:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good from gate. Won driving; place same.

ARLINGTON PARK ODDS & JOCKEYS

FIRST RACE—Claiming, 2 year olds, 5½ furlongs:

Horse.	P. P.	Wt.	Jockey.	Odds.
Go Easy	4	109	No boy	15-1
Fair Crest	10	109	C. Landolt	10-1
Rex Regent	5	112	D. Meads	3-1
Sallie Bourland	1	109	No boy	4-1
Old Judge	7	112	F. Chiavetti	4-1
Midshipman	18	112	H. Schutte	8-1
Monks Bela	6	108	No boy	8-1
Spot Pot	9	109	M. Lewis	8-1
Sarsita	16	107	No boy	15-1
Mintie	19	109	No boy	15-1
Vennie H.	13	112	No boy	15-1
Flying D's	17	112	E. Ambrose	15-1
Bimini	12	104	No boy	20-1
Baggage Master	3	112	J. Pollard	20-1
Dug In	2	112	G. Woolf	30-1
Go Fetch	8	114	No boy	30-1
Brilliant Girl	11	109	A. Anders'n	30-1
Artistry	14	107	No boy	30-1
Boots Moorland	15	109	No boy	30-1
Lotus Bud	20	109	No boy	30-1

SECOND RACE—2 year olds, 5½ furlongs:

Red Whisk	10	116	H. W. Fisher	2-1
Snaplock	2	110	C. E. Allen	3-1
Bronze Saint	6	106	L. Fator	4-1
Primate	4	103	R. Jones	8-1
Pomponius	8	106	L. Knapp	20-1
‡Parting Shot	9	106	No boy	30-1
†Trace Call	1	110	B. Schuttte	30-1
Lord Raglan	5	106	R. Carter	20-1
†Fanfern	3	103	H. Schutte	30-1
†Fetch	7	106	No boy	30-1

†Audley farm stable entry; ‡H. P. Headley entry.

THIRD RACE—3 year olds and up, 6 furlongs:

Sundot	1	114	G. Woolf	8-5
Don Leon	2	112	J. Pollard	3-1
Finite	7	110	L. McAtee	3-1
Magnifico	3	110	R. Workman	4-1
Karl Eitel	6	105	D. Deprema	20-1
La Salle	4	105	R. Jones	20-1
Grantor	5	102	C. Critch'd	30-1

FOURTH RACE—Claiming, 3 year olds, 1 mile:

Blackstrap	10	112	G. Woolf	2-1
Marlene	11	109	D. Meade	3-1
On Sir	3	113	F. Chiavetti	8-1
Wise Advocate	1	104	No boy	6-1
Durango	17	113	R. Jones	8-1
Hatteras	5	109	A. Richard	10-1
Worldly Lad	18	111	L. Fator	15-1
Bright Bird	7	109	J. Maiben	15-1
Unencumbered	8	111	D. M'Auliffe	20-1
Shiva	12	104	No boy	20-1
Black Board	2	106	J. Renick	15-1
Easy	15	109	No boy	20-1
Gala Flight	4	102	C. Landolt	20-1
Etiwanda	13	109	C. E. Allen	30-1
Straightaway	6	109	No boy	30-1
Sophist	14	101	No boy	30-1
Ante	9	99	H. L. Fisher	30-1
Trinsale	16	99	No boy	30-1

FIFTH RACE—One mile, Garfield stakes. 3 year olds:

Springsteel	9	115	No boy	3-1
Stepenfetchit	14	112	C. E. Allen	5-2
Cathop	6	112	No boy	8-1
†Yonkel	5	110	J. Maiben	6-1
Adobe Post	8	115	C. Landolt	6-1
Our Fancy	11	115	R. Jones	10-1
Masked Knight	2	112	L. Knapp	15-1
Marmion	3	112	M. Lewis	15-1
Crystal Prince	13	112	No boy	15-1
Everguld	4	112	No boy	20-1
Flying Home	7	102	No boy	20-1
Snobful	12	112	R. Workman	30-1
†Kibitzer	1	110	M. Lewis	6-1
Rowdy Boy	10	110	E. Ambrose	30-1

†A. Bartelstein entry.

SIXTH RACE—1⅛ miles, claiming, 3 year olds and up:

Upright	1	109	W. Wright	8-2
Bob McFarland	8	114	J. Maiben	8-2
Stone Martin	6	112	No boy	4-1
Garlic	3	112	N. Tromberio	6-1
Come On	7	117	A. Richard	8-1
Chosen Pal	5	102	No boy	10-1
Dis Dame	4	104	No boy	30-1
Knobigh	2	97	T. P. Martin	30-1
Typhoon	9	114	M. Lewis	30-1

SEVENTH RACE—1¼ miles, claiming, 3 year olds and up:

Ultramarine	5	104	T. Salazar	4-1
Gabbo	14	109	W. Wright	3-1
Princella	1	95	H.L. Fischer	10-1
Dodgson	7	111	W. Fronk	8-1
Haramzada	4	111	E. Ambrose	8-1
Culloden	10	114	C. E. Allen	6-1
Water Port	13	109	R. Jones	8-1
White Legs	9	111	M. Lewis	15-1
Crushed Stone	12	106	No boy	15-1
Niato	10	101	T.P. Martin	15-1
Jodhpur	2	111	No boy	15-1
Sunfire	3	111	No boy	15-1
Seth's Ballot	19	106	No boy	20-1
Fortune's Fa'ite	15	111	G. Woolf	20-1
Curtsey	8	101	No boy	30-1
Our Pal	11	106	No boy	30-1
Tea Green	6	106	E. Arcaro	30-1
Ormontime	18	111	J. W. Frye	30-1
Jack Pulpit	17	105	No boy	30-1
Prudy Basil	20	101	No boy	30-1

MRS. COPELAND TOPS MEMBERS IN CALUMET GOLF

Mrs. A. R. Copeland scored 92 to win low gross for members in the annual ladies' dress day and golf tournament at the Calumet Country club yesterday. Mrs. W. L. Bolte, with a 91, captured low gross for guests. More than 100 competed.

Turning in a card of 104—24—80, Mrs. E. R. Atwell took first low net for guests, while Mrs. A. T. Brainerd captured the members' award with 115—33—82. Mrs. John Dixon and Mrs. Thomas P. Ernest tied for the low putts prize with 29. Mrs. Edwin D. Huntington won the blind bogey event with 94.

Player Hit on Head by Pitched Ball Is Dead

Dubuque, Ia., June 28.—[Special.]—Hit on the head by a pitched ball in a semi-pro game near here Sunday, Carl Thoenissen, 22, died in a hospital here today. An operation which was undertaken to save his life failed.

LATONIA ENTRIES.

FIRST RACE—Purse $900, for maiden 3 year olds and up; 6 furlongs.

Clasby's Choice	112	Light Eagle	107
Louie Dear	112	Swift and True	112
Prince Herbert	112	Pompatic	112
Storm Ange	112	Twceny	107
Minnie Gaze	107	Tonow	107
Harvest Sun	118	Master Singer	112
Prince Feather	108	Sidestep	112
Charlie Fat	112	Bob's Luck	107
Good Time Boy	112	Volan	112
Heavy Sugar	112	Jodie E.	107

[Clasby's Choice and Louise Dear, Jack Howard entry; Minnie Gaze and Heavy Sugar, Woodford & Stearns entry.]

SECOND RACE—Claiming, purse $900; for 2 year olds, 5½ furlongs:

Sun Boy	110	Slimoway	108
Hernando	118	Pink Slipper	105
Ridgewise	113	Polly Mac	108
Arouse	116	Sunlow	113
Chuck B.	116	Whirling	110
Woodstock	111	Captain Joy	111
Sweep Rush	113

THIRD RACE—Purse $900, for maiden 3 year olds and up, 6 furlongs:

Ledford	115	Lord Dean	112
Gaffney Queen	107	Minot	112
Surely	112	Keeter	112
Chemulin	107	Busy Bright	107
Winding On	112	I Pass	112
Gammerson	112	Lovely Woman	107
Honey Buster	110	Sulmul	110
By Gracious	107	Time to Fly	107
Quickaway	112	Orchestration	116
Donna C.	107

[Honey Buster and Sulmul, McGaffrey & Mulvehill entry.]

FOURTH RACE—Purse $1,000, allowances, for 3 year olds and up; mile and seventy yards:

Surf Board	114	Honey Locust	109
Play Time	114	Hoona	108
Manta	109	Ridgeview	109

SIXTH RACE—Claiming, purse $900, for 3 year olds and up; mile and seventy yards:

Limbus	113	Lanier	113
Black West	108	Brookside	108
Billy Looney	118	Downpour	113
Jack Murphy	118	Town Limit	109

SEVENTH RACE—Claiming, purse $900, for 4 year olds and up; 1⅛ miles:

*Black Dust	105	Morocco	113
Roxie Weidel	108	Jack Berry	113
Vesta	108	Draba	108
Major Lamplher	118	Allegretto	113
Helen Bond	108	*Step Gap	113
Jack Horgan	113	Drugzist	113
Ben Blair	113	Bunch of Lillies	108
Scarlet Brigade	113	Fair Manna	113

EIGHTH RACE—[Substitute] — Claiming, purse $900, for 3 year olds and up, 6 furlongs:

*Asserp	113	Sunny Susan	108
Gracious Gift	118	Mendell	113
Gibby's Choice	118	Sunlday	108
Dr. Parrish	118	*Rusty	113
Infinitive	113	Uncle Matt	118
Hamburger Jim	118	Jack Collins	118
Pat C.	113	Birthday Gift	118
Dunny Boy	113

Weather clear; track heavy.

LATONIA RESULTS.

FIRST RACE—Purse $800, claiming, maiden 2 year old colts and geldings, 5½ furlongs:

*Quiz, 113 [R. Fisher]	14.60	7.46	4.46
Yarnallton, 113 [Tilden]		13.78	7.18
Active Am., 113 [McCoy]			9.04

Time, 1:11 2-5. Mr Gentleman, Gun Strap, Indian Pal, Dalas Pal, Fair Delight, Fatidious, Mount Rainer, *Spike, and Sweet Flag ran. *Field.

SECOND RACE—Purse $900, claiming, 3 year olds and up, fillies and mares, 6 furlongs:

Journeys End, 117 [Garner]	4.72	3.32	2.68
D'Forme, 115 [McCoy]		3.00	6.42
Flying Silk, 108 [Thomas]			6.78

Time, 1:13 4-5. Ever Faithful, *Rare Charm, *Chattahoochee, Crossed Wires, Fine Flash, Absurdity, Lady Precious and Viba ran.

THIRD RACE—Purse $900, claiming, 3 year olds and up, 6 furlongs:

Ellen D., 110 [McCoy]	18.60	7.18	4.54
Brookside, 117 [Knight]		3.94	2.92
Worthy Pulse, 108 [Tilden]			17.36

Time, 1:15 2-5. San's Coin, Twilight Girl, Oilbway, Ellice, Fairy Lass, Little Cousin, and Lone Offering ran.

FOURTH RACE—Purse $1,000, allowances, 2 year olds, 5½ furlongs:

Oswego Princess, 110 [Laidler]	9.22	4.54	3.16
High Diver, 110 [Knight]		22.18	5.38
†Absolution, 110 [W. Garner]			5.00

Time, 1:10 4-5. †British Thrush, †Double Shuffle, Coast Patrol, Gay Heart, Gladys S., Mike Reynolds, *My Blaze, *Red Boot, and Justice Logan ran. *Field. †Greentree entry.

FIFTH RACE—Purse $900, claiming, 4 year olds and up, 1 mile 70 yards:

Chum, 108 [South]	9.60	5.18	3.68
Duelist, 115 [J. Smith]		4.42	3.10
Respond, 118 [Hardy]			3.38

Time, 1:48 2-5. Noinam, Big Bo, Corbeau, Deemster, and Cherokee Ridge ran.

SIXTH RACE—Purse $900, claiming, 3 year olds, 1 mile 70 yards:

Zevar, 115 [Corbett]	3.94	4.02	2.64
Delven, 108 [W. Hiter]		20.38	9.10
Prince Volta, 103 [Smith]			5.00

Time, 1:48 1-5. Jane Packard, Darwin, Bob Custer, Happy Play, White Collar, Elkay W., and Noelwood ran.

SEVENTH RACE—Purse $900, claiming, 3 year olds, 1 mile 70 yards:

Nurvera, 110 [South]	15.42	6.58	4.02
Gunzler, 113 [Knight]		12.60	7.82
Pretti Sinz, 108 [Reno]			10.32

Time, 1:48 3-5. Brush Down, Zeus Prince, Hasola, Jack B., Last Attempt, Wood Honey, and Different ran.

AQUEDUCT ENTRIES.

FIRST RACE—Purse $800, conditions, maidens, 5 furlongs:

Sun Alley	115	Royal Express	115
Eye	115	March King	115
Mallmou	115	True Sweep	115
Terrier	113	Synata	115
Georgian	115	Octaruro	115
Easter Herald	115	Sand Runner	115

SECOND RACE—Purse $800, conditions, 3 year olds and up, 6½ furlongs:

Dark Charmer	110	Kybo	120
Pas Encore	110	Marvella	120
Urbanity II.	110	Anna V.	100
Just Imagine	110	Don't Blush	110

THIRD RACE—Purse $800, claiming, 3 year olds and up, 1 mile:

Vancey	105	Elcidio	109
Air Minded	103	*Prince Toy	109
All Stakes	105	*Cloudy Day	100
Concord	109	*Wonderful

BRAVES CLOSE IN ON CUBS; WHIP PHILLIES, 5 TO 2

Boston Percentage Point Behind in 3d Place.

Boston, Mass., June 28.—(AP)—Young Bobby Brown pitched the Braves into a virtual second place tie with the Cubs today, when he turned back the hard hitting Phillies, 5-2. The Braves are a lone percentage point back of the Cubs. It was the Hull youngster's seventh win in ten starts, and he yielded the enemy only four hits, striking out six and walking five.

The pair of Philadelphia tallies was unearned, Art Whitney and Virgil Davis scoring on wild throws by Bill Akers and Art Shires in the fourth.

In the last of that inning the Boston infielders made up for their boots by providing the Braves with their winning drive.

Wally Berger drew a pass to open that inning and Shires followed with a single. Akers scored both with a long double. Brown then banged out a single and scored Akers.

PHILADELPHIA.	Ab	R	H	P	A	BOSTON.	Ab	R	H	P	A
G.Davis,cf	4	0	2	2	0	M'ville,3b	4	2	2	2	4
Bartell,ss	3	0	0	1	1	U'nski,ss	3	0	2	2	0
Klein,rf	4	0	0	2	0	Moore,rf	3	0	0	2	0
Hurst,1b	3	0	0	5	1	W'ington,lf	4	0	1	2	0
W'ney,3b	4	1	1	2	1	Berger,cf	3	1	0	7	0
Lee,lf	2	0	0	6	0	Shires,1b	4	1	1	4	0
V.Davis,c	4	1	0	4	1	Akers,3b	4	1	1	2	1
Friberg,2b	3	0	0	1	1	Spohrer,c	4	0	2	6	0
Collins,p	2	0	1	0	1	Brown,p	4	0	1	0	0
Berly,p	1	0	0	2	0
	*32	2	4	24	6		33	5	10	27	5

Brickell batted for Friberg and Heathcote batted for Berly in ninth.

Philadelphia	000	200	000—2
Boston	100	300	10*—5

Errors—Klein, Lee, Friberg, Shires, Akers. Runs batted in—Friberg, Akers (2), Worthington, Brown. Two base hits—Maranville, Akers. Stolen bases—G. Davis (2), Maranville, Urbanski. Sacrifices—Urbanski. Base on balls—Collins, 2; Brown, 5. Struck out—Collins, 1; Berly, 3; Brown, 6. Hits—Collins, 7 in 4 innings (none out in fifth); Berly, 3 in 4. Losing pitcher—Collins. Umpires—Moran and Magerkurth. Time, 2:07.

GIANTS, DODGERS DIVIDE.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—The Dodgers and the New York Giants split a double header today with Johnny Frederick figuring both as the goat and the hero. The Giants won the opener, 7-3, and Brooklyn the second game, 5-3. With the score tied in the ninth inning of the first game, a walk and two singles off Van Mungo loaded the bases and then Frederick muffed Terry's liner and let two runs score. Mungo followed with another error for two more tallies. Frederick broke another tie in the eighth inning of the second game by hitting a homer with one on to supply Brooklyn's winning runs.

NEW YORK.	Ab	R	H	P	A	BROOKLYN.	Ab	R	H	P	A
Critz,2b	5	1	3	0	3	Frdk,cf-rf	5	1	3	6	0
Fullis,lf	4	0	1	1	0	Finn,3b	5	0	0	0	6
J'Moore,lf	1	1	1	0	0	Stripp,1b	5	0	1	11	0
Terry,1b	5	1	0	9	0	Wilson,rf	2	0	1	1	0
Lind'm,3b	5	1	1	4	1	†Rosen'd	0	1	0	0	0
Ott,rf	4	0	1	0	0	Mungo,p	0	0	0	0	1
Hogan,c	5	0	0	7	0	Quinn,p	0	0	0	0	0
Allen,cf	4	1	1	3	0	Cuc'llo,2b	4	0	1	2	3
E.Moore,ss	2	1	2	2	4	O'Doul,lf	4	0	2	3	0
Fitzsim'ns,p	2	1	0	1	4	Slade,ss	4	0	2	3	1
Gibson,p	0	0	0	0	1	Suke'th,c	4	0	1	1	1
Walker,p	0	0	0	0	0	Heimach,p	3	0	0	0	4
						Taylor,cf	1	0	0	1	0
	*38	7	10	27	13		37	3	10	27	16

*Leslie batted for Gibson in ninth. †Ran for Wilson in eighth.

New York	001	100	104—7
Brooklyn	001	000	020—3

Errors—Fitzsimmons, Frederick, Mungo. Runs batted in—Fullis, Lindstrom, Critz, Frederick, Sukeforth (2). Two base hits—Critz, Frederick. Home runs—Lindstrom, Frederick, Scarsella—Fitzsimmons. Double play—Critz to E. Moore to Terry. Bases on balls—Fitzsimmons, 2; Mungo, 2. Struck out—Fitzsimmons, 2; Gibson, 2; Hits—Fitzsimmons, 7 in 7 innings (none out in 8th); Gibson, 2 in 1; Walker, 0 in 1; Heimach, 8 in 8; Mungo, 2 in 2-3; Quinn, 0 in 1-3. Hit by pitcher—Heimach (E. Moore). Winning pitcher—Gibson. Losing pitcher—Mungo. Umpires—Stark, Barr, and Klem. Time—2:05.

SECOND GAME.

NEW YORK.	Ab	R	H	P	A	BROOKLYN.	Ab	R	H	P	A
Critz,2b	5	1	1	2	2	Fred'rick,cf	5	1	1	1	0
J.Moore,lf	4	0	2	1	0	Finn,3b	4	1	1	2	0
L'dst'm,2b	5	0	0	0	2	Stripp,1b	5	0	1	8	0
Wilson,rf	4	0	2	4	1	Wilson,rf	4	0	2	4	1
Ott,rf	4	0	0	2	0	Cuc'llo,2b	3	0	1	1	3
Allen,cf	4	0	1	0	0	O'Doul,lf	3	2	1	0	0
E.Moore,ss	4	0	0	3	4	Slade,ss	3	0	0	4	3
O'Farrell,c	3	0	0	4	3	Lopez,c	3	1	1	9	1
Luque,p	2	0	0	1	2	Vance,p	2	0	1	0	3
*Fullis	1	0	1	0	0
Walker,p	0	0	0	0	1
	†37	3	9	24	12		32	5	11	27	12

*Batted for Luque in seventh.
†Leslie batted for Walker in ninth.

New York	000	001	000—3
Brooklyn	100	001	03*—5

Errors—Finn, Slade (2). Runs batted in—Terry (2), E. Moore, Stripp, Vance, Lopez, Frederick (2). Two base hits—J. Moore, Terry, Fullis, Slade, Wilson. Three base hit—Stripp. Home runs—Terry, Frederick. Stolen bases—E. Moore, Slade. Sacrifices—Vance (2), Slade. Double plays—Wilson to Lopez; Vance to Lopez to Stripp. Base on balls—Luque, 3; Walker, 1; Vance, 2. Struck out—Vance, 7; Luque, 3; Hits—Luque, 7 in 6 innings; Walker, 4 in 2. Losing pitcher—Walker. Umpires—Barr, Klem, and Stark. Time—3:15.

CARDS WHIP REDS, 6 TO 2.

Cincinnati, O., June 28.—(AP)—Pepper Martin bobbed up again to haunt the Cincinnati Reds today, his triple in the fourth startling the Reds into committing errors that gave the St. Louis Cardinals the game, 6 to 2.

The triple came after Flowers walked, the first Card to reach first. A passed ball promptly let Martin home. From there on the Reds went to pieces, fumbling, losing balls in the sun, and failing to capitalize on the six walks Bill Hallahan generously handed them.

ST. LOUIS.	Ab	R	H	P	A	CINCINNATI.	Ab	R	H	P	A
Flow'rs,3b	4	2	3	0	2	Gran'm,2b	3	0	0	1	4
Martin,cf	5	1	1	3	0	Gilbert,3b	4	1	2	2	3
Frisch,2b	4	0	0	8	4	Hend'k,lf	2	1	0	1	0
Collins,1b	4	0	2	5	1	Herman,rf	2	0	0	1	0
Blades,rf	2	0	0	2	0	L'mbardi,c	4	0	1	4	2
Watkins,rf	2	0	1	1	0	Roet'er,lf	4	0	1	3	0
O'sault,lf	3	0	0	1	0	Doutht'tt,cf	3	0	0	2	0
Mancuso,c	4	1	1	5	1	Dur'ch'r,ss	4	0	0	2	2
Gelbert,ss	4	0	1	1	4	Rixey,p	1	0	0	0	1
Hallah'n,p	5	1	1	0	0	*Ashy	1	0	0	0	0
						Frey,p	1	0	0	0	1
	36	6	10	27	12		29	2	4	27	13

*Batted for Rixey in 5th.

St. Louis	000	230	010—6
Cincinnati	000	002	000—2

Errors—Watkins, Gilbert Hendrick. Runs batted in—Flowers (2), Martin, Collins, Lombardi (2). Two base hits—Flowers, Roettger. Three base hit—Martin. Stolen base—Hallahan. Sacrifice—Hallahan. Double plays—Gelbert to Frisch to Collins; Flowers to Frisch to Collins; Gilbert to Hendrick. Base on balls—Hallahan, 6; Rixey, 1. Struck out—Hallahan, 4; Rixey, 1; Frey, 1. Hits—Rixey, 3 in 5 innings; Frey, 7 in 4. Passed ball—Lombardi. Losing pitcher—Rixey. Umpires—Reardon and Pfirman. Time, 1:59.

England Beats All-India Cricket Team by 158 Runs

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 28. — All-India's cricket team went down to defeat today, losing to England by 158 runs at Lord's in the only match of the season. England scored 259 and 275 in the match which started last Saturday, while All-India scored 189 and 187.

American Giants Defeat Louisville Again, 5 to 2

The American Giants scored their fourth victory over the Louisville Black Cats in the final five game series, 5 to 2, at the Giants' park yesterday. Powell hurled for the Giants and allowed only six hits. The Giants collected eight safeties off Carter.

DICK TRACY—The Firemen

Cubs Return for Course in Hitting Ball

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

The citizens are advised not to express surprise over the skimpy package fetched home by the Cubs yesterday after better than three weeks of touring through six cities of the National league circuit. The package contained only eight victories in twenty-one starts and all this is easily explained. The boys don't hit in the pinches and only the valiant work of the pitchers kept the jaunt from being close to a 100 per cent loss.

In their 21 appearances the Chicagoans rolled up a total of only 92 runs, some of which were the direct result of errors. Others were scored after boots had lost opportunities to retire the side. Eighty-six runs could be credited as having been driven in by batters, and that's an average of slightly above four a game, which is about the speed of a second division team.

Pitchers Work Hard to Win.

If there is any doubt about the pitchers having to win on their own skill or not win at all, take a glance at the scoring done in five of the eight battles which terminated favorably. Two of the games were won by 2 to 1. One was a 3 to 0 victory. Another was salvaged by 4 to 3, and still another by 5 to 3. In the three other successful engagements the Cubs actually did things in a big way. They registered on the right side of the ledger by 12 to 3, 9 to 5, and 7 to 5.

Six of the 13 defeats were suffered because the team could not furnish just a few more runs to some excellent pitching performances. These half dozen trimmings were assimilated by margins of 5 to 2, 4 to 3, 6 to 3, 4 to 2, 4 to 3, and 4 to 1. Half of these might have been turned the other way around if a long hit or two had been properly applied. But the man able to furnish that wallop for distance isn't available. So about the best the Cubs can hope for is that the pitchers, already complaining in a kidding way, don't blow up completely under the strain.

Cuyler Not Hitting.

The case of Ki Cuyler is the best indication of the seriousness of the situation. Cuyler, be it remembered, should rank with the leading hitters of the league. He's been in 12 games now since recovering from a fractured left foot. All he has done in those dozen battles is to drive in four runs.

If anything should happen to old folks Stephenson it would be just too bad for the Cub cause in general. The gentleman from Alabama has been going about his work in his usual quiet but effective manner. In the 21 games played since the team quit Wrigley field early this month Stephenson has managed to lead his mates in the matter of driving in runners. He accumulated a total of 13, but even this is just about half of what the man in the clean up post should do. He has hit well enough to drive in that number, but the men preceeding him aren't on base often enough to profit by his skill.

The Cubs did nothing yesterday except to try to forget their troubles. As a penalty for their poor showing while touring, Hornsby will have them in uniform today for an extensive batting drill against pitchers who are bearing down instead of merely lobbing up items that a schoolboy could slap effectively. Tomorrow business will be resumed against the Cincinnati Reds.

MIDWEST LEAGUE PLAYS 12 TWILIGHT GAMES THIS WEEK

Twelve twilight games are scheduled tonight, tomorrow and Friday in the Midwest league, in addition to a heavy program over the week-end. The games:

TONIGHT.
Speranta Boosters vs. Henrich Cleaners.
Paul Hollmans vs. Sheridans.

TOMORROW.
Cragin Merchants vs. Spencer Coals.
McGarry Boosters vs. Robinson Amphions.
Sheridans vs. Kellers.
West End Boosters vs. Damen Merchants.
Gubbins Boosters vs. Cragin Sportsmen.
Oscar F. Nelsons vs. Tallman Robbins.
Vincennes Giants vs. Elgin.

FRIDAY.
Tyson Monarchs vs. Union Giants.
St. Florian vs. Sacha East Side Maroons.
Arrow Giants vs. Donahue All Stars.

SATURDAY.
Sheridans vs. Park Ridge.

Tonelli Again Defeats Higgins in 3 Rounds

Laddie Tonelli administered another beating to Gene Higgins last night at the weekly amateur boxing show at the Western stadium. It was Tonelli's fourth victory over the C. Y. O. lightweight champion and last night's win was the most impressive. He had Higgins on the floor for a count of nine in the third round. Other results were:

Duffy Dvonch knocked out Bob Whitney (2).
Georgie Goodman beat George Haberski (3).
Heinrich Bock beat Adolph Gustavson (3).
Joe Belski beat Joe Cardella (3).
Joe Signack knocked out Sully Tonch (3).
Henry Fuscaldo beat Lenny Cohen (3).

Clarke Playground Wins from Gladstone, 22 to 4

The Clarke playground baseball team started its campaign for its third consecutive Board of Education Softball league championship by defeating Gladstone playground, 22 to 4, at Clarke's field yesterday. Vito Yario pitched for Clarke and yielded six hits.

LAST AMERICAN HOPE IN WIMBLEDON TENNIS

Ellsworth Vines, United States champion, who is the sole American survivor for the singles championship at Wimbledon. The lanky Californian, who has been erratic of late, seems to have settled down again and may retain for America the British title won by Sidney Wood last year.

Yankees' Two Homers Beat Senators, 5-2

New York, June 28.—[Special.]—The Yankees were on the short end of the little hitting allowed by Al Thomas and Johnny Allen, but made the most of their chances and defeated the Washington Senators, 5 to 2, today. Thomas yielded only four hits, but passed seven batsmen. Sewell and Lazzeri hit home runs for the Yankees.

WASHINGTON.	Ab	R	H	P	A	NEW YORK.	Ab	R	H	P	A
Judge,1b	3	1	0	10	0	C'mbs,cf-lf	2	1	1	3	0
Myer,2b	4	1	3	2	3	Sewell,3b	3	1	2	1	1
Manush,lf	4	0	1	4	0	Ruth,rf	4	0	0	0	0
Cronin,ss	4	0	0	1	2	Byrd,cf	4	0	0	0	0
Kerr'dg,rf	4	0	1	3	0	Gehrig,1b	3	0	0	9	1
West,cf	4	0	1	3	0	h'n'n,lf-rf	4	0	0	4	0
Bluege,3b	4	0	0	0	0	Dickey,c	4	0	0	6	0
Spencer,c	2	0	0	1	1	Lazzeri,2b	3	1	2	3	2
Manle,c	0	0	0	0	0	Larry,ss	3	1	1	2	2
Thomas,p	2	0	0	0	2	Allen,p	2	0	0	0	0
Coffman,p	0	0	0	0	1
	†33	2	6	24	9		28	5	4	27	6

†Rice batted for Spencer and Harris batted for Thomas in 8th.

Washington	000	001	001—2
New York	003	201	00*—5

Runs batted in—Sewell (2), Combs (2), Myer, Lazzeri, West. Two base hits—Reynolds. Three base hit—Myer. Home runs—Sewell, Lazzeri. Stolen base—Lazzeri. Double plays—Gehrig to Larry to Gehrig. Base on balls—Thomas, 7; Allen, 1. Struck out—Allen, 4. Hits—Thomas, 4 in 7 innings; Coffman, 0 in 1. Losing pitcher—Thomas. Umpires—Hildebrand, Dinneen and McGowan.

A'S DEFEAT RED SOX, 5-4.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 28.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics made a clean sweep of the three game series here with the Boston Red Sox today by putting on a two run rally in the eighth inning to win, 5 to 4. Miller's slide into second that upset Olson and caused him to make a wild throw with one out and the bases filled allowed the two runs to count in the eighth. Krausse, 19 year old right hander, went the distance for the A's in his first start of the season. He held the Sox to seven hits, one of which was a homer by Johnson.

BOSTON.	Ab	R	H	P	A	PHILADELPHIA.	Ab	R	H	P	A
J'nson,cf	3	2	1	5	0	W'lams,2b	3	0	0	3	3
Olson,2b	4	1	2	2	3	Cramer,cf	4	0	1	3	0
Stumpf,rf	3	1	2	2	0	C'hranc,lf	3	0	0	4	1
Jolley,lf	4	0	1	1	0	S'mons,lf	4	1	2	1	0
A'nder,1b	4	0	1	10	1	Foxx,1b	1	2	0	12	1
M'M'us,3b	3	0	1	1	2	Miller,rf	4	1	2	1	0
W'stler,ss	4	0	0	0	5	M'Nair,ss	4	0	1	0	5
Connolly,c	4	0	0	3	0	Dykes,3b	4	0	1	0	2
Welland,p	2	0	0	0	0	Krausse,p	2	0	0	2	1
Moore,p	1	0	0	0	1
	*33	4	7	24	10		28	5	5	27	13

*Watwood batted for Moore in ninth.

Boston	200	010	010—4
Philadelphia	000	003	02*—5

Errors—Olson, Williams. Runs batted in—Jolley (2), Alexander, Johnson, McNair (2), Dykes (2). Two base hit—Alexander. Home run—Johnson. Sacrifice—Stumpf. Double play—McNair to Williams to Foxx. Base on balls—Welland, 5; Moore, 2; Krausse, 2. Struck out—Welland, 2; Moore, 1; Krausse, 3. Hits—Welland, 4 in 5 2-3 innings; Moore, 1 in 2 1-3. Losing pitcher—Moore. Umpires—Owens and Ormsby. Time—1:41.

MINNESOTA LASS SEEKS PLACE ON OLYMPIC TEAM

Anne Govednik, a 17 year old youngster from Chisholm, Minn., will compete in the 200 meter breast stroke event at the Illinois Women's Athletic club meet in the club pool tomorrow night.

Six months ago this unknown maid from up in the woods country shaved two seconds from the world's records for 100 yards. Since that time other stories have developed around her prowess but she has never appeared in a recognized meet. Miss Govednik has requested that the best breast stroke swimmers available be brought together to give her a chance to prove her ability.

Etta Wood of Gary, Ind.; Ruth Dierolf of Milwaukee, Emma Shemaitis of the I. W. A. C., and Mildred Green of the Jewish Peoples institute, all candidates for places on the American Olympic team will oppose her.

Creighton Slashes Cost of Grid Tickets 25 Per Cent

Omaha, Neb., June 28.—[Special.]—A 20 per cent reduction in the cost of season coupon books and a 25 per cent reduction in single admission tickets to the four home games on the 1932 Creighton university football schedule was announced here today by A. A. Schabinger, director of athletics at Creighton. The cut was made "to keep in line with the times," Schabinger said. Single admission tickets will be $1.50, plus a government tax of 15 cents, as compared with last year's price of $2.

Vines Is Lone U. S. Survivor at Wimbledon

[Continued from first sport page]

Mrs. L. A. Harper, although Maier and Mrs. Elizabeth Ryan moved up by virtue of their opponents' default.

Vines was not troubled by Maier, who had spent himself defeating Jean Borotra Saturday. The Californian seems certain to meet the winner of the Austin-Satoh match for the title, because he has not been extended in any match yet. He lost seven games to Maier while winning 18 by driving with terrific force whenever the Spaniard threatened to extend him.

With Wood it was a different story. His cannon ball service, modeled on Bill Tilden's, would not work. His usual ease in making returns was missing and the center court saw its champion in his first appearance there in a singles match studying and hesitating before each shot, putting them back with almost apologetic indecision.

Wood Drives Out Twice.

At 4-all in the final set Wood lost his own service from 15-40 and faced match game against service. Wood drove out twice, while the Jap moved to 40-0 for match point and lost on a drive into the net.

Both Shields and Austin came on the center court supremely confident. Shields lost the first set and did not appear to worry, but put up a battle in the second, which was even until the 13th game, when he broke Austin's service and went 7-6. The next two decided the outcome, Austin giving Shields one point of his own service and taking the next from deuce to lead, 8-7. Austin scored two aces in winning the next at love and, although he dropped the third set after a hard fight, he showed great stamina in cleaning up the fourth set, winning the last five games straight.

SINGLES.
Ellsworth Vines Jr. [U. S.], beat Enrique Maier [Spain], 6-2, 6-3, 6-2.
Jack Crawford [Australia] beat Fred Perry [England], 7-5, 8-6, 2-6, 8-6.
Jiro Satoh [Japan] beat Sidney B. Wood Jr. [U. S.], 7-5, 7-5, 2-6, 8-4.
Bunny Austin [England] beat Francis X. Shields [U. S.], 6-1, 0-7, 5-7, 6-1.

MIXED DOUBLES.
Mrs. L. A. Harper [U. S.] and Ian G. Collins [England] beat Miss V. H. Montgomery and G. R. Sherrell [England], 7-5, 6-3.
Kathleen Stammers and E. D. Andrews [England] beat Gregory Mangin and Sarah Palfrey [U. S.], 6-4, 6-4.
Ellsworth Vines Jr. and Mrs. Helen Wills Moody [U. S.] beat J. H. Knottenbelt and Miss R. Couquerque [Holland], 6-2, 6-4.
Betty Nuthall [England] and P. B. Spence [South Africa] beat A. Merlin and Mlle. Rosambert [France], 7-5, 3-6, 6-2.
Mrs. Elizabeth Ryan [U. S.] and Enrique Maier [Spain] won by default from H. K. Lester and Mrs. Holcroft Watson [England].

WOMEN'S DOUBLES.
Helen Jacobs and Mrs. Elizabeth Ryan beat Mrs. N. Trenham and Mrs. B. M. Turnbull [England], 6-1, 4-6, 6-1.

Minor Leagues

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

	W	L	Pct.		W	L	Pct.
Columbus	42	31	.575	Milwaukee	36	32	.529
Minneap'lis	41	31	.569	Toledo	36	37	.493
Ind'n'p'lis	40	32	.556	Louisville	28	38	.424
Kan. City	40	34	.541	St. Paul	22	48	.314

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE.

	W	L	Pct.		W	L	Pct.
Hollywood	51	35	.593	Seattle	40	46	.465
Portland	50	36	.581	Oakland	39	47	.453
S. Fran'co	46	37	.554	Sacram'nto	39	47	.453
L. Angeles	43	37	.518	Mission	33	53	.384

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
Kansas City, 4-4; St. Paul, 3-2.
Minneapolis, 8-3; Milwaukee, 5-4.
[First game 12 innings.]
Columbus, 7; Indianapolis, 2.
Toledo, 2; Louisville, 1 [10 innings].

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE.
Missions, 12; Oakland, 7.

THREE EYE LEAGUE.
Quincy, 9; Decatur, 5.
Danville, 8; Peoria, 1.
Springfield, 5; Terre Haute, 1.

TEXAS LEAGUE.
Fort Worth, 5; Beaumont, 4.
Houston, 5; Dallas, 2.
Galveston, 3; Longview, 2.

NURMI, 14 OTHER FINN RUNNERS LEAVE FOR U. S.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, June 28.—Fifteen Finnish runners, including the veteran, Paavo Nurmi, who is under suspension by the International Amateur Athletic federation, left today for the United States to participate in the Olympic games at Los Angeles, Cal. The group departed for America via Stockholm and Paris and will arrive in New York on July 8.

All Finland hopes that the ban on Nurmi will be lifted. The amateur federation will convene in Los Angeles in a few weeks.

With Nurmi were Lauri Lehtinen, holder of the world's record for 5,000 meters and three miles. Others were Harri Larva, 1,500 meter champion, and Lauri Virtanen, V. Iso-Hollo, Einjo Purje, Luomanen, Toivonen, Kalle, and Akilles Jarvinen.

Finland's gymnasts and wrestlers are expected to leave on July 3 on the steamer Drottningholm.

Sisler Refuses Pay Cut; Quits as Tyler Manager

Tyler, Tex., June 28.—(AP)—George Sisler resigned today as player manager of the Tyler Sports of the Texas league after he was asked to take a reduction in salary.

Sisler will return to St. Louis, where he has an interest in a printing business.

Italy's Olympic Team, 130 Strong, Sails on Saturday

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, Italy, June 28.—The largest Olympic team from any European country, numbering 130 men, will leave Italy Saturday for the United States to compete in the Olympic games at Los Angeles, Cal.

St. Louis Sees Big Sox Error Show Today

BY EDWARD BURNS.

The unhappy White Sox will arrive in St. Louis this morning, convinced that there is much truth in the old gag about there being no rest for the weary. Their chore on the sunbaked shores of the Mississippi is nothing less than the playing of five games against the Browns, a team that has licked them five out of the last seven games played and a wicked outfit which refused to lose a game the last time the Sox journeyed to St. Louis.

The brutality of the Browns has been all the crueler because in the winter books they were doped as certain pushovers, an outlook that was brightened when the Sox whipped them in three of the four games in the season's opening series.

The Sox have not been the only victims of this Brownie treachery. There isn't a team in the league that hasn't been upset by this unexpected burst of class.

Then the Indian War.

After their five days in St. Louis, the Sox will return to play a double header with the Cleveland Indians on the Fourth. This should be a spirited engagement, for after the brawl involving Umpire Moriarty in Cleveland a month ago, Sox players accused the Indians of being tattletales and even went so far as to address certain ones by such monickers as "Luke the Squealer," "Howey the Snitch" and other such names which caused great indignation on the part of the players so addressed. The charge and the resentment thereto is expected to add great zest to the next meeting of the two teams.

The Sox, of course, can't expect to win many victories until they lay aside their ambitions to set a new record for errors. Errors, as every fan knows, are damaging in themselves, but the demoralizing effects they have on the pitchers is equally far reaching.

Plenty of Errors.

In making 17 errors in their last four games the Sox probably are near a record. Thus far this year they have made 115 errors, or 2.3 errors per game. If they continue at this rate in their remaining 100 games, they will finish the season with 328 errors, or 83 more than they had last year when they finished last in fielding in the American league. The Phillies, who finished last in fielding in the National league, had only 210 errors.

It is not readily conceivable that the Sox finish the season at the rate of 4½ errors a game, their rate in their last four games, but if the practice of playing fielders in positions to which they are not accustomed continues, the average might persist. In this event the Sox would finish with 540 errors, or 115 more than the major league record, which has stood since 1901.

Lyons probably will pitch the opener in St. Louis and Blaeholder is one of the possibilities for the Brownies.

PAIR OF TITLES IN WHIST LEAGUE TO BE DECIDED TODAY

Cleveland, O., June 28.—[Special.]—The national women's and men's pair championships of the American Whist league will be decided here tomorrow. The meet, which has attracted more than 300 leading card players of the United States, will continue until July 7.

The winners of the men's pair title will receive the Minneapolis trophy, while the women's championship victors will be awarded the Cannon trophy. The all-American championships play will start in a few days.

Sprint Stars Head Olympic Semi-Finals

Track and field stars of the middlewest will hold the spotlight again at Dyche stadium Saturday when semi-final tryouts for the Olympic games are held.

Winners of first, second, and third places will be eligible to compete in the final trials at Palo Alto, Cal., on July 16 for the honor of representing America on its Olympic team. Saturday's meet will bring together many national champions, among them holders of national, collegiate, national A. A. U., American and world's records.

Four Sprint Champions to Meet.

Among the feature events of the day will be the sprints, in which four world's record holders—Ralph Metcalfe, E. Toppino, Eddie Tolan, and George Simpson—will compete.

Racine Thompson, chairman of the Central A. A. U. track and field committee, reports that at least 200 will participate.

Clark Chamberlain has entered the 5,000 and 10,000 meter runs. Addison Barber of Grand Rapids, a 6 foot 5 inch high jumper, will compete in that event. John Brooks, University of Chicago, with a mark of 25 feet 5 inches to his credit, will try the broad jump.

Allen Enters 400 Meters.

Charles Allen of St. Louis, who has been doing the 400 meters in 48 6-10 seconds, will compete in this event. S. Wright of Detroit will run the 500 meters. Pete Troy of Flint, Mich., who has thrown the discus 152 feet, also is on the list. Lee Bartlett of Union City, Mich., one of America's greatest javelin experts, will hurl the spear. He did 211 feet 6 inches last Saturday.

Strong delegations have been entered from the near eastern district of the A. A. U., Ohio State, University of Illinois, Indiana university, Marquette university, Michigan State Normal, University of Michigan, University of Nebraska, University of Arkansas, Louisiana State university, Loyola university of New Orleans, and the University of Georgia.

Stadium May Match Walker with Schmeling

Chicago Stadium officials will set a date today for the next boxing show at the west side building. Nate Lewis, Stadium matchmaker, said yesterday that a date is to be selected that will not conflict with the international bouts between Germany and the United States at Soldiers' field Tuesday, July 26.

Lewis said that Max Schmeling will fight either Tuffy Griffith or Mickey Walker at the Stadium the latter part of August. Joe Jacobs, manager of Schmeling, will leave New York next week with Charlies Belanger, light heavyweight champion of Canada, for London, England, where Belanger boxes Larry Gains July 25. Gains recently defeated Primo Carnera.

Immediately after the bout, Jacobs will meet Schmeling at Berlin when they will return to this country, arriving early in August.

Prince Saunders, south side lightweight, will appear in a supporting bout on the Tony Canzoneri-Billy Petrolle lightweight title card at New York, Aug. 8. His opponent has not been selected. Canzoneri, lightweight champion, will start training Friday at Pompton Lakes, N. J., for his 10 round junior welterweight title match with Champion Johnny Jadick at Philadelphia, July 18.

Bat Battalino, former featherweight champion, may make his next start in Chicago against Harry Dublinsky next month. . . Benny Leonard, ex-lightweight titleholder, has announced that he will meet Jimmy McLarnin of Vancouver, B. C., at New York, Aug. 22. . . He will engage in two more tuneup matches before clashing with McLarnin.

HAITI'S ONE MAN OLYMPIC TEAM ARRIVES IN U. S.

New York, June 28.—[Special.]—Haiti's one man Olympic team has arrived in New York. The lone representative, Sylcpo Cator, plans to remain here for a few days before departing for Los Angeles, Cal.

Competing in Olympic games will not be a new experience for Cator. He won second place in the broad jump event in the 1928 games, leaping 24 feet 11 inches. Later he broke the world's record in Paris, jumping 26 feet ⅛ inch.

Pirates Get Only 27 Hits; Beat Marion, O., Club, 24-2

Marion, O., June 28.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Marion city club, 24 to 2, in an exhibition game today. Four Marion pitchers were hammered for 27 hits. A crowd of 1,500 saw the game.

Pittsburgh	100	500	1107—

ANNIE COBURN'S WILL BEQUEATHS WEALTH OF ART

Chicago Institutions Will Get Large Share.

The late Annie Swan Coburn left most of her art collection, considered one of the finest in America, and the most of her $500,000 fortune to Chicago institutions. These include the Art institute, the Field Museum of Natural History, and Northwestern university. Harvard university and Smith college also share bequests under her will, which was filed yesterday with Oscar S. Caplan, assistant to Probate Judge Horner.

The Art institute was mentioned three times in the will as beneficiary. Mrs. Coburn bequeathed most of her collection of French paintings, 23 in all, to the institute and provided a trust fund of $165,000, to be added to a $35,000 fund which she already had given to the institution, for the upkeep of the collection. Among the masters whose works are included in the gift are Renoir, Monet, Cezanne, Degas, Gaugain, Van Gogh, and Picasso.

More Gifts to Institute.

Mrs. Coburn also gave the institute 50 of her best water colors, to be chosen from her collection by Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, 2704 Lake View avenue, a friend. Mrs. Coburn gave a $50,000 trust fund for the maintenance of this collection and in addition left a $60,000 trust fund, the income of which will be shared equally by the Art institute, the Field museum, and Harvard university.

The institute also will share equally with the museum and Harvard university in the residue of her estate after all other bequests have been carried out.

Harvard was given a $50,000 fund to be used for scholarships for students in the law school. The fund, the will asserted, was given in memory of Mrs. Coburn's husband, Lewis Larned Coburn, who was graduated at the university in 1861. To Fogg museum at Harvard university Mrs. Coburn gave 10 paintings and a $25,000 trust fund for their upkeep, and a collection of objets d'art, among which is a Moorish plaque taken from the Alhambra in 1894.

Gift to Northwestern.

Northwestern university was given $50,000 to be used for law school scholarships and Smith college was given nine paintings and a $10,000 trust fund for their maintenance. The will directed that $25,000 be given to the Brainard Memorial library at Haddam, Conn., and that $100,000 be left in trust to the Hampton institute at Hampton, Va., to form the Swan Memorial fund in memory of Mrs. Coburn's parents.

Mrs. Coburn made a large number of minor bequests of jewelry and gifts of money to friends. Among these was the gift of a painting "Girl's Head," by Whistler, to Walter S. Brewster. To her cousin, Mrs. Emily Eaton Hepburn of New York City, Mrs. Coburn gave $100,000, directing that a portion of this fund be used to take photographs of an oil painting of her husband which hangs in the Union League club, of which he was a co-founder and first president. The photographs, Mrs. Coburn directed, are to be given to Vermont university.

Death at Age of 76.

Mrs. Coburn died on June 1, at her home at the Blackstone hotel, at the age of 76. She had lived at the hotel since the death of her husband, a patent attorney, early in the century. She was ill for many months before her death.

The petition for proof of heirship, which was offered yesterday by attorneys from the law firm of Winston, Strawn, & Shaw, showed that Mrs. Coburn had only one heir, an aunt, Mrs. Jessie S. Davies of Los Angeles, who was not mentioned in the will. The petition listed her property as not less than $750,000 of which more than $500,000 is in her art collection.

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER: Love's Labor Lost

IF I DIDN'T LOVE COUNT RAYMOND, I WOULDN'T CARE, BUT I'VE SIMPLY GOT TO FIND SOME WAY TO SHOW HIM I'M NOT THE MILLIONAIRE SOCIETY GIRL HE THINKS I AM!!
BIBBS PIN COMP
RAYMOND, I'M REALLY ONLY A POOR WORKING GIRL STENOGRAPHER!! THERE'S THE BUILDING I WORK IN AND MR. BIBBS IS MY BOSS!!
AND I DON'T LIVE IN A BIG, BEAUTIFUL MANSION, BUT THAT LITTLE COTTAGE IS MY HOME! THERE'S MY FAWTHER SITTING IN THE WINDOW!! BUT WHY ARE YOU LAUGHING? HA-HA HA
YOU T'INK BY TELLING ME THESE FABLES, YOU TEST MY LOVE, EH, CHERIE?? BUT NON, MADEMOISELLE, ZE JOKE DO NOT WORK!! I LOVE YOU JUST ZE SAME, EVEN THOUGH I KNOW YOU REALLY ARE RICH!!
YE GODS! IS THERE NO WAY TO CONVINCE HIM ???
JUNE 29
BRANNER

HAROLD TEEN—THE SNOOPER

I'M SICK AN' TIRED OF KEEPIN' ALL YOUR SECRETS - WHEN LILLUMS ASKS ME THINGS - I CAN'T LOOK HER IN TH' EYE AND LIE SO DON' TELL ME NO MORE - CAUSE I AIN'T KEEPIN' 'EM!
I GOTTA CONFIDE IN SOMEBODY!
JUNE 29
HERE Y'ARE CHASIN' A FLOCK OF GANGSTERS! I'VE A GOOD NOTION TO TELL YOUR FOLKS!
AW, POP!
OSTERS TOO 204
OKAY - POP! I'LL TELL 'EM, MYSELF!
?
YEEAVE! DO I HAVE TH' FUN THOUGH!
WAIT! OH, SHADOW! WAIT! HEY!
CARL ED

Old Rule of Church Invoked in Inquiry on Bride's Death

The Greek Orthodox church recognizes the right of a bride's family to prove her innocence by medical examination where her husband has doubts as to her chastity before their marriage.

This means of proving a bride's honor was invoked yesterday at the inquest into the death of Mrs. Eugenia Polites Siaperas, 23 years old, bride of 16 hours, who leaped to her death from a 36th floor honeymoon suite in the Morrison hotel on Monday after her husband accused her of having associated with other men before their marriage.

The husband, Peter, 34 years old, a confectionery store owner, clad in his honeymoon finery of white trousers and blue coat, wept throughout the inquest. He had been held by police since the tragedy, but was released after the hearing, although the inquest was continued in order to allow the bride's family to prove her honor by calling in a trio of medical examiners to examine the body.

Relatives at Inquest.

Mrs. Fanny Langison, sister of the dead bride, and Mrs. Angelike Polites, her mother, of 4506 West Van Buren street, showed visible agitation when police testified that Siaperas told them his bride admitted his accusation. Police said the bridegroom's story was that he berated her, at which she became hysterical, threw her engagement and wedding rings into a trunk, and leaped from the window.

The bride's mother and sister, while the examination by the three physicians is pending, brought in another physician, Dr. Peter N. Hatzis, 3358 West Lake street, who testified that the bridegroom's accusations were groundless.

In Serbia, Bulgaria, Rumania, Greece and Russia, the procedure sanctioned by the Greek Orthodox church, as it was explained here by George Alexander, general secretary of the diocese, is as follows:

The bridegroom goes to the bride's parents and relatives, and a family conclave is called at which the girl either protests her innocence or admits here guilt. If she insists she is innocent and the bridegroom still persists in his accusation, the medical examiners may be called in.

Church Allows Annulment.

If they announce to the family and the husband that the husband's charges are true, he can go to the church with this testimony.

"The church always has and, of course, still takes the position that he should forgive the girl and live with her," Mr. Alexander explained. "But if he cannot be persuaded, he has a right to an annulment, which the church grants him. In this country, however, the church cannot grant the divorce or annulment, but under those circumstances will recognize any civil divorce he may get."

Mr. Alexander pointed out that the church authorities do everything in their power to persuade the man to continue the marriage union.

"For instance, the first thing the church asks of the bridegroom is this: 'Can you prove you are innocent?'" he said. "Of course the man must make his charges before he lives with his wife as man and wife, and must remain apart from her during the investigation and adjustment."

Unless divorced with the consent of the church, or on grounds the church recognizes, a man or woman cannot remarry in the Greek Orthodox church If divorced according to the church rules a person may marry three times in the Greek church.

INDIANA STORM KILLS TWO; LAKE DAM COLLAPSES

Lightning, Rain Cause Heavy Damage.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 28.—[Special.]—Heavy rains, wind, and electrical storms in all parts of Indiana have caused two deaths and considerable property damage in the last few hours. Damage to crops was estimated at thousands of dollars.

Winn Ross, 42, Upland, was killed when struck by lightning while seeking shelter under a tree near Van Buren. Ross with two companions had gone on a fishing trip to the Salamonie river.

Burl McConey, Bluffton, was killed by electrical shock while working on a transformer on a high tension wire in Jay county.

A break in the Lake Hollybrook dam near Spencer, releasing water from the 40 acre lake, inundated several hundred acres of land in Owen county, covered roads for a time, and caused a temporary rise in White river.

Undermined by heavy rains, the 300 foot concrete wall suddenly gave way. Thousands of fish with which the lake had recently been stocked were swept through the break in the dam.

A large barn on the farm of Ezra Funk, Warsaw, was struck by lightning and destroyed. Three horses and a calf were burned. Lightning also struck the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hartman, Warsaw. The barn of Jack Throckmorton, Franklin, was struck by lightning and destroyed.

Trains on the Big Four railroad south of Connersville were delayed because of a washout.

Paoli had 2.79 inches of rainfall; Crawfordsville, 2.08; Indianapolis, 2.82, and Bloomington, 1.83.

Other Radio Stations

6:15—The Vagabonds. WMAQ.
6:30—The Stebbins Boys. WENR.
6:45—The Goldbergs. WENR.
6:45—Billy Jones and Ernie Hare. WMAQ.
7:00—American Taxpayers league. KYW.
7:30—The Old Counsellor. WMAQ.
7:30—Melody Moments. WLS.
8:00—Sheridan Russell, violoncellist. WMAQ.
8:00—Grace Moore, soprano. KYW.
8:30—Jack Benny and Ethel Shutta. WMAQ.
8:30—Gladys Rice. WENR.
9:00—Ruth Etting. WBBM.
9:00—Country doctor. WMAQ.
9:00—Corn Cob Pipe club. WENR.
9:15—Adventures in health. WBBM.
9:15—Adventures in Health. WBBM.
9:30—Waves of Melody. KYW.
9:30—Howard Barlow's orchestra. WBBM.
9:45—Tish. KYW.
10:00—Amos and Andy. WMAQ.

Coal City Man Slain in Attempted Holdup

Morris, Ill., June 27.—[Special.]—Charles Thomas, 30, a former resident of Coal City, and possessing a long criminal record, was shot to death early this morning at Aux Sable locks, a resort five miles east of here, as he and two unknown companions were driving away after an attempted holdup. Thomas Wells, a boarder at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simon, where the holdup took place, fired five shells from a shotgun at the car and Thomas received most of the shots in the left side of his head.

SUICIDE THREAT BY DEFENDANT HALTS A TRIAL

Superior Judge Joseph Sabath yesterday halted a trial in his court after he was told by an attorney that the defendant, Charles S. Schramm, former vice president of the Teco Products company of New York, manufacturers of railroad supplies, had fled from the room in a fit of rage after making threats of suicide.

Schramm had appeared to oppose the suit for separate maintenance filed by his wife, Agnes, 12 East Chestnut street, who charged him with adultery. Her attorney, Martin J. McNally, told the judge that Schramm was $1,525 in arrears on temporary allmony at the rate of $200 a month. Schramm's counsel, Donald L. Evans, then said the case had gone to trial after efforts to settle out of court had failed.

While the attorneys stood before the judge, Schramm rose and shouted that he was unable to pay his wife even $100 a month and demanded that she return to him certain notes and mortgages. Then after a whispered conference with Evans he stalked from the courtroom.

Attorney Evans insisted on an immediate trial of the case and Mrs. Schramm began her testimony. She was interrupted when Evans told the judge that Schramm had made a threat to commit suicide. Judge Sabath continued the case to July 5.

Coast Guard Cutters Hunt Yacht Lost Since Friday

New York, June 28.—(AP)—Coast guard cutters and patrol boats cruising off Long Island were ordered today to search for the motor yacht Keewatin, which has been missing since it put out from Amityville Friday afternoon with three men and three women to witness the start of the yacht races for Bermuda. Of the six aboard the missing craft coast guard officials had only the names of Gorton Baldwin Jr. and his wife of Amityville.

WGN
The Chicago Tribune Station on the Drake Hotel

The Entire Proceedings of the DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
A Complete, Independent Broadcast with QUIN RYAN
ARTHUR SEARS HENNING
ARTHUR EVANS
GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK
PARKE BROWN
OSCAR HEWITT
Today the Convention Takes up the Business of Adopting Its Platform and Nominating a Candidate for President.
11:35 A. M.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

ALL PROGRAMS SUBJECT TO CANCELLATION FOR DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

7:30—Leonard Salvo's Mail Box.
8:15—Melody Magic.
8:30—The Grand Old Hymns.
8:45—From an Organist's Album.
9:00—Silver Cup Time Signal.
9:00—Fred L. Jeske, Baritone.
9:15—Clara, Lu 'n' Em, for Super Suds.
9:30—Board of Trade Grain Reports.
9:35—Carl Hoefle, Pianist.
9:45—Music Weavers.
10:00—Tom, Dick and Harry.
10:15—Melody Favorites.
10:25—Board of Trade Reports.
10:30—Round the World Cooking School.
10:45—Digest of the News.
11:00—Happy Hank and Joseph Hassmer.
11:30—Board of Trade Reports.
11:35—Democratic National Convention.
2:45—The Four Eton Boys.
3:00—"Under Eastern Skies."
3:15—Joseph Hassmer, Baritone.
3:30—Hotel Taft Orchestra.
4:00—Fred Meinken, Pianist.
4:15—Hank Harrington.
4:30—Afternoon Musicale.
5:00—Symphony Concert.
5:45—Little Orphan Annie—for Ovaltine.
6:00—Kellogg's Singing Lady.
6:15—Dinner Music.
6:30—Quin Ryan's Sports Column—for The "44" Cigars.
6:45—"Summer Fancies"—Symphony.
7:00—Irving Kaufman—for Linit.
7:15—Singin' Sam—the Barbasol Man.
7:30—Kate Smith—for La Palina.
7:45—The Colonel and Bud—for Ivory Soap.
8:00—Guy Lombardo's Orchestra with Burns and Allen—General Cigars.
8:30—Eno Crime Club.
9:00—Melodies in Crosswords.
9:15—Tomorrow's Tribune.
9:25—Headlines of Other Days—for Atlas Special Brew.
9:30—Easy Aces—for Lavoris.
9:45—Arzen Melody Hour.
10:00—Bulova Correct Time.
10:01—Earl Burtnett's Orchestra.
10:14—Sunbeam Weather Forecast.
10:15—Maxwell House Tune Blenders.
10:30—Bernie Cummins—Aragon.
11:00—Late Dance Orchestras — Art Kassel, Carl Moore, Earl Burtnett, Clay Bryson.

THURSDAY'S FEATURES

11:35—Democratic National Convention.
5:45—Little Orphan Annie.
6:00—Singing Lady.
7:15—Abe Lyman's Band.
8:15—Mills Brothers' Quartet.

MORE THAN 1/3 OF THE COMPLETE SERVICES CONDUCTED BY Lain & SON UNDERTAKERS
63rd and HARVARD Tel. Wentworth 0025
COST LESS THAN $200

DEATH NOTICES

BARTLING — Charles F. Bartling, devoted husband of the late Wilhelmina, beloved father of Dr. Carl, Edmund, and Mrs. Gladys Gillespie, fond brother of Henry, August and Christian. Member of Forest Park lodge, No. 1054, A. F. & A. M. Remains at chapel, 7319 Madison-st., Forest Park. Services Thursday, June 30, 2:30 p. m., at St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hannah-av. and Adams-st., Forest Park. Interment Woodlawn cemetery.

BEESE—James Richard Beese, beloved son of Ernest R. and Mary E. Hahn Beese, devoted brother of Robert William and Ernest Albert. Funeral Thursday, 9 a. m., from late residence, 7415 Prairie-av., to St. Columbanus church. Interment St. Mary's cemetery.

BRIZZOLARA—Frank L. Brizzolara, beloved husband of Rose Brizzolara, father of Edward F. and Evelyn Brizzolara and Mrs. James Blackman. Funeral Thursday, June 30, at 9 a. m., from his late residence, 5404 Jackson-blvd., to Resurrection church. Interment Calvary.

BRUCE—Thomas W. Bruce, 6354 Ellis-av., June 28, 1932, beloved husband of Annis Bruce, father of Muriel. Services at chapel, Old and Harvard, Thursday, June 30, at 3 p. m. Interment at Oakwoods.

BUCHANAN—William T. Buchanan, 6440 Parnell-av., June 28, 1932, beloved husband of Catherine Buchanan, father of Burke, Elizabeth, Catherine, and Howard. Services at his late home, Friday, July 1 at 2 p. m. Member of Jack Christie Division No. 231, B. of L. E. and Englewood Lodge No. 690, A. F. & A. M. Interment at Oakridge, Pittsburgh, Pa. papers please copy.

CARSON—Harriette Carson, June 27, 1932, at residence of her parents, 89 Huron-st., Maywood, wife of Roy G., only daughter of Harry E. and Susanne Swift Peacock, sister of Robert. Funeral Thursday at 3 P. m., at Oakwoods cemetery chapel.

DEUTSCH—Ed Deutsch, age 47, beloved husband of Anna, fond father of Gerry and Blanche, dear brother of Abe, Morris, Sam, Herman, Melvin, Mrs. Rose Stein, and Mrs. Edna Zenner. Funeral Wednesday, 10 a. m., from chapel, 3125 W. Roosevelt-rd., to Liabowich cemetery.

DIETRICK—Catherine Dietrick, nee Curran, June 28, 1932, of 3641 S. Seeley-av., beloved wife of Anton; fond mother of John, William, Vincent, Edward, Dorothy, Gerald, and Eileen; sister of Marge Curran; at chapel, 2616 W. 38th-st. Funeral notice later. For information call Lafayette 0980 or 0981.

DUFFY—Marie A. Duffy, beloved daughter of Eleanor Duffy, fond sister of Mrs. Thomas McTernan, Mrs. B. C. Twohig, James, Thomas, John, Mark M. and D. J. Funeral and interment at Sprinevale, Wis. For information phone Edg. 1059, Madison, Wis., papers please copy.

FISHER—Mabel L. Fisher, June 27, 543 S. Taylor-av., Oak Park, wife of R. George Fisher, sister of Mrs. Belle Young, aunt of Harry B. Linn and Mrs. Lyle Perkins. Services Thursday, June 30, at 2 p. m., at chapel, 124 Madison-st., Oak Park, at Lombard-av. Interment Forest Home. For information call Village 7327-W.

FROST—Albert G. Frost, June 28, 1932, husband of Pauline Frost, 1241 Judson-av., Evanston, Ill. Funeral notice later.

FRUGOLI—Joseph Frugoli of 4359 W. Harrison-st., beloved husband of the late Theresa, nee Paoletti; fond father of Harry, Carrie, and Mrs. Amelia Franchi and the late Paul and Sam. Funeral notice later.

GELL — Bertha Ann Gell, 8606 S. Sangamon-st., beloved wife of Herman G. Gell, dearly beloved mother of Elsie Fluegge, Rose Panzegrau, Joseph, Charles, Frank, Harold and Herman Gell Jr., dearly beloved mother-in-law of Herbert Fluegge, Ann, Loretta and Martha Gell, fondest grandmother to Baby Joanne Gell and Joseph N. Panzegrau, sister of Karl Meier, Albert Meier and Luise Priest; aged 60 years. Interment Fairmount cemetery, from chapel, 858 W. 87th-st., Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

HANSON—Anna Cody Hanson, June 27, 1932; at her residence, 3937 Jansen-av., wife of Albert L. Hanson. Funeral services at chapel, 200 E. Erie-st., Thursday, 2:30 p. m. Interment Rosehill cemetery.

HEALY—Thomas James Healy, June 27, at his home, 5559 Princeton-av., beloved husband of Minnie Healy, fond father of Thomas, Jeremiah, Edward, Elizabeth, fond brother of Mrs. Julia Frank, John A. Healy and the late Mrs. Mary McCue. Funeral Thursday from funeral home, 2917 S. Michigan-av., 8:45 a. m., to St. Anne's church, 9:30 a. m. Interment Mount Olivet cemetery.

HOBBS—James Marshall Hobbs, June 27, 1932, at his home, 463 Washington-av., Glencoe, Ill., husband of Inda Elizabeth Hobbs, father of Mrs. Frank S. Coffin. Funeral service 3 p. m. Wednesday at Graceland cemetery chapel, Chicago.

KERR — John J. Kerr, suddenly, beloved husband of Adeline Van Thyne Kerr, fond son of Catherine and the late John Kerr, brother of Mary and Kathryn Bergen, Anna Dunn and Lila Downing. Remains at home after 3 p. m. Wednesday. Funeral Thursday, June 30, at 9:30 a. m., from his late residence, 6312 N. Richmond-st., to St. Timothy's church. Interment All Saints', Merrimac 9890.

KOHNEN—Paul W. Kohnen, June 27, 1932, beloved husband of Alma Kohnen, nee Grein, beloved father of Paul, Bernard and William, dear son of Mrs. Margareth Kohnen, dear brother of William, the Rev. Theodore, A. C. S. S. R., and Joseph. Funeral Thursday, June 30, at 9 a. m. from residence, 6058 Dakin-st., to St. Pascal's church. Interment at St. Boniface cemetery.

KORMACK—Harry Kormack, 3353 Warren-blvd., brother of Flora Kormack. Funeral at chapel, 5708 W. Madison-st., Thursday, June 30, at 3:30 p. m. Please omit flowers.

KWIATKOWSKI — Joseph P. Kwiatkowski, husband of Rose Kwiatkowski, nee Mankowski; father of Frank, Nettie, and Mary, father-in-law of Victoria and Stanley, June 27, 1932. Funeral Thursday, June 30, from chapel, 1916 W. 22d-st., to St. Casimir's church, at 22d and Whipple-sts., at 9:30 a. m. Interment Resurrection cemetery.

LIACAKIS—Sam Liacakis, beloved husband of Polixene, father of Catherine Bournakis and Lillian, father-in-law of Peter Bournakis. Funeral from residence, 8247 S. May-st., Thursday, at 1 p. m., to St. Constantine church. Interment Elmwood.

LOUIS—Dr. Isaac S. Louis, beloved husband of Irene Poilak Louis, and fond father of Babette, suddenly June 28. Funeral at 936 E. 47th-st., Thursday, June 30, at 10 a. m. Interment at Mount Mayriv.

MAGUIRE—Charles Peter Maguire, June 28, beloved husband of Nelda, nee Courtwright, father of Harold J., Le Roy D., Mrs. Helen Sweeney and Marion Maguire, brother of Andrew and Martha Maguire, and Mrs. Elizabeth Keller. Member of St. Vincent de Paul society. Funeral Friday, July 1, at 9 a. m., from residence, 7647 Coles-av., to St. Bride's church. Interment Mount Olivet. South Shore 8822.

MILLWARD—Alfred H. Millward of 225 Sylvan-rd., Glencoe, husband of Caroline Millward, nee Soffell. Funeral Thursday, 10 a. m., at Sacred Heart church, Hubbard Woods. Interment Sacred Heart cemetery, Northfield. Please omit flowers.

NEISBERG—Julia Neisberg, nee Frazen, beloved wife of Albert, fond mother of Ethel, Archie, Herman, and Beatrice, sister of Mrs. Harry Kalish, Mrs. Louis Fisher of Rochester, N. Y., Mrs. S. Adelman, Edward A. and Allen E. Frazen. Funeral Wednesday, June 29, at 2 p. m., at chapel, 936 E. 47th-st., to Knights of Joseph cemetery, Waldheim.

NIERMAN—Mary Nierman, nee Krulewich, at Austin, Tex., June 27, 1932, loving mother of Hyman, Lilly Kane, Anna Minck and Joseph. Funeral Thursday at 2 p. m. at chapel, 3125 W. Roosevelt-rd. Interment Oakwoods cemetery.

PAUL—Harry Paul, husband of Mary, nee Rosenberg; loving father of Harriet and Harold, brother of Lena Rosenberg, Saul and Henry Paul. Member of Portage Park lodge No. 1002, A. F. & A. M., and Siloam council No. 53, R. & S. M. Funeral from chapel, 2235 W. Division-st., Thursday, 3 p. m. Interment B'nai Moisha, Waldheim.

PEACOCK—Harrietta Peacock. See Carlson notice.

PHEGLEY—Matilda Phegley, June 26, widow of George Phegley. Funeral Wednesday, June 29, at 1 p. m., at residence of James Henderson, 908 S. Mason-av. Interment Rosehill. Member Siloam chaper, No. 119, O. E. S.

RHOADES—Fred W. Rhoades, beloved husband of Cora B. Rhoades, fond father of Fred W. Rhoades Jr., suddenly, May 28, 1932, at Muskellunge Lake, Wis. Burial private at Rensselaer, Ind., Wednesday, June 29.

SAIBERT—Frank J. Saibert, suddenly June 27, 1932, beloved husband of Anne, nee Velk, fond father of Nancy and Frank Jr., dear son of the late Frank Joseph and Rose Saibert, brother of Mrs. Mary Hamer, Charles and Edward. Member Veritas lodge, No. 926, A. F. & A. M.; Ancient Accepted Scottish rite, Medinah Temple; Board of Trade, Chicago Stock exchange, Chicago Athletic club, Medinah Country club, Bohemia club, and Oak Park Club. Funeral at late residence, 305 S. Grove-av., Oak Park, Ill., Thursday, June 30, 2 p. m. Information Euclid 2814.

WARD—Edward J. S. Ward, suddenly, beloved husband of Martha J., father of Dora, Mrs. Frank Shelhamar, Mrs. Jennie Stewart, Mrs. Sidney Bailey and Mrs. D. D. McKiernan, Charles H., Thomas H., and Samuel H. Ward. Funeral notice later.

WILLIAMS—George E. Williams, June 28, 1932, brother of Mrs. H. W. Shelly, Mrs. F. W. Hoefer, Mrs. E. J. Blessington, and Mrs. W. R. Bethune. Funeral Thursday, 9:30 a. m., from funeral home, 318-320 N. Central-av., Austin, to St. Lucy's church, W. Lake-st. and Mayfield-av.

DEATH NOTICES

In Memoriam.

BARRY—Thomas F. Barry, June 29, 1925. In devoted memory. ROSE BARRY DIETZ.

MERCIER—Katherine A. Mercier. In loving memory of our beloved wife and mother, who passed away five years ago today. GEORGE MERCIER AND CHILDREN.

ABRAMSON—Charles G. Abramson, husband of Rose, father of Esther, brother of Frank and Edward. Funeral at 2205 W. Walton Thursday at 10 o'clock, to Rosehill.

ALM—Frank W. Alm, June 28, 1932, father of Bob, brother of Axel, Alma, Charles, John, and Florence. Funeral Thursday, 3 p. m., at funeral home, 318-320 N. Central-av., Austin. Interment Forest Home. Member of Berwyn chapter No. 230, R. A. M., and Cicero lodge No. 955, A. F. & A. M.

ALBERT G. FROST COLLAPSES, DIES OF HEART ATTACK

Albert G. Frost, 70 years old, of 1241 Judson avenue, Evanston, collapsed at the wheel of his automobile last evening and crashed into a tree in front of 1236 Hinman avenue, Evanston. Police rushed Frost to St. Francis hospital, where physicians pronounced him dead of a heart attack. Frost was a veteran buyer in the wholesale grocery business. He retired three months ago. Surviving is his widow, Pauline.

Hiram W. Sibley, Retired Capitalist, Is Dead at 86

Rochester, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—Hiram W. Sibley, retired capitalist and son of one of the founders of the Western Union Telegraph company, died at his home today, in his 87th year. Sibley's father, Hiram, was president of the Western Union company for 10 years after it was formed in 1851.

Poland Will Hit Back on Germany's Anti-Jew Bill

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WARSAW, Poland, June 28.—The Polish government today announced that it will take swift retaliatory measures against the National Socialists bill passed yesterday by the Prussian diet authorizing the confiscation of property of Jews who are not German ncitizens, should the German government adopt this advisory act as law. Poland, it was added, will confiscate the property of German citizens in Poland should Germany enforce the new law. The majority of Jews affected are Polish, Lithuanian and American citizens who purchased real estate heavily during the inflation period in Germany.

Col. Edwin P. Brewer Dies; Fought Against Indians

New York, June 28.—[Special.]—Col. Edwin P. Brewer, U. S. A., retired, for more than 34 years an officer of the famous Seventh cavalry, known as Custer's cavalry, died today at the French hospital. Col. Brewer, who fought the Indians for years, was 78 years old.

John H. Sikes, Secretary of Illinois I. O. O. F., Dead

Springfield, Ill., June 28.—(AP)—John H. Sikes, for thirty years grand secretary of the Illinois Odd Fellows, died at his home here today. Mr. Sikes became grand secretary upon graduating from the law school of the Illinois Wesleyan university. When the grand office was moved here from Bloomington thirty years ago he became secretary.

LEON KLEIN, 82, PIONEER CITY MERCHANT, DIES

Leon Klein, 82 years old, said to have been the oldest Jewish native of Chicago, died in his apartment in the Windermere hotel last night after an illness of five weeks.

Born in a house at Madison and Wells streets on April 27, 1850, Mr. Klein was the son of Simon Klein, the founder of a dry goods store bearing his name, which became successively Klein and Mandel and then Mandel Brothers.

His first work was with the firm after it had moved from Clark and Van Buren streets to its present location following the great fire of 1871. In 1875, when his father sold his interest, Leon went to Philadelphia. Some years later he returned and organized Klein and Rosenberg, manufacturing clothiers. He did not retire until five years ago.

Mr. Klein is survived by two children, Mrs. Julien Gusfield and Mrs. Edward A. Jandorf, by a brother, Moses Klein, and a sister, Mrs. Clara Spier, both of the Edgewater Beach hotel. His wife, Anna Schloss Klein, died three years ago.

Shake it into your Shoes
ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE
And stop the pain of Corns, Bunions, Calluses, and Hot, Perspiring, Smarting feet. Ask for the New Shaker Top Family size.
use Allen's Foot-Ease
For Free Sample and Walking Doll, address Allen's Foot-Ease, Le Roy, N.Y.

VISIT CANADA
This Low Cost, Interesting Way . . . Choose Your Own Route . . . Stop Where You Will CIRCLE TOURS
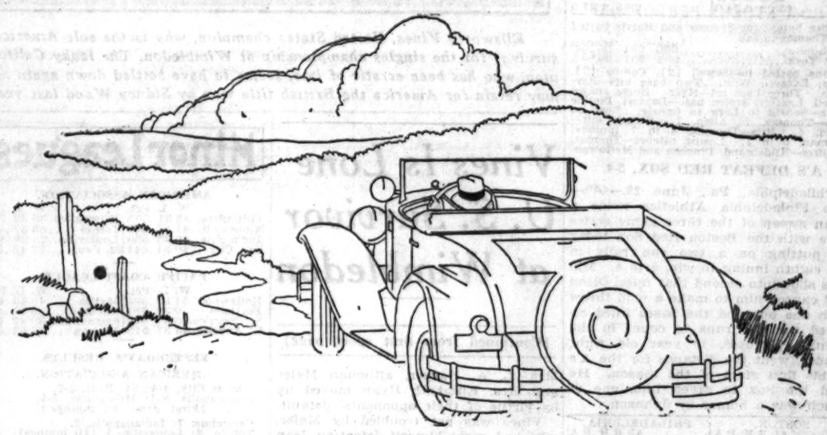
BARGAIN FARES!
This is the kind of a vacation trip Circle Tours offer for surprisingly little money: $65.24 from Chicago offers a tour of more than 2,000 miles including Toronto, Montreal, Boston, New York — homeward via Niagara Falls or Philadelphia and Washington. Other Circle Tours include countless interesting places in eastern Canada and the United States.
Ask about our low cost Summer Tours and personally escorted all-expense Domestic and Foreign TOURS
C. G. Orttenburger, General Western Passenger Agent No. 4 South Michigan Ave., Randolph 8770
GRAND TRUNK-CANADIAN NATIONAL
The Largest Railway System in America



Be an EXPLORER

Ever think you would like to start out from home, with no particular destination, and simply wander over the roads for a day, a week-end or an entire summer? Why not do it this year?

All the fun and profit of motor car ownership can now be yours at the lowest cost in years. Read the offers in the used car columns of Tribune Want Ads. Prices are down. Terms are down. Even the expenses of operation are less than they used to be!

In Tribune Want Ads there's a complete selection of cars to choose from. And only reputable dealers and private owners use the Tribune. Don't miss these amazing bargains! Consult the used car columns today!

Chicago Tribune Want Ad Section

FIRST NATIONAL OF ENGLEWOOD CUTS INTEREST

Will Pay 2 Per Cent on Savings.

BY HOWARD WOOD.

John M. Nichols, president of the First National Bank of Englewood, announced yesterday that effective July 1 his bank would reduce its interest rate on savings deposits from 3 to 2 per cent. New accounts opened yesterday were placed on the 2 per cent basis.

Mr. Nichols says that this is the first time a national bank has paid as low as 2 per cent on savings.

The decision, he added, was arrived at only after officers of the bank had sounded out a large number of depositors and found them willing to accept a lower rate of interest.

"The situation is simply this," Mr. Nichols explained. "Our depositors insist that we keep the assets of the bank highly liquid to be able to meet any demands upon our resources. This means that our investments are limited largely to the type of security that will yield only 2½ to 3½ per cent. We can't collect 3 per cent on our investments and pay out 3 per cent to depositors and earn money for stockholders."

ASKS RELIEF

The New York Central railroad has filed a petition with the interstate commerce commission begging for relief from the rates that the commission has devised for container shipments.

The container car is the railroad's attempt to meet truck competition. It is, in effect, a group of truck bodies riding on a flat car. At the point of shipment or at destination the container or truck body is handled on a motor truck chassis to or from the premises of the consignee or shipper.

Under the original scheme a flat charge was made for the use of the container. The commission on its own initiative instituted an investigation and outlined regulations for the use of such equipment.

According to the New York Central's petition the rates prescribed by the commission went into effect in July, 1931. By the end of the year the number of containers had fallen off 56.9 per cent, the tonnage 66.4 per cent and the revenue 21.7 per cent.

Drop in Receipts.

A comparison of the first four months of 1932 with the same months in 1930, before the restrictions were applied, shows a decline of 78 per cent in the number of containers used. In New York state alone, according to the petition, the number of containers shipped dropped 89 per cent and the decreases in revenues was 85 per cent.

On Monday the New York Central reported net operating deficit of $226,942 for May, a decrease in earnings of $3,079,403 compared with May, 1931. Also on Monday the interstate commerce commission authorized this railroad to borrow $13,600,000 from the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

LIGHT ON ACTIONS

H. C. Hopson, vice president and treasurer of Associated Gas and Electric company, desires to cross swords with Prof. Ripley, who appeared recently before the senate's stock exchange investigators to argue for enforced standardization and publication of corporation earnings accounts.

"Prof. Ripley," says Mr. Hopson, "apparently has the idea that business corporations have generally adopted the practice of depriving security holders of proper financial information. It is my experience that corporations, instead of withholding information, usually publish far more than the vast majority of security holders care to have.

"In substantiation of that I wish to refer you to a test of the question made by the company with which I am connected."

The Associated Gas and Electric company, Mr. Hopson states, early this year sent 239,000 copies of an eight page condensed annual report to its security holders. On the cover of this brief report appeared the words, "Complete report available upon request."

Gets Only 61 Requests.

"You may be surprised to learn that we have received to date only 61 requests for copies of the complete report, which clearly indicates that instead of receiving too little information, the majority of individuals are

[Continued on page 25, column 2.]

Germans Plan to Refinance 7 Million Notes

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 28.—Arrangements for dealing with the first default on a publicly held issue of German dollar bonds to occur since the outbreak of the financial crisis in central Europe a year ago were announced today.

The plan, which involves an extension to the public of the "standstill" idea already applied to German banking debts, may establish an important precedent.

Blocks Export of Cash.

The maturity consists of $10,000,000 of Saxon Public Works, Inc., 6 per cent guaranteed gold notes, due July 15, marketed in July, 1930, by the National City company and Lee, Higginson & Co. at 97½. More than $3,000,000 of the issue already has been retired through purchase in the open market. The German foreign exchange control, however, has refused permission to the corporation for the transfer out of Germany of sufficient funds to pay off the remaining $7,000,000 in United States cash. That authority also has refused to permit the corporation to repay the maturity in reichsmarks.

The Saxon Public Works and the free state of Saxony are therefore notifying holders of the notes that they have made provisional arrangements to meet the maturity through the issuance of an equal amount of 6 per cent guaranteed gold notes of the Saxon Public Works, due July 15, 1937, plus a cash payment equal to 5 per cent of the principal amount.

Will Total $7,000,000.

The new issue of notes will be of an aggregate amount not exceeding $7,000,000, and will be unconditionally guaranteed by the free state of Saxony. To be issued under a trust agreement with the National City bank, the notes will be redeemable in whole or in part at any time at the option of the company.

The plan, in order to be carried out, requires the acceptance of its terms by holders of more than 50 per cent of the notes within thirty days after the maturity date. Holders of the maturing issue who desire to accept the offer are asked to deposit their securities with the National City bank of New York, either at its New York office or at its London office.

If on or before Aug. 15 fifty per cent of the maturing notes have not been deposited the free state of Saxony reserves the right to withdraw the offer.

Cash Payment Included.

Under the trust agreement Saxon Public Works, Inc., will pay to the trustee $350,000 between Aug. 1 and Oct. 1 of this year and will also pay on July 15, 1933, and semi-annually thereafter on Jan. 15 and July 15 each year so long as any notes remain outstanding, the sum of $125,000. The German foreign exchange control is understood to have consented to the transfer, from time to time, of the necessary funds to permit these payments to be made.

The notes, which are traded in on the New York Curb exchange, today sold up to 44, or within ¾ point of the high for the year, and closed at 41½, up ½ point on the day. The low price for the year to date was 25¾.

OFFER BONDS TO 'FREE PORTO RICO' FROM AMERICA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 28.—A bond issue of 5,000,000 gold pesos intended to "finance the fight for Puerto Rican independence" was announced today in local Spanish language newspapers.

Neither the war department, under which falls the administration of the island's affairs, nor the state department evinced any great interest in the announcement, according to Washington dispatches, and it was indicated there that they would take no action on the matter.

Partido Nacionalista de Puerto Rico, which is headed by Lorenzo Pineiro Rivas of the Club Nationalist of 60 West 114th street. They are signed by P. Albizu Campos, president of the "Republic of Puerto Rico"; A. Ruiz Moralea, treasurer, and M. Rivera Matos, secretary general.

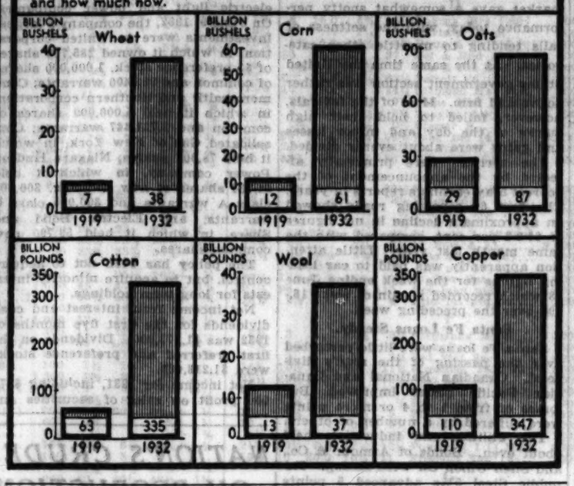
Triple Holiday

The Chicago and New York stock exchanges, as well as the curbs, have voted to remain closed all of Saturday, and so there will be no trading there between the close Friday and the opening Tuesday morning. The Chicago Board of Trade votes today on the question. The coffee and sugar exchanges already have voted Saturday holidays. The New York Cotton exchange will remain open Saturday.

The Chicago Mercantile exchange will be closed Saturday, July 2, and Monday.

How Declining Prices Make the Government Debt Weigh Heavier Upon Us

In 1919 our federal government owed $25,482,000,000. Now it owes $18,653,000,000. In terms of commodities, today's debt is far greater. Below is shown how much wheat, etc., would be required to pay the debt in 1919 and how much now.



SUMMARY OF THE DAY'S MARKETS

CHICAGO.

STOCKS—Firm. Commonwealth Edison advances 1¼ points.

WHEAT—Higher. Local short covering causes strong rally. Net gains ⅝@⅞c; old July, 48¾c; old September, 51¼c; December, 54¼@54⅝c.

CORN—Steady to ⅛c higher; rally follows early decline. Cash demand better. July, 28⅞@29c; September, 31⅝c; December, 32½c.

CATTLE—Steady to 15c higher; shipping demand good. Best steers, $8.40; bulk of sales, $6.50@8.00. Receipts, 5,000; estimated today, 7,000.

HOGS—Higher. Advance 10@20c to top of $4.90, up $1.60 from recent low and within 25c of highest price since last November. Average, $4.45. Receipts, 15,000; estimated today, 16,000.

PRODUCE—Spot butter steady; futures unchanged to ⅛c lower; November, 17¼c; fresh eggs ¼@¾c lower; futures ⅛c higher; refrigerator standards, October, 15¾c.

NEW YORK.

STOCKS—Mixed. American Can advances 1⅞ points; Coca Cola drops 2⅝ points. Transactions 829,745 shares.

COTTON—Unsettled. Chicago 1@3 points higher; other markets 2 points higher to 3 points lower. Spots unchanged; New York, 5.35c; New Orleans, 5.25c; Galveston, 5.20c; Houston, 5.15c.

HOW STOCKS PERFORMED

	Tuesday.	Monday.
Number of advances	142	67
Number of declines	194	367
Number of stocks unchanged	150	137
Total stocks traded in...	486	511

CENT.-REPUBLIC STOCK RALLIES; OMIT DIVIDEND

Shares of the Central Republic Bank and Trust company were in better demand on the over-the-counter market yesterday. The closing bid for the stock last night was $9, as compared with Monday's last bid of $4. During the day the issue sold as high as $18, unlisted brokers reported.

The stock was traded in considerable volume, brokers reported. Recovery in the stock followed the issuance of a statement by Charles G. Dawes, chairman, saying that the bank was in "an impregnable cash position" because of loans obtained.

Directors of the bank at their meeting yesterday afternoon decided to omit the dividend on the capital stock. Three months ago the bank paid a quarterly dividend of $2, or at the annual rate of $8.

WHAT FIFTY STOCKS DID

ADVANCES.

Air Reduction	¼	Int Bus Mach	⅝
Allied Chem	2⅝	Int Harvest	⅝
Am Can	1⅝	Johns Manville	¼
Am Tel & Tel	¼	Kennecott Cop	¼
Am Tob B	¼	Loews Inc	½
Auburn	3⅜	Lorillard Tob	⅝
Borden	½	McK Tin Pl	1¼
Brklyn Man T	⅝	N Y Central	¼
Case J I	½	North Am	½
Colum Carbon	⅝	Peoples Gas	1¼
Consol Gas	½	Pub Ser N J	⅝
Corn Prod	¼	Pullman	⅝
Drug Inc	⅝	Reynolds Tob B	¼
First Nat Stre	½	Union Carbide	¼
Gen Electric	¼	Westinghouse	¼
Gen Foods	¼	Woolworth	⅛

DECLINES.

Atchison	1⅝	Int Nickel	⅛
Bethlehem Steel	¼	Nat Biscuit	⅛
Can Pacific	¼	Pacific G & E	¼
Ches & Ohio	⅛	Pennsylvania	¼
Coca Cola	2⅝	Proct & Gamb	⅛
Eastman Kod	⅛	Sou Pacific	¼
Gen Motors	⅛	Union Pacific	⅛
Gillette	⅛	U S Steel	¼
Ill Central	⅛	Western Union	⅛

NAME GROUPS TO HANDLE ISSUES OF FOUR BANKS

Bixby Heads That for Phillip State.

BY AL CHASE.

Two more bondholders' protective committees were announced yesterday, one for the Phillip State Bank and Trust company issues and the other for bonds underwritten by the Carroll banks on the south side. The committee formed to handle all of the bond issues and mortgages sold through the Phillip State Bank and Trust company of Rogers Park is headed by Charles R. Bixby, real estate appraiser, with offices at 7001 North Clark street. He lives at 1104 Ashland avenue in Wilmette.

CHARLES R. BIXBY. [Ralph E. Jackson Photo.]

The other members of the committee are: William E. White, a retired capitalist who has lived in the Rogers Park district for three decades. His residence is at 1749 Jarvis avenue. Ludwig Sussman, who lives at 1373 Estes avenue, is owner of the Adelphi theater at 7074 North Clark street. Dr. Harold J. Brady, who lives at 1033 Loyola avenue, is a dentist with offices at 7001 North Clark street. He has lived in Rogers Park for fifteen years. S. F. Kogen, an attorney, is secretary of the committee. He is a member of the firm of Long-Kogen Associates, mortgages and management. His partner is Michael J. Long.

A vacancy is left on the committee for the receiver to be appointed for the bank. Temporary headquarters of the new bondholders' protective committee have been established in the office of Long-Kogen Associates, 6974 North Clark street, which organization is acting as temporary depositary. Chairman Bixby urges bondholders to deposit their securities.

For Three Carroll Banks.

John J. O'Connell, former secretary of the Hyde Park-Kenwood National bank, heads the newly formed bondholders' protective committee to reorganize defaulted bond issues of the three recently closed Carroll banks: The Hyde Park-Kenwood National bank, the Jackson Park National bank, and the South Shore State bank.

The other members of Mr. O'Connell's committee to date are: Harry Anderson, president of the Anderson Decorating company; Harold Hibbott,

[Continued on page 25, column 4.]

Grain Corporation Headed by Huft Is Retrenching

BY PAUL POTTER.

Faced with a probable decided reduction in the total volume of grain it will handle, and with demands of the federal farm board that steps be taken to liquidate government loans as rapidly as possible, the Farmers' National Grain corporation is retrenching this week.

Over the wires come reports from farflung points, where this corporation created and financed by the farm board has been operating, that branch offices are being closed this week. Some of these offices came into the grain corporation's possession when it bought the Updike Grain company of Omaha and the Hall-Baker company of Kansas City.

Branches Ordered Closed.

Among the branches which George S. Milnor, general manager of the corporation, has ordered closed this week are those at Des Moines, Carroll, Iowa City, and Sheldon, Ia. Others being closed are at Duluth and St. Paul, Minn.; Lincoln and Omaha, Neb., and St. Joseph, Mo., and Sioux Falls, S. D.

James E. Bennett & Co. are acquiring the St. Joseph and Des Moines offices, and a Bennett correspondent, Kennison & Frazier, are taking the Carroll office. Gooch & Co., millers, are buying the Lincoln office, while the Omaha office quarters have been made available for Bartlett, Frazier & Co.

The loss of many of these branches has come about through the recent action of the Chicago Board of Trade in denying the Updike Grain company privileges in that exchange and sentencing two of its officers to loss of trading rights.

Purchase of Hall Concern.

Other branches being closed were acquired when the corporation purchased the Hall-Baker company, paying $2,800,000, which included $250,000 for "good will." The corporation also purchased the Farmers Union Terminal association in St. Paul some time ago, and that organization's offices are now being closed. Trading will continue through the Minneapolis branch of the federally financed corporation.

Much of the corporation's grain has come in previous seasons from the southwest, whence come its president and many of its directors.

C. E. Huff, head of the corporation, spoke in Indianapolis last Friday, urging the Central States Grain association to trade more through the Chicago corporation.

AMERICAN CAN SEES SIGNS OF BETTER TRADE

Declares Dividend; Stocks Stronger.

YESTERDAY'S AVERAGES

	High.	Low.	Last.	Net chge.
25 railroads	11.05	10.33	10.53	—.23
25 industrials	63.54	60.80	62.04	+.19
50 stocks	37.29	35.59	36.28	—.05
50 stks, 1 yr. ago.	144.78	141.16	144.13	....
50 stks, 2 yr. ago.	190.63	184.05	187.29	....

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 28.—Dividend fears overhanging the market, one of the major causes for recent weakness, were cleared to a great extent today by the declaration of regular quarter-

[Continued on page 25, column 1.]

231

SOUTH LA SALLE

Commercial Banking

Savings · Trusts

CONTINENTAL ILLINOIS BANK AND TRUST COMPANY

CHICAGO

1st

Why 300,000 savers have selected this bank

Savings depositors who are building their reserves here have selected this bank for five main reasons:

They know that their savings are safe.

They know that this bank has a background of stability extending to the founding of the First National Bank of Chicago in 1863.

They are assured 3% interest on their money.

They appreciate the advantage of the bank's central location.

They find our light, attractive Savings quarters, extending from Dearborn to Clark Street, a pleasant place to save.

We invite other savers to advance to larger success by regular deposits in this bank.

First Union Trust and Savings Bank

Affiliated

The First National Bank of Chicago

Building with Chicago Business Since 1863

Dearborn, Monroe and Clark Streets

CORPORATE TRUST SHARES

Semi-Annual Distribution Notice

Payments against semi-annual distribution coupons on the respective series of Corporate Trust Shares payable June 30, 1932, will be as follows:

Corporate Trust Shares, Accumulative Series, at the rate of $.070944 per share.

Corporate Trust Shares, Series AA, at the rate of $.070943 per share.

Corporate Trust Shares, Original Series, at the rate of $.141705 per share, of which $.057086 is withdrawal of the balance of the reserve fund and represents return of principal.

The amount payable against coupons is determined by multiplying the number of shares of the same series represented by coupons deposited at the same time by the same owner (regardless of the number of separate coupons involved) by the rate per share stated above and then deducting any fractional part of a cent.

Coupons are payable at the office of The Chase National Bank of the City of New York. Coupons may be deposited with any local bank for collection, or may be handled by the investment house from whom the shares were originally purchased.

REINVESTMENT RIGHTS

Reinvestment Rights expiring July 15, 1932, permit holders of Corporate Trust Shares—all three series—to purchase either of the new series Corporate Trust Shares at a discount under the offering price to the extent of one (1) new share for each ten (10) shares held. Any Authorized Distributor will furnish full information, or you may apply direct to the undersigned. RIGHTS COUPONS SHOULD NOT BE SENT TO THE TRUSTEE.

AMERICAN DEPOSITOR CORPORATION

Central Syndicate Managers

SMITH, BURRIS & CO., 120 South LaSalle Street, Chicago

Detroit · New Orleans

RAILWAY TRAFFIC GAINS A LITTLE, REPORT SHOWS

Revenue Freight Loadings Up 16,649 Cars.

Some improvement in railroad traffic for the week ended June 18 is shown by the report of the American Railway association issued last night. Revenue freight loadings for the week ended June 18 showed a gain of 16,649 cars over the preceding week. Total loadings amounted to 518,409, which is still far below the level of 1931 traffic. The decline in loadings from the comparable week last year was 220,685 cars.

Miscellaneous freight totaled 208,277 cars, a decrease of 85,284 from the corresponding week last year; merchandise was 175,925, a decline of 41,211; grain and grain products 25,873, off 6,898; coal 68,603, down 40,728; forest products 17,140, decline of 13,415; ore 4,290, down 2,350; coke 2,941, decrease 2,510; live stock 15,360, down 4,189.

Increases for the week of June 18 over the previous week were shown by grains and grain products, live stock, ore, coke and coal. Grain and coal showed the best improvement, with gains of 1,250 and 1,770 cars, respectively.

Illinois Central Drops.

The smaller volume of traffic being carried by the railroads as compared with a year ago is reflected in the May earnings statement of roads issued yesterday.

A case in point is Illinois Central, which reported a decline of $3,326,899 in gross revenues for the month. Net operating income, however, dropped to $547,915, from $853,989 a year ago.

Chicago, Burlington and Quincy reported May net operating income of $162,214, against $1,385,551 in the corresponding month last year. Gross revenues were $6,175,493, compared with $9,270,321 in 1931. After payment of taxes there was a deficit of $497,532, contrasted with a surplus of $743,127 in May, 1931.

Other May Figures.

Other roads reporting May net operating income, with 1931 comparisons, follow:

Norfolk and Western	$1,091,480	$1,603,462
Kansas City Southern	45,335	346,543
Burlington	162,214	1,385,551
Illinois Central	547,915	853,989
Delaware and Hudson	65,518	359,380
Northern Pacific	*61,239	34,335

*Deficit.

The first sixty-six railroads to report had May net operating income approximating $11,359,000, $38,637,000 in the same month last year, and $19,170,000 in April this year. These carriers had May gross revenues of $234,993,000 against $339,093,000 in May, 1931, and $246,589,000 in April this year.

Although the Baltimore and Ohio is expected to show a deficit of $4,500,000 after charges in the first six months of the year the opinion in railroad circles is that the road will probably cover its fixed charges in 1932. It is pointed out that the best months are in the latter half of the year.

RETURN WORKERS

St. Paul, Minn., June 28.—(AP)—The Great Northern railway announced that car repair shops employing 1,559 men returned to a full time basis today and that on July 5 their forces would be increased by 220 workers.

W. P. Kenney, president, said excellent crop prospects, with indications of heavy tonnage to be moved, were responsible for the increased employment.

The car shops have been operating part time. Those returning to a full time schedule today were: St. Paul, 414 men; St. Cloud., Minn., 300; Superior, Wis., 187; Havre, Mont., 50; Great Falls, Mont., 120; Hillyard, Wash., 488.

Sixty-six Roads Earn Less.

New York, June 28.—(AP)—A decrease of about 66 2-3 per cent in net operating income for May, compared with the same month last year, is disclosed by the first 66 railroads reporting to the interstate commerce commission.

The net operating earnings of the reporting carriers approximated $11,359,000, against $38,637,000 for the month of May, 1931. The net figure for last April was $19,170,000.

Gross revenues of the 66 roads totaled around $234,993,000, compared with $339,093,000 for May of last year and $246,589,000 for April, 1932.

Gold Stock Up $1,024,100; No Exports During Day

New York, June 28.—(AP)—The nation's monetary gold stock was increased today by imports of $1,000,100 from Canada and $24,200 from Mexico, a total of $1,024,300. There were no exports and no change in earmark account.

NEW U. S. TREASURY BILLS EASILY SOLD; AVERAGE PRICE $99.96

Washington, D. C., June 28.—Secretary of the Treasury Mills announced the bids for $100,000,000 or thereabouts, of 91-day treasury bills, dated June 29, 1932, and maturing Sept. 28, 1932, offered on June 23, were opened at the federal reserve banks yesterday.

The total amount applied for was $292,881,000. Except for three bids aggregating $149,000 at prices averaging 99.965, the highest bid made was 99.939, equivalent to an interest rate of about 0.24 per cent on an annual basis. The lowest bid accepted was 99.886, equivalent to an interest rate of about 0.45 per cent on an annual basis. The total amount of bids accepted was $100,466,000. The average price of treasury bills to be issued is 99.897. The average rate on a bank discount basis is about 0.41 per cent.

CHICAGO CURB EXCHANGE STOCKS

	Sales.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.
Corp T C ac s.	400	1.19	1.18	1.18	1.23
Corp T S AA..	400	1.19	1.18	1.19	1.24
Fanstecl	200	½	½	½	¾
Ford Mot Ltd.	100	2½	2½	2½	2½
Mere Finance A	300	11½	11½	11½	11½
Nlag H Pw NS	100	9¼	9¼	9¼	9¼
Stan Oil Ind....	88	17¾	17¾	17¾	18¼
T S Disc Chi..	234	46	45	46	45½

Total sales, 1,000 shares.

NEW YORK BOND TRANSACTIONS

Tuesday, June 28, 1932.

Total sales, par value.....$12,309,000 Total sales 1932 to date..$1,516,586,600
Year ago.....9,116,000 Total sales 1931 to date. 1,420,009,000

DOMESTIC.

No. thous.		High.	Low.	Close.
1	AlasGoldM 6s A '25	11¾	11¾	11¾
5	Alleghany 5s '44..	12	12	12
8	do 5s 1949	8½	8	8
10	do 5s 1950.....	6	5½	5½
10	Am&FrnP 5s 2030..	19	18½	18½
8	Am Cyan 5s '42.....	63¼	62	62
1	Am Ice 6s 1953....	68	68	68
1	AmIG Chem 5½s '49	61¼	61¼	61¼
12	Am Smelt 5s '47...	74½	74	74
1	Am Sug Ref 6s '37.	10½	10½	10½
70	AmTel & T 5½s '43	101	100½	100⅞
18	do col 5s 1946....	100¼	100	100¼
47	do 5s 1960	94½	93½	93¾
13	do 5s 1965	94	94	94
51	do cvt 4½s 1939...	99⅛	98¼	98¼
1	do 4s 1936	97¾	97¾	97¾
5	AmWW&Elec 6s '75.	53	52	53
20	ArmCo Del 5½s '43	52	50½	51¼
84	ArmCo r est 4½s'39	62¼	60⅝	61¾
1	Armstr Cork 5s '40.	56¼	56¼	56¼
57	AT&SF cvt 4½s '48.	77¾	76	76¾
66	do gen 4s 1995....	81½	81	81½
5	do adj 4s st '95....	76	75	75
1	do cvt 4s 1905-55..	66	66	66
5	A C Line 1st 4s '52	67⅝	67⅝	67⅝
2	do 4½s 1964	52¼	50	50
4	B & O rfg 6s '95....	32½	32¼	32½
14	do 1st 5s 1948.....	78½	78	78
1	do rfg 5s 1995.....	31½	31	31
3	do 5s 2000 D.....	30	30	30
13	do 4½s 1933	36½	34	34
44	do cvt 4½s 1960...	16¼	15¼	16
6	do gold 4s 1948....	71	70½	71
16	do 4s PLE&WVa ...	57½	56	56
5	do 5s S W '50.....	54½	53¾	53¾
1	do 4s T C 1959....	34	34	34
29	BellT Pa 5s B '48..	100¼	100	100¼
27	do 5s C 1960	101	100	101
1	Benef Ind Ln 6s '40	65	65	65
1	Beth Stl rfg 5s '42	76	76	76
18	do p m 5s '36.....	79¾	79	79
12	Boston & Me 5s '67	51	50	50
2	do 4½s J J '61.....	46¾	46½	46⅝
20	do 5s 1955	51	51	51
6	BotConMills 6½s '34	8¼	8¾	8¼
2	BklnCityRR 1st5s '41	52	52	52
14	BklynEdi 5s E '52.100	99¾	100
5	do 5s 1940 A.....101¼	101	101¼
22	Bklyn U Tr 6s '68..	74¾	74¾	74¾
1	BklynUEl 1st 5s '50	65	65	65
7	Bk U Gas 1st 5s'45.102¾	102⅝	102⅝
16	do 5s 1950	92¼	91⅝	91⅝
5	BstG El 4½s '81 B.	92¾	92¾	92¾
1	Bush Term 5s '55..	33	33	33
4	Bush Tm Bldg 5s '60	49½	48½	48½
1	By-Pr Coke 5½s '45	88¼	88¼	88¼
5	Cal Gas&El 5s '37..100¾	100¾	100¾
17	Cal Pack 5s '40....	51¾	51¼	51⅝
8	Cal Pet 5½s '38.....	80½	80	80
10	do 5s 1939	76¼	76¼	76¼
1	Can Sou 5s 1962....	76¼	76¼	76¼
5	Can N Ry 4½s '51.	76½	76½	76½
2	do 4½s 1954	75½	75½	75½
12	do 4½s 1956	75¾	75¾	75¾
3	do 4½s 1057	75¾	75¾	75¾
10	do 4½s 1968	74¾	74¾	74¾
2	do 5s '60 Oct.....	86¾	83¾	83¾
10	Can Nor 7s 1940...	93¾	93¾	94
2	do deb 6½s '46....	95	95	95
5	do 4½s 1935	91	91	91
41	Can Pac 5s 1954....	68¾	66	68¾
12	do deb 4s perp.....	52⅝	51½	52⅛
6	CarC&Ohio 6s '52..	55	55	55
4	CentDist Tel 5s '43.102¾	102¼	102½
3	Cent Ga con 5s '45.	21	20	21
5	CentIllE & G 5s '51.	61	61	61
4	Central Pac 5s '60..	39½	39	39½
23	do 1st gtd 4s '49...	65¾	64	64
8	Chesap Corp 5s '47.	38	37	37
9	Ches & O con 5s '39.101	101	101
47	do rfg 4½s '95 B.	71	70	70
2	C B & Q rfg 5s '71A	83	82	82
17	do 4s 1uf div '49....	85¾	85¾	85¾
1	do 3½s ILl div '49..	80¼	80¼	80¼
3	C & E I 5s 1951....	8	8	8
38	C Gt Western 4s '59	33¾	32	32
40	CMStP & Pac 5s '75	16	14	14⅝
1	do adj 5s 2000.....	3¾	3¾	3¾
3	C & N W 6½s '36....	54½	54	54
2	do rfg 5s 2037.....	18½	18½	18½
5	do gen 5s 1987	55	55	55
25	do cv 4¾s 1949....	9¼	9	9¼
26	do 4½s 2037	17	15½	15½
5	do gen 4s 1987	46	46	46
75	C R I & P 4½s '52A	23½	25	25
14	do cvt 4½s 1960...	12	11	11
5	do gen 4s 1988....	59	59	59
23	do rfg 4s 1934....	23¾	27	27¼
6	CITH&SE inc 5s 1960.	14	14	14
14	Ch Un Sta 6½s '63C.105	104¾	105
1	do 5s 1963 B.....	90	90	90
1	do 4½s 1963 A.....	86	86	86
11	Chi & NW 1sd 4s '52.	56¾	56¾	56¾
1	Chile Cn 5s 1943...	20¼	20¼	20¼
15	Chile Cop 5s 1947..	20	20	20
21	ClnnGas & El 4s '68	88	87¾	88
2	CCC&StL rfg4½s '77E	35	35	35
1	do gen 4s 1993	64¾	64¼	64¾
2	Clev DivTerm 4s '73.	61	61	61
2	do 4½s 1977 C.....	59	59	59
14	Colo&So 1st 4½s'35.	72¼	72¼	72¼
4	do rfg 4½s '80 A..	42½	42½	42½
10	ColumG&Els '52May	68	67¾	67¾
7	do 1951 Ser A.....	67	66¾	67
2	Coml Credit 6s '34.	94	94	94
11	Coml Inv Tr 5½s'49	85	84½	84½
2	ComTabRecdr 6s '41.105¼	105¼	105¼
28	Con GasNY 5½s '45.102¼	102¼	102¼
20	do 4½s 1051.....	90¼	90¼	90¼
8	Consum Pow 5s '52.	98	98	98
7	Cont Corp 6s '46...	22	20½	20½
3	Container 5s 1943..	10	10	10
1	CrCork&Seal 6s '47.	65	65	65
1	Crown Will 6s '51.	57½	57½	57½
1	Cuba R R 5s '52....	21	21	21
6	Cumb T & T 5s '37.101¾	101¼	101¼
15	Del & H rfg 4s '43..	73¼	72	73
1	D G & El 5s stp '51	82	82	82
10	D & R G W 4½s '36..	33½	32½	33½
17	do con 4s 1936.....	30	30	30
20	D&RGW gn 5s '55..	9	8	8
2	Det Ed col 5s '33...101¼	101¼	101¼
1	do 5s 1949 A.....	99	99	99
10	do 5s 1952	98¼	98¼	98¼
17	do 4½s 1961 D.....	91⅝	90	90
5	do 5s 1962 C.....	97	97	97
5	Dodge Br deb 6s '40	69½	69½	69½
20	DoldJacobPkg 6s '42	55½	55⅜	55⅜
40	Duquesne L14½s'67A	96¾	96	96
1	E Cuba Sug 7½s '38	4½	4½	4½
6	ETennV&G con 5s '56	66¼	66¼	66½
6	EdillumBrklyn 4s'39	97½	97½	97½
2	Elg Jol & E 5s '41..	83	83	83
33	Erie rf & im 5s '67.	14½	13¾	13¾
3	do rf & imp 5s '75.	14¼	13¾	13¾
22	do 1st cn gn 5s '96	63¼	63¼	63¼
1	do gen lien 4s '96..	38	38	38
5	do cvt 4s '53 A.....	20	20	20
1	FedLt & T 1st 6s'42	63	63	63
2	Fisk Rub 5s 1941..	23½	23¼	23¼
2	Fla E Cst 5s '74 ctfs.	2½	2½	2½
5	Fla E Coast 4½s '59.	45	43¼	43¼
10	Gen Bak 4½s '40....	92½	92	92
2	Gen Cable 5½s '47..	34	34	34
21	Gen Mot Ac 6s '37..101¼	101¼	101¼
2	Gen Pet 5s '40.....	100¼	100¼	100¼
6	Goodch B F 6½s'47.	70½	70	70
30	do 6s '45.....	36¾	36½	36½
38	Goodyr T & R 5s '57	70	69⅝	69⅝
4	Gr Tr Tr Can 7s'40.	92¾	92¼	92¼
2	do 6s '36.....	92¾	92¼	92¼
11	Gt North Ry 7s'36 A	55	55	55
5	do 5½s '52 B.....	49¼	49	49
22	Gt North gen 5s'73.	44½	44	44
5	do gen 4½s '76 D....	42	42	42
11	do 4½s '77 E.....	41½	41	41
1	Gulf Sts Stl 5½s'42.	23	22	23
3	Hud&Manrfg 5s'57 A	69¼	69	69
5	do adj inc 5s '54..	32	30½	33
54	do 5s '27.....	99¾	99¾	99¾
27	Ill Bell Tel 5s '56..	101½	100½	100⅝
38	Ill Cent 4½s '66....	23¾	20½	20¾
15	d rfg 4s '55.....	37	36	36
5	Ill Cent B R 4s '51.	72	72	72
4	do col tr 4s '53....	28	27	28
9	IC&CStL&NO rf5s'63A	27	25¼	25¼
4	do 4½s '63 C.....	23¾	22¾	22¾
6	IllStl deb 4½s '40..	32¾	32¾	32¾
2	Inland St 4½s '78A..	65½	65½	65½
2	do 4½s '81 B.....	65	65	65
8	Interb R Tr 7s'32..	58½	57	57
4	do 6s '32.....	16½	16½	16½
7	do rfg 5s '66.....	36½	35½	35½
3	do rfg 5s '66 stamp.	36	35½	35½
2	Int Cem 5s '48.....	48	48	48
2	IntGtN 1st 6s '52..	15½	15½	15½
2	do 5s '56 B.....	15½	15½	15½
5	do 5s '56 C.....	15	15	15
14	IntHyd El 6s '44....	20¾	20	20¾
5	Int Match 5s '47....	3½	3½	3½
2	do 5s '41 cvt.....	1¾	1¾	1¾
10	Int M Mar s f 6s'41.	30¾	30½	30½
7	Int Pap rfg 6s'55 A.	12¾	12¾	12¾
6	do cvt 5s '47 A....	35	34	34
5	Int Rys C Am 6s'41..	24½	23¼	23¼
10	Int T&T cvt 4½s'39.	20½	20	20
4	do deb 4½s '52.....	17	16¾	16¾
11	do deb 5s '55.....	21¾	20½	20½
1	Invest Eq 5s '47 A..	68¼	68¼	68¼
2	Ia Cent 4s '51.....	1½	1½	1½
4	KCFtS.Mem 4s'36..	43¼	43½	43½
11	KCPw&Lt 4½s '57..	92	91¼	92
5	do 4½s '61.....	91¾	91	91¾
6	K C South rfg 5s'50.	36½	36	36
4	do 1st 5s '50.....	53¾	53½	53½
14	K C Trm 1st 4s '60..	82¼	81¾	81¾
4	Keith B F 6s '46..	26½	26½	26½
7	Kresge Fnd 6s '36..	50	49½	49½
8	LacG&StL 5½s '53..	50	47¾	47¾
1	do 5½s '60 D.....	48	48	48
5	do 1st 5s '34.....	76	75	75
30	Laut Nit 6s '54.....	¾	¾	¾
4	Lig & Myers 5s'51.100	100	100
4	L Isl deb 5s '37....	74	74	74
9	Lorilld Co 7s '44....	105½	105	105½
5	La & Ark 5s '69....	23¼	22	22
16	Lou G&El 5s '52..	95¾	94¾	94¾
1	Lou&N unifid 4s'40.	74½	74¼	74½
1	MkistRy 7s '40.....	72½	72½	72½
5	McCrory5t 5½s '41.	53¾	52¾	52¾
7	McKes&Rob 5½s'50.	28¾	27¾	27¾
1	Mead Corp 6s '46 A.	20½	20½	20½
2	Met Ed 5s '53.....	77	76	77
9	do 4½s '68.....	70	68¾	69½
5	Midv Stl cvt 5s '36..	79	79	79
5	MilEn&L 1st 5s'61B.	78½	76½	75¼
3	do 5s '71.....	77½	75¼	75¼
1	MSP&SSM gtd 5s'38.	40	40	40
5	do 1st con 4s '38..	39	38½	39
7	M-K-Tex pr lns'62A	44½	44¼	44½
6	do adj 5s '67.....	20¾	19½	19½
27	do 1st-4s '90.....	68	67½	67½
1	do 4s '62 B.....	34¼	34¼	34¼
5	MoPac cvt 5½s'49..	7⅝	7	7
30	do 5s '77 F.....	24½	23¼	23½
54	do gen 4s '75.....	11¾	11	11¼
31	do 1st 5s '81.....	24½	23½	23½
2	Mob&O 4½s '77.....	3	3	3
3	MontrTr col 5s'41.	76¾	76¾	76¾
24	Mor&Co 1st 4½s'39.	66	64	66
3	MurrayBdy 6½s '34.	69	69	69
1	Namm&Son 6s '43...	60	60	60
36	Nat Dairy 5½s '48.	79¾	79½	79½
11	Natl Steel 5s '56....	68¼	67	67¾
15	N Eng T&T 5s'52.101	100¼	100½
1	do gen 4½s '61 B..	95	95	95
2	NJ Pw&Lt 4½s '60.	81	80	81
3	NOPubSv 5s'55B.....	58	56¾	58
6	NYC deb 6s '35.....	48	46	48
5	do rf & imp 5s2013.	38¼	37¾	37¼
10	do con 4s '98.....	59	59	59
8	NYHR r im4½s2013A	33½	33	33½
48	do deb 4s '34.....	63½	59	59
11	do rf&imp 4½s2013.	33¾	33	33½

No. thous.		High.	Low.	Close.
5	NYCMIC cl tr½s'98	63¼	62½	62½
89	NYChi&StL 6s'32..	26¾	24	24
2	do 5½s '74 A.....	16½	16	16½
29	do 4½s '78 C.....	15	14¼	14⅜
1	do 1st 4s '37.....	65	65	65
5	NYConnRys 4½'53..	77	77	77
12	NYEd rfg 6½s '41..	108	107¾	107⅝
24	do 5s '44.....	100⅜	100½	100⅜
3	do 5s C.....	100⅝	100½	100⅜
16	NYGE|H&P cl 5s'48.	103¼	102	103½
4	do p m 4s '49.....	91⅞	91¼	91⅝
1	NYNH&H ct db6s'48	65	65	65
7	do 1st&rfg 4½s '67.	49¾	49	49
18	NY O&W rfg 4s'92.	45	43	43
2	do gen 4s '55.....	34¾	34¾	34¾
1	NYRys pr ln 6s'65A.	30	30	30
1	N Y Stm 5s '56....	91	91	91
3	do 5s '51.....	92	92	92
10	NYS&W rfg 5s'37...	22½	20
23	NYTel gen 4½s'39...100⅛	100¼	100⅛
2	Niag Shr 5½s '50....	43	43	43
20	Nor&W con 4s'96....	65¼	65¼	65⅜
6	NorAmCo 6s '61.....	66	65	66
2	N Am Ed 5½s '63...	70¼	70¼	70¾
1	do 5s C '69.....	63¾	63¾	63¾
21	Nor Pac 6sB 2047..	55½	54½	55
5	do rf & im 5sC 2047	51	51	50⅝
2	do rf & im 5sD 2047	51	51	51
2	do gen lien 4s '2047	76½	76½	76⅝
3	Nor Sta Pw 6sB '41.101¼	101¼	101¼
1	Ohio P S 7½s '46...	84	84	84
1	OreW RR&N 4s '61.	70	70	70
2	Otis Steel 6s '41....	13½	13½	13⅝
31	Pac G&El 5s '42..100½	99½	100
1	Pac T&T 5s '37....101½	101½	101⅜
5	do rfg 5s '52.....	100	100	100
4	Param Bway 5½s '51	35	34	35
3	Param Pub 5½s '50.	15	14½	14½
13	Pa P&Lt 4½s '81....	81½	81½	81½
19	Pa R R 4½s '36	87¼	86¾	86⅝
1	do gen 5s '68	74¾	74¾	74¾
1	do 5s '64	64½	64½	64½
1	do 4¾s '63	64¾	64¾	64¾
3	do con 4½s '60.....	89¼	89¼	89¼
3	do gen 4½s '65.....	69½	69½	69½
3	do gen 4½s D '65...	61¾	61¾	61⅝
17	do 4½s '70	43	42¾	43
1	do 4s '48	87	87	87
6	Peo GL&C Chi 5s '47	90½	90¼	90¼
2	Pere Marq 5s '56....	35	34½	35
12	do 4½s '80	31¾	31¾	31¾
75	Phila Co 5s '67.....	75¾	75	75
1	Phil Elec 4½s '67...	98½	98½	98⅝
7	do 4s '71	87	86½	87
4	Phil Read C&I 6s '49	31½	31	31
41	Phillips Pet 5½s '39.	56¼	56	56
1	Phila Fl M 6s '43....	92	92	92
1	PCLtRES gen 5s'A '70	67¼	67	67¼
11	do 5s B '75.....	65	64	65
5	do 4½s C '77.....	60	60	60
1	Pitts Va&Char 4s '43	73	73	73
3	Pitts&WVa 4½s'C '60	35	35	35
29	do 4½s '60	42¾	38	40
3	P Rico Am Tob 6s'42	17	15½	15
12	Postal T&C 5s '53..	15½	15	15
7	Pub S E&G 4½s '67.	96½	96½	96⅜
9	do 4½s '70	96	96	96
7	Rem R 5½s '47 ww	35	45	50
17	Rep I&Stl 5½s '53..	50	10	10
2	Rich Oil Cal 6s '44.	10	10	10
1	Rio G W col tr 4s'49	30¾	30¾	30¾
2	RI Arb&La 4½s '34..	24	23¼	24
17	StLIM&S 4s Rf&G '33	47½	46½	46⅝
1	St L S F 5s '50 B...	13½	13½	13⅛
125	do 4½s '73.....	10¼	9	9
15	do 4s A '50.....	11½	10½	10⅝
10	St L S W rfg 5s '90	16½	15	15
1	do 1st 4s '89.....	54	54	54
25	StRy&RG gn 5s '31..	25	25	25
1	Scab A L con 6s '45	2¾	2¾	2¾
5	do 6s 45 ctfs.....	2¾	2¾	2¾
51	Shell P L 5s '52....	60½	52½	53½
45	Shell Un 5s '47.....	55	52½	52⅝
5	do 5s '49 ww.....	53¾	52¾	53
27	Simm & Oil col 7s '37.	86¼	86	86
47	do 6½s '38	83½	83	83
38	Sinc Cr Oil 5½s '38.100		100	100
26	Skelly Oil 5½s '39..	58¾	58	58
3	Smith Corp 6½s '33.	95½	95½	95½
2	Solvay Am 5s '42....	82	82	82
4	So Bell T&T 5s '41..100	100	100
1	So & No Ala 5s '36.	75	75	75
4	So Pac 4½s '68.....	32½	32	32
38	do 4½s '81	31	30	30
7	do 4½s '69 ww.....	30¾	29⅞	30
5	do rfg 4s 2008.....	76	76	76
2	U Bis Am 6s '42.....	86½	86½	86½
7	Un Drug Del 5s '53.	68	67¾	68
2	Un NJ RR&Can 4s'44	89	89	89
2	U S Rub 5s '47.....	30	30	30
22	Utah L&Trac 5s '44.	60	58½	60
7	Utah P&Lt 5s '44...	64½	64½	64½
2	Util P&Lt 5½s '47..	19½	19	19
10	do 5s '59 ww.....	17¾	17	17½
1	Vanadium 5s '41....	37	37	37
1	Va Ry&Pow 5s '34..	97	97	97
4	Va Ry 5s '62	76	75¾	76
3	Va & S W con 5s '58	28½	28	28½
1	Wab RR 1st 5s '39..	57	57	57
1	Wabash 5s '80 D....	6¼	6¼	6¼
9	do 5s '76 B.....	6¼	5½	5½
2	Walwor 6½s '35 ww	11¾	11¾	11¾
1	do 6½s '35 xw....	11½	11½	11½
15	Warner B P 6s '39..	14	12¾	14
2	Warner Quin 6s '39.	17	17	17
1	War Sug 7s '41.....	98¾	98¾	98¾
1	Warren B cv 6s '41.	27	27	27
2	Westch Lt 5s '50....101¾	101¾	101¾
17	West Elec 5s '44....	93	92¾	92¾
14	West Md 5½sA '77..	43	42¾	43
23	do 4s '52	46½	46	46
1	WNY&Pa 1st 5s '37	91	91	91
2	West Pac 1st 5s '46.	26½	26	26½
1	West Union 6½s '36.	59	59	59
5	do 5s '51	46	45	46
1	do 5s '60	46	46	46
1	W Shore 1st 4s 2361	70	70	70
10	Wheel stl 5½sA '48.	48¼	47¼	47¼
12	do 4½s B '53.....	40	30	40
9	White S M 6s '36 xw	20	20	20
8	do 6s '40	20	20	20
6	Wilson&Co 1st 6s '41	66	64¾	66
2	Wis Cen gen 4s '49..	30	30	30
12	Zenith S&T 5s '78..	55½	55	55⅝
3	do 5s B '70.....	55	55	55

FOREIGN.

No. thous.		High.	Low.	Close.
2	Abitibi P & P 5s '53	20¼	20¼	20¼
2	Adriatic El 7s '52..	69	69	69
9	Ag Bank Col 6

AMERICAN CAN SEES SIGNS OF BETTER TRADE

Declares Dividend as the Santa Fe Omits.

[Continued from page 23, column 8.]

ly disbursement by the American Can company, the Allied Chemical and Dye company and the Hershey Chocolate company. Atchison railroad, however, omitted its common dividend and Norfolk and Western reduced its rate.

The board of directors of American Can declared the regular quarterly dividends of $1 a share on the common stock; directors of Allied Chemical and Dye declared the regular payment of $1.50 a share on the common and Hershey Chocolate directors announced the regular quarterly dividend of $1.50 on the common and $1 on the convertible preferred stock.

In a statement the American Can directors said that while the volume of business in the early part of the year was less than during the corresponding 1931 period, canned goods stocks are low and this should help volume. Also that based on contracts which have already been made, the year should show profits less than last year, but substantial.

Santa Fe Omits Dividend.

Adverse dividend action was taken by two railroads, Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe omitting the payment on the common stock and the Norfolk and Western reducing the quarterly dividend on the common from $2.50 to $2 a share.

Action of the Santa Fe in omitting the dividend was foreshadowed in April. Then a declaration of $1 a share was accompanied by the statement that further dividends must depend on improved earnings. Payments on the stock to date this year amount to $2.50 a share, compared with $10 paid last year. Santa Fe common had been on a regular $10 annual basis since June, 1928, when the rate was advanced from $7. Some payment has been made on the stock in each year since 1901.

Santa Fe earnings last year were equivalent to $6.96 a share on the common, compared with $12.86 a share in 1930, and $22.69 a share in 1929. In the first four months this year the carrier had a deficit of $757,450 after taxes and charges, compared with net income of $2,193,574 in the period last year.

Stock on $8 Basis.

The Norfolk and Western railway company declared a quarterly dividend of $2 on the common stock, placing that issue on an $8 annual basis, against $10 previously. The regular quarterly dividend of $1 a share was declared on the adjustment preferred stock.

Directors of General Food corporation declared a quarterly dividend of 50 cents a share on the common stock, compared with 75 cents quarterly paid previously. The company said that while earnings are estimated in the neighborhood of $1.50 a share for the first six months of this year, the directors agreed unanimously on a conservative policy.

Byllesby Engineering and Management corporation announces that the board of directors of San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock, payable July 15 to stockholders of record June 30.

How Stocks Acted.

Prices of shares on the New York Stock exchange moved up and down uncertainly in a narrow channel today.

Some stocks rose briskly and then fell heavily. Auburn was a rapid gainer in the early trading, but Coca Cola dropped 3 or 4 points. American Can was strong at the start, but turned uncertain later. General Foods and Norfolk and Western were steady. Allied Chemical recovered on maintenance of the regular dividend rate.

U. S. Steel common and preferred, General Motors, American Telephone and Westinghouse were among the stocks to sell at new low levels. Santa Fe dragged down with it to new low prices the stocks of Chesapeake and Ohio, Delaware and Hudson and Union Pacific. Yields for those stocks rose to 20 and 25 per cent. Norfolk's yield was 14 per cent on the revised rate.

Wide Range in Preferreds.

Preferred stocks elbowed in for the usual wide movements. Preferred issues to lose from 2 to 5 points were: Abraham & Straus, Allied Chemical, American Water Works, International Nickel, Liggett & Myers, National Biscuit, National Lead B and Pittsburgh Coal. The winners of 2 to 4 points were: Beatrice Creamery, General Printing and Safeway Stores 6 per cent.

With no important overnight news to move the market, other than the reassuring statement of Charles G. Dawes regarding the position of his Chicago bank, stocks continued dull and uncertain until the Allied Chemical dividend action caught shorts off their guard.

Political and industrial news was more or less obscured by the street's preoccupation with dividend actions, although the Democratic convention was followed closely for developments bearing on the selection of the party's standard bearer.

Turnover on the stock exchange remained below a million shares.

Situation at Lausanne.

The deadlock at Lausanne left only faint hope of any early developments toward settlement of the reparations problem. However, German bonds improved on prospects of payment of early maturing German obligations in this country.

Ready response of the market to favorable news reflected a better technical position as result of recent selling for the decline in anticipation of dividend revisions and disappointing political developments. Chart-readers also were disposed to be wary, waiting for decisive penetration of the June 1 bear market lows. Standard Statistics index of industrial stock prices went through the previous low by a small margin yesterday, but the general price level held by a hair above the bear movement extreme.

GASOLINE AND OILS.

GASOLINE—Including tax: Red Crown, service station, 17.1c; Stanolind, blue, 13.6c; ethyl, 20.1c. CARBON — Perfection, 10c. FUEL OIL—Stanolex, 100 gals or more, 6c; less than 100 gals, 8c. LINSEED—Raw, 54c; boiled, 57c. TURPENTINE—52c. DENATURED ALCOHOL—46c. DIESEL ENGINE FUEL OIL—Bunkered at Indiana Harbor ship canal, 5½c per gal. WHITE LEAD—100 lbs, $13.00.

NEW YORK STOCK TRANSACTIONS

Tuesday, June 28, 1932.
Shares sold today..... 829,745
Year ago..... 1,944,550

Tuesday, June 28, 1932.
Total sales 1932 to date..... 175,598,067
Total sales 1931 to date..... 333,395,386

[The figures in brackets after name of stock are the present dividend rate.]

A

Prev. 1932 High.	Low.	Div. pct.	Bid.	Asked.	Description. div. rate, $=	Sales.	High.	Low.	Close.	Net chge.
9¼	1½	...	1⅝	2	Abit P & P pfd	100	2	2	2	+ ⅝
98	70	10.0	70	81	Abr & S pfd [7]	120	70	70	70	– 5
5⅝	1⅝	...	2	2¼	Adams Express	200	2	2	2	....
13	9¾	...	10	10¼	Addressograph	200	10¼	10	10	....
16¼	4¼	23.0	4¾	5	Affiliat Prod. [1.60]	600	5	4⅞	4⅞	– ⅛
62¾	34½	8.6	34⅛	35	Air Reduction [3]	11,600	35⅝	34½	35	+ ⅛
16⅜	7⅜	6.2	7⅜	8	Alaska-Jun [.50] .	1,500	8⅛	7⅞	8⅛+	⅛
3¼	⅜	...	⅜	½	Alleghany	100	⅜	⅜	⅜	....
87½	42⅜	13.0	45½	45¾	Allied C & Dye [$1.42	2,900	47	43⅝	45¾+	2¼
110	96½	6.9	100	104	Do pfd [7]	300	101	98⅛	101 +	⅛
13⅜	4	10.0	8¼	8⅝	Allis-Ch Mfg [.50]	400	5½	5⅛	5½–	⅛
16⅜	12	14.3	14½	14⅝	Amerada [2]	600	14⅜	14½	14½	....
7½	3⅛	...	3¾	4	Am Ag Chem Del..	200	4	4	4	– ⅛
3½	1	...	1	2½	Am Beet Sug pfd ..	60	2¼	1¾	1⅞–	1⅛
16½	6½	7.2	7¼	7⅜	Am Brake S [.85r]	400	7¾	7¼	7¼+	⅛
90	40¼	15.6	45	40½	Do pfd [7]	50	46	45	45 –	⅛
73⅛	29⅝	12.5	31⅝	32	Am Can [4]	59,700	33½	30⅜	31½+	1⅝
129	93½	7.3	87	97	Do pfd [7]	200	98	95¾	95½–	1¾
35⅜	3⅜	...	3⅝	4¼	Am Car & Foundry	300	4¼	4	4	....
30½	16¼	38.9	16⅛	19	Do pfd [7]	10	18¾	18½	18½+	⅜
15½	11	...	15	15	Am Comml Alcohol..	200	12¾	12½	12½	....
10¼	2⅜	...	2⅜	3¼	Am Europ	900	3	2⅜	2⅜–	⅛
9¼	2	...	2	2¼	Am & For Power ..	600	2¼	2	2⅛	....
88½	3	...	5¼	5⅝	Do $7 pfd	200	5⅜	5⅜	5⅝+	⅛
6	3	33.3	3½	3¾	Am-Hawaii S S [1]	200	3½	3½	3½	....
2¼	1	...	1⅜	1⅝	Am Hide & Leather	100	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝+	⅛
51⅜	25	16.1	25½	26¾	Am Home P [4.20]	2,800	26¾	25	26 –	1
21⅜	9	18.2	10⅝	11¼	Am Ice [2]	200	11	10⅜	11	....
8½	2½	...	2⅞	3⅛	Am International .	300	3	3	3	+ ⅛
9¼	4	...	3¾	4⅜	Am Locomotive	700	4	4	4	– ⅛
44¾	23¾	30.4	22⅞	23⅝	Do pfd [7]	300	24½	23¼	23½–	1⅛
22¾	7⅛	17.4	7⅜	7¾	Am M & F [1.40]	1,200	7¾	7⅜	7⅝–	⅛
16⅞	3	25.0	4⅛	4¼	Am Pow & Lt [1]	4,600	4½	4⅛	4⅛–	⅛
58	15½	40.0	13½	15⅜	Do $6 pfd [6] ..	400	16	13½	15½–	⅛
48⅜	18	58.5	13¾	12½	Do $5 pfd [5] ..	200	14	13	13 –	1
8¼	3¼	...	3¾	3⅝	Am Rad-Std San ..	900	3⅝	3⅜	3⅜+	⅛
120	80	8.8	75	80	Do pfd [7]	20	80	80	80	....
13	3	...	4	4¼	Am Roll Mill	500	4¼	4	4	....
18⅝	5¼	...	6¼	6¾	Am Smelt & Refin..	1,500	6¼	6	6¼+	⅛
35	22	...	23	25	Do pfd	100	23	23	23 +	1
103	90	6.5	93½	95	†Am Snuff pfd [6]	30	93½	93½	93½	....
80	35⅝	19.4	35⅝	40	Am Su F pfd [7]	50	35⅝	35⅝	35⅝–	⅛
30¼	13	11.8	15⅜	17	Am Sugar Ref [2]	200	17	17	17 +	⅛
137⅜	75¼	11.7	76⅜	77	Am Tel & Tel [9] .	40,900	78	75½	76⅜+	⅛
48	40½	10.4	46⅛	48	Am Tob [5m]	1,000	48	47	48 +	1¾
89¾	44	10.3	46¾	49	Do B [5m]	10,000	50¼	48½	48¾–	⅛
25	4	...	5	7½	Am Type Fdrs	100	5	5	5 –	⅛
34½	11	16.7	11⅜	12	Am Wat Wks [2] .	1,000	12	11⅜	12 +	⅛
31	11	18.2	11	13	Do ctf [2]	300	11	11	11 –	....
43½	16¼	15.4	39¼	39½	Am W W 1st p [6]	100	36	36	36 –	3
90½	15½	...	17	17⅝	Am Woolen pfd	900	17¼	17¼	17⅛–	⅜
3⅜	1⅛	...	1⅜	1⅝	Am Zinc Ld & S ..	100	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	....
12¾	3	...	3⅜	3⅝	Anaconda	1,300	3⅝	3⅜	3½	....
17½	5¼	21.4	6¾	7	Anchor Cap [1.50r]	500	7	6¾	6¾	....
13	7	12.5	8½	10	Archer-Dan-M [1]..	100	8	8½	8½–	⅛
44	24	26.0	26½	27¼	Armour Del p [7]	200	26	26	26 +	⅛
2	⅝	...	⅝	¾	Armour Illinois A..	600	⅝	⅝	⅝+	⅛
1¼	⅜	...	⅜	½	Do B	700	½	⅜	⅜+	⅛
14¼	3¼	...	5	7	Do pfd	100	5¼	5¼	5⅝+	⅛
11	2	...	2¾	3¼	Asso Dry Goods....	100	3	3	3	....
94	17⅜	...	18½	18⅝	A T & S F	32,700	21¼	17⅜	18⅝–	1⅛
86	42½	11.9	41⅞	43	Do pfd [5]	200	43	42½	42¾–	1½
41¼	9¾	...	11⅛	12	Atl Coast Line.....	200	12	12	12	....
12¾	8¾	10.0	10¼	10¾	Atl Refin [1].....	300	10¼	10¼	10¼+	⅛
70¾	46	12.8	47	48	Atlas Pow pfd [6].	10	47¼	47¼	47½+	⅜
151⅝	28¼	8.9	45¼	45⅝	Auburn Auto [4a] .	20,100	49¾	43	45½+	3¼
⅛	⅛	...	⅛	¼	Aust Nich	100	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
3½	1¼	...	1¾	2	Aviation Corp.....	600	1¾	1¾	1¾	....

B

28½	8	...	8½	10	Bald Loc pf.....	60	9¼	8¾	8¾–	⅝
21⅜	3⅜	...	4⅜	5	Balt & Ohio.....	2,300	5⅛	4⅝	5	....
41½	6	...	6½	7	Do pfd	200	6⅞	6¾	6⅝–	⅛
⅛	⅛	...	⅛	¼	Barnet Leath.....	200	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
5½	3⅜	...	4	4¼	Barnsdall	400	4¼	4¼	4¼	....
43½	16¼	11.8	17½	18	Beatrice Cr [2].....	100	17½	17½	17⅝	....
93	70	9.5	69½	...	Do pfd [7]	100	74	74	74 +	3⅛
18⅜	4½	...	5	5½	Bendix Aviat.....	600	5¼	5	5	....
24½	5⅜	...	6⅜	7	Best & Co.....	100	6⅜	6⅜	6⅜	....
24⅜	7¼	...	7¼	7½	Bethlehem Steel....	2,800	7½	7¼	7½–	⅛
74	24	29.2	20	23⅞	Do pfd [7]	100	24	24	24	....
43⅜	20⅝	9.5	20¾	21	Borden [2]	3,600	21⅜	20¾	21⅛+	⅛
13⅜	3⅜	...	3⅜	3¾	Borg-Warner	200	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜–	⅛
58	23½	26.1	23	...	Bkln & Q T pf [6]	100	23¾	23¼	23⅜–	5⅛
50¼	11⅞	...	14⅞	15	Bklyn Man T.....	5,400	15⅜	14½	15 +	⅛
78⅝	31½	14.3	42	43	Do pfd [6].....	700	42	41¼	42 +	1
85½	46	10.0	50	52	Bklyn Un Gas [5].	600	52	50	50 –	2
⅜	⅛	...	⅛	¾	Brunz T & Ry S....	300	⅛	⅛	⅛–	⅛
13	6¼	11.4	6⅝	7	Burr Ad Mch [.80]	600	7	6⅝	7	....
65	9½	70.9	10⅝	11	BushT 7% deb [7]	70	10⅞	10½	10½–	⅛
19	7	...	8½	8⅞	Byers Co.....	500	8¼	8	8¼–	⅛

C

11⅞	4¼	...	5	5¼	Calif Pack.....	300	5	5	5	....
⅛	⅛	...	⅛	⅛	Callahan Z-Ld.....	200	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
4	1½	...	2	2½	Calumet & Hec.....	100	2¼	2¼	2¼+	⅛
13½	6	17.1	7½	8	Can D G Ale [1.20]	300	7¾	7½	7½–	⅛
20⅜	7¼	15.6	8⅜	8¾	Canad Pac [1.25]..	1,800	8½	8¼	8⅜–	⅛
43⅜	16¼	...	21¼	21½	Case J I.....	14,800	22⅜	20¾	21¼+	⅜
75	30	20.6	33	34½	Do pfd [7]	30	34½	34½	34½–	3
15	4¾	10.0	4⅞	5	Caterpil Trac [.60]	100	5	5	5 +	⅛
14⅜	7⅜	10.7	13¼	14	Cent Aguirre [1.50]	900	14½	13⅜	14⅛+	⅜
6¼	2⅜	...	3½	4⅜	Century Rib M.....	100	4½	4½	4½+	1
13	3½	...	4¼	4⅜	Cerro de Pas.....	300	4¼	4¼	4¼	....
31½	9½	25.0	9⅝	10	Ches & Ohio [2.80]	23,800	11⅜	9⅝	9¾–	⅜
20⅜	4⅜	40.0	5¼	5⅜	Ches Corp [2].....	2,500	5⅜	4⅜	5⅛	....
12¾	2	...	2¾	2⅞	Chi & N W.....	600	2⅜	2½	2⅜+	⅛
31	5¼	...	5	6⅛	Do pfd.....	100	5¼	5¼	5¼–	⅜
4⅜	1¼	...	1½	1⅝	Chi G West.....	200	1½	1½	1½	....
6¼	1½	...	1⅝	1⅞	Chi Mil St P & P pf	100	1¾	1¼	1⅜–	⅛
16⅝	2½	...	2½	2¾	Chi R I & P.....	200	2	2	2 –	⅛
9	5	...	5	7	Chick Cut Oil.....	100	5	5	5	....
15⅜	5	16.7	6	6¼	Chrysler [1]	6,400	6¼	6	6	....
28⅛	14⅞	24.0	14⅜	15	City Ice & F [3.60]	700	15½	14⅞	14⅞–	⅝
68	53⅜	12.0	53	54	Do pfd [6.50].....	10	54	54	54	....
22	10	20.0	10	13	Cluett Fea [2]	100	10	10	10	....
120	80½	P.D	80⅜	81	Coca-Cola [8b]	19,700	84⅜	80½	81 –	2¾
50	42	7.1	42	45	Do A [3].....	700	42¼	42	42 –	⅛
31½	12½	20.8	12¾	12½	Colgate-Palm [2.50]	200	12¾	12¾	12¾–	⅛
10⅜	2¾	...	3	3⅜	Coll & Alk	200	3¼	3	3 –	⅛
18⅜	4½	16.7	...	6⅞	Colu G & E l [11]	2,700	6¼	5⅞	6
41⅜	13½	18.8	16	16¼	Columb Carb [3] ..	1,500	16⅝	15⅝	16¼+	⅝
11	3⅝	12.5	3¾	4	Coml Credit [.50]..	100	4	3¾	4
26¼	13	23.1	12	14¼	Do A [3]	100	13½	13½	13½–	1½
27¾	10⅞	16.7	11½	12¾	Coml Invest Tr [2]	400	11⅝	11½	11⅝–	⅜
10¼	3½	15.0	4½	4¾	Coml Solv [.60]..	1,400	4⅝	4½	4½–	⅛
4¼	1⅝	15.0	2	2¼	Comwl & So [.30]	2,800	2	2	2
68½	27⅝	17.1	35¼	35½	Do pfd [6]	300	35½	35¼	35¼+	⅛
11	6½	14.3	6¾	7	Congoleum-Na [1].	300	7	6⅝	7+	⅛
24½	5	...	5¼	5¾	Con Cigar	100	5¾	5⅝	5¾–	⅛
60	17	24.1	25	27	Do6½%pww[6.50]	10	27	27	27	....

D

5¼	4	15.0	4⅞	5¼	Dayco Sirs [.60].	100	4¾	4¼	4¼	....
5¼	1	...	1⅞	2	Davison Chem	400	2¼	2¼	2⅛	....
15¼	6⅜	8.7	6⅝	6⅝	Deere & Co pf[7.40]	200	6⅝	6⅝	6⅝–	⅛
80½	35	25.7	35	37	Del & Hud [9]	400	36	35	35 –	⅝
9	1⅛	...	1⅜	2	Den & Rio G W pfd	100	2	2	2 +	⅛
122	62	12.9	61½	63½	Detroit Ed [8]	100	62	62	62 –	2¾
15¾	12	7.1	14¼	14¾	Diamond Mat. [1]..	800	14¼	14	14
11⅜	7½	12.0	9⅜	9⅝	Dome Min [1.20b]	300	9¾	9¼	9⅜–	⅛
13⅜	5	20.0	5½	5⅝	Douglas Airc [1]..	300	5⅝	5½	5½–	⅛
12½	2⅜	...	1⅝	2¼	Dresser B	100	2¼	2¼	2½–	⅛
57	23	16.4	25⅜	25⅝	Drug Inc [4].....	3,800	26¼	25¼	25⅝+	⅜
59⅜	24	12.5	24	24¼	Du Pont de N [3]..	17,300	24½	24	24¼
108	80⅜	7.1	84½	86	Do 6% def [6].....	200	85½	85	85½+	½

E

87⅞	37⅜	12.8	39	39½	Eastman Kod [3]..	5,800	40½	38¼	39¼–	¾
8	3	...	3	3¼	Eaton Mfg	700	3	3	3
1¾	⅜	...	⅜	½	Eitingon-Sch	100	⅜	⅜	⅜
4	1¼	...	1¼	1½	El & Mus.....	200	1½	1¼	1¼–	⅛
32⅜	8½	23.0	9⅜	9¾	El Auto L [2.30g]	100	9⅞	9⅜	9⅜–	⅛
16⅜	2¼	...	2¾	3⅛	El Pow & Lt.....	3,600	3⅛	2¾	2¾–	⅛
55½	10¾	60.0	9¼	10⅜	Do $6 pfd [6]....	100	10¾	10¾	10¾–	⅜
64	11¾	63.6	10⅜	13	Do pfd [7].....	800	11⅝	11¾	11¾–	⅜
33¼	12⅜	17.7	16⅜	17⅛	El Stor Bat [3]....	200	17¼	17	17 +	⅛
107½	98	6.9	100⅜	115	End-John pfd [7]..	500	101½	101¼	101¾–	1
13½	2¾	...	3	4	Erie 1st pfd.....	100	3¼	3¼	3¼+	⅛

F

5⅜	3	...	2¾	3¼	Fairbanks Morse	100	3	3	3
2¾	⅜	...	3	5	Fash Park pfd.....	150	3	3	3
10⅜	3	...	3	4	Fed Mog [.80].....	100	3¼	3¼	3¼–	⅛
15⅜	10½	9.1	11	11¾	Firestone T&R [1]	300	10⅝	10⅝	10⅝–	⅜
59½	45½	12.8	47	47¾	Do pfd [6].....	300	47¼	47	47¾+	⅛
53	37	6.3	39⅜	40	First Nat St [2.50]	1,200	40	39½	40 +	½
⅝	⅜	...	⅜	¾	Fisk Rubber	100	¼	¼	¼	....
10	4¼	...	4½	5	Florsheim Sh A....	500	5¼	5	5 –	⅛
12	3	...	5¼	5⅝	Foster Wheel	500	5½	4½	5¼+	⅜
4½	1⅛	...	1¼	1¾	Foundation	100	1¼	1¼	1¼–	⅛
21½	10¼	9.6	12¾	12¾	Fourth N I [1.15g]	200	12½	12¼	12¼
19½	10	20.0	10¼	11	Freeport Tex [2]..	200	10¼	10¼	10¼–	⅛

G

17¼	5¾	...	6	6¼	Gamewell	110	6¼	6	6 –	⅛
3¾	⅝	...	⅝	¾	Gen Am Inv.....	600	¾	⅝	⅝
15⅛	4¼	16.6	5¼	6	Gen Asphalt [1]..	100	6	6	6
15½	4¼	...	5¼	6	Gen Bronze	100	6	6	6
38⅜	20	18.2	21¼	23¼	Gen Cigar [4].....	200	22¼	22¼	22¼–	⅜
26⅛	8¼	4.4	9¼	9⅝	Gen Elec [.40]....18,700		9⅝	9	9¼+	⅛
11¼	10⅜	5.5	10¾	10¾	Do spl [.80].....	200	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜
40½	19⅜	10.0	20	20¼	Gen Foods [2].....	3,900	20¼	19⅝	20⅛+	⅛
6¾	2¼	...	⅜	½	Gen G & E A.....	1,200	⅝	⅜	⅜
24⅜	3	...	3	5	Do cv pfd [6d]....	300	4	3	3 –	1½
88	77	7.8	76½	77	Gen Mills pfd [6]..	100	77	77	77 –	⅛
24⅝	12⅜	13.5	...	8¼	Gen Motors [1]....17,000		9¼	8¼	9
57¼	30¼	8.3	59¼	61	Do pfd [5].....	300	61¼	59¾	59¾+	⅜
4	3⅛	...	3½	3½	Gen Out Adv.....	100	3¼	3¼	3½
9	4	...	4½	5	Do A	100	4	4	4 –	⅛
60	27½	20.0	27½	40	Gen Pink p ww[6]	50	30	30	30 +	2½
⅞	⅝	...	⅝	¾	Gen Real & Ut.....	300	¾	¾	¾
16½	5	...	5	8¾	Do pfd	100	5½	5½	5½–	....
14¾	2	...	1½	2	Gen Refract	1,500	2½	2	2 –	....
24½	10¾	4.2	12	12¾	Gillette [.50g]	5,100	12¼	11¾	12 –	⅛
68½	45	11.1	45¾	47	Do cv pfd [5].....	200	45½	45	45½–	3½
19⅝	8	...	8¼	8⅝	Gobel	400	8¼	8	8¼
19⅝	8¼	10.0	10	10½	Gold Dust [1.60]...	900	10¼	10	10¼+	⅛
95	75	8.0	60	76	†Do pfd [6].....	100	75	75	75 –	6½
5⅝	2¼	...	2½	3	Goodrich	100	2¼	2¼	2¼–	⅛
18⅝	8½	...	6¼	6⅜	Goodyear T & R ..	200	6¼	6¼	6¼–	⅛
61	19½	33.3	21	22	Goody T 1st pf [7]	200	22	21¼	21¼–	⅜
16⅜	7¼	...	14½	14⅝	Goth Silk K	200	14½	14½	14½–	⅛
4⅜	1	...	1¼	1⅜	Graham Paige	200	1⅜	1¼	1⅜–	⅛
3	...	...	⅛	½	Grand Sil Strs	100	⅛	⅛	⅛
30¾	14½	6.7	15	16	Grant W T [11]....	700	15¾	15	15⅝–	⅛
25	5½	...	6¼	6⅝	Gt No Ry pf	300	6¼	6	6⅛
8¾	2¼	...	5¼	5½	Grigsby Cun	300	5¼	5¼	5½+	⅝
1⅝	⅜	...	⅜	⅝	Grigsby Grun	300	⅝	⅜	⅝

H

10	3⅜	...	3¾	4⅝	Hawaii Pine	200	4	4	4
83	44	13.0	44	47	Harshey Choc [6]	500	46	44	46 +	1
24⅝	8½	...	9⅝	10⅞	Houston Oil	100	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝+	⅜
5½	1⅜	...	2	3	Houston Oil new..	200	2	2	2
10⅝	5	17.0	5	5½	Howe Sound [.85]5.	300	5¼	5¼	5¼
30⅜	9	29.2	12¾	13	Hudson & M [3.50g]	200	12⅜	12⅜	12⅜–	⅛
11⅜	2¾	...	3⅜	4¾

BRAZILIANS ASK U. S. INQUIRY ON COFFEE, DEBTS

Say Yankees Lose by Both Deals.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 28.—H. De Aleida Filho, chairman of the Brazilian loans redemption committee, issued a statement today from the Brazilian consulate, 17 Battery place. It said that committee has sent copies of a survey of the Brazilian debt situation to members of the United States senate and house of representatives, asking favorable considerable of legislation to make able consideration of legislation to make the banker and investment banker jointly liable, as a co-maker, with any country making a loan flotation in the United States.

Calls Coffee Prices High.

"We have also asked," he said, "a senatorial investigation of the operations of the Brazilian-American coffee promotion committee to the end that the $33,000,000 worth of coffee now being burned every year in Brazil may be diverted to the United States for the payment of interest on Brazilian debts, at the same time relieving the American consumer of exorbitant prices for coffee.

"The Brazilian committee is composed of Brazilian citizens residing in the United States who believe that Brazil's financial credit must be preserved and that the American holders of Brazilian bonds, acting with the committee, may insure the payment of the interest on their holdings and their amortization in conformity with the agreements made with bankers, no matter how doubtful the processes of promotion and flotation may have been."

Attacks Brazilian Loans.

As far the United States is concerned, Brazil owes about $450,000,000, the survey points out. If all of the payments are not yet in default, the remaining ones will be so in a very short time. It is charged that the debt of the Brazilian nation was "fraudulently and criminally increased" and that in some instances the people received no money or any kind of value from the loans. Most of the money, it is asserted, was sent to Europe to pay for imports into Brazil.

"The coffee situation is a racket," the survey asserts, "consisting of getting money from the American public; buying coffee in Brazil; burning the coffee there; raising the price in Brazil; telling the Brazilians that their people are going to sell more coffee in the United States and, consequently, become richer; raising the price of coffee in the United States as confessed by Mr. Frank C. Russell, causing Brazil to stop all her payments, preventing Brazil from paying and the Brazilian bondholder from receiving coffee as payment for defaulted interest, because this would bring the price of coffee to its normal level in the United States."

The solution offered by the committee is payment of Brazilian debts in coffee and other crude and manufactured products.

Burn 263,000 Sacks.

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 28.—(AP)—Slightly more than 263,000 sacks of coffee were destroyed by the government last week, it was reported today. This brings the total destroyed since this policy of reducing the surplus production was adopted to 7,978,386 sacks.

C. N. W. PROMOTES R. THOMSON ON JULY FIRST

Robert Thomson, newly appointed passenger traffic manager of the Chicago and North Western railway, will assume those duties July 1. He was assistant passenger traffic manager since 1928. Born in Edinburgh, Scotland on May 15, 1876, he has been in railroad service since 1890 and has been with the Chicago and North Western railway since 1899.

ROBT. THOMPSON.

The United States Steel corporation announced yesterday that David G. Kerr, vice president and for the last 24 years in charge of its ore, coal, and limestone interests, and their distribution to manufacturing plants, had requested that he be relieved of his duties on Aug. 1. He will retire under the corporation's pension plan, which provides for voluntary retirement after an officer has reached the age of 65, and makes resignation mandatory when an officer becomes 70 years old. Edwin E. Ellis, president of the Universal Exploration company, the subsidiary through which research work has been conducted by the Steel corporation, has been appointed by the directors to succeed Mr. Kerr.

Chicago Firm Low Bidder on Minneapolis Postoffice

Washington, D. C., June 28.—(AP)—The N. P. Severin company, Chicago, submitted the low bids today for construction of the new postoffice at Minneapolis. Its bids were $2,269,900 for a granite exterior facing, $2,118,900 for granite base and steps, and $2,011,900 for light colored stone below base with limestone above.

National Tea Reports Four Weeks' Sales of $5,021,502

National Tea company reported sales for the four weeks ended June 19 of $5,021,502, as compared with $5,192,780 in the preceding four weeks and $5,752,460 in the corresponding period of 1931. The decline from a year ago was 12.7 per cent as against 14 per cent in the preceding period.

FOREIGN MONEY MARKETS.

LONDON, June 28.—(AP)—Money, ½. Discount rates, short and three month bills, 1@1⅛ per cent. Bar silver quiet and ⅛ lower at 16⅝d.

PARIS, June 28.—(AP)—Three per cent rentes, 73f 55c. Five per cent loan, 97f 95c. Exchange on London, 91f 80c. The dollar was quoted at 25f 43½c.

NEW·YORK·CURB·TRANSACTIONS

Tuesday, June 28, 1932.

Shares sold today..... 90,000 — Total sales 1932 to date.....25,030,280
Year ago..... 307,195 — Total sales 1931 to date.....64,377,683

	Sales.	High.	Low.	Close.	Net chge.
A
Aero Sup A...	100	3	3	3	....
Alum Co Am.	300	23¼	23	23	— ⅛
Do pfd	100	34⅝	34⅜	34¾	— ⅛
Alum Goods..	100	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝	— ⅛
Alum Ltd pfd	200	25	24½	24½	— ½
Am Bever.....	700	5½	5	5⅛	+ ⅛
Am Cit P&LB	1,100	⅞	⅞	⅞	....
Am C Pow A	100	¼	¼	¼	....
Am Cyan B..	1,600	2	2	2	....
Am Gas & El.	4,300	16¾	15½	15½	— ¼
Am Sup Pow.	6,400	1⅝	1⅛	1⅝	....
Do 1st pfd..	1,000	35⅛	35⅛	35⅛	+ ⅛
Do pfd.....	400	9	9	9	....
Am Yvette....	100	¼	¼	¼	....
As El Ind....	600	2¾	2¾	2¾	....
As G & E....	500	⅛	⅛	⅛	— ⅛
Do A	2,300	1⅜	1¼	1⅜	....
Atlas Util...	200	5½	5	5⅛	+ ⅛
Autom V Mach	200	2	2	2	....
B
Ben Ind Loan	100	8¼	8¼	8¼	....
Bras Tr & Lt	1,100	8⅛	8	8	....
Brit Celan	100	¼	¼	¼	— ⅛
Bunk Hill & S	25	16	16	16	....
C
Can M Wirel..	300	⅝	½	⅝	+ ⅛
Cent Pub S A	200	⅛	⅛	⅛	+ ⅛
Cent St El...	100	¼	¼	¼	....
Centrif Pi....	500	2	2	2	— ⅛
Cities Service.	6,000	2⅛	2	2⅛	....
De pfd.....	100	12⅜	12⅜	12⅜	— ⅛
Do F 7 pfd..	50	18	18	18	— 1
Do P 6 pfd..	100	14¾	14	14	— 1
Ci Neon Lts..	500	⅜	⅜	⅜	....
Conwith Edis.	100	51½	51½	51½	— ⅛
Com & S war	200	⅛	⅛	⅛	+ ⅛
Con G&E Balt	400	44¼	44	44	— ⅛
Con Sh cvt pf	300	¼	¼	¼	....
Cord Corp.....	400	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝	+ ⅛
Corr & Rey...	100	1	1	1	— ⅛
Cosden Oil	200	½	½	½	....
Creole Pet....	400	2¼	2¼	2¼	....
Cresson Gold.	100	¾	¾	¾	— ⅛
Cusi Mex	900	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
D
Deere & Co....	100	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	— ⅛
Dow Chem	100	23½	23½	23½	— ½
Driver-Har ...	100	2½	2½	2½	— ⅛
Duke Power..	50	35	35	35	— 2
E
East G & F ..	100	3	3	3	+ ⅛
Do pfd	25	30½	30½	30½	— 7
Eisler Elec ..	300	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	....
El Bond & Sh	6,200	6¼	5⅜	6	+ ⅛
Do pfd	100	21	21	21	+ ⅛
Do 6s pfd..	400	17⅛	17	17⅛	+ ⅛
E P Asso A.	100	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	+ ⅛
Elect Sh pf..	200	24	24	24	....
Eureka Pipe ..	50	22	22	22	....
Europa El A.	200	2½	2½	2½	+ ⅛
F
Fairch Av A.	100	½	½	½	— ⅛
Ford M Can A	400	6½	6⅜	6⅜	— ⅛
Ford Mot Ltd.	400	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	....
Fox Theater A	100	⅝	⅝	⅝	....
G
Gen Alloys ..	700	1⅜	1⅛	1⅜	+ ⅛
Gen Aviation..	100	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	— ⅛
GG&El cv p B	100	4⅞	4⅞	4⅞	+ ⅛
Golum Sachs.	400	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	....
Gt A&P 1st p	40	110	110	110	....
Gulf Oil Pa..	200	24½	24½	24½	....
H
Hartford El..	25	36	36	36	— 7
Hecla Min ...	100	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜	+ ⅛
Holling Gold..	100	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	....
Hud B M & S	100	1½	1½	1½	....
Humble Oil ..	100	37	37	37	....
I
Ill P&L $6 p	25	20¼	20¼	20¼	+ ⅛
Imp Oil Can..	100	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	....
Do reg	100	6⅞	6⅞	6⅞	....
Ins Co N Am	100	22⅜	22⅜	22⅜	— ⅛
Intern Pet ...	1,100	8⅞	8½	8½	— ⅛
Inter Util B..	200	¾	¾	¾	....
Inter Ec cv p	100	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	+ ⅛
Inter Hosiery..	100	5½	5½	5½	— ½
Ital Superw A.	500	⅛	⅛	⅛	— ⅛
K
Kleinert	100	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	— ⅛
L
Lefcourt Real	100	1½	1½	1½	— ⅛
Lone S Gas...	200	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	....
M
Magdal Syn ..	100	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
Ma U A cv pf	100	17¼	17¼	17¼	— ⅛
Memp N Gas..	200	2	1⅞	1⅞	— ⅛
Mergen Line .	100	19½	19½	19½	— 1½
Metro Ed pf..	50	35	35	35	— 4
M S Pet A vtc	300	⅜	⅜	⅜	....
Mid West Util	200	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
Min Co Can..	900	⅜	⅜	⅜	— ⅛
Mo-Kan P L	200	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
Mock J Voehr	200	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	— ⅛
Mountain Prod	100	3	3	3	....
N
Nat Am Co...	200	⅝	⅝	⅝	....
Nat Avia....	1,100	3¼	3⅛	3⅛	....
Nat Ed & Sh..	300	18⅛	18⅛	18⅛	— ⅛
Nat El PowA	200	⅜	⅜	⅜	— ⅛
Nat Fuel G....	100	9⅞	9⅞	9⅞	— ⅛
Nat Inv pfd..	50	23	22⅜	23	+ 3⅛
Nat P&L 6%p	200	47	47	47	— ⅛
Nat Sug Ref..	200	10¼	10¼	10¼	+ 3⅛
Nat Trans.....	100	6¼	6¼	6¼	....
Nelson H.....	100	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	....
New Bradford.	100	⅜	⅜	⅜	....
NY Telé½ pfd	75	104	103½	103½	....
N Y Transit...	200	2¼	2¼	2¼	— ⅛
Niag H Pow..	400	9⅛	9	9	— ⅛
Do A war....	100	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
Niles Bem P.	100	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	....
N St Pow 7 pf	50	67	67	67	— 2
O
Ohio Cop	100	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
P
Patt Sargent..	200	10	10	10	— ⅛
Pennroad	800	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	+ ⅛
Phila Co	100	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞	— ⅛
Ph Morris Con	100	2	2	2	....
Phoenix Sec...	500	⅜	⅜	⅜	....
Do pfd.....	100	8	8	8	....
Plymouth Oil..	200	6	6	6	— ⅛
Pruden Inv....	100	2¼	2¼	2¼	— ⅛
Pyrene	400	2¼	2¼	2¼	....
R
Radio Prod....	100	3	3	3	....
Reit Intl A....	300	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
Rich Oil pfd..	100	¼	¼	¼	....
Roosevelt Fd.	200	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
Ryan Cons....	100	⅛	⅛	⅛	— ⅛
S
St Anth Gold.	700	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
SecAlldCrp nv	100	5	5	5	....
Seeman Bros..	100	23¼	23¼	23¼	— ⅛
Sel Ind all ctf.	200	30⅛	30⅛	30⅛	— 1⅛
Do pr pfd...	100	30	30	30	— ½
Shenandoah ..	100	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
So Penn Oil..	200	12½	12½	12½	....
Southland Roy	100	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	....
S W Gas Ut...	500	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
St Oil Ind....	4,800	18	17⅜	18	+ ⅛
Do Neb	100	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	+ ⅛
Do Ohio.....	500	20	19½	19⅝	+ ⅛
St Pow & Lt.	100	7	7	7	....
Do E.....	2,500	8	7½	7½	....
Do pfd.....	50	23½	23½	23½	— 1½
Std P Ser A.	400	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	+ ⅛
Sunray Oil ..	600	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
Swift & Co....	500	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝	....
Swift Intl.....	400	17	16⅝	17	+ ⅛
T
Tampa El ...	100	19½	19½	19½	+ ⅜
Teck-Hurh G.	800	3¼	3¼	3¼	....
Texon Oil	100	5¼	5¼	5¼	+ ⅛
Todd Ship	100	10	10	10	....
Truns P Strs	700	9¼	9¼	9¼	+ ⅛
U
Union Am Inv	100	6¼	6¼	6¼	— ⅛
Un Gas Can.	200	3	3	3	....
Unit Corp war	200	1¼	1¼	1¼	....
Unit D Dock..	100	¼	¼	¼	....
Unit Founders	1,600	½	½	½	— ⅛
United Gas .	900	⅝	⅝	⅝	....
Do pfd	200	15	15	15	....
Un L&Pow A	300	2	1⅞	1⅞	+ ⅛
Util Pw & Lt	700	⅛	⅛	⅛	....
Utility & Ind.	2,300	1	1	1	— 1
W
Walgreen	100	9	9	9	....
Y
Y Oil & Gas.	100	.50	.50	.50	....

DOMESTIC BONDS.

No. thous.	High.	Low.	Close.	Net chge.
1 Ala P 5s '46....	84	84	84	— 1
1 do 5s '51	77¼	77¼	77¼	— 2¾
23 do 5s '58	80¼	80¼	80¼	....
30 do 4½s '67	71¾	71½	71¾	+ 1⅛
1 Alums 5s '52.....	83	83	83	— 4
1 A & Cons 5s '43	51½	51½	51½	+ ⅜
3 A E&P 6s '57 A	20½	20½	20½	+ ¼
5 AmG&E 5s 2028	74½	74	74	+ ⅜
6 do 5s '53	14¾	14¾	14¾	— ⅛
14 do 6s 2016	44¾	44	44¾	+ ⅜
10 Am R M 5s '48	39	38½	38½	+ ½
1 do 4½s '33	47¾	47¾	47¾	+ ¾
14 Am Seat 6s '36	20	20	20	....
2 App G 6s '45 B	4½	4½	4½	....
1 Appa Pow 5s '41	99⅝	99⅝	99⅝	+ ⅛
4 do 5s '56	80	80	80	....
5 Ark P&L 5s '56	73¼	73	73	— ½
10 Assoc El 4½s '53	20	18	20	+ ½
10 do 5½s '38 in ct	12	11½	11½	— 1½
15 do 5s '30	13⅜	12¼	13¾	— ⅜
3 do 5½s '77	17	17	17	....
37 do 5s '68.....	13⅜	13	13⅜	— ⅛
1 do 4½s '48.....	17	17	17	+ 1½
80 do 4½s '49 C....	10⅜	9¼	10½	— ½
14 A T U 5½s '44 C	16	15½	15⅝	— ¼
9 do 5½s '55 A..	28	25¼	28¼	— ¾
3 B T Can 5s '55 A	86	85½	85½	— ⅜
4 do 5s '57 D..	85¼	85	85	— ¼
1 B L B&P 5s '46	80	80	80	—12
2 Bost C G 5s '47.	94¾	94¼	94¼	....
1 Br R P 5s '54 A	43	43	43	+ ½
1 Bfl G E 5s '39 A.	103½	103½	103½	....
2 CNR E 7s '35 E	96	96	96	— 1½
2 Cap A 5s '43Asw	64	64	64	....
5 Cat Trac 5s '35	81½	81½	81½	....
2 C A L&P 5s '60	74½	74	74	....
1 C I P S 4½s'81H	55¾	55¾	55¾	— 2½
7 do 4½s '67 F..	55	54	55	+ 1
1 C O L&P 5s'50A	55½	55½	55½	— 1¼
7 CP&L 5s '56...	51	49	49¾	— 1¾
5 Ct Pw 5s '57 D.	57	56	56	— ½
3 Cent P S 5½s '49	2½	2½	2½	....
55 Ct St E 5½s '54	22¼	19	20½	— 1½
39 do 5s '48.....	23	21¾	23	....
8 CSP&L 5½s '53.	23¾	20½	20½	— 3
1 C D E 4½s '70 A	58½	58½	58½	— 1¾
1 O D E 5½s '35 B	50¾	50¾	50¾	— ⅜
2 Cr SR 5½s '49 A	10¼	10¼	10¼	....
4 Cin S C 5s '55 B	45½	45½	45½	....
4 Cit Ser 5s '56..	25	25	25	— 1
170 do 5s '50.....	27	26	26¾	+ ⅛
11 do 5½s '42.....	41¼	41	41¾	— ⅜
1 Cit 3GP 5s '43..	54¼	54¼	54¼	— ½
11 Cit S P 5½s '52.	29¾	28¾	29¾	— ½
1 Clev El 5s '54 A.	101½	101½	101½	— ½
17 do 5s '30.....	103⅛	103	103	— ⅜
3 Cmwl E 5s '53 A	90½	89½	90½	+ ⅜
2 do 5s '54 B.....	90½	90½	90½	— ⅜
4 do 4½s '58 C....	81¾	81¾	81¾	— 1
6 do 4s '81 F....	72¼	72¼	72¾	....

No. thous.	High.	Low.	Close.	Net chge.
2 Cwl S 5½s '48 A	43½	43	43	— ¾
5 Com P&L 5s '57.	42¾	42½	42½	....
6 C G E 5½s '53 E	103¾	103⅜	103⅜	— ⅛
10 do 4½s '70 H..	96	96	96	....
7 do 4½s '69 G..	99	99	99	— 1
5 do 4s '81.....	87½	87½	87½	+ ⅜
1 C G U 6½s '43 A	14½	14½	14½	— ⅜
3 do 6s '43 A....	22¼	21⅝	21⅝	— ⅜
6 Con Pw 5s '39.	101¾	101¼	101⅜	....
4 Cons Pw 4½s '58	91½	90¼	91¼	+ ½
39 CG&E 5s '58 A.	44	42½	42⅞	— ⅛
7 Cont O 5½s '37.	84½	84¼	84¼	+ ¼
1 Crane Co 5s '40.	59	59	59	— ½
3 Cruc Stl 5s '40...	40	40	40	+ 1
4 Cudy P 5½s '37.	70	70	70	....
2 do 5s '46.....	96	96	96	+ 1
9 CCP&L 4½s '56.	73¼	73	73	+ 2
1 D P&L 6s '49 A.	101½	101½	101½	....
2 Den G&E 5s '49.	92⅜	92⅜	92⅜	— ⅛
1 Det C G 6s '47 A	81	81	81	— ⅛
1 do 5s '50 B.....	69¼	69¼	69¼	+ ½
6 Duq L 4½s '57 B	96¼	96¼	96¼	— ⅜
3 E U I 5s '54 A..	10	9½	10	+ ¼
47 Ed El Ill 5s '33.	99⅝	99¼	99½	— ¼
6 Ed El Ill 5s '53.101⅜	101½	101½	101½	— ⅛
20 EP&L 5s 2030..	33	29⅝	32¾	+ 3⅝
1 Emp D E 5s '52.	39	39	39	— 1
10 EO&R 5½s '42..	31	30¼	31	....
1 Fed Wat 5½s '54	22¼	20½	20½	....
2 Fire C M 5s '48	68	68	68	— 1
12 Firest T 5s '42.	78	73	74½	+ 3⅜
3 Flek Rb 5½s '31	23	21½	21½	— 6
47 Fla P&L 5s '54	53½	53	53⅝	— ½
3 Fla P 5½s '79 A	48	45½	48	+ 2
1 G E&G 5s '34 A	51	51	51	....
27 Gat Pw 5s '56..	53	54½	53	+ ½
3 do 6s '41.....	43	43¾	45	+ 2
10 do 6s '41 B....	40½	39	40½	— ½
3 Gen Bron 6s '40	23½	20	20	— 3⅜
3 Gen Cig 6s '34..100¼	100¼	100¼	....
3 do 6s '35.....100¼	100¼	100¼	+ ⅛
2 G M Ac 5s '33.100⅜	100⅜	100⅜	— ⅛
3 do 5s '35.....	99⅜	98⅝	99⅛	— ⅛
3 do 5s '36.....	96¼	96¼	96¼	— ⅛
2 G P U 6½s '56.	25¼	25	25¼	+ 1¼
5 Gen Vene 6s '37	3¼	2½	2⅞	— 1⅝
1 G W W 5s '43 A	27	27	27	....
2 do 6s '44 B.....	8	8	8	....
10 Geo Pw 5s '57.	76	77	77	....
1 Geo P&L 5s '78.	49	49	49	+ ½
5 Gillette 5s 40..	85¾	85¾	85⅞	+ ⅛
1 Glid Co 5½s '35	71	71	71	— 1
6 Gt N P 5s '35..	94	91¼	94	+ 2¾
5 Gt W Pw 5s '46	95¼	95¼	95¼	....
4 Gulf Oil P 5s '47	90¼	90¼	90¼	— ⅛
3 do 5s '37.....	94¾	94¾	94¾	....
1 Gtf S U 5s '56 A	64	64	64	— 1
5 HGG 6½s '43 ww	25	25	25	— 2½
2 do 6s '43 A....	30	29½	29½	— ½
5 HL&P 4½s '76 B	81¼	81¼	81¼	— ⅛
34 do 4½s '81 E..	80	79	79	— ⅛
8 do 5s A '53....	90	89	90	....
6 H P N F 5s '50	100	100	100	+ 1
1 Hygr F 6s '49 A	23½	23½	23½	+ ½
4 Ill Nor U 6s '57	78	78	78	— ½
15 IP&L 5s '57 C..	56¼	55¾	56¼	....
2 do 5½s '57.....	38	38	38	— ⅛
2 do 6s '53 A.....	62¾	62¼	62¾	— ½
4 do 5½s '54 B....	58	57½	57½	— ¼
1 I & M 5s '55...	84	84	84	— 1¼
2 Ind E 5s '51 C..	60½	60½	60½	— ¼
2 Ind Ser 5s '50..	19	19	19	+ ⅛
5 Indp G 5s '52...	73	73	73	— 2
1 do 5s '57 A.....	84	84	84	....
4 Intl P S 7s '57 E	66¾	65½	66¾	+ 1⅜
5 do 6½s '53 C...	56	56	56	....
5 do 6½s '54 B....	63	62	62	+ ½
1 Int Salt 5s '51.	62	62	62	+ 1
7 Intl S A 5s '47	38½	38½	38½	+ ⅛
10 Inter P 6s '52..	25¾	25	25¾	....
7 do 5s '57.....	52¾	52½	52¾	+ ⅛
1 Int P S 5s '56 D	58	58	58	— 2
13 do 4½s '58.....	53¼	53¼	56	+ 3
13 I-N L&P 5s '57.	68	67	67	— 2
1 I P&L 4½s '58 A	77¾	77¾	77¾	+ 2¾
1 do 5s '57.....	65½	65½	65¾	— ½
7 JCP&L 4½s '61 C	78½	77¾	78¾	— ¼
2 do 5s '47 B.....	80½	80	80½	+ 1¼
1 Jones & L 5s '30	93	93	93	....
7 KG&E 6s 2022 A	68¾	67½	68¾	— ⅛
1 Kas P 5s '47 A.	71¾	71¾	71¾	....
1 Ky Ut 6½s '48 D	73¾	73½	73¾	— ⅜
4 Ky Util 5s '60 I.	60½	59	59	....
2 Ky Util 5s '61 H	60¼	60¼	60¼	+ ¼
5 Kop G&C 5½s '50	64½	64½	64½	— ¼
4 LehPS 6s 2026 A	58½	57½	58¼	+ ¼
4 Lex Util 5s '52..	59	58	59	+ 3⅜
1 LibMcN&L 5s '42	51	51	51	....
1 Long Isl Lt 6s '45	74	74	74	+ ½
3 LAngGE 5½s '49	95½	95¼	95¼	— ¼
1 do 5s '51	85	85	85	— ¼
32 Lou P&L 5s '57.	73	72¾	73	— ¼
1 ManPw 5½s '51A	38	38	38	— ⅛
8 Mass Gas 5s '55..	71	71	71	+ 1
10 Mem P&L 5s '48	95	94⅜	95	+ ⅛
10 Metro Ed 4s '71..	67	65	66⅜	— ⅜
3 Midw Util 5s '35	4½	4½	4½	....
4 MilwGLt 4½s '67	90	89¼	90	+ ⅜
2 MinnGLt 4½s '50	74½	74½	74½	— ⅜
9 MissPLtCo 5s '57	67	66¼	67	....
2 Miss Pow 5s '55	53	53	53	....
18 MonWP 5½s '53B	64¾	64¼	64¼	+ ⅛
3 MontL&P 5s '51A	85	85	85	....
1 NatElPow 5s '78	2½	2½	2½	— 1⅜
13 NP&Lt 6s 2026 A	62¾	61½	62	+ ⅜
29 NatPL 5s 2030 B	53½	52	52¾	+ ⅜
26 NatPSer 5s '78 ..	12	11½	11¾	— ⅛
2 Nat Tea 5s '35 ..	62¾	62	62	— 1
31 NewCalEl 5s '56..	45	43¾	45	+ 2
16 NEngG&E 5s '50.	42¾	41	43½	— 1½
11 do 5s '48	44¾	43¾	44¾	+ ½
7 do 5s '47	48½	47	48	— 1½
7 NEngPow 5½s '54	38¾	38½	38½	— 1¼
15 do 5s '48	36½	35½	35¾	— 1¼
8 NYP&Lt 4½s '67	83	83	83	....
1 NYStEIG 4½s '80	69	69	69	— 2
1 Niag F P 6s '50.104	104	104	....
1 do 5s '50 A	99	99	99	+ 1
5 NIndPS 4½s '70E	65	65	65	....
4 do 5s '60	70	70	70	....
7 NOP&Lt 5½s '57	89	89	89	....
2 NStPow 4½s '61	81	81	81	— ⅛
5 N W Pow 6s '60.	8½	8½	8½	....
2 Ohio Edis 5s '60	87⅞	87⅝	87⅝	+ ⅛
5 OhioPow4½s '56D	80	80	80	— 1

No. thous.	High.	Low.	Close.	Net chge.
2 OhioPSer 5s '54 D	68¾	68½	68¾	+ ⅛
13 Okla G&E 5s '50.	76	74½	74½	— 1
1 OklaP&W 5s '48A	51½	51½	51½	+ ⅛
1 PacGEl 4½s '57E	85½	83⅜	83½	— ⅜
4 do 4½s '60 F....	85¾	85¼	85¼	— ⅜
3 do 5½s '53 C....	99	99	99	— ⅛
3 do 6s '41 B 102¾	102¾	102¾	+

WHEAT PRICES CLOSE HIGHER AFTER SLUMP

Trading Light; Advance ⅝c to ⅞c.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Professional operations in the wheat market continued to be the dominating influence. The bulk of the news was favorable for a somewhat lower range of prices, but after a small dip which carried all futures to within a fraction of the lowest figures of the season a short covering movement started and disclosed a lack of pressure. Final trades were at the top with net gains of ⅝@¾c. Old July was 43¾c; old September, 51¼c, and December, 54¼@54⅝c at the last.

The surplus in the wheat pit on the break was absorbed by local professionals, but there was a lack of hedging pressure, with scattered liquidation in the July absorbed by spreaders who in turn sold the deferred futures. The market was easily influenced at times, reflecting a small volume of trade.

Fear Rains Southwest.

Better weather conditions prevailed in the southwest overnight but there is fear of a wet harvet and late in the day scattered showers were reported at some points in Kansas. Harvesting is now delayed and the movement in consequence is materially delayed. Seven southwestern markets which last year received 2,585 cars of wheat had only 513 cars yesterday.

A report that 11 inches of rain had fallen at a north central Texas point attracted some attention from the trade, as did the late strength in stocks. Action of the Liverpool wheat market in failing to fully reflect the decline in North America the previous day did not induce much buying, although the close there was ⅝@1⅛c lower with the July at 51¼c or 3c over Chicago. Since the first of the month the Chicago-Liverpool spread has ranged between 2c and 3⅝c. Winnipeg was ¼@⅜c higher for the day, following Chicago with July closing at 54c in Canadian funds.

Export Demand Slow.

With harvesting of wheat under way in southern Europe importing countries are believed to be permitting their stocks of imported grain run down, and it was claimed that Germany would reinstate the full duty on wheat on July 1. Export sales yesterday were confined to small lots of Manitobas and Canadian durums.

While black rust is expected to be a factor in the wheat market later in the season there was little comment on the possibility of a major infestation in northwestern advices yesterday. Dry weather talk came from the Minot, N. D. territory.

Corn Nears Season's Low.

Scattered liquidation was on in corn early with prices declining fractionally to a new low on the current downturn, the July coming within ½c of the lowest figure on the crop. The late rally in wheat and reports that 269,000 bu cash grain had been sold to the domestic trade brought a rally with the close unchanged to ⅛c higher. July was 28⅞@29c at the finish with September, 31⅝c, and December, 32½c. Charters were made for 345,000 bu to eastern lake ports.

There has been a gradual widening in the Chicago-Buenos Aires July corn spread of late, as the latter was around 3½c over the local market yesterday. Nothing was heard regarding export sales, however.

July and September oats sold at a new low for the season, the former touching 19¼c, the lowest figure since July, 1897 as the result of scattered liquidation. A small rally from the low was due to local buying. Final trades were ¼@⅜c lower with July, 19⅝c; September, 20c, and December, 22¾c.

Rye sold at the lowest figure in the local market in 48 years or more with the exception of August, 1896 when the cash article brought 28c, equaling the figure established by the July deliveries yesterday. All deliveries sold at a new low for the season due to scattered liquidation but failed to hold the inside figure, with the close unchanged to ⅛c lower, July finished at 23⅝c; September, 31⅞c, and December, 35¼c.

RAW SUGAR.

NEW YORK, June 28.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw firm; easier today and prices declined 5 points under increased offerings, with last sales at 2.85c.

The business reported included 80,00 bags of Cuban late yesterday to outport refiners at 2.90c for first half July shipment, while today 54,600 bags of Cuban sold from store at 2.85c, 3,000 bags of Porto Rican for prompt shipment at 2.86c, and 25,000 bags of Cuban for first half July shipment at 2.85c, all to local refiners. Approximate sales, 23,450 tons. Prices follow:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.
Sept	.91	.91	.86	.86	.94
Dec	.97	.97	.93	.93	1.00
Jan	.99	.99	.94	.94	1.00
March	1.01	1.01	.98	.98	1.04
May	1.03	1.03	1.01	1.01	1.09

Refined sugar was unchanged at 3.90c for fine granulated, with good withdrawals but no new business.

COFFEE.

NEW YORK, June 28.—(AP)—Coffee was inactive today and trading extremely limited, although there was little pressure to sell and good demand indicated at a little below the previous close. No. 7 contracts opened unchanged and closed unchanged to 4 points lower. Sales, 2,000 bags. Santos opened and closed unchanged. Sales, 1,000 bags. Closing quotations: Santos, July, 9.41c; September, 9.17c; December, 8.96c; March, 8.85c; May, 8.82c. No. 7 prices follow:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.
Dec	6.18	6.18	6.17	6.17	6.18

Spot coffee dull; Rio 7s, 8c; Santos 4s, 10@10¼c. Cost and freight offers included Santos Bourbon 2s and 3s at 9.95@10.10c.

LIVERPOOL COTTON.

LIVERPOOL, June 28.—(AP)—COTTON—2,000 bales, all American. Spot moderate business done; prices 5 points higher. Quotations in pence: American strict good middling, 4.03d; good middling, 4.53d; strict middling, 4.48d; middling, 4.43d; strict low middling, 4.33d; low middling, 4.23d; strict good ordinary, 4.03d; good ordinary, 3.73d. Futures closed quiet; July, 4.07d; October, 4.07d; December, 4.11d; January, 4.13d; March, 4.19d; May, 4.24d.

ROSIN AND TURPENTINE.

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 28.—(AP)—TURPENTINE—Firm, 37c; sales, 87; receipts, 743; shipments, 109; stock, 6,730 casks. ROSIN—Firm; sales, 966; receipts, 2,862; shipments, 3,475; stock, 171,644 brls. Quote B, $1.85@1.90; D, $1.95@2.00; E, $2.00@2.05; F, $2.10@2.12½; G, $2.10@2.15; H, $2.15@2.25; I, $2.30; K, $2.45@2.55; M, $2.65@3.10; N, $2.55@3.00; W G, $4.05@4.10; W W and X, $4.65.

RAW SILK.

NEW YORK June 28.—(AP)—SILK—Raw futures closed firm; sales, 310 bales; July, $1.14; September, $1.18; December, $1.18. Open market quotations [60 day basis]: Shanghai steam extra B, $1.40; Canton double extra A, 14-16c, $1.20; Japanese crack, double extras, $1.35.

WHAT SURVEY SHOWS OF STOCK PRICES IN PRESIDENTIAL YEARS

New York, June 28.—(AP)—"It's a presidential year!" This phrase invariably sends a tremor through the average investor or speculator—but there is little in the long record of American finance to justify it.

A study of stock market averages, compiled by Warren M. Persons, economist, carries the record of price movements back to 1875.

With few exceptions, the price changes have not been sharp. Following is a record of the "presidential years" and of the market's behavior between Oct. 31 and Dec. 31 of those years. The averages are adjusted to the level of the Dow-Jones average in 1897:

1876. Hayes elected. The rails averages advanced from 33.3 to 34.4 and the industrials from 48.0 to 50.0

1880. Garfield elected. The rails advanced from 52.6 to 57.88 and the industrials were about unchanged at 56.0.

1884. Cleveland elected. The rails declined from 46.0 to 44.8 and the industrials from 45.0 to 44.0.

1888. Harrison elected. The rails declined from 55.1 to 53.5, but the industrials advanced from 57.0 to 58.0.

1892. Cleveland elected. The rails declined from 57.4 to 56.7 and the industrials from 69.0 to 67.0.

1896. McKinley elected. The rails advanced from 51.2 to 52.8 and the industrials from 44.0 to 47.0.

1900. McKinley reëlected. The rails advanced from 78.2 to 91.1 and the industrials from 57.7 to 67.5.

1904. Roosevelt elected. The rails advanced from 122.2 to 116.5 and the industrials from 61.1 to 69.5.

1908. Taft elected. The rails advanced from 108.0 to 117.6 and the industrials from 81.6 to 85.6.

1912. Wilson elected. The rails declined from 122.0 to 117.8 and the industrials from 92.3 to 88.0.

1916. Wilson reëlected. The rails declined from 110.6 to 106.3 and the industrials from 102.1 to 98.5.

1920. Harding elected.. The rails declined from 83.6 to 74.2 and the industrials from 84.9 to 71.9.

1924. Coolidge elected. The rails advanced from 88.4 to 97.8 and the industrials from 102.0 to 114.2.

1928. Hoover elected. The rails advanced from 141.3 to 147.4 and the industrials from 248.7 to 280.8.

PRODUCE MARKETS

Fresh eggs were offered freely and prices were shaded ½@¾c on the best to make sales. Receipts, 10,820 cases. Butter was steady. Receipts, 16,716 tubs. Live hens and leghorn hens advanced ½c while other poultry was little changed. Receipts, 51 trucks. Potatoes in active demand and market strong. Receipts, 36 cars with 146 cars new on team track.

WHOLESALE CREAMERY BUTTER PRICES.

	Chicago Whole milk	Chicago Centralized	New York.	Boston.	Phila-adelphia.
93 score	16½	....	17	....	18
92 score	15¾	....	16	17	17
91 score	15½	....	15½	16¾	16
90 score	15	15½	15	16½	15½
89 score	14½	14¾	14½	15½	15
88 score	13¾	13¾	14	15	14½
87 score	....	....	13¾	14½	14
86 score	12¾	....	....	14	....

BUTTER PRICES TO CHICAGO RETAILERS.

Score—	Tubs.	Prints.	Cartons.
Best [92-93]	18¼-19¼	19½-20½	20½-21½
Good [89-91]	17 -18	18½-19¼	19 -20

WHOLESALE CHEESE PRICES.

	Chicago.	Boston.	New York.	Philadelphia.
Twins	9¾-10¼	11	-13	....
S. dais	10¼-10¾	11¼-12¼	11	-11¾
Y. Ams	....	11½-12¼	11	-11½
Lghns	10¼-10¾	....	....	11¼-11½

LIVE POULTRY—WHOLESALE.

Turkeys	....10@12c	Old roosters	....9c
Hens	....13c	Legh. brlrs.	.12½@14c
Leghorn brlrs	....10c	Ducks, old	....7@8c
Fryers, 2@3 lbs	....16c	Ducks, spring	.8@10c
Springs	....19c	Geese	....8@11c
Rock springs	....21c

FRESH EGGS.

Fresh graded firsts	11¼@12¼c
Extra firsts	11¾@12¾c
Current receipts	11@11½c
Dirties	10½c
Checks	9½c

VEAL CARCASSES.

50@60 lbs	....5c	90@100 lbs	....6½@8c
70@80 lbs	....6c	110@120 lbs	....9c

WHOLESALE DRESSED BEEF.

	Yearlings. No. 1.	No. 2.	No. 3.
Ribs	14	16	15	9½
Loins	22	28	24	13
Rounds	15	13½	13	9
Chucks	10	8	8	6
Plates	6	5½	5½	3

POTATOES.

New, 100 lbs, sound	$1.50@1.60
Ordinary to poor	1.25@1.40

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES.

Apples, new, bu	1.25
Blueberries, 16 quarts	3.00
Cherries, crate, 24 quarts	.50@2.00
Grapefruit, half crate	1.50@2.25
Lemons, box	5.75@6.50
Oranges, box	4.25@5.50
Peaches, bu, Illinois	2.00@2.25
Red raspberries, 24 pints	1.00@2.00
Strawberries, case, 16 quarts	.50@1.25
Asparagus, box	.40@1.50
Beets, bunch	.01
Cabbages, crate	.50@ .85
Carrots, home grown, bunch	.02
Cauliflower, box, home grown	.50@ .75
Onions, 50 lb sack	.75@1.00
Lettuce, head, crate	2.50@4.00
Peppers, hamper	1.25@2.00
String beans, hamper	.50@1.50
Sweet corn, bu	.75@1.50
Tomatoes, lug	.50@ .75

COTTON CLOSES HIGHER

Cotton markets eased in sympathy with stocks and grains after early buyers had been satisfied. At the last strength in wheat brought in buying and prices moved upwards and closed around the best figures. Gains, however, were small, futures in Chicago being 1 to 3 points net higher with New Orleans one point higher to one point lower and New York 1 point higher to 3 points lower. Spots were unchanged. New York being 5.35c, New Orleans 5.25c, Galveston 5.20c, and Houston 5.15c. Liverpool closed one point net lower.

There was little encouraging to holders of cotton in the weekly trade review to stimulate new buying and business in all was moderate. It is generally believed that the crop is doing well in the west, but is irregular in the east. Bollweevils are thriving in scattered localities. Showery weather is predicted.

The crop is said to have developed much top root, which specialists say is quite a feature.

World's consumption of American cotton in May is estimated by the New York Cotton exchange service at 1,017,000 bales, against revised return of 1,072,000 bales in April, and 964,000 bales in May last year. Total consumption for ten months ended May 31 is 10,454,000 bales, compared with 9,222,000 bales in like period of last season. Prices follow:

CHICAGO MARKET.

	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.	Last year.
July	5.32	5.28	5.32	5.28	....
Oct.	5.55	5.47	5.54	5.53	10.25
Dec.	5.62	5.61	5.62	5.66	10.49
Jan.	5.78	5.70	5.78	5.75	10.70
March	5.93	5.87	5.90	5.89	10.78

NEW YORK MARKET.

	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.	Last year.
July	5.24	5.15	5.22	5.21	9.75
Oct.	5.47	5.40	5.45	5.46	10.15
Dec.	5.62	5.54	5.60	5.61	10.37
Jan.	5.71	5.63	5.68	5.69	10.47
March	5.85	5.78	5.84	5.85	10.68
May	6.01	5.94	5.97	6.00	10.87

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.	Last year.
July	5.28	5.21	5.28	5.26	9.79
Oct.	5.45	5.37	5.43	5.43	10.13
Dec.	5.60	5.51	5.58	5.58	10.37
Jan.	5.66	5.60	5.65	5.67	10.48
March	5.80	5.78	5.79	5.80	10.66
May	5.95	5.90	5.95	5.95	10.87

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

Trade sentiment in wheat at the close was more varied, although those who have persistently stuck to the bull side claimed there was enough news coming in in regard to crop losses in the northwest and the damage from rains in the southwest to have made a much better market. They attributed the small advance in prices at the last to absence of good buying on the part of professionals and commission houses. The latter were in the main bullish, but are not getting any help from the outside.

A little buying of wheat was on towards the last, based on reports from northwestern North Dakota saying that rains had been insufficient there and that the spring wheat was being damaged by grasshoppers.

A Fort Worth, Tex., grain man who was in Chicago yesterday said yields of winter wheat in the southwest were in numerous instances turning out better than expected. June has been a good month for filling and ripening the wheat crop. Advices from Nebraska suggested 10,000,000 more bu than expected earlier in the season as the result of recent rains.

CASH GRAIN NEWS

Official receipts of grain at Chicago Tuesday: Wheat, 4 cars; corn, 38 cars; oats, 25 cars; rye, 1 car; barley, 2 cars.

Range of cash grain prices in leading markets follow:

WHEAT.

	Chicago.	Kansas City.	St. Louis.
No. 1 red	42¾@44¼	....	47¾
No. 2 red	42¾	....	48
No. 3 red	43¼	41¼@43¾	46
No. 2 hd	41¾	....	....
No. 3 hd	41¾	....	....
No. 1 hd	42½@47½	....	....
No. 2 hd	41¾@46¾	....	....
No. 3 hd	41 @45¾	....	48¾
No. 4 hd	41½@44½	....	....
No. 3 mx	43¼	....	....

	Chicago.	Winnipeg.	Minneapolis.
No. 1 nor	53¾	52¾@54¾	....
No. 2 nor	50¾	51¾@53¾	....
No. 3 nor	47¾	50¾@52¾	....
No. 1 d.n	....	52¾@66¾	....

	Toledo.	Omaha.
No. 2 red	49½@50½	....
No. 2 hd	....	41

CORN.

	Chicago.	Kansas City.	St. Louis.
No. 2 mx	30½	....	29½
No. 3 mx	....	....	29
No. 4 mx	....	....	28½
No. 1 yel	30¾@31	....	....
No. 2 yel	30¾@31	....	31¼@31½
No. 3 yel	....	....	31
No. 6 yel	29	....	....
No. 1 wh	30¾	....	....
No. 2 wh	30¾	....	....

	Milwaukee.	Omaha.	Peoria.
No. 2 mx	....	....	30
No. 1 yel	....	....	30
No. 2 yel	....	....	30
No. 3 yel	....	29½	....
No. 1 wh	33¾	....	....

OATS.

	Chicago.	Kansas City.	St. Louis.
No. 2 wh	20½@21¾	21 @22	20½
No. 3 wh	19¾@20¾	19 @21	20

	Milwaukee.	Omaha.	Minneapolis.
No. 2 wh	....	....	20¾@22¼
No. 3 wh	21¾@22¼	....	19¾@21¾
No. 4 wh	21¼@21¾	....	18¼@19¾

	Buffalo.	Toledo.	Peoria.
No. 2 wh	....	24 @25	18½

RYE, BARLEY, AND FLAX.

	Rye.	Barley.	Flax.
Chicago	30	@35	1.04¼
Milw	....	41	....
Minn	30½@32½	28 @37	1.00¼@04¼
Duluth	31 @32	24½@36¾	1.04¾@05¾

CLOVER AND TIMOTHY.

Clover—	October.
Chicago, per 100 lbs	9.00@14.00
Toledo, per 60 lbs	9.00
Timothy—
Chicago, per 100 lbs	2.50@ 2.75

GRAINS IN ALL MARKETS

July Wheat.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Jun28.	Jun27.	Jun30.
Chgo	48¼	48¾	47½	48¾	48¾	57¾
K C	42¾	42¾	41¾	42¾	42	49¾
Mpls	52½	52½	51½	52¼	52¼	65¾
*Dul	46	46¾	46	46¾	46¾	55½
Wpg	53⅝	54⅜	53⅜	54	53¾	61⅝
Lpol	51½	52	51¼	51¾	51½	60¾

September Wheat.

Chgo	50¾	51⅜	49½	51¼	50½	50¾
K C	44¼	44⅝	43¼	44⅜	43½	52¾
Mpls	51	51½	50¼	51½	50¾	62½
*Dul	45¾	46½	45¾	46½	45¾	55¾

October Wheat.

Wpg	56¼	57¼	56¼	56¾	56¼	64¾
Lpol	53½	53⅝	53	53¾	54¼	64¾

December Wheat.

Chgo	53¾	54⅝	53	54¾	53¼	64¼
K C	47	47¾	46¼	47¾	46¾	56⅝
Wpg	57¾	58¼	57½	58¼	57¾	65¾
Lpol	55¼	55¾	54¾	54¾	55¾	67½

July Corn.

Chgo	29	29¼	28⅝	29	29	61½
K C	29¼	29¼	28½	28¾	29	55¾

September Corn.

Chgo	31⅞	31¾	31¼	31¾	31¼	60
K C	31	31	30½	30¾	30⅝	55¾

December Corn.

Chgo	32¾	32¾	32⅛	32¾	32¾	54¾
K C	31	31	30⅝	31	30⅝	50¾

July Oats.

Chgo	19¾	20	19¼	19⅝	20	30½
Mpls	18½	18¾	17¾	18¼	18¾	26½
Wpg	33⅜	33⅜	33¼	33¼	33⅜	31⅝

September Oats.

Chgo	20⅜	20⅝	19⅝	20	20⅜	31¼
Mpls	18⅝	18⅝	18¼	18⅜	18⅝	28¼

October Oats.

Wpg	28¼	28⅝	28¼	28⅝	28½	32¾

December Oats.

Chgo	22¾	22⅝	21¾	22¼	22¼	34½
Wpg	27	27	26½	26⅝	26⅝	32¾

July Rye.

Chgo	29	29¼	28	28⅝	29¼	37
Mpls	29	29	28⅝	28¾	28⅞	36
Dul	....	....	....	30	30	36¾
Wpg	33	33½	32¾	32¾	33¼	36¾

September Rye.

Chgo	31¾	32¼	31¼	31⅝	32	40
Mpls	30¼	30¼	29½	30¼	30¼	38¾

October Rye.

Wpg	34½	35¼	34¼	35	34¾	38⅝

December Rye.

Chgo	35½	35½	34¾	35¼	35¼	44½
Wpg	35⅝	36⅜	35½	36⅜	36¾	39½

July Barley.

Mpls	28¾	28¾	28¼	28¼	28¼	33
Wpg	38¾	38¾	38¾	38¾	38¾	33¾

Flaxseed.

Mpls	99¾	1.00¼	99¾	1.00¼	1.00	1.57¾
Dul	1.04¾	1.04¾	1.04	1.04¾	1.05'	1.58
Wpg	68¾	70¾	68	70¾	70	1.12

*Durum.

PRIMARY GRAIN MOVEMENT

Receipts—	Wheat.	Corn.	Oats.
Tuesday	556,000	179,000	149,000
Last week	411,000	233,00	124,000
Last year	1,873,000	728,000	113,000
1930	1,395,000	564,000	188,000
Shipments—
Tuesday	552,000	84,000	62,000
Last week	304,000	324,000	84,000
Last year	1,071,000	372,000	104,000
1930	786,000	370,000	226,000

HIDE FUTURES

A firm undertone prevailed on the New York Hide exchange with futures closing 5@15 points higher with sales of 200,000 lbs. Closing bids: Old contracts—September, 3.70c; December, 4.25c; March, 4.70c. New contracts—September, 3.35c; December, 4.25c; March, 4.75c.

CHANGES IN FIRMS

Vern Rennison and James Frazier will form the partnership of Kennison & Frazier at Carroll, Ia. The interest of the late C. H. Lewis in Charles L. Lewis & Co., of Minneapolis, terminated on June 17. At the same time Thomas J. Cassidy withdrew as a partner from the Lewis house.

COTTONSEED OIL.

NEW YORK, June 28.—(AP)—Bleachable cottonseed oil was firmer on covering, influenced by the strength of lard and hogs. Final prices were 5 to 13 points net higher with sales of 1,650 barrels. Crude oil was nominal in Texas and 3c bid in the southeast and the valley. Bleachable spot closed 3.40c; July, 3.68c; September, 3.85c; December, 3.98c; January, 4.00c.

RUBBER.

NEW YORK, June 28.—(AP)—RUBBER—Futures closed quiet and steady. July, 2.53@2.54c; September, 2.63c; December, 2.80c; March, 2.97c. Smoked ribbed spot, closed 2.56c.

LARD UP SHARPLY

Hogs and cured product advanced to new high levels on the present upturn and held them at the close, with net gains of 7½@12½c. Bellies were up 7½@10c and hogs 10@20c. There was good buying by commission houses and shorts, selling by packers and warehousemen.

Cash trade was fair, with lard $4.50 for regular, loose $4.17½, and leaf $4.25. Short ribs and clear bellies were $3.12½. Lightweight fresh pork loin advanced to 16@16½c, against 10c about two weeks ago, showing a more healthy condition in the provision trade in general.

Hog receipts in the west continued to run smaller than in recent weeks and last year, and the impression prevails that the big run of hogs is over for the time being. Prices follow:

Clear Bellies.

	High.	Low.	Close.	Jun28.	Jun27.	Jun30.
July	$....	$....	$5.15	$5.05	$8.72
Sept.	5.35	5.35	5.35	5.27	8.07

Lard.

July	....	....	4.52	4.40	8.17
Sept.	4.65	4.57	4.57	4.50	8.37
Oct.	4.67	4.60	4.60	4.52	8.30
Jan.	4.52	4.47	4.50	4.40	....

BUTTER FUTURES EASY

An easier tone again dominated butter futures on the Chicago Mercantile exchange yesterday, July closing ¼c lower at a new low and other deliveries at marks previously touched this season. Egg futures showed a slight firmness, closing ⅛c higher. Butter figures were not as bearish as of late but there were few buyers. Selling increased near the close. Continued better egg reports brought in increased buying, sharp gains in the shortage being recorded by the daily and weekly storage figures. Sales: Butter, 27 cars: eggs, 31 cars. Deliveries: Butter, 4 cars. Prices follow:

BUTTER.

Stor. stands—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.
November	17¾	17¾	17¼	17¼	17¾
Fresh stands—
June	16	16	16	16	16
July	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾

EGGS.

Refr. stands—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.
October	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾

BIDS AND OFFERS

Range of prices on bids and offers, good all day Wednesday, follow:

WHEAT.

	Bids— High.	Low.	Close.	Offers— High.	Low.	Close.
July	48¼	47¾	48	49⅝	49¼	49⅝
Sept	50¾	50¼	50⅝	52¼	51¾	52⅛
Dec	53¾	53⅜	53⅝	55⅝	55	55

CORN.

July	28⅝	28¼	28½	29¼	29¼	29¼
Sept	31½	31⅛	31⅜	32⅛	31¾	32
Dec	32¾	32¼	32¾	33¾	33⅜	33⅝

OATS.

Sept	20	19¾	20	20¼	20¼	20½

RYE.

Sept	31⅛	31½	31¾	32¾	32¼	32⅝

GOOD ALL NEXT WEEK.

	Bids— Wheat.	Corn.	Oats.	Rye.	Offers— Wheat.	Corn.	Oats.	Rye.
September	47½	30	19	29½	48	30¼	19½	30
December	50¼	30¾	21¼	32¾	50¾	31	21¾	33

AVAILABLE GRAIN STOCKS

World's available supply of wheat, as compiled by Bradstreet's, decreased 5,816,000 bu last week. Corn in the United States and Canada decreased 1,030,000 bu and oats 507,000 bu. Details follow:

	1932.	1931.	Decreases. 1931.
Wheat	372,481,000	383,016,000	10,747,000
Corn	18,030,000	7,785,000	*739,000
Oats	16,048,000	17,333,000	560,000

*Increase.

Want Ad
INDEX
Want Ad Offices
1 South Dearborn St. , Tribune Square
1101 East 63rd St.
ADTAKER—SUPERIOR 0100
The more you tell, the quicker you sell

JEWELRY, WATCHES, ETC.

100% FULL VALUE PAID

in CASH for diamonds, old gold, broken jewelry, crowns and bridgework, watches, pawn tickets, etc. ASK FOR MR. LANE.
7 W. Madison, Cor. State-st., Room 811.

1 KT. FLAT. DIAMOND MTD. RING..$100
¾ kt. diamond ring 60
Plat. dia. sq. wrist watches 45
Old gold, silver, plat., broken jewelry, gold teeth, pawn tickets—BOUGHT FOR CASH. Jewelers' Ex., 20 N.State, R. 1102. Dea.8905.

1.50 KT. DIAMOND, 17 DIAMONDS, mounted in a platinum ring.....$125
Diamonds, old gold, pawn tickets bought. THE U. S. LOAN BANK,
10 N. Clark-st., Room 903.

47 DIA. ALL PLAT. BAGUETTE CHANNEL wedding ring set with blue white matched dias. NEW—PAWNED by jewelers.....$30
LEVINSON'S LOAN BANK, 739 N. Clark.

WE PAY MORE CASH FOR OLD GOLD, jewelry, dental crowns. Standard Smelting Works, 202 S. State, cor. Adams, Room 802.

HIGHEST CASH IMMEDIATELY FOR OLD gold, dia., watches, teeth, etc. Romack Refinery, 7 W. Madison, cor. State, R. 1001.

BEST PRICES FOR GOLD, JEWELRY, DIA. pawn tickets. Rocca, 32 N. State, R. 900.

INSTRUCTION.

U. S. GOVERNMENT STEADY JOBS, $105-$250 month; men, women, 18 to 50; paid vacation; experience usually unnecessary; full particulars with sample coaching free. Write immediately, Franklin Institute, Dept. 54-C, Rochester, New York.

FRENCH CONVERSATION CIRCLE TODAY. 4 p. m. FREE. Free trial language lessons. Attractive summer rates. Berlitz School. Auditorium, 56 E. Congress. Har. 0392.

JAZZ PIANO IN 20 LESSONS. CHRISTENsen School, 25 E. Jackson, 953 Belmont, 718 W. 63d, 3945 Madison, 2602 Milwaukee.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DEBTS contracted by any one but myself.
FRED VOGELSBERG.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

Bookkeepers and Clerks.

BKKPR., STENO. AND GEN'L OFFICE—Exp., age 28, T. Dunn, Superior 2680.

BKPR.-CORRESPONDENT—PART OR FULL time; exc. ref. Address B 106, Tribune.

TIMEKPR.-PAY ROLL, CLK.-GEN. OFF.—Knipe. bkkpr.; 9 yrs. const. and mfg. exp. Age 27; go anywh. Address E N 9, Tribune.

Accountants and Auditors.

ACCT.—8 YRS.' EXP.; LA SALLE GRAD.; available now. Address B 269, Tribune.

Executives and Managers.

EDITOR—FORMERLY TOMORROW'S MERchant Fairchild pub. N. Y. Herald-Tribune avail. to edit house organ, trade mag., whly. newsp. or do special writing part time basis; exp. hotel and gen. publicity. Address L 501, Tribune.

Professions and Trades.

ARTIST—EXP. IN DESIGN, CUTTING, mimeo stencils, adv. layout, lettering, illustration, misc. drafting; salary or piecework. Address B 104, Tribune.

BUTCHER—EXP. HOTEL; RELIABLE. Address B 194, Tribune.

CARPET, LINOLEUM LAYER—EXPD., DES. employment in his line or other profitable work. Armitage 0799.

ENGINEER—EXPD. IN MFG. OF SMALL parts and electrical equip., desires position. Address B 259, Tribune.

MECHANIC—CHARGE OF TRUCKS, 20 YRS. exp. 2214 Carolina. Brunswick 4349.

PAINT, PAPER, CALC., FLRS. REFIN.—Best, cheapest; no amateur. Drexel 3463.

PHARMACIST — REG.; WANTS RELIEF work; exc. references. Dorch. 9520.

RADIO BROADCAST OPR.—LTD. SPECT., const., maint. exp. Ph. Wabash 0670.

Farm and Garden Help.

GARD., WITH EXCHANGE SERVICES FOR small furn. apt. Address B 261, Tribune.

House Servants.

COUPLE—COL.; LONG EXP.; BEST REF.; man, chauf., hsemn.; go anywh. Drex. 4636.

COUPLE — REL. EXCEL. COOK, BUTLER, valet, chauf., yard.; A1 ref. Lincoln 1409.

COUPLE—INTEL., REFINED, MOTHER'S help; all around hswk. Norm. 6049.

DESIRE TO PLACE COMPETENT FILIpino houseman, who has been in my employ for 3 yrs. Mrs. Peter Connor, Sup. 5209.

GEN. HSEWK.-COOK-CARE OF GAR

WANTED—FEMALE HELP.

Employment Agencies.

GENERAL MOTORS BKPG.....$85
Steno., Dictaphone, under 25, attrac...$85
[2] Waitresses, Jew. rest. exp. $10-12; mg. l.
Beauty Operators all grounds...$10-$15
O'SHEA, 64 E. Jackson-blvd., R. 507.

WEST SIDE CONSOLIDATED—
GROCERY CLERK, ITALIAN.....$15.00
Bus. Men.....25-35-10; Waitresses [15].$6-12
ROOM 2, 143 N. KEDZIE-AV.

MULTIGRAPH OPR., TYP.; NOT OVER 25. BOOKKEEPER, Attractive.....$18
NORTH SIDE CONSOLIDATED AGENCY, 4750 Sheridan-rd. Room 308.

10 SODA FOUNTAIN.....$15
BAKY SALES $10; HSWK....$8
ALL TRADES, 309 S. LA SALLE, RM. 101.

EINSER PERSONNEL SERVICE—
Exp. Multigraph operator, north side. 140 S. DEARBORN-ST.

TEACHER—GIRLS' PHY. ED. DEGREE; Hughes Tchrs. Agcy., 26 E. Jackson, Chi.

WAITRESSES—ARM SERVICE.....$10-12
Atlas Employment, 6250 S. Halsted.

NOLAN'S EMPL. SERV., 4019 BROADWAY. 8 waitres., fount girls., hsemds. $8-$15.

MOTHER'S HELPERS, $5-$8; SHIRT FINishers, $15. GROVE, 852 E. 63d-st.

TRADE SCHOOLS.

Girls and Ambitious Women.

Learn BEAUTY CULTURE. Short, easy course. Big future. To a limited number of students enrolling this month for our complete course we will give a $40 set of instruments and handsome kit absolutely free.

Free employment bureau. Call or write for our FREE 35 page booklet. No obligation. Day and evening classes now forming.

Marinello System

National School of Cosmeticians, Inc.
108 NORTH STATE-ST. STATE 5057.

BURNHAM

School of Beauty Culture.

Largest, oldest school in America. Moderate tuition. Convenient payments. DAY EVENING CLASSES.
YOU CAN ACTUALLY
Earn While Learning.
Tremendous reduction in down payment. Call at once or write for free booklet.
E. BURNHAM (Desk 237),
138 N. STATE. RANDOLPH 3353.

AGAIN
MOLER LEADS IN Beauty Culture Schooling.

And to further introduce this new time-saving plan gives another week of the Mystery Contest that enables any one to earn a Scholarship. Send for the Mystery Blank and see how you can secure be at work in a clean, inside, protected profession. Do it now!
MOLER SYSTEM.
59 E. Monroe-st. Central 6303.

GIRLS WANTED, 18-35 YRS.

To LEARN and EARN. Call or write. Winthrop School of Nursing, 159 N. State.:
BEAUTY CULTURE THE HALE WAY AFfords practical training at the lowest cost. Investigate NOW. GERTRUDE HALE SCHOOL, 30 N. Dearborn-st., 3d floor.
SWITCHBOARD P. B. X. CORD DIAL DR.'S hotels, cashiering; all duties and machines. Positions furnished. All business subjts. Chi. Training Inst., 190 N. State.
WANTED—5 GIRLS TO LEARN STENO., bkpg., etc. Wages and expenses as mother's helper for part time work. Miss Ray, Chi. Bus. Inst., 190 N. State. Fra. 4122.
12 MONTHS TO PAY FOR YOUR COMplete course in Beauty Culture. Investigate. American School of Beauty Culture, 159 N. State-st., 8th floor. Dearborn 6027.
SWITCHBOARD OR CASHIERING TAUGHT by actual cost; positions furnished. Natl. Business Inst., 427 Diversey. Div. 5840.
LEARN THE HEIM SYSTEM OF BEAUTY CULTURE. THIS AD IS WORTH $20 TO YOU. 1010 W. 63d-st. Englewood 4634.
THE CHICAGO HAIRDRESSING ACADEMY offers a thorough course in hairdressing and beauty culture. 64 W. RANDOLPH-ST.
ONLY $50—COMPLETE BEAUTY COURSE. Easy to learn. Good pay. prof. Terms. Nina Packer Sys., 174 W. Washington, 2nd floor.
PRACTICAL HOTEL TRAINING IN 200 room hotel; 6 weeks' course in Leland Hotel, Leland at N. Racine. Longbeach 9600.
LEARN SWITCHBOARD—OFFICE AND HOtel. Positions furnished. 921 Marshall Field Annex, 24 N. Wabash. Cen. 6047.
HOTELS CALL FOR TRAINED WOMEN—Big pay. Learn at home. Write Lewis Hotel Training School, 749, Washington, D. C.
MIDWEST BEAUTY COLLEGE, LTD. $2 down, $2 weekly; fully accredited. 5 North Wabash. Keaney Bldg., 7th floor.

LOST AND FOUND.

TO FINDERS.

If you have found a cat or a dog, a pocketbook, jewelry, or fur, and cannot find the owner, through a "Lost and Found" advertisements in The Tribune call and go through the "Lost and Found" index at the PUBLIC SERVICE OFFICES,
1 South Dearborn-st.,
1101 East 63d-st.

TO LOSERS.

If you are listed in the telephone directory you can charge an advertisement for your lost article by telephoning Miss Miller of The Tribune ad taking department, Superior 0100. Your advertisement receives the benefit of free listing in the Tribune Public Service Offices mentioned above for a period of two months. This service facilitates the recovery of lost articles advertised.

BOSTON BULL—LOST—TUES. A. M.; MALE, white front feet, right side of head white, scar on right hip; ans. name Billy. Call Buckingham 0572; reward.
DOG—LOST—GREAT DANE, IN WINNETKA Wednes. night.; fawn colored, full grown, wearing round leather collar with Glen Ellyn license tag to name Major; $50 reward. Call Winnetka 3520.
DOG—LOST—FEMALE ENGLISH BULL; fawn color; vicinity 76th and Yates, Saturday eve. Reward. Phone Regent 4358.
DOG—LOST—BLACK SCOTTIE, OLD male; blk. collar; rew. University 6485.
ENVELOPE—LOST—ON WENTWORTH-AV. car Monday P. M., cont. legal papers. Liberal rew. 4643 South parkway, Jackson.
GLASSES—LOST—SHELL RIM BIFOCALS. Montrose-av. or Clark N. of Waveland. Rew. Bittersweet 1042.
GOLF CLUBS — LOST — WILSON WALKER Cup; zipper top bag; vic. Dundee-rd., Forest Preserve; lib. reward. Randolph 3656.
POLICE DOG—LOST—MALE; DARK BR. and black; in the vicinity of Devon and Milwaukee-ave. Niles, Ill.; reward. Call Newcastle 1900.
POWER KEY—LOST — NR. WHEELING; auto, on Dairy; rew. Phone Wheeling 108.
VEST — LOST — OXFORD GRAY, WITH 5 medals; N. Side. Reward. Lafayette 0428.
WATCH—LOST—MIRROR FACE, 2 DIAS. bet. Evanston-Chgo. Rew. Green. 4514.
WRIST WATCH—LOST—"LADIES"; 4 DIA., 2 sapph., Mor. Side. Rew. Edge. 6972.

PERSONAL.

HOLDERS OF BONDS ISSUED BY Reliance Bank and Trust Co. on Lexington Square Apts., 4313 to 27 W. Lexington-st. Chicago, will please communicate with William Budesman, 942 N. Sedgwick-st. Telephone Diversey 2831.
WILL PERSONS WHO SAW MOTOR COACH kill boy, Mich.-Chi. June 26, phone me. John H. Ray, Atty. for family, Kan. 2904.
NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DEBTS other than those contracted by myself. EDWARD SLATTERY.
LADIES AND MEN—EVERYWHERE MAKE contacts; cost list membership. Use Write Aristo Lodge,2444 Michigan-av., Chicago

TRAVEL OPPORTUNITIES.

Bureaus.

DESIRE PRIV. CARS AND PASS., N. Y., Calif., etc. Eff. exp. plan. Refs. Auto-Way Travel Service, 123 W. Madison. Cen. 6035.
DESIRABLE PASSENGERS AND CARS. Register for all cities; share exp., Auto Tours and Travel Bur., 6 N. Mich. Dea.7897.
WANT PASSEN. AND PRIV. CARS—ALL points; share exp. plan. Atlas Travel Ex., inc., 10 N. Clark, Sta. 3705, Hrs. 9-5.
LOW RATES N. Y. CAL. FLA. TEX. ETC. Nat'l Travel Ser., Hotel Wacker. Del. 8280.
N.Y.DAILY—PRIV. CAR TOURS EVERYW. Sm. exp. 17 N. State, R. 1733. Fra. 4048.

Individuals.

Both readers and advertisers are urged to exercise caution in connection with automobile transportation with other individuals. References should be carefully investigated.

2 N. Y., JUNE 30 OAKLAND SEDAN; LOW rate. Refs. exch. Capt. Peters. Har. 7582.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

Pianos and Players.

66 REBUILT PIANOS, $25, $30 TO $55. $5 DOWN PAYMENT $1 PER WEEK.
W. W. KIMBALL CO. FACTORY,
2231 W. 26TH-ST. LAWNDALE 3862.
OWNER MOVING TO HOTEL WILL SELL beautiful Steinway Grand for $450. At WYMAN'S, 504 Republic Bldg., 209 S. State.
RENT A BABY GRAND, $8 A MO.; NEW midgets, $6; semi-midgets, $5; used upr. $2 up. Cable Piano Co., 301 S. Wabash.
CLOSING OUT ALL USED PIANOS AT cost. All makes and styles, $20 up. SCHULTZ PIANO CO., 2253 W. MADISON.
SCHAFFER APT. GRAND
Like new. Must sac. Columbus 6745.

BUSINESS PERSONALS.

CASH FOR OLD GOLD, SILV., PLATINUM, jewelry, dental crowns. U. S. Smelting Works, 39 S. State-st., 4th floor, cor. Monroe.
PERSONAL—FREE REMOVAL OF SUPERfluous hair and moles by electrolysis. Phone for appt. MARINELLO, State 5057.
100 WOMEN WTD. TO REC. REG. $5 OIL perm. wave for only $1.50. Lorraine Beauty Shop, 509 S. Crawford-av. Nev. 5436.

PATENTS—PATENT ATTORNEYS.

INVENTIONS FINANCED—
E. SANDERS, 538 S. Clark-st.

MOON MULLINS—A CASH AND CARRY BUSINESS

TO RENT—ROOMS—CENTRAL.

PLYMOUTH HOTEL, 22 W. VAN BUREN. Men only. $2.80 wk. up; hot-cold wtr.in rs.

TO RENT—ROOMS—SOUTH.

BLACKSTONE, 6519. DORCH. 4100.

UNIVERSITY HOTEL.

100 rms., each with tub and shower, $7 weekly, $2 daily up; L. C., bus, surface.
BLACKSTONE, 5714, THE HARVARD—Comp. hotel service, r. w., $5 wk. up. $1 day. Suites with bath $10; nr. park, beach, U. of C., L. X.
BLACKSTONE-AV., 5748 — BLACKSTONE Hall; new bldg.; comp. serv. Cafe. Summer rates now; gri. rs., $7 w.; nr. I.C., U. of C.
CORNELL, 5443—LARGE DBL. RM., ADJ. bath; nr. I. C., surf., L. bus; reas. Erwin
CORNELL, 5410—COOL, CLEAN, OUTSIDE rms., $4 up; nr. lake, golf, I. C. X. bus.
DORCHESTER-AV., 6130. FAIRFAX 7700.

THE GLEN EDEN

COMFORT—CONVENIENCE—ECONOMY. Large outside rms. Tub. shower, complete service; $7 wk. up; nr. I. C. X. bus, surf.
DORCHESTER, NR. 53D—AIRY 2 RM. APT., O'cliff, furn., $6 wk., $3. Mid. 3604.
DREXEL, 4730—VERY DES. OUTS. RMS.; priv. bath or inv.; cooking priv.; $4-$8.
FORTY-NINTH, E., 1346—IN SM., QUIET fam.; lge. frt. r., tw. bds; $6; I. C., bus, surf.
GREENWOOD-AV., 6220. PLAZA 4800.

GREEN BRIAR HOTEL.

New bldg., every rm. priv. bath, tub and shower; $7 wk., $2 daily up; 1 blk. all tran.
HARPER-AV., 5345. FAIRFAX 7300.

HOTEL HARPER CREST.

Quality—Location—Price.

Single, $7; double, $9; twin beds, $12.25; 2 rm. suite for 4, $15; tub, shwr., 2 bl.C.; HYDE PARK-BLVD. 5400—CECIL HOTEL—$5-$7 $1 day; nr. I. C., bus, golf. Hyde P. 6565.
KENWOOD, 6406, 1ST—ATTR. RM., CONN. bath; gd. home; nr. I.C., L; reas. Dor.1782.
KIMBARK, 6224—LGE. FRT. RM., TWIN beds; also single rm. I. C., L. exp.
LAKE PARK, 4750—COOL, ATTRACTIVE rms. nr. lake, $3.50 up; priv. bath, $5. I.C.
SIXTY-FOURTH-ST., E., 1511—SGL. FURN. slp. rm., $2.50; larger, $3; cool; all trans.
SIXTY-NINTH, E., 1456—FRONT RM., ADJ. bath; priv. entrance; I. C.; reas. Hyde 6025
YATES, 7631 3D—LOVELY DBL. RM., PR bath, sun prch.; hlf. priv.; also sm. rm.; rea.

ONE WEEK'S FREE RENT—COMPLETE hotel serv.; pri. bath or shower; $5-$10; nr. beh. East View Hotel, 4943 Lake Park.
56TH, W., 512—LRG. LGT. RM., SUIT 1-2, cpl. empl.; brd. opt.; car.; $5. Went. 8446.

Hotel Rooms.

MIRA-MAR HOTEL

6218 WOODLAWN-AV. PLAZA 1100.

$6 Weekly Up—$2 Daily.

New 350 rooms, with bath and shower; 1 blk. to I. C. exp., surf., L. and U. of C.
NOW — — — $5 WEEK UP. FRONT ROOM. Special—$36 wk. for room with $10. PARKLAND, 1550 E. 63D-ST.

TO RENT—ROOMS—NORTH.

BROADWAY, 3020—BACHELOR HOTEL—Warm; bath or shr. nr. each rm.; $5 wk., $20 mo. up; car.; 15 min. Loop. Bit. 1600.
BUENA PK.-TERR., 925 [4300 N.]—NEW, furn. rms., r. w., md. sv., exc. tr.; $3 up.
CEDAR, E., 61—CANTERBURY HOUSE. Cool single rms., $5 up; dbl., $7 up; a step to lake; refined atmosphere; bell serv.
CLARK-ST., N., 2026. MOHAWK 3460.

HOTEL CLAYTON

BRAND NEW BLDG, OPP. LINCOLN PARK. 300 modern rooms. Beauty Rest beds. Comp. service; 10 min. to loop; $7 weekly.

Fan, Radio in Each Room.

CLARK-ST., N., 1429. SUPERIOR 4365.

NEW BURTON HOTEL.

200 rms., tub, shwr., radio in each; 5 min. loop; spec. summer rate, $6 up wk. $1.50 up day.
CORNELIA, 625—LARGE COOL RM.; TW. beds; bath; rea.; nr. park, Lakeview 0400.
DIVERSEY-PKWY., 600. BUCK 4100.

HOTEL RIENZI

2800 No., 200 beautiful outside rooms with bath; dble. or twin beds; $10 wk. up; 5 blks. Lincoln park golf cres.; beach; bus, surf. trans.; 15 min. to loop; 300 car garage.
GOETHE, W., 9—RM., PRIV. BATH. ALSO r. with piano; sg., db. r.; cook. priv.; $3 up
HAZEL, 4520—$3 UP; AT BEACH; ALL outside; very clean; quiet; hotel service.
KENMORE, 5303—LRG. FRT. RM.; QUIET, piano, home; kit. priv.; nr. lake; exc. tran.
LAKE SHORE-DR., 1042—BELLEVUE CLUB for Girls—Lge., beau. rms.; brd. opt. Reas.:
LAKE SHORE-DR., 1040 — YOUNG MEN. Cool, lake front rooms; $5 a week.
LARRABEE-ST., 1508. LINC. 2633.
$3.50 up; tennis, swim., gym.; 9 min. Loop; near lake; free parking; perm. or transient.
LA SALLE, N., 1702 OR 1039—NR. PARK. TOURISTS WELCOME.
Mod. rms.; elev. serv.; $4 wk. Tr. $1 up.;
SURF, 561—BEAUT. FR. RM.; FINE HOME. Kit. priv. or bd. opt. Buck. 10151.
WINDSOR-AV., 838, 1ST APT.—NICELY furn. rm.; newly decor.; adj. bath; priv. fam.; best trans.; reas.; Gentile. Long. 2803.

NEVER BEFORE

has it been possible to live in a 1st class hotel at such amazingly low prices. Weekly rates, including breakfasts and dinners, low as $9.50; room only $5.

DEL MAR HOTEL,

5046 Winthrop-av. Longbeach 1115.

GOOD NEWS.

Del Mar Hotel again reduces rentals. Rates now as low as $5 per week.
5046 WINTHROP-AV.

THE WINDALE HOTEL.

Room (Priv. Bath), $7 Wk.

6010 Winthrop, New bldg., ½ blk. to L exp.
WALK TO LOOP—6 BLOCKS FROM MADison-st. Room with bath, $9. 40c lunches. CASS HOTEL, 640 N. Wabash. Sup. 4080.
LOVELY ROOM, SUITABLE 2; $5 WK.; excellent trans. Phone Sunnyside 1118.
BRIGHT FR. RM.—PRI. RES.; EXC. FURN.; quiet home; bath adj.; L exp. Edge. 0207.

Hotel Rooms.

TRAEMOUR HOTEL — 5427 KENMORE. Exclusively for women. Hotel service. Dbl. pri. bath. $5 a person. Longbeach 2743.

TO RENT—ROOMS—NORTHWEST.

2313 N. KEDZIE-BLVD.—LGE., AIRY RM. Good trans. Call after 3 p. m.

TO RENT—ROOMS—WEST.

WEST END-AV., 4309—PLEAS. LRG. RM.; nice furn.; ex. tran.; $2.50 wk. Aus. 0572.
BEAU. LG. RM. FOR 2 ADULTS; $5. EXpos.; bus at door; small fam. Lawn. 10040.

Hotel Rooms.

350 ROOMS—$4 WEEK UP.

PARKSIDE HOTEL.
212 N. Hamlin-av., opp. Garfield Park. Full hotel serv.; L. surf., bus. Red. 7000.

TO RENT—ROOMS—SUBURBAN.

EVANSTON—ROOMS FOR MEN; NEAR swim'ng and tennis; $5 wk.; on univ. campus. McCall. bet. 1:30-5 p. m., Greenlf. 8814.

TO RENT—HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS,

South Side.

BLACKSTONE, 6627—3-4 R. APTS., PRIV. bth., $8-12; hskg. rms., I. C., Jack. pk. bch.
BLACKSTONE, 4920—LGE. 3 RM. APTS.; also slp. rms. and kits.; nr. lake, I. C., bus.
COTTAGE GROVE, 6505—1-2 RM. KITCH. apts.; gas, el., linens; $4 wk. up; rms., $3.
DORCHESTER, 6021—LG. LT. KIT. APTS $4.50 up. Rm. $4. I. C., bus, L., and surf.;
DREXEL, 5002—NEW DEC. 1 R. KIT. ADJ. bath. $5; 3 rs., pr. b., $12; slp. rs., $4.;
DREXEL, 4600—1-2-3 ROOMS; ALL PRIV. baths; $7-$10; also slpg. rms., $4 up.
DREXEL, 4332—1 2 3 R. APTS. GAS. LT. maid serv.; rates; L. bus, surface.
FORTY-SEVENTH-ST., E., 1055, 2D—CLN., cool, 1 rm. kitchenette; $5; bus, surf.
INGLESIDE, 6028—COOL OUTSIDE 1 RM. suites; attr. furn.; comp. kitnts.; $3-4 5.
KENWOOD, 6406, 3D—3 RM. APT., ENC. pch.; pr. bath; el. ref.; 1 b. I.C., L. Hyd.7487.
KIMBARK, 6621—2-3½ RM. KIT. APT.; pri. bath, in-a-dor; 1 blk. I. C., surf.;

Southwest Side.

CAMPBELL, S., 6337—2-3 RM. FURN. KIT. apts.; also hskpg. rms.; $5 up; el. ref

North Side.

BARRY, 612—COMF., NEW, DEC. 2 ROOM kits., $9 up; quiet bldg.; trans. at door
BELDEN, 540 [2300 N.]—LIGHT, CLEAN 1-2 r.; new. furn., dec.; real kit.; r. w., el. dry., shwrs.; maid svc.; $6-$7; free pkg. lot;
BELDEN-AV., 350—BLK. TO PK.; 1 AND 2 attrac., new, dec. suites; pri. bath, ex. tr.;
BELDEN, LAKE VIEW, 2300—3 RM. APTS., new, dec., free pkg.; 15 min. to lb. $4 up;
BROADWAY 4040—NEW APT., 2 RMS., $6 1 rm. kitchenette; $4; L. bus, park, lake.
BROADWAY 5532—LGE. AIRY NEWLY furn. decorated kit. apt.; exc. trans.; $5-$8.
BURLING, 2839—NR. CLARK-JERSEY; new dec., 1-2 rm. kits., r. kit., $3-$7.
CLARK-ST., N., 673—CLEAN HSKPG RM., $3.50; sleeping rm., $2.50; elec., gas.
CLEVELAND-AV., N., 2217, NR. LINC. PK. Lge., airy kitnt. apts., $3 up. Adults.
CORNELIA, 730—1-2-3 FURN. APTS., PRI. bath; Frig.; nr. park; large, lt. rms.; reas.;
DAKIN 815—ATTR. 1-2 RM. APTS.; NR. Bdwy.-Irv. Pk., Sher. L. bus, sur.; $5 up;
DEMING-PL. 477—NR. PARK 3 R. NICEly furn., $35 mo. or wkly. Div. 0500.
DOVER, 4509—PREMIER APTS., 1-2-3 RM. apts., comp. furn., good trans., $30-$50.
ELAINE-PL., 2435—BLK. S. OF BROADway, 1-2 rms., priv. bath, $4 up; free pkg.;
GRACE, 719—HEAUT. FURN. 1 RM. KIT. $5 up; ex. trans.; nr. Linc. pk.; free pkg.
GREENLEAF, 1445—AIRY FRNT. 1-2 RMS. Also slp. rms., shrs., bch.; "L," Rbel. 4002;
HUDSON-AV., 1930—2 HSKPG. RMS. & REAL kit.; reas.; nr. Center; 2 blks. W. Lin. Pk.
KENMORE, 4900—WM. PENN PULL. KIT. apt., $9-$10; Frigid.; nr. bch., park, yard.
LA SALLE, N., 1039 OR 1702—NR. LINC. TOURISTS WELCOME.
Park; 1 rm. kits., $5; 2-3 r. apts.; fr. prks.;
LAWRENCE, 829—1 R. KITS. MAID, CLN., cool, newly dec.; homelike. $4-$5-$6.;
LELAND, 818—2 RM. KITS., PRI. PCH. $8; slpg. rms., $3 up; nr. lake, Edge. 4664.
LELAND, 812—2 RM. KIT., BACK PRIV. porch; also 1 rm. kit., comp. furn., $20.
MAGNOLIA, 4441—1-2-3 ROOMS, NEWLY furn.; 2 beds; $5 up; all transportation.
MONTROSE, 900—1-2 RM. KIT. COMP. furn.; 1 blk. lake; $5-$6.50 up. Sun. 7150.;
PAULINA, N., 4441 OR BEACON, 4712—Mod. kitchenette apts. 37-10; free park'g.
RACINE, N., 4448—COMPL. FURN. FRONT 1-2 r.; prl. bath, pch.; L. bus, sur.; $5 up;
RACINE, N., 4416—1-2 RMS.; REMODELED and newly furn.; $5 up; all trans.
ROSCOE, 712—3 RM. APTS.; FREE PHONE parking; $10; 2 blks. beach; slpg. rms., $4.
ROSCOE, 717—LGE. WELL FURN., DEC. 1-2-3 R. apts.; pch.; nr. bath; reas.
SHERIDAN-RD., 856, NR. LINC. PK.—1 R., $4 up. 2 r., $6 up. L. bus, surf.
SHERIDAN, 4016—1-2 ROOM PULLMAN kits., 2 beds, $4 up; slp. rm., reas.; all tr.
SUNNYSIDE, 1304—2 CLEAN, OUTSIDE rms., fl., kit.; lge. pch.; nr. Argyle L. reas.
WENTWORTH, 492—AIRY RMS., COMPL. furn.; real kit. inador, nr. lake; $7.50.
WINTHROP, 5125—BEAU. 1-2 RM. KITNT. apts.; maid serv.; nr. lake, park; sp. $6 up.

West Side.

HAMLIN, N., 212, PARKSIDE HOTEL—3 rm. apts.; complete; L. surface, bus; opposite Garfield park. Kedzie 7000.

BOARD AND LODGING.

South Side.

WOODLAWN, 6030—BOARD AND RM., $7-$8; good home food; all trans. H. P. 2085;
HOME FOR AGED. INFIRM. MILD MENtal cases; $50 month up. Midway 1606.

North Side.

LAKE SHORE-DRIVE, 1046—FROST CLUB FOR GIRLS. $8 TO $12.50.
MELROSE, 454, HOTEL DEL MONTE—HARE combination of comfort, cheer, friendly environment; cheerf. rms.; exc. board. $12.
ROSCOE, 647—NICE, LIGHT RM., SUIT. 2; unusually attractive; excellent meals; $8.50; all trans. MARTIN, Graceland 5172.
TWO BUSINESS GIRLS FOR ROOM AND board, $25 month. Longbeach 9185.

Northwest Side.

PR. FAM., FOR 1 OR 2; HOME COOKING; Christian Scientist pref. Ber. 6860.

West Side.

HAMLIN, S., 156, 3D—OPP. PK., LARGE. pleas. r., 1-2; ex. meals; $3-$9. VanB.1019.

Children.

EXC. CARE GIVEN 2-3 CHILDREN; PERM. home; town schl., edge of town; Mrs. Trepus, Palatine, Ill. Ph. Palatine 206-R.
GOOD HOME FOR CHILD; NEAR SCHOOL; rm. for parent opt.; reas. SEELEY 7372.
NURSE'S CARE TO CHILD; BEVERLY Hills; rm. for parent opt. Reas. Bev. 3752.
REAL HOME, NR. PK., REAS.; WORTH investigating. Mrs. Moss, 7056 Emerald.

HOTELS AND APARTMENT HOTELS.

PALAIS BROMPTON

528 BROMPTON-PL. [3540 N. at Sheridan]. Real hotel home, newly decorated, excellent recreational surroundings; restaurant; bus, surf. and L trans. Weekly rates, $6 up; special monthly rates. Graceland 3840.

New Hotel Carling

174 rms., all with tubs or showers; wkly. $6 up; day, $1.50; 5 minutes to loop. 1512 N. LA SALLE-ST. MOHAWK 1200.;

H-O-T-E-L C-E-D-A-R,

CEDAR AT 1118 N. STATE-ST. SUP. 5560. RADIO IN EACH ROOM
300 rm. with bath, $1.50 up day $7 up wk.;

ST. CLAIR HOTEL.

Kitchenette apts., $70 up; hotel rooms, $50 up. C. B. Wolfe, Mgr., Superior 4060. 162 E. OHIO-ST., AT N. MICHIGAN-AV.

New Lawrence Apt. Hotel.

1-2-3 room kit. apts., full hotel service. $55 up. 1020 Lawrence. Longbeach 2100.

1244 N. DEARBORN HOTEL.

All hotel conv.; strictly mod. rms., $5 wk. and up; swim. pool and gym. free. Sup.4080.

. . . The Croydon . . .

Apts., $75 mo. up; hotel rms., $50 mo. up. 616 Rush-st. Sup. 4027. Jas. A. Hart, Mgr.
FULLERTON PLAZA HOTEL—
420 Fullerton-pwy. at Lincoln park. Ideal summer home; kitch. apts.; hotel rms.; beau. lobby; 12 min. to lp. Div.5610.;

BERWYN BEACH HOTEL.

New attr.; each room phone, shower, tubs; reas. 1040 Berwyn-av., nr. Edgewater Beach.

1101 Columbia-av., nr. Beach

6700 north, 1 rm. kitchenette, dressing rm., shower, bath. Complete service, $40.
THE BLACKWOOD, 5200 BLACKSTONE-AV. —Chicago's newest hotel; 2 to 5 rooms; accupancy now. Phone Dorchester 3310.
HOTEL ELLIS LONG. 4100.
4051 MAGNOLIA
With the atmosphere of home. $5 weekly up.
CHATELAINE. LONGBEACH 3800.
4011 Winthrop.
An exclusive hotel. $6 week and up.
THE FLAMINGO—55TH AT THE LAKE; new improved policies; 1 to 5 rooms. PHONE PLAZA 3800.
THE KENARD APT. HOTEL—1-2-3 ROOM apts., $60-$115; 24 hour full hotel service. 5746 Kenmore. Longbeach 7913.

HOTELS AND APARTMENT HOTELS.

GLADSTONE HOTEL

NEW AMERICAN PLAN RATES.
$15 WEEKLY
PER PERSON FOR SINGLE ROOM. Includes 2 meals daily. Or 2 room suite for 2. Or 3 room suite for 3. Private baths.
SPECIAL $11 RATE
Per person, including 2 or 3 meals daily. Transient Rates $1.50 Day and Up.
12 minutes to the Loop, I. C. express.
6200 Kenwood. H. P. 4100.
Lake, Park, Drives, Roof Garden.

PARK LANE

1 to 6 room suites catering to a fine clientele. Furnished with good quality and services thoughtfully. Shops and restaurant in hotel.
Moderate Rates.
Transient or Permanent.
Direction of Frederic C. Skillman.
2842 SHERIDAN-RD.
Ph. Bittersweet 4800.

Hotel Devonshire

19 E. Ohio—5 Min. to Loop.
Beautiful outside furnished rooms; quiet, bright, delightful; newly decorated; private bath and showers; $7.50 per week and up; low rates to permanent guests.
SUPERIOR 4900.
SMART HOTELS IN UPTOWN—
Near theaters, lake, beach.
3 blocks west Wilson L. station.

Northgate Apt. Hotel

4701 Beacon, cor. Leland, 2-3 rm. sunny apts.; dinettes, bedrms.; accom. 2-3 pers. Georgeous new furnishings; fireproof; elev.; Frig.; maid service. $12 a week up.

Wilson Apt. Hotel

4554 Malden-st., cor. Wilson, 1-2 rm. Pullman kitch. apts. French windows; maid service; Frig. Appeals to young people; $9 wk. up.;

MONTROSE BEACH

$40 AND UP.
1-2-3 room apts., completely, elegantly furn.; radio every apt.; baths, showers, refrig.; soundproof; coffee shop; new bldg. PUBLIC GARAGE SERVICE.....$8
925 MONTROSE—E. OF SHERIDAN.

Diversey Arms Hotel

644 Diversey-pkwy. [2800 N.]. Bit. 3100. 1-2-3 r. kit. apts. and slpg. rms., low summer rates; near Lincoln Park, golf, beach; 15 min. to loop; surface at door. Loop.
RESIDENTIAL AND TRANSIENT.

APARTMENTS AND ROOMS TO SHARE.

BROTHER-SISTER, EMPLOYED, WILL SH. apt. with gent. or girl; nr. Garf. Pk.; exc. trans.; $4 week. Address B 273, Tribune.
BUSINESS GIRL WILL SHARE 4 RM. APT. with 2 girls. Sunny. 3412, eves.
MOTHER, DAUGHTER WILL SH. MOD. apt. with cple. or girl; nr. L. Key. 6231.;
LADY WILL SHARE APT. WITH SAME. $20; away part time. Bit. 4106. Apt. 1206.

TO RENT—HOUSES.

South Side.

5 ROOM BRK. BUNGALOWS; PRAC. NEW; $35 month; furnace heat; June rent free. Open days and eves. 314 W. 101st-pl.

Suburban.

5 ROOMS—NEW, MODERN BRICK BUNGAlow; one block to "L"; 35c to Loop; 25 min. to loop; sun parlor, glazed porch, large yard, furnace heat, immc. poss. Rent $37.50 mo. Phone Mansfield 8086.

TO RENT—FURNISHED HOUSES.

AT PRICE OF SMALL CITY APT. TO thoroughly reap, Gentiles, 2 a. country estate, fully furn., lse. to May 1, 1934, loc. on golf course; finest home Crystal Lake. State 6415 or Crystal Lake 374.
TO RENT—FURNISHED, FOR JULY AND August, attr. 6 room house, 2 baths; Morgan Park, on Ridge, near golf courses; grand piano. Tel. Beverly 0260.
7 RM. MOD. FURN. HOUSE—PALOS PARK. For 2 or 3 mos. Address B 569, Tribune.

WANTED—TO RENT—HOUSES.

WANTED—A HOUSE OR SPACE FOR DINing room. Address B 258, Tribune.

TO RENT—SUMMER RESORTS.

ON SAND BEACH,

Wolf Lake, Muskegon, Mich.; comp. furn., new, dec. cottage; accom. 5; slp. pch., elec. lt., r. w.; $15 wk., incl. boat, gar. Shel. 4820.
10 RM. HSE., NEW BUFFALO—BEAU. landscaped grnds. 250 ft. fronting lake; 6 lge. bdrms. 2 lg. glass and screen enclosed pchs.; lg. fireplace. 2 car gar., tennis ct. $375 per mo. Address B 253, Tribune.
QUINLAN RESORT, LYNDON STATION, Wis., on the Lemonweir river; fishing, boating, bathing and baths; home cooking; $15 week; includes everything. Nevada 8145.
NEAR LAKE, RIVER, COMPL. FURN. Log cabins, secluded. A gem off the beaten path. Nature at its best; good fish. Photos. Ph. Humb. 8508 after 6 p. m.
SADDLE LAKE, MICH.—4 R. COTT.; BOAT; pet dog; good fishing. Lovenawd. 8300.;
COMP. FURN. COTT., POWERS LAKE, WIS. Gas, elec., running water, golf, beau. grounds. Mo. or season. Euclid 5029.
PAW PAW LAKE—6 RM. COTTAGE, JULY 2-9; also July 23 to Sept. 3; Gentiles. Call MISS GRAY, State 1000, Local 807.
OCONOMOWOC LAKE—MODERN SUMMER home, 5 bedrms., enc. pchs., $1,500 season. 3131 W. Highland, Milwaukee. West 1750.
WHERE THE BIG FISH ARE—SO WIS.; 4 rm. cottage, scrd. pch., gd. beach; $18 week, incl. boat and ice. Longbeach 1973.
6 RM. MOD. SUMMER HOUSE; INLAND lake; 45 miles N. West. Sec. 3231.
OGDEN DUNES, IND.—40 MI. FROM CHI. cago 5 r. bas. fur. bch.; trans. Wel. 1281.
6 R. BUNG.; ELEC. BATH, FIREPL., SCR. pchs.; $20 wk.; Mich. lake. Lake V. 0777.
COTTAGES—WITH BOATS ON FOX LAKE shore; reas. Keystone 7497.
4 RM. COTT., CEDAR LAKE, IND.; SLPG. accom. 5; sanders. Town Pond 0941.
PAW PAW LAKE, MICH.—WATER FRONT furn. cottage, all conven. Euclid 6227
DELAVAN LAKE—FRT. HOME; MOD.; ALL conv.; golf, swim., fishing; reas. Aus.1879
FURN. COTTAGES, ELEC. BOAT, LAKE frt.; $16 wk.-sea. Gobles, Mich. Lin. 3138.
PRETTY COTTAGE—TWIN LAKES, WIS. Call Kildare 3061.
10 RM. RES.; MO. JULY.; ALL MOD conv. Grand Beach, Mich. Hyde Pk. 2375.;

TO RENT—APARTMENTS.

SOUTH.

General List.

2 to 4 Rooms, $42.50-$60.

7241-55 CONSTANCE-AV.
Short walk to I. C. and stores. Inador bed in each apartment, free elec. refrig.
GLATT & PRICE. Dorchester 8800.
2-3-4 ROOMS—MODERN, NEWLY DECOrated; close U. of C. and shops; $20 up. Steam heat. 1348 East 55th-st.

One, Two, and Three Rooms.

3 RM. KITNT.—INADOR, 3 CLOSETS; LGE bathrm.; refrig.; new. dec. 7218

REAL ESTATE—SUMMER RESORTS.

LAC LA BELLE, OCONOMOWOC.
All year 4-bedroom Lannon stone home; sel.-beach lot, 125x430; beautifully developed; choice location; good beach, motor boat, ice-boat, etc.; priced to sell. G. J. Dreyer, 135 W. Wells-st., Milwaukee, Wis. Marq. 4800.

FOR QUICK SALE—3 RM. COZY COTTAGE on ¼ acre lake lot 88 miles N. W. of Chicago; price $850, terms $125 cash, $20 monthly. Address L P 215, Tribune.

WILL SACRIFICE LAKE FRTG. COTTAGE, near Waupaca, Wis.; glazed porch; inside plumbing; bedrms., fireplace; comp. furn. Terms. Call Wabash 0505.

LAKE LOT, HEAVILY WOODED, 40'X125'; full lake rights; $175; $5 down, $5 monthly. Also bargain cottage, So. Wis., 65 mi. Chicago. Address A B 150, Tribune.

20 LAKE FRONT LOTS—60X300 FT.; SO. side Wind lake. Must be sold this season; cheap. Apply Sandy Point Co., Wind Lake, Racine Co., Wisconsin.

FORCED TO SELL MY 7 RM. NO. WIS. home with 5 a.; fruit trees; beau. loc.; swimming pool; sac. $3,750. Hemlock 3801.

OWNER MUST SAC. NEW COTTAGE—BIG lot, Wis. lake, 2 bdrms., 2d. floor, bathing; 2 hrs. Chi. Address L P 211, Tribune.

REAL ESTATE—FARM LANDS.

Illinois.

BANK SALE OF 102 ACS.—CLOSE RANGE of Lake Geneva; 9 rm. modern home, bath, electricity, furnace heat, cement walk, large porches, south front, abundance of shade and fruit, garage, milk house, poultry house, silo, barn, 40x70 stone wall; cement floors, individual drinking cups; new brick silo. Over 80 acres in crops; some virgin timber, 5 fine horses, 13 choice tested cattle with their milk base; 7 sheep, 11 lambs, chickens, ducks, all farm tools, feed and crops. The chance of a lifetime, $15,000 in cash balance easy terms. No trades. 910 Main-st., Antioch, Ill.

10 ACRE POULTRY AND TRUCK FARM—½ mile of town, school and churches, ½ mile from lake; good 5 room house, electricity, sewage and other buildings; shade and fruit, all under cultivation. Owned by nonresident and must be sold; $4,500; $1,500 cash, balance as rent. Phone Antioch 66, or write, Box 64, Antioch, Ill.

TRUCK FARM.

1 acre; good bldgs.; good black soil; water, elec., gas, phone; $250 cash handle. Also 5 acres at $220 per acre, will sell on easy terms. Address A G 72, Tribune.

80, ILL. 80 A. 1 MI DEPOT AND VILLage; 70 mi St. L.; good soil; 16 acres cleared; barn 36x60; plenty wtr.; $40 per acre; $1,000 cash, E Z terms on bal. Noble & Grubb, Atl. 4610. 444 W. 47th.

40 AC., $3,000; ½ CASH, BAL 2 YEARS; elec., gas, concrete hwy.; no bldgs.; 38 mi. N. W. Real bargain. Address B 107, Tribune.

80 A. WITH 18 A. OF WOODS; $200 PER ac., will sell separate. Peter Michalek, 115th and Bell-rd., Lemont, Ill.

5½ ACRES OF GOOD LAND FRONTING North-av., Route 641, 28 miles West; price $1,350, $200 cash. Ph. Central 1715.

BANK RECEIVER—SACRIFICING 3 TO 300 A. farms, 60 mi. west; terms; no trades. Send for list. Brooks, 4259 Division-st.

5½ ACRES, PALOS HILLS SECTION LINE. Only $1,875. Apt. 624, Fairfax 7400.

Indiana.

30 A., $1,800. ALSO 240 A., $6,000. CORner gravel road; 6 mi. Knox, Ind. F. J. Lassa, 4301 S. Whipple, or Lafayette 5811.

Michigan.

FOR SALE—40 ACRE FRUIT FARM; GOOD buildings, electric lights, 1,300 bearing fruit trees, peach, apple, pear and cherry; at W. Grand Rapids, city limits; best soil; price $10,000; also retiroad siding one block in length; ¼ block in width, 5 blocks from the Union depot. Joseph Renihan, American Bank Bldg., Grand Rapids, Mich.

5 ACS. WITH FRONTAGE ON BEAUT. St. Joe river. So Mich.; ideal summer or permanent home; poultry, fruit, etc.; good fishing, boating; close town; only $495. Easy terms. Owner, Three Rivers, Mich.

13 ACS. NR. TOWN—ON U. S. 12; OVERlooks small lake; rich land; buildings; $2,000; part cash. Rorabier, 140 S. Dearborn.

120 ACS. 4 MI. TOWN—HSE., BARN, TIMber; $1,475; $100 cash, $15 mo. EVANS-TINNEY CO., FREMONT, MICH.

82 A., LAKE FR., 10 R. HSE.; ELEC., TIM.; barg., $40 ac.; tms. Nixon, Cassopolis, Mich.

Wisconsin.

800 LINE LAND GRANT. LANDS IN UPper Wisconsin. Free information. Ask for Booklet 22. Homeseekers' Service, address H. S. PUNSTON, Land Dept., Soo Line Ry., Minneapolis, Minn.

A NEW COLONY, BEST AND CHEAPEST land for families already there. Join now. Model farm accommodations free. Excursion fares. Moving pictures Thursday evenings. Lonquist, 40 N. Dearborn.

160 A. FARM, DAIRY; ON HIWAY, nr. schl.; fruit trees; $1,950. Hem. 3601.

336 ACRES—R. 12; A1 DAIRY; BEST CASH offer. L. I. Price, Genoa City, Wis.

Miscellaneous.

Life Insurance Co's Farms.

In Ill. and S. E. Missouri, from 40 to 600 A. with bldgs., $25 an acre and up; nr. cities, schools, churches; soil excellent; good markets and trans.; ¼ cash, balance 20 yrs. Will accept Liberty bonds at par. Write for booklet of 146 farms. Also down payment. Central Farm Sales Corp., 7660 W. Division, Chicago.

REAL ESTATE WANTED.

Apartment Buildings.

PRI. PARTY WILL PAY CASH FOR EQUities in 6 flats, 2 apts. or 6 to 8 rm. flats; will finance mtgs., most of which can be bought for 50% disc. or less; no commission. Address box 75, Congress Hotel, Chicago.

Business Property.

HAVE CUSTOMERS WITH CASH FOR ONE or more business properties. FRANKENSTEIN & CO., 33 N. LA SALLE.

Miscellaneous.

HOTEL OR KITNT. BLDG. FROM OWNER; will lease and put up cash security; prefer N. Side; will buy equity for cash if bargain. Address L Z 408, Tribune.

REAL ESTATE FOR EXCHANGE.

Apartment Buildings.

WILL TRADE 2 FLAT FOR 1-3 VACANT lots in city. Sheldrake 7898.

Houses.

BARGAIN IN OAK PARK HOME—OWNER leaving city; may accept lot and some cash for equity. Small mtge. Address A H 250, Tribune.

COMPLETELY FURNISHED 10 RM. RESIdence, Lake Delavan; elec., water, gas; want apts. Filer, 2847 N. Clark-st. Lak.4040

Farms and Acres.

120 AC.—40 MI. N. W.; CLEAR; RENTED; want clear bldg. lot; borrow $7,500 cash; liberal deal here. Address B 260, Tribune.

Vacant.

CLEAR LOT AND R. E. GOLD BONDS; what have you? Wm. Ohlsanow, Nev. 1460.

OWN $15,000 CLR. VAC.; WANT APT. bldg. Gardner, 2034 Flournoy, Seel. 0008.

Miscellaneous.

WANTED—YOUR EQUITY IN BLDG. OR vacant in exchange for city lot or small acre tract with or without house. Address M A 551, Tribune.

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

First Mortgage.

OWNER WILL GIVE HALF INTEREST IN $250,000 56 flat bldg., 4-5 rms., 4 stores, to party investing $20,000 o remodel into 215 flats, kitchenettes. Wonderful World's Fair location, by the lake. Mtge due $65,000. Address A K 57, Tribune.

WANTED—$25,000 LOAN FOR IMMEDIATE building construction, on clear income property worth twice amount; responsible borrower will sign first mortgage personally. Address L X 543, Tribune.

1ST MTG. WANTED—WILL PAY 7% INterest and good commission for a $5,000 1st mtge. on a $40,000 improved property. Phone Rockwell 4320 or Cicero 2655.

WANT $2,000 ON 2 FLAT FRAME 6% INterest. 1653 Cornelia-av. Buc. 9545.

I NEED MORE ON 1ST MTGE. $8,500; prov. val. $65,000. Call Laf. 5107.

COLLATERAL LOANS ON 1ST MTGS. General Acceptance Co., 139 N. Clark-st

Junior Mortgage.

2D MORTGAGE LOANS
TRUSTEES SYSTEM
SERVICE.
TRUSTEES SYSTEM BLDG., N. E. CORNER WELLS AND LAKE-STS.....ANDover 2121.
4180 Sheridan-rd.....LONgbeach 4000.
5840 W. MADISON-ST.....KEDzie 2222.
754 W. 63D-ST.....Englewood 1230.

MORTGAGES.

Why Discount Your Mtg.?

We buy 1st mtgs. on single residences, owner occupied, not in default; principal $2,000 to $4,000. 175 W. JACKSON-BLVD.

FOR SALE—INDIVID. 1ST MORTGAGES, $1,000, $1,200, $1,500, for careful investors; fully secured at today's appraisal. E. C. Klipper, Rm. 506, 163 W. Washington-st.

$3,500 1ST WAS $4,500; DUE 12 MOS.; 10% discount cash. Address B 267, Tribune.

1ST MTGS. BOUGHT—SUBST. DISCOUNT General Acceptance Co., 139 N. Clark-st.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

WE BUY AND SELL TAX WARR. & R. E. BONDS FOR CASH. R. C. MITCHELL, 111 W. WASHINGTON. STATE 7410.

WILL BUY AT 26 1ST MORTGAGE REAL estate bond of 208 S. La Salle Bldg. Corporation. Address B 313, Tribune.

WE BUY REAL ESTATE BONDS.—LOUIS SIEBE & CO., 134 N. La Salle-st.

WE BUY OR LOAN ON R. E. BONDS, TAX warrants. Suite 712, 134 N. La Salle-st.

FINANCIAL.

WANTED—TAX WARRANTS OF SMALL denomination Rm. 1746 Pittsfield Bldg.

BUILDING MATERIALS.

Lumber.

YOU WILL POSITIVELY SAVE MONEY ON lumber, millwork, roofing, wallboard, etc. $500-15 Belmont-av. Independence 4800.

LOANS.

Personal, Property, and Salary.

Why pay more than Household's low rate?

The nationally known HOUSEHOLD LOAN PLAN offers cash loans of $300 or less to husbands and wives at reasonable rates.

Loans above $100 and up to $300 are made at a rate less than the usual small loan rate.

If you are working and keeping house you have all the security needed for a Household loan.

Quick service. Strictly confidential. Husband and wife only need sign. No endorsers. 20 months to repay.

LOOP:
77 W. Washington, 10th floor. State 0151.
105 W. Monroe, 5th floor. State 1777.
105 W. Madison 14th floor. Franklin 0880.

ROGERS PARK:
1737 Howard-st., 2d floor. Rog. Pk. 8320.

WEST:
4010 W. Madison-st., 4th floor. Kedzie 0704.
9 S. Kedzie-av., 3d floor. Van Buren 0100.

CICERO-BERWYN:
6012½ W. 22d-st., 2d floor. Cicero 6400.
OAK PARK:
1140 Lake-st., 3d floor. Euclid 803.

NORTHWEST:
2800 Milwaukee-av., 4th floor. Canitol 3440.
4710 Irving Park, 2d floor. Pensacola 4570.

NORTH:
1951 Irving Park, 2d floor. Buckingham 1008.
4733 Broadway, 11th floor. Lonzbeach 7183.

SOUTH:
736 E. 63d-st., 2d floor. Fairfax 2839.
841 E. 63d-st., 4th floor. Plaza 8300.
6856 S. Halsted-st., 2d floor. Englewood 5334.

SOUTHWEST:
6255 S. Ashland-av., 2d floor. Hemlock 4510.
3355 W. 63d-st., 2d floor. Republic 4472.

SOUTH CHICAGO
9130 Commercial, 2d floor. So. Chicago 0163.
ROSELAND:
11106 S. Michigan, 2d fl. Commodore 3880.

HOUSEHOLD
Finance Corporation
Lowest Rate In Chicago!

COMMONWEALTH'S RATE is the lowest in Chicago on loans above $100 and up to $300

The personal property which nearly every family owns and the signatures of husband and wife enable one to secure any amount up to $300 quickly and easily

Take 25 months to repay or if you pay in less time you are charged only for the time you keep the money. This allows you to control the cost yourself.

Also Salary and Auto Loans.

AN OFFICE IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

COMMONWEALTH—LOOP, Wabash 8225
209 S. State-st., Room 600 Republic Blor

COMMONWEALTH—NORTH,
4803 Lincoln-av., Rm 215 Longbeach 3456

COMMONWEALTH—ROGERS PARK,
1791 Howard-st., Rm 212, Rog. Pk 0784

COMMONWEALTH—NORTHWEST,
4013 Milwaukee-av., Rm 307, Avenue 0443

COMMONWEALTH—WEST,
9 S. Kedzie-av., Rm. 222, Kedzie 1437.

COMMONWEALTH—OAK PARK,
137 Marion-st., Rm. 200 Village 6886

COMMONWEALTH—SOUTH,
6300 Cottage Grove, R 305, Hyde Pk. 0004

COMMONWEALTH—SOUTHWEST,
6314 S Western-av., R 201, Prospect 3130

COMMONWEALTH—OAK PARK,
11112 S. Michigan, Rm. 220, Pullman 6618

Commonwealth Loan Co.
BUSINESS ESTABLISHED 1887.

Personal Finance Co.
says
You
Can Do It, Too!

You can solve your family financial problems with a "PERSONAL" LOAN

Our service is prompt and confidential. The cost is low.

OUR SMALL MONTHLY PAYMENTS are unusually attractive for present day incomes.

PHONE—WRITE—OR VISIT the nearest PERSONAL office

NORTH—PERSONAL.
4554 Broadway, 2d fl. LONgbeach 4082
4770 Lincoln-av., 2d fl. LONgbeach 0357-8

NORTHWEST—PERSONAL.
3982 Milwaukee-av., 2d fl. PALisade 0989

WEST—PERSONAL.
4010 W. Madison-st., 2d fl. NEVada 2134

SOUTH—PERSONAL.
757 W. 79th-st., 2d fl. RADcliffe 8230
841 E. 63d-st., 3d fl. HYDe Park 1472.

SOUTHWEST—PERSONAL.
2403 W. 63d-st., 2d fl. REPublic 7229.

OAK PARK—PERSONAL.
1040 North-blvd., 2d fl. VILlage 6840.

CICERO-BERWYN—PERSONAL.
5623 W. 22d-st., 2d fl. CICero 8202

EVANSTON—PERSONAL.
708 Church-st., 2d fl. GREenleaf 6081.

Personal Finance Co.

GET THE MONEY
You Need Here
$25 to $300
Salary or Furniture Loans.

Over half our business comes through recommendations from our old customers who are pleased with our quick, confidential, low rates.

You too, will be delighted with our easy repayment plan and every detail in this dignified transaction.

Our FRIENDLY SERVICE has been popular for the past 43 years.
CALL, WRITE OR PHONE
C. C. ERD
7 S. DEARBORN-ST. ROOM 916.
PHONE CENTRAL 4733-34.

If YOU need money NOW—
QUICK SERVICE
CONFIDENTIAL LOANS.
$25 to $300
on salary or furniture
EASY REPAYMENT.
LEGAL INTEREST RATE.
UNDER STATE SUPERVISION.
ESTABLISHED 30 YEARS.
T. B. WARD
8 S. DEARBORN, RM. 612. Rand. 2060.

Loans to Every One
$50 TO $300
on Salary, Furniture, Listed Stocks, etc. There are a thousand reasons why loans are made. We know the good our loans do and we want to help every one who comes to us.
We specialize in public high grade, bankline service, giving you all the advantage of a broad and liberal policy together with refined confidential and considerate treatment.
Interest charged only for the actual time you keep our money
L. T. BAKER & CO.
30 W. Washington. Suite 1407
Phone Randolph 0038.

NEED MONEY?
For "PERSONAL" Loans.
See BACK COVER of the NEW Chicago TELEPHONE BOOK.

BUSINESS LOANS
up to $10,000 on the equipment of factories, restaurants, laundries, hotels rooming houses, etc. Easy time payments.
Also loans on accounts receivable
F. BOLAND, 215 W Randolph. Frank. 1986

SALARY OR FURNITURE LOANS
$10 TO $300
IMPERIAL CREDIT CO.
SOUTH SIDE OFFICE:
6317 S. Halsted-st. 2d Floor.
ENGLEWOOD 0198.

LOANS.

Personal, Property, and Salary.

How Is This for Service?
SALARY LOANS
On Your Signature Only

NO EXTRA CHARGE for the Extra Service. No delay—no endorsers and no mortgages. You get the full amount of your loan—$25 to $300—ON YOUR SIGNATURE.

TERMS TO SUIT. Repay any day, week or month and pay ONLY for the actual time you have the loan.

PHONE AND LEARN—You will be delighted with LOCAL'S simple, liberal methods.

LOCAL IS THE ONLY large company specializing in SALARY LOANS. Furniture, Auto, and Co-Maker loans made when requested.

LOCAL LOAN CO.
UNDER STATE SUPERVISION.
27 W. WASHINGTON. RANDOLPH 8400
821 W. 63D-ST. ENGLEWOOD 7800
1212 N. ASHLAND. BRUNSWICK 8100
4013 MILWAUKEE. AVENUE 1400
1 N. CRAWFORD. KEDZIE 6900
8 N. OGDEN-AV. HAYMARKET 4700

Household and Salary Loans
$50 TO $300
CHICAGO FINANCE COMPANY.
11 S. La Salle-st., Rm. 1301. Central 1060

HOME FURNISHINGS.

(See Also Household Appliances.)

South Side.

RUGS—ACCUM. OF UNCL. FROM SHELVES and strg.; sell for chgs.; $8.50 up. Kiever Steamboy, 4633 Cottage Gr. Open eves. Tues., Thu., Sat.

UNCLAIMED STORAGE—TO BE SOLD FOR balance due. Open eves. and Sunday. DUNN BROS., STOR., 6716 Cottage Grove.

UNCLAIMED STORAGE SALE — 4 ROOMS comp., $99.50; only $15 cash; your own terms. Kessel Bros., 4312 Cottage Grove-av.

LIV. RM., DIN., BEDRM., SETS, LOVE SET, rugs, scrd.; reas. 8011 S. May. Vin. 1846.

SELLING OUT 75 STORAGE LOTS—ATLAS, 6140 Cottage Grove. Open eve., Sunday.

SLAUGHTER 8 R. FUR., LVG. CIT.; NO reas. offer refused. Budd, 6450 Kenwood.

LGE. MASSIVE 10 PC. DNG. RM. SET. Cost $2,000, will sacr. $222 S. Green.

North Side.

RUGS—UNCLAIMED!

Large assort 9x12 rugs low as.....$ 7.50
$45 heavy Axminster (new), 9x12.....$16.50
Imperial Rug Cleaners, 2123-33 Lincoln-av. Open dailyr Tues., Thurs., Sat. 9 to 5.

2 PC. PARL. SET, $35; COST $200; 9X12 orien. and sm. rugs, 9x12 Amer. rep. $15; 2 bedrm. sets, din. set, etc.; nr. L. Loyola Studio, O'Carr, 6347 Kenmore-av. Shel. 7074.

BRAND NEW FURN. MART. SAMPLES TO be closed out; 9 pc. bedrm., 7 pc. dining rm., odd chrs., sofas. 201 E. Ohio, 2d.

SACRIFICE FOR CASH—$50,000 NEW furn., part. bed., din., $29; rugs, $10. Remer Co., 5822 N. Western. Op. eve. & Sun. 5.

BANKRUPT SHOW ROOM PARL. BEDR. d'ble sets, $35; rugs, chairs, brkfst. set, $9; other bargs. Open eves., Sun. 6542 N. Clark. 4 RMS., COMPLETE. SAC. 6008 N. Ashland.

West Side.

6 RMS. ALMOST NEW FURN.—3 PC. PARlor suite, 3 pc. bedrm., 7 pc. din. rm., Hamilton piano, sectional bookcase, desk and chair, breakfast set, foldaway bed, modern gas range, rugs, etc. Will sac. 1050 N. Menard-ave., 2d floor. Austin 4382.

SACR. NEW FURN. PARL., BEDRM., DINrm sets $39; brkfst. sets, $10; rugs, odd tables, chairs. Tuft, 4444 Madison. Op. eves.

HOME FURNISHINGS WANTED.

ATLANTIC 2290.
PHILPUTT'S BUYERS MEAN MONEY TO YOU. Use us first as FIRST, or as near as your phone. ARTHUR K PHILPOTT.

KEDZIE 1300.
Best cash prices for used furn., rugs, stoves, elec. radios. Homan Furn. Prompt service.

CALL CRAWFORD 3850 FOR HIGHER cash prices on your furn., rugs and elec. radio; prompt service. Snaulding Furniture Co.

CALL NEVADA 1150 — HIGHEST CASH prices paid for used furn. rugs, stoves, elec. radios; prompt service. Acme Furn

HOUSEHOLD APPLIANCES.

RENT A WASHER OR IRONER.
CHARMER-SUTHERLAND CO., 1401.

HOOVER VACUUM CLEANER $15. With all attach.; perf. cond. Enc. 7610.

VAC. CLEANER—NEW, WITH ATTACH. cost $69.50; quick sale, $20. Alb. 7542.

Electrical Refrigeration.

FACTORY CLOSING OUT ELEC. REFRIGS. Natl. known; taken back from closed agcy. for bal. due; value $159 for $67.50. Guar. Terms. 2450 S. Michigan. Open eves.

ELEC. REFRIGS., REPOSSESSED, FOR BAL. ance due; values to $175 for $69. Late models; perfect condition; fully guar. Terms. 173 N. Michigan, nr. Lake-st. Open eves.

14 REPOSSESSED ELEC. REFRIGS., ALL 1932, 1933 models; UNCONDITIONAL 5 YR. FACTORY GUARANTEE. Terms low as $1.90 wk. 1054 W. 35th. Laf. 3040. Op. eves.

NEW 1932 NAT. ADVERT. ELECTRIC REfrigerator, $50, $100 discount, 5 yr. guarantee terms. Dorfman's, 3 miles W. of Stony Island. Open eves. and Sunday.

$39.75 — ELEC. REFRIGERATOR — $39.75. Exceptional value in a rebuilt electric refrigerator. Weekly terms. 4047 S. Halsted.

ELEC. REFRIGERATORS REPOSSESSED for balance due. Frigidaire, Servel, Bohn, Zerozones. 506 S. Wabash, Suite 204.

CONTRACTORS AND HOME OWNERS—Have 8 Frig. and 17 Kelv. wheels we will sell at drastic reductions. 220 W. Huron-st

BUS TRANSPORTATION.

SPECIAL EXCURSION RATES—DETROIT $2.50; TOLEDO, $3.75; CLEVELAND, $5. Buffalo, $8.50; Pittsburgh, $7.50; Phila., $13. N. Y., $13; Boston, $16.50; St. Louis, $3. Kas. City, $6.50; Des Moines, $5; Omaha, $7. Denver, $15; Salt Lake, $25; Portld., $30.50. Seattle, $30.50; San F., $35; Los A., $30.50. El Paso, $26.50; Dallas, $17; Tulsa, $10. Minneapolis, $6.25. Bonded and insured buses. 31 E. 12th-st. Calumet 4990.

BUSES EVERYWHERE.
RAILROAD PROTECTION.
Union Pacific-Chgo. North Western Stages. 315 S. Dearborn-st. HARRISON 0100.

Low Excursion Everywhere.
LOOP BUS-AIR DEPOT.
19 N. Clark-st. Randolph 8855.

SOUTHERN LIMITED.
SHORTEST ROUTE SOUTH.
DAILY CALUMET 0220.

NEW YORK, $12; DETROIT, $2.50; CLEVELand, $5; St. Louis, $3; Kansas City, $6.50; Des Moines, $5; Omaha, $7; Denver, $15; Pitts., $7.50. 37 W Van Buren. Web. 1703.

RADIOS AND SUPPLIES.

D. C. OR A. C. CHASS., $9; $500 VICTOR comb. cons., $24; public addressing system; television, $29; Zenith cons., $17; Jensen spkrs., $2. Wells-Smith Co., 24 N. Wells.

AUTO RADIO, SILVER MARSHALL, $24.75 complete; Silver Marshall Lowboy, 10 tubes, $29.75. 601 W. Washington. Hay.8027

7 TUBE SCREEN GRID HOWARD RADIO, exchanged, $59.50 complete with tubes. Lyon & Healy Barg. Basement, 243 S. Wabash.

$6.95.....PENTODE MIDGET.....$6.95
Ronwyn Radio Stores, 3152 N. Ashland-av. 1413 S. Michigan-av. 1729 W. Chicago-av.

Service Repairs, Etc.

$1.....ANCEL RADIO SERVICE.....$1
Capitol 0168—South and West.
Albany 9301—North and Northwest.

DOGS, BIRDS, POULTRY, ETC.

Dogs.

Ann's Kennel, Waukegan-rd.
½ mi. N. of Dempster-st. Morton Gr. 1693.
White spitz, $4 up; Wires, shows, $10 up. Fox, bull, shepherd $3; Pekes, Boston, $10 up. St. Bernards, $12. Dogs boarded and clipped. Dogs guar. 15 days. Ren'age or refund.

PUPPIES AND DOGS — ALL BREEDS. 5631 S. Ashland. Grovehill 2241.

USED AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

Golden Rule Finance Company
5 DAY DRIVING TRIAL.
Open Evenings and Sunday.

1930 Whippet sedan	$125
1929 Auburn 8 sedan	$150
1930 Essex coach	$150
1930 Ford tudor sedan	$195
1930 Chevrolet sedan	$195
1929 Essex Victory sedan	$195
1929 Hudson sedan	$195
1929 Graham-Paige Sedan	$195
1931 Ford tudor sedan	$245
1931 Plymouth sedan	$245
1930 Nash roadster	$250
1929 Oakland spec. cpe., w. w. & m.	$250
1929 Buick business coupe	$295
1928 La Salle conv. coupe	$295
1931 Essex dem. sedan	$295
1930 Oakland sport sedan	$295
1930 Studebaker sedan	$295
1931 Studebaker coupe	$350
For Sale sedan	$350
1931 Nash six sedan	$365
1930 Dodge senior 6 cust. sed	$450
1931 Dodge six sedan	$450
1930 Buick 61 sedan	$550
1931 Hudson sed., free wheeling	$575
1931 Nash 8 sedan	$595
1932 Nash 8 cust. sed., used, W.W., 4 m.	$650
1931 Hupmobile cust. sed., w. w.	$695
1931 Reo royal sedan	$695
1931 Pierce-Arrow sedan	$975
1932 Auburn 12 sedan, used	$995

6935-6937—7001
STONY ISLAND
DORCHESTER 1415.

AUBURN—LATEST '31 CONVERT. DE L. Coupe; 6 w. w.; fend. wells; prac. new; equip. Barg. $695. 90 day warranty. 7 day driv. trial. Terms. 12 to 24 months.
4635-37 W. Madison-st.

AUBURN—LATEST 1930 LIGHT 8 4 DOOR sedan; fully equipped; guaranteed; $295; terms. 2810 MADISON.

AUBURN—8 CONVERT. SEDAN, 1931, 6 wire wheels, de luxe equipment, $695. Gambill Motor Co., 2530 S. Michigan-ave.

AUBURN—LT. 8 SEDAN, 1930; MOTOR fine cond.; $265; quick sale. Dal. 1668.

BUICK, 1929.
Here is your chance to get a real comfortable 5 pass. Master 6 Sedan at a real bargain. Black color, finish. Just like new and guaranteed. $395.
NORTHWEST BUICK CO.
3801 LAWRENCE-AV.

BUICK, 1930.
A beautiful 5 pass. sedan that looks just like new and has hot water heater, Lorraine light, nonslipper 4-ply tires, etc. $495.
NORTHWEST BUICK CO.
3801 LAWRENCE-AV.

BUICK—USED '32 5 PASS. VICTORIA CPE., 6 wire whls., fend. wells; oriz. cost $1,- 970; 30 days old; reposs.; sac. for $895. Your car as down pay.; bal. 12-24 mos.; 7 day driving trial. G. M. S. Finance Co.
4635 Washington-blvd.

BUICK—'32 MOD. 57 DE LUXE SEDAN. Used; 6 w. w., fend. wells, Pract. new. Fully equipped $1,200. 90 day warranty, 7 day driving trial. Terms, 12 to 24 months.
4635-37 W. Madison-st.

BUICK—LATE 1931 MODEL 8-90 7 PASS. custom sedan; 6 wire whls., fender wells, chrome tire covers; cost $2,400; like new; repos.; sacr. for $995; your car as down payment, balance to suit. Guaranteed.
Universal Motor Co., 3397 Milwaukee-av.

BUICK—1929 DE LUXE SPORT ROADSTER. Beautiful Maroon with 6 w. w. side mts., rumble seat, etc. Has 6 brand new tires and motor is perfect. Specially priced. LINCOLN-WAY MOTORS, 656 Madison, Oak Park.

BUICK—1929 DE LUXE BROUGHAM; 6 W. wheels, side mounts, heater, spotlight, etc. Spec. for quick sale at $450. LINCOLN PARK MOTOR SALES, Austin 4382.

BUICK—1928 4 DOOR SEDAN; A1 CONDItion; $225; guaranteed; terms. ALWAYS OPEN. 2310 MADISON.

BUICK—LATE '31 7 PASS. DE LUXE SEDan; 6 wire whls., fender wells; $995; like new. 1801 W. 63D-ST. Wood.

BUICK—1926 MASTER SEDAN. $295.
James Levy Motor Co., 23d and Michigan.

CADILLAC—LATE '31 V-12 SED., FLEETwood; has de luxe; 6 w. whls., side mts., radio, chrome tire covers; cost over $4,800; reposs.; sac. for $1,975; your car as dn. pay.; 24 mos.; 7 day dr. trial. G. N. C. FINANCE AT CRAWFORD-AV.
3939 Washington-blvd.

CADILLAC—'31 V-8 4 DR. 5 PASS. DE L. Sedan; 6 wire whls., fend. wells, chrome tire covers, radio; positively like new; orig. cost $3,175; reposs.; sacr. for $1,385; your car as down payment; bal. 12-24 mos.; 7 day dr. trial. G. M. S. Finance Co.
4635 Washington-blvd.

Cadillac Buyers, Attention!
1929 Cadillac Fleetwood body De Luxe Sedan. Cost new $5,000; 6 tires and w. w.; side mts. Finish and nickel like new; radio; heater; alarm, etc. $2200 worth of extra equipment. Motor Car Finance Co., 2411 S. Michigan-av. Calumet 7272.

Cadillac '29 Spt. Cpe., $685.
Cadillac '29 Town Sed., $685.
Both over 320,000 serial numbers.
Snaulding Bonding Co. 6107 N. Clark.

CADILLAC—'31 AND V-8 TOWN SEDANS, SP. SEDANS AND CONV. TIELES. REAL '31s, ALMOST NEW. PRICED TO SELL QUICK. LOW AS $1,650. WARRANTED. CALL EV. 8-1-2. ELLINGTON 7805.

CADILLAC—'29, 7 P. SED.; FLEETWOOD body; mech. A1; $695. Also 5 pass. sport sedan; 6 w. w.; side mts.; $265. Name your terms, down pay., bal. 18 months. A. C. Finance Co., 2022 N. California-av.

CADILLAC—LATE '29 FLEETWOOD LIMO. 6 w. w., 8 mts. Almost new. Cost $4,900. Our price, $875. Trms., trd. 2027 Madison.

CADILLAC—1928; MUST BE SOLD ON account of bus. depression; pri. owner; 100% perfect; 7 pass. sedan. 6523 S. Halsted.

CADILLAC—1927 SEDAN, $195; PERFECT condition. Trade. Garage, 4440 W. Madison.

CHEVROLET 1930
4 Door Sedan,
$245
2508 Milwaukee-av.

CHEVROLET—CHEVROLET
12 to choose from, consisting of '30 and '31 sedans, coaches, coupes, standard and de luxe models. Price range from $150 up. All cars guaranteed 90 days. Terms, trade. ALWAYS OPEN. 2310 W. MADISON-ST.

CHEVROLET 1929 SEDAN.
Tires appear., mech. cond. very good. $195.
3160 MILWAUKEE-AV.

CHEVROLET, 1932,
5 window coupe; used very little; ideal salesman's car at big saving. Hurry! C. Maley, 30 W. Lake-st., at Dearborn.

CHEVROLET—4-DR. SEDAN, LATE 1928; 1 mast and motor perfect; a wonderful buy, $145; terms, trade. 9220 S. Ashland-av.

CHEVROLET—'31 SED.; NICE CLEAN CAR; sacr. for $335; $20 down, bal. 18 mos. Finance Co., 2022 N. California.

CHEVROLET—'31 COUPE, EXC. COND. reasonable. 6245 S. Wood. Republic 5854.

CHEVROLET—'32 USED SPORT COUPE; perf. cond. Longbeach 4727. Apt. 714.

CHEV.—1927 CPE.; DANDY COND.; NEED money; $40 cash; priv. Stew. 3302.

CHRYSLER—USED '32 DE LUXE 8 4 DR. 8 pass Sedan; 8 wire whls., fend. wells, chrome tire covers. Orig. cost $1,887. Reposs 30 days ago. Sacr. for $985. Your car as dn. payment. Bal. 12 to 24 mos. 90 day guar. 7 day dr. trial. G. M. S. Finance.
4635 Washington-blvd.

CHRYSLER — 1931 IMPERIAL 8 CLOSE coupled de luxe Sedan; 6 wire wheels, side mounts, radio, w. heater, 2 Lorraine lights, etc. $1,395; cost $3,300; guar. by CHRYSLER DEALER, 3236 Jackson-blvd.

CHRYSLER—LATEST 1930, MODEL 77, Crown sedan; speeds forward; fully equipped; guar.; $395; terms. 2810 Madison.

CHRYSLER—'30 SEDAN; BEAU. MAROON sacr. for $350; $30 dn., bal. 18 months. Finance Co., 2022 N. California. Open eves.

CHRYSLER—'28 SEDAN, $90; RUNS GOOD. C. Maley, 30 W. Lake-st.

CHRYSLER—IMPER. '30; BEAU. BLUE convert. cab., '28; sac. for $475. Col. 6745.

CORD—'31 SED., WHITE WALL TIRES, heater, 2 spotlights, trunk, many extras; can't be told from new; cost $3,250; sell for $975. Finance Co. reposs. 2433 S. Michigan.

USED AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

Fords—500—Chevrolets
500 GUARANTEED CARS REDUCED 40%
$30 CASH, BAL. EASY. No Indorsers.
'28-'31 Coupes, Sedans, Roadsters, $70 up.
'27-'28 Coupes, Sedans, Roadsters, $25 up.
'32 State License Furnished.
Your car as down payment. Always open.
Levy Auto and Finance Co.,
724 Milwaukee, Cor. Carpen'r

CORD—'31 CONVERT. PHAETON SEDAN; nearly new; radio, side mts.; most beautiful Cord in city; cost $3,600; reposs.; sacr. for $895; your car as down payment; bal. 12-24 mos.; 7 day dr. trial; 90 day guar. G. N. C. FINANCE AT CRAWFORD-AV.
3939 Washington-blvd.

CORD SEDAN 1931.
Driven just a short time with excellent care; presents the appearance of a new car; has 6 wire wheels, side mountings, new tires, Burhank tire covers, etc.; mechanically absolutely perfect; for quick sale, $1,150. Babcock Gurney Co., 2330 S. Michigan-av.

CORD — 1931. DUE TO ILL HEALTH AND depression must sacrifice at once; like new; less than 9,000 miles; would consider a business at which middle age couple or man could make a living. Call Shepherd, Plaza 4800.

DE SOTO—S, USED, '32, DE LUXE, 5 pass., 4 tr. sedan; free wheeling; hot water heater; looks like new; oriz. cost $1,285; sac. for $585. Your car as down payment; bal. 12 to 24 months; 7 day driving trial; 90 day guar. G. M. S. Finance Co. Alw. open
4635 Washington-blvd.

DE SOTO—1932 4 DR. USED SEDAN; SAME as new car being sold today; second series; floating power; new style front; we have it at a substantial savings; terms.
BIRD-YERKES, 3201 Michigan-av. Cal. 1080.

DODGE—'32 8 R. 8 COUPE, 7,500 MI.; perf. cond.; $700. Terms. Regent 3229.

ESSEX—1929 COACH, CAREFULLY REbuilt. New paint, new tires, new battery. Your car or $85 dn. Bal. E-Z. 2457 Mich.

FORDS—50—FORDS
$10 Down, $20 Month.
Your old car for down payment.
25 late 1931's, all models.....$265 up
15 late 1930's, all models.....185 up
10 late 1929's, all models.....65 up
Every car guaranteed for 90 days.
LITSINGER, 925 W. Jackson. Alw. open.
OVER 35,000 SATISFIED OWNERS.

Fords-Tax and License Free.
1932 V-8 Cpe. Used little.....$125 dn
1931 Vict. Coupe, sidemts., trunk.....$31
1931 Spt. Cpe., rumble seat, extras.....$235
1931 Tudor, $245 1930 Tudor, $185
Terms. M. J. Kelly, 4445 W. Madison.

Fords-'32

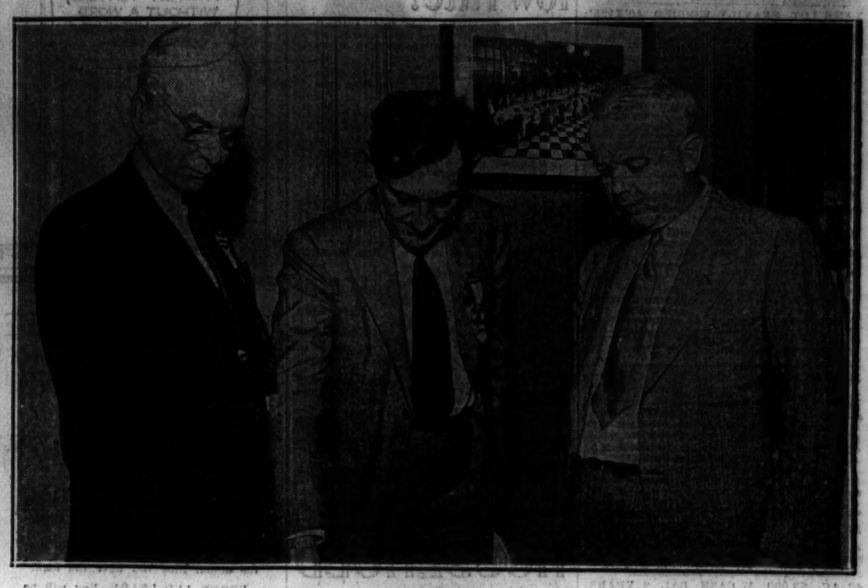
Chicago Daily Tribune.
THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1932.

Foes of Roosevelt Unite on Ritchie After New York Governor Wins on First Test Votes in Convention

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

ELECTION AS PERMANENT CHAIRMAN VICTORY FOR ROOSEVELT. Senator Thomas J. Walsh presiding over the Democratic national convention after he had defeated Jouett Shouse by a vote of 626 to 528. The vote was considered as a test of the strength of the New York governor as a presidential candidate. (Story on page 1.)

SEVENTH PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE HERE. Gov. George White of Ohio (left), who arrived yesterday, with John W. Davis, the 1924 nominee, on speaker's stand. Other candidates in Chicago are Ritchie, Smith, Reed, Murray, Byrd, and Traylor, the last named being a Chicagoan.



[TRIBUNE Photo.]

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE AGAIN DELAYS ACTION ON PROHIBITION PLANK. Left to right: W. C. Fitts of Alabama, Philip Hornbein of Colorado, and Michael L. Igoe of Illinois, members of committee, consult before going to meeting which adjourned at 11 o'clock until 10 o'clock this morning. (Story on page 1.)

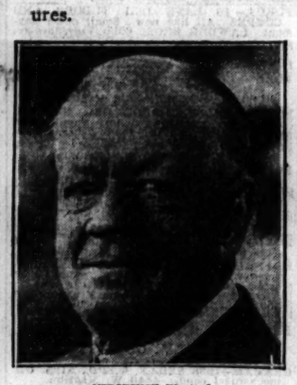
PRESENT AND FORMER MAYORS OF CHICAGO AT THE CONVENTION. Left to right: Carter H. Harrison, Mayor A. J. Cermak, and Edward F. Dunne. Seated in the front row of the Illinois delegation, near the speaker's platform, they are conspicuous figures. [TRIBUNE Photo.] (Story on page 1.)

DISCUSSING FARM AID PLANK IN PLATFORM. Senator Cordell Hull of Tennessee (left) talking with Gray Silver, West Virginia delegate and spokesman of farm organizations, outside committee on resolutions. [TRIBUNE Photo.] (Story on page 1.)

MASSACHUSETTS LEADERS IN LIMELIGHT. Senator David I. Walsh (left), who is author of dripping wet platform plank, and Gov. Joseph B. Ely, who will make nominating speech for Alfred E. Smith, standing beside state standard. [TRIBUNE Photo.] (Story on page 1.)

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

LOSER LEAVING. Jouett Shouse retiring from convention after being beaten for permanent chairman.



[TRIBUNE Photo.]

SCOUTS FOR G. O. P. Frank Hitchcock, former chairman Republican national committee, at convention.

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

THE LOUISIANA KINGFISH COURTS DELEGATES FROM NORTH CAROLINA. Senator Huey Long, whose fate was at stake in convention, talking to John L. Miller, B. S. Graves, and C. H. Robertson. The convention voted to seat the Long delegates from Louisiana, who are for Roosevelt. (Story on page 1.)

TO MAKE REPORT. Gilbert M. Hitchcock, chairman resolutions committee, who will read platform today. (Story on page 1.)

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

ALFALFA BILL CONFERS WITH AN APPOINTEE. Gov. William H. Murray of Oklahoma talking with Mrs. George A. Waters, the warden of the boys' reformatory in his state. (Story on page 1.)

A CROSS-SECTION OF NEW YORK DELEGATION. (1) Alfred E. Smith, 1928 presidential candidate; (2) Mayor James J. Walker of New York City, and (3) Dudley Field Malone, lawyer and original Woodrow Wilson booster, with their fellow delegates. (Story on page 1.)

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

REFRESHMENTS. Senator Alben W. Barkley, temporary chairman, lunches at his post.

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

CROWDS CHEER MARYLAND GOVERNOR AS HE ARRIVES AT CONVENTION. Gov. Albert C. Ritchie (right) with Harry F. Byrd, former governor of Virginia, who also is a presidential candidate, and Senator Carter Glass of Virginia (center) on speaker's platform. (Story on page 1.)